BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal

For the Union: Shri S. Roy Chowdhury.

For the Company: Shri P. K. Ghosh, Advocate.

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Krishna Silicate and Glass Works Ltd., Jadavpur, Calcutta-32 (Head Office at 17 Radhabazar Street, Calcutta-1), and their workmen represented by the Krishna Silicate and Glass Works Mazdoor Union, 48 Dharamtalla Street, Calcutta-13, over the following issue, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4325-I.R./IR/11L-260(A)/61, dated the 8th July 1961.

Issue

1. Is the dismissal of Shri Harendra Chakraborty justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

Upon receipt of the order of reference on 17th July 1960, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statement.

AWARD

Thereafter the workmen represented by the Krishna Silicate and Glass Works Mazdoor Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union) filed the written statement on 22nd August 1961 duly signed and verified by Shrimati Gayatri Das Gupta described as the Secretary of the Union.

The case of the Union is that Shri Harendra Chakraborty who happened to be the Assistant Secretary of the Union was a permanent worker of this Company since 1952 and that the Company issued orders transferring him to the Bombay Factory on 1st November 1960, even though there was no such condition of service that a workman could be transferred from one State to another, and that there was sufficient work at Jadavpur Factory. Shri Chakraborty then wrote a letter to the Company on 5th November 1960 to consider amongst other matters his difficulties to go to Bombay and requested the Manager to withdraw the order of transfer. At the same time the Union took up the matter at the instance of Shri Chakraborty and wrote to the Labour Commissioner on 7th November 1960 soliciting intervention with respect to the matter of transfer wherein amongst other points it was alleged that the order of transfer had been issued with mala fide intention of weakening and crushing the Union of which Shri Chakraborty was the Assistant Secretary. Shri N. C. Kundu, the Assistant Labour Commissioner, who dealt with the dispute, as raised, at once intervened and asked the parties to maintain status quo pending conciliation. The said officer also called the parties at a joint conference fixed on 10th November 1960. The Company did not attend the conference and in violation of the directions to maintain status quo refused employment to Shri Chakraborty from 11th November 1960. Shri Chakraborty then wrote to the Company on 11th November 1960 requesting the management again to reconsider his case and allow him to resume his duties forthwith. The development of the matter was also brought to the notice of the Assistant Labour Commissioner by the Union in the letter, dated 12th November 1960. The Company thereafter wrote to Shri Chakraborty on 16th November 1960 with reference to his letter, dated 5th November 1960, asking him to join at Bombay Factory within 48 hours. On receipt of that letter Shri Chakraborty again wrote to the Manager of the Company praying for withdrawal of the order of transfer and permitting him to resume his duties at Jadavpur. At the same time the Union also wrote to Shri Kundu, Assistant Labour Commissioner, protesting against the action of the employer. The Company by their letter, dated 7th December 1960, informed the Assistant Labour Commissioner that the worker in question did not comply with the order of transfer and that he had accepted employment elsewhere and, therefore, the workman would stand dismissed. Shri Chakraborty informed the Manager, in writing, on 13th December 1960 that he had not accepted any employment elsewhere. In spite of that the Manager by the letter, dated 15th December 1960, dismissed him from service without giving him any hearing. It is contended by the Union that the entire action of the management was illegal, unjustified and mala fide.

Messrs. Krishna Silicate and Glass Works Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) filed the written statement on 4th November 1961. It is contended by the Company that this is an individual dispute and, therefore, the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to entertain the same. Regarding the merits of the case it is contended that the Company after consultation and agreement with the particular Trade Union as recognised by them transferred a large number of workmen to Bombay Section as per Standing Orders and further that the transfer of Shri Chakraborty was by way of promotion. Besides, it is contended that upon receipt of the letter from the Assistant Labour Commissioner the management expressed their views to the said officer in writing on 9th November 1960 but that they never sat in joint conference with the representatives of the Union before the Assistant Labour Commissioner. Further it is alleged that the workmen by accepting employment elsewhere had abandoned his services under this Company and thereafter the order of dismissal had been passed.

At the time of hearing from the side of the Union the dismissed workman, Shri Harendra Chakraborty, has been examined. On the other hand, the Company examined Shri S. R. Ghosh, Manager of the Jadavpur Factory of the Company. Besides, a large volume of documents including the correspondence that passed between Shri Chakraborty and the management and those between the management and the Union with the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Shri N. C. Kundu, are proved and marked as exhibits. I shall refer to the evidence, oral and documentary, as necessary in course of my adjudication. It is very necessary to go through the contents of these letters marked as exhibits, to have an idea about the development of the dispute and respective stand-points and activities taken by the parties.

There is no dispute on the point that Shri Chakraborty was a permanent workman employed at the Jadavpur Factory of the Company since 1952. He was drawing daily wages at Rs. 1-15 as an Airman. The Manager of the Company passed an order on 1st November 1960 transfering Shri Chakraborty and he was directed to join his duties at Bombay Factory within 10 days from the date of receiving the order of transfer. Exhibit 1 is the relevant order of transfer. Virtually he was given ten days' joining time. It appears from the contents of that order that the wages of Shri Chakraborty would get increased by Re. 1 daily by virtue of said transfer on promotion which would obviously take effect when he would join at Bombay. The workman received this order of transfer on 2nd November 1960 and he submitted a representation on 5th November 1960 stating his personal difficulties to go to Bombay and praying for withdrawal of the order of transfer. It was also stated that he was not, by the condition of service, liable to be transferred. It was further stated in the said representation of the workman that when there was enough work at the Jadavpur Factory and for that the employer could easily retain him in service there. The Union at the same time filed a petition to Shri Kundu, Assistant Labour Commissioner, on 7th November 1960 complaining that the order of transfer of Shri Chakraborty was illegal and against the service conditions of the workman and that the said order had been passed with the mala fide intention to crush the Union of which Shri Chakraborty was the Assistant Secretary [vide Ext. 1(L)]. The Assistant Labour Commissioner started the conciliation proceedings at once and wrote to the Company to maintain status quo pending conciliation enclosing along with the Union's letter, dated 7th November 1960, and further asked the employer to meet at a joint conference at his office on 10th November 1960 [vide Ext. 1(H)]. Shri Ghosh, the Manager of the Company, in his deposition stated that Shri Kundu, the Assistant Labour Commissioner, did not direct the employer to maintain status quo. But the evidence clearly reveals that the said Manager received the memo. Ext. 1(H), addressed by the Assistant Labour Commissioner and, as a matter of fact, he gave reply to the same on 9th November 1960, justifying the action [vide Ext. A(5)]. In spite of having received the letter from the Conciliation Officer to maintain status quo the management refused employment to Shri Chakraborty since 11th November 1960, and thus violated his direction. It however transpires from the evidence that Shri Chakraborty worked in this factory till 10th November 1960. It is also significant to note that the management informed Shri Chakraborty in reply to his letter, dated 5th November 1960, on 16th November 1960 that they have duly received the letter from the Labour Commissioner [vide Ext. 1(a)]. By that letter the management also informed Shri Chakraborty that if he failed to join at Bombay Factory within 48 hours, disciplinary action under the Standing Orders of the Company would be taken against him. There is no satisfactory explanation forthcoming from the management as to why the registered letter sent by Shri Chakraborty on 5th November 1960 had not been duly received when delivered by the postal peon and, as such, a reply had been given at such late stage. There is also nothing to explain why in spite of the definite direction from the Conciliation Officer to maintain status quo, the Company thought it proper to refuse employment to Shri Chakraborty and thereby cause a termination of service with effect from 11th November 1960. Be that as it is, Shri Chakraborty again wrote to the Company on 18th November 1960 on receipt of the letter, dated 16th November 1960, from the Company, requesting the management to take a sympathetic view and withdraw the order of transfer and permit him to join his duties [vide Ext. A(2)]. At the same time the Union wrote to the Conciliation Officer on 19th November 1960 pointing out that the Company had violated the direction to maintain status quo and refused employment to Shri Chakraborty from 11th November 1960 [vide Ext. 1(m)]. It may be noted that the Conciliation Officer in the meantime again called a joint conference between the parties by his letter, dated the 12th November 1960, and the date of joint conference was fixed on 25th November 1960 [vide Ext. 1(i)], in response to the letter from the Union, dated 12th November 1960 [vide Ext. 1(n)]. It appears from the evidence that the management did not attend the joint conference called by the Conciliation Officer to be held on 25th November 1960. But at the same time on 22nd November 1960 the Company wrote to the Conciliation Officer that in view of the fact that the Union was not recognised by them, they were unwilling to sit at a joint conference with the Union and would like to discuss the matter separately with the Conciliation Officer and that the transfer of Shri Chakraborty was fully justified for the same reason as mentioned in the previous letter, Ext. A(5) [vide Ext. A(6)]. Then on 7th December 1960 the Company wrote to the Conciliation Officer that they were reliably informed that Shri Chakraborty had got himself employed in some other company and that he had refused to comply with the lawful order of transfer and, therefore, they had no other alternative but to dismiss him from service as per Standing Orders of the Company [vide Ext. A(4)]. Shri Chakraborty thereafter informed the Manager by his letter, dated 14th December 1960, stating categorically that he had not taken any employment elsewhere and that he felt that the Company was anxious to dismiss him as he happened to be the Assistant Secretary of the Union [vide Ext. A(3)]. It may be noted that Shri Chakraborty forwarded a copy of this letter to the Conciliation Officer as well as to the Union. It is clear from the evidence that at every stage the workman Shri Chakraborty approached the employer to reconsider the order of transfer and the Union at the same time took steps through the office of the Labour Commissioner. The employer all the time took the stand that Shri Chakraborty must join at Bombay. The Conciliation Officer called joint conferences to be held on 10th November 1960, 25th November 1960 and 12th December 1960 [vide Exts. 1(h), 1(i) and 1(g)]. There is no doubt on the point that the Company did not attend any of the conferences as called. Then, on 15th December 1960, the Company passed the order of dismissal from which I note below the relevent portion:

> "It has been found that you have acted in flagrant violation of clause 13/Major misdemeanours, sub-clause (h) of the Standing Orders of the Company, as such you are liable to be dismissed from service and we hereby dismiss you from service with effect from the date of your joining the office at Bombay".

It can at once be said that the order of dismissal as contained in this letter, Ext. 1(c), is vague and indefinite in asmuch as it does not specify from which date the order of dismissal is to be effective as the workman concerned had never joined at the Bombay Office. There is no denying the fact that the management dismissed the workman without holding any departmental enquiry. It is contended by the learned lawyer for the Company that the Company had the right to transfer the workman from Jadavpur Factory to their Bombay Factory which started functioning from 1959 and the refusal on the part of the workman to report to duty at Bombay was a major misconduct in accordance with the Standing Orders and, therefore, it was useless in the face of such refusal by the workman concerned to comply with the orders up to 10th November 1960, to again hold a domestic enquiry and afford opportunities to the man for defence in such an enquiry. The clear case of the employer is that they dismissed Shri Chakraborty as he did not comply with the orders of transfer. It may be noted that there is no evidence to support any case that the workman concerned had taken any employment elsewhere and that he abandoned service here. At least it is not the case of the employer that they dismissed Shri Chakraborty because he had worked elsewhere. There is no doubt that the employer has got a right to dismiss a workman when the workman is found to have committed certain act of misconduct which according to the conditions of service applicable in the establishment is a misconduct. If the misconduct, as said to have been committed by a workman, is so palpable, which is not otherwise capable of being explained, in any manner, the employer may dispense with a domestic enquiry and proceed to take the necessary action. It may be said that the employer virtually rejected the representation of the workman to withdraw the order of transfer, though that fact was not specifically intimated to Shri Chakraborty. Admittedly when Shri Chakraborty was appointed at Jadavpur Factory, the employer had no factory at Bombay.

It is also conceded that there was no express term of contract service between the Company and Shri Chakraborty that the latter would serve in any new concern which the Company would choose to start in a different State. It is also apparent that there was no express agreement between the Company and the workmen whereunder the Company had the right to transfer a workman to a new factory situated out of the State, and that the workman's duty was to join the new factory to which he might be transferred. In the circumstances it has got to be determined from the facts and circumstances if such a term and condition of service is to be necessarily implied between the parties. Naturally, the workman while accepting the service had impliedly agreed to serve in those factories then in existence as the employer had the right to employ them in those factories which were in existence. In the instant case, the Bombay Factory though functioning under the same management had been started in 1959. Clearly Shri Chakraborty working at the factory at Jadavpur since 1952 could not have been bound by any implied term and condition of service that he might be required to serve on being transferred at some other factory subsequently started by the management in a different State. It is partinent to note in this connection that the workman in his representations filed on 5th November 1960 and on 11th November 1960 clearly stated that when he joined in service in 1952, he had no knowledge whatsoever that he was accepting a service which was a transferable one and for that instead of seeking employment elsewhere he accepted the employment in this concern. Admittedly, the Company gave no letter of appointment to Shri Chakrabortv in 1952 when he was appointed. Nor was there any express agreement between the parties indicating any right on the part of employer to transfer a workman and the obligation on the part of workmen to serve in a newly opened factory under the management situated in a different State. In the circumstances of the instant case, it would not be fair to contemplate any implied term and condition of service to the extent that the employer had a right to post on transfer a workman in a different State wherein he might subsequently start his activities. The rights of the employer to transfer a workman to different places must be determined with reference to the places of activities of the employer.

It is urged bv the learned lawyer for the Company that on a proper construction of the Standing Orders certified bv the Labour Commissioner of West Bengal on 10th Februarv 1959 under the Industrial Employment (Standing Order Act) XX of 1946, a binding contract was created between the employer and the workmen whereby the right of transfer of a workman even to a different State wherein the employer has a place of business had been ensured. The Certified Standing Orders, Ext. 1, indicate that it would regulate the condition of service of the workmen employed by Messrs. Krishna Silicate and Glass Works Ltd., Jadavpur, Calcutta-32. There is no specific provision in the Standing Orders itself that a workman is liable to transfer to a different State. It is however contended that such a condition is to be gathered by implication from the provisions of Rule 13(H) of the Standing Orders which runs as follows:

"The following Acts of commissions shall be considered as major misdemeanours:

(h) Refusal to accept transfer from one shift to another from one section, job, department or place to another, or from one factory to another under the same management provided the workman concerned does not thereby suffer any loss in wages".

The question arises for consideration if by the words "one place to another or from one factory to another place or factory" situated in a different State had been meant by implication. Obviously, the Standing Orders applicable to workmen at Jadavpur regulating their conditions of service are restricted to the workmen employed at that factory at Jadavpur and it had no connection in regulating the conditions of service of workmen employed at newly started factory at Bombay. It appears from the evidence that the Bombay Factory started functioning from October 1959. Obviously, there arose no occasion to post a workman at Bombay either by direct recruitment in Calcutta or by transfer from Jadavpur Works before October 1959. I am inclined to hold that the words "one place to another or from one factory to another" as provided in rule 13(h) would not possibly include any factory situated in a different State outside West Bengal. Besides, the Labour Commissioner of West Bengal had no jurisdiction to certify Standing Orders which are applicable to workmen transferred to a different State, Bombay, for which the condition of service of a workman should be regulated by different Standing Orders, certified by the proper authority in that State.

From the evidence of Shri Ghosh, Manager of the factory, it appears that in 1960 he recruited some machinemen in Calcutta for employment at the Bombay Factory. He also stated that he had transferred about 100 workmen from Jadavpur Factory to Bombay Factory. Now, the Company in their letter, dated 22nd November 1960, stated that they transferred several hands from the Jadavpur Factory to Bombay Branch and that was done in consultation with the representative of the recognised organisation of workmen known as "Krishna Glass Karmi Sangha" [vide Ext. A(6)]. No explanation is forthcoming why such consultation became necessary if the employer had a right to transfer a workman to Bombay. It follows therefore from the admission of the Company that the transfer to Bombay Branch had been done after consultation with a particular organisation of workmen which represents those particular workmen. The Company has produced a large number of letters addressed to different workmen indicating transfer of those workmen to the Bombay Branch (vide Exts. D to D949). I have carefully gone through all these letters and I find that all those letters barring Exts. D(4), D(9), D(28), D(30), D(32), D(47), D(48) and D(49), are in the same wordings. In none of these so called notices of transfer there is any mention of any joining time being given to the workmen as was given to Shri Chakraborty. Only the letter of transfer to one Kamal Das was in the same line as in the case of Shri Chakraborty [vide Exts. D(9)] In both Ext. 1 and Ext. D(9), the subject matter of the letter is described as "transfer to Bombay Factory." It is urged by the representative of the Union that these documents being filed at a late stage, at the time of hearing, they have no opportunity to verify the correctness of the statements therein and to ascertain how these transfers took place. Besides, it is urged that even if these notices of transfer be taken as correct, the particular workmen had been thus posted at Bombay were actually recruited in Calcutta Office for the purpose of being posted at Bombay. From a plain reading of the contents of those notices I am inclined to accept the contention of the Union that the workmen were really recruited for the purpose of being posted in Bombay and that they were not serving under this Company at the Jadavpur Factory. This is all the more clear from the fact that the employer had taken written consent from the workmen so transferred to Bombay as evidence by Exts. D(28), D(30), D(32) and D(47). P.W. 1 Shri H. Chakraborty also stated in cross-examination that Kalipada is now working in Bombay as he voluntarily agreed to go there. There could not arise any occasion to take such consent of the transferred workman if management could stand on their own point. It is, therefore, apparent upon consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case that the employer had taken the consent of the workmen and had consultation with the representatives of workmen before a workman already serving in the Company at Jadavpur could be asked to join at Bombay Factory on transfer. In these considerations I hold that there was no implied condition of service by which the employer could transfer Shri Chakraborty to Bombay. I also hold that the provisions in the Standing Orders did not authorise the Company to transfer a workman to a different State. In this connection, I have called for the file of the Registrar of the Trade Unions and find from the same that Shri Harendra Chakraborty was the Vice-President of the Union in 1957-58, a member of the Executive Committee of the Union in 1958-59 and the Assistant Secretary of the Union in 1959-60. It is urged by the Union all along from the stage of the conciliation proceedings that the employer passed the order of transfer to Shri Chakraborty as he happened to be an important Trade Union leader with a view to victimise him and the action of the employer was mala fide. The learned lawyer for the Company has argued that the workman on being transferred to Bombay was virtually promoted to the position of Cutter from Airman and his daily wages was increased by Re. 1 daily from Rs. 1-15 to Rs. 2-15 daily. Shri Ghosh stated in his deposition that the wage of a Cutter varies from Rs. 3 to Rs. 3-4 daily and there is no evidence to show the wages of a Junior Cutter at Bombay Factory is anything less. Naturally, therefore, even though the workman's wages got increased by Re. 1 on his proposed transfer to Bombay, his wages stood below the prevailing rate of wages available to Cutter at Jadavpur Factory. Apparently, the management has merely made a show as to increase in the wages of the workman by imposing higher responsibility upon him when apparently the wage proposed to be paid to the workman was below the standard. The Union has therefore legitimate ground to consider the order of transfer as mala fide on the part of the employer and characterise the same as being actuated by the spirit of victimisation. The order of transfer is thus found to be unjustified and the action of the employer in dismissing the workman for not complying with such an order of transfer must be set aside.

It is urged by the employer that this is an individual dispute and, as such, cannot be treated as an industrial dispute. It is clear from the record that the cause of the workman had been taken up by the registered Union from the very beginning. The mere fact that the employer does not recognise the Union is not at all relevant for the purpose of determining the question whether the dispute has got the character of an industrial dispute. The legal objection thus raised by the employer fails.

In the result I direct that the workman be reinstated at the Jadavpur Factory within a month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette" at the same pay and post as he was enjoying on 10th November 1960. Considering the circumstances of the case I further direct that the workman be paid full wages at the rate of Rs. 1-15 daily from 11th November 1960 till the date of his reinstatement. Obviously, there would be no break in the continuity of service of the workman who has been kept unemployed since 11th November 1960 up to this time.

This is the award.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by Sukhan who is admittedly a permanent workman of Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd. in the Dye House Department. His case is that he used to work in place of the regular mistry on the Stentor machine when the regular mistry was on leave and for this he used to earn an extra amount of Rs. 1.25 in addition to his own wages. But since 13th May 1959 when the mistry went on leave he has not been given that officiating job and he has thus been deprived of the opportunity of earning the extra wages of Rs. 1.25 per week. The case of the Company is first that the application is not maintainable because there has been no violation of section 33 by the opposite party and that there has been no alteration of the conditions of the services to the prejudice of the petitioner-workman and secondly that though there were occasions when the petitioner worked as a substitute mistry in place of the regular mistry the petitioner cannot claim that he must be given that work as a matter of right nor as a condition of service, it being entirely discretionary with the management as to who should be allowed to work in place of the mistry when he goes on leave. On behalf of the workman he examined himself alone and on behalf of the management was examined Shri A. K. Chowdhury, an assistant of the Dyeing Department since 1957. It is clear on the evidence of the workman himself that although he has been employed in this Company since 1951 he officiated for Bansi mistry who is a mistry operating the Stentor machine for 13 days in 1957, the days when he officiated in his place in the year being from 3rd June 1957 to 16th June 1957 and that in 1958 he officiated for him for 13 days from 12th May 1958 to 24th May 1958. It further appears from the evidence of Shri A. K. Chowdhury that in 1955 and 1956, Daragoai and Sadagar, two of the operators of the Stentor machine, used to work in Bansi's place when Bansi used to go on leave or when he used to be absent on weekly off days, and that when Shri Bansi went on annual leave or when he was hiving his weekly off days in 1957 and 1958 Sukhan worked in his place and whenever Sukhan used to work in Bansi's place he was paid

8 annas in excess of his normal wages per day. But in 1959 when Bansi went on leave Bansidhar was ordered to work in his place and not Sukhan, the reason for prefering Bansidhar to Sukhan being that Sukhan did not know how to repair the machines in the event of a break-down. It further appears that since the middle of 1961 the stentor machines, installed in the factory, were dismantled and they were replaced by new German Famatex machines which require more qualified workmen and Sukhan has been working as helper to these qualified workmen operating these new machines.

It is at once obvious that by having officiated for some days during 1957 and 1958 Sukhan has not earned the right of working in place of Bansi whenever Bansi goes on leave or when he is having his weekly off days. It appears that in the past, two other men, Daragoai and Sadagar, used to work in his place and then from 1959 Bansidhar has been entrusted with this work in the absence of Bansi. As none of these workmen have acquired a right to work in place of Bansi in his absence it cannot be said to be a condition of the service of any of these workmen that whenever Bansi goes on leave he must be allowed to officiate in his place. The question to whom an officiating appointment should go is entirely a matter of discretion with the management. The Standing Orders of the Company do not seem to provide for such a case and there is nothing therein to suggest the existence of a right in any workman who occasionally acts for another to act for him whenever he is absent. Consequently, section 33(2), Industrial Disputes Act, has no application at all to such a case and there is no question of any contravention of its provisions. Thus the first condition of the maintainability of an application under section 33A, namely, that there has been a contravention of the provisions of the section 33 does not exist and the whole application therefore, of Sukhan under section 33A must be held to be not maintainable at all. My award, therefore, is that as section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act does not apply to the facts of the case, Sukhan's application under section 33A is not maintainable.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department order No. 1847-I.R./IR/4L-22/61, dated 17th April 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between the Joint Steamer Companies (Messrs. I.G.N.R. Co. Ltd. and R. S. N. Co. Ltd.), 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta-1 (hereafter referred to as the Companies), and their workmen represented by Inland Steam Navigation Workers' Union, 16/17 College Street (Room No. 55), Calcutta-12 (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication in this case runs as follows:

Working hours for the workmen employed in the Crew Registration and Payment Office.

AWARD

The workmen's case in their written statement is as follows: The Indian General Navigation and Railway Company Ltd. and the River Steam Navigation Company Ltd., popularly known as Joint Steamer Companies, carry on transport business in different parts of India, having their Head Office at 2 and 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta. The Companies have different establishments in different places of India and West Bengal. The Head Office of these Companies has several departments including Joint Labour and Welfare Department, Joint Marine Department, Joint Engineering Department, Joint Claims Department and Joint Traffic Audit Department. The Companies have several Ghat Offices also at Jagannath Ghat, Armenian Ghat, etc. The services of the employees at Ghat Offices and Head Office Departments are inter-transferable and these employees are divided into two categories, namely, clerical and non-clerical or subordinate staff. The Department of Crew Registration and Payment

Office (hereafter referred to as C.R.P.O.) is being controlled and guided by the Joint Welfare and Labour Department, Joint Traffic Audit Department, Joint Claims Department and Joint Marine and Engineering Department. But the working hours of C.R.P.O. are different from that of the Head Office. The working hours at the Head Office are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday with half an hour's recess in the middle and from 10 a.m. to 1-30 p.m. on Saturday without any recess But the working hours of C.R.P.O. are from 9-30 a.m. to 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday with half an hour's recess in the middle and from 9-30 a.m. to 2/3 p.m. without any recess on Saturday. The Union concerned requested the Management for introduction of the same working hours in C.R.P.O. also as in the case of Head Office, but the Management failed to agree. This policy of the Management is discriminatory and unfair, and hence this reference.

The Companies, on the other hand, inter alia, allege in their written statement as follows: Although these two Companies have been operating in mutual collaboration since about 1890, they have always been and still are two separate and distinct entities, and each one of them maintains its own separate accounts, and their assets also are distinct. Although the earnings derived from the transport business are pooled together and divided equally between the two Companies, a large portion of their expenditure is not shared equally, with the result that the financial position of each of the two Companies is not same and similar. Prior to 1955, the ratings working on all the Companies' vessels were contract labour—the system being that the Deck ratings were employed by Masters and Serangs, and the Engine Room ratings were employed by Drivers; and the ratings were discharged also by their respective employers During 1955, the Companies mutually agreed with the Bengal Mariners' Union representing the ratings that the said system of contract employment would be discontinued, and all ratings would become direct employees of the Companies In pursuance of this agreement, C.R.P.O. was set up in or about the middle of 1955 for the purpose of administering the rating personnel, and this department is working accordingly since then The Companies deny that the C.R.P.O is a part of or is controlled by the Joint Labour and Welfare Department or other departments as mentioned in the workmen's written statement. The Joint Marine Department and the Joint Engineering Department apart from their various functions of technical nature administer the ranking personnel, namely, Masters, Serangs and Drivers working on board the vessel, while the C.R.P.O administers the rating personnel. Thus the status of the C.R.P.O. is rather same as that of the Ghat Offices. The C.R.P.O. works independently of the other departments. The working hours for the non-clerical staff of the Companies including those of the C.R.P.O. was the subject matter of a dispute which resulted in an award published in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated 4th October 1956, and the working hours for those non-clerical staff were fixed at 8 hours a day Similarly, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India by its decision, dated 23rd March 1960, on the issue of "revision of working hours of Ghat employees" finally determined that the working hours for these Ghat employees should be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with half an hour's recess in the middle from Monday to Friday and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m without any recess on Saturday. Though the C.R.P.O employees were not covered by the said Supreme Court decision, the Companies were prepared to extend these facilities to them also. But this intention of the Companies could not be implemented on account of the opposition of the employees themselves. The Companies submit that if the working hours of C.R.P.O. be identical with those of the Head Office, it will create many difficulties and seriously hamper the function of this particular office in relation to rating personnel. It will delay the turn round of the vessel, and thus prove highly uneconomical.

Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows:

Decisions

The issue before this Tribunal is working hours for the workmen of C.R.P.O. only. The issue as framed is not very clear by itself. The real point at issue appears to be what should be the working hours for these workmen. The learned Counsel for the Companies contends at the very outset that fixation of working hours for the employees where no statute is violated, is rather a management function, and so should not and cannot form the subject matter of an industrial dispute; and as such it is submitted that the matter is not within the purview or jurisdiction of an Industrial Tribunal. It is a fact that in a certain sense, rather in a limited sense, fixation of working hours may be a Management function But it cannot be forgotten that the limit of working hours and spread-over thereof is an essential service condition of the workmen, and when there is a bona fide dispute over the matter it may be a subject matter of reference; and if there by anything unreasonable or unconscionable in the matter, the Industrial Tribunal can interfere and arbitrate also. If the workers are, unreasonably sweated or over-worked and if they are made to work more than what is desirable. the workers can certainly agitate for reduction of working hours and thus for betterment of their service conditions. Conspiracy approach of old days towards such labour agitation or concerted labour activity is not any longer possible or permissible. The workers' right or privilege of taking recourse to concerted labour activity for betterment of their service conditions, such as reduction of working hours and increase in wages cannot be any longer curtailed or suppressed simply by saying that it falls within the purview of the Management function and forms the subject matter of an individual contract That Tribunal can interfere and do interfere in such cases is amply demonstrated by innumerable decisions of Tribunals, High Courts and the Supreme Court Even the Supreme Court decision in a case between these very Companies and their workmen (Ghat employees) is a sharp pointer in this respect (a copy of the judgment has also been filed by the Companies and is on record) Whatever be the older conception of law on this point, the old doctrine of laissez faire no longer holds good or rules the day in the present set-up of changing society and the labour management relationship Unrestricted freedom of action of the Management at times militates against the just interest of the workers Hence, I am unable to accept the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Companies.

So, I pass on the merit of the issue. The C.R.P.O. employees now work for seven hours a day between 9-30 a.m. and 5 p.m. with half an hour's recess in the middle. It is nobody's case that this period of work or working hour really transgresses any statutory provisions. The workmen's contention is that in fixing these working hours for them, the Management has made invidious discrimination between this department and other Head Office departments which control and guide this department. The Head Office Department works for six and half hours only between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. It is urged that this C.R.P.O. being only a limb of the Head Office Department, this unfair discrimination is creating a strong dissatisfaction in the minds of the workers. The contention of the Management on the contrary is that this C.R.P.O. is really an independent establishment or department, and is neither a branch nor a limb of the Head Office Departments. The nature of work and the service condition of this department, it is alleged, are different from those of the Head Office, and the employees of this department cannot be placed at par in all respects with the employees of the Head Office. There are other similar establishments at different ghats, and thus away from the Head Office; and any preferential treatment of this department may again create a discontent in those departments. Moreover, the nature and exigencies of work entrusted to this department do not permit such change in working hours as claimed or desired by the present workmen. Both parties have adduced evidences. I have carefully considered the evidences on record and arguments of both sides on this point, and I may at once observe that I have no sufficient reason for reduction in the working hours for Monday to Friday for these workmen. As regards Saturday, the Management is also eager to bring these employees at par with the Ghat employees of the Companies [vide paragraph 11(e) of the written statement of the Companies] and I shall consider this Saturday matter before I conclude. The workmen's contention is that no real harm will be done to the Companies if C.R.P.O. is allowed to function from 10 a.m. and work for six and half hours only per diem. But I may point out that the methods of operation of the office and the plant and also the job-content are really Management function, and no Tribunal should normally interfere with these internal arrangements, unless there be a case of grave injustice likely to seriously jolt or jeopardise the labour-management relationship. At present, the workers of this department are not working for more than 42 hours a week, even if they are made to work full time on Saturdays. Forty-two-hour week cannot be said to be an unreasonable one. The Management is agreeable to reduce the working hours of Saturdays by further two hours or so. So, forty-hour work a week will be quite a reasonable condition even apart from other considerations. So, from this standpoint, the present workmen have no case. The simple argument of the workmen in support of their contention is that the Head Office of the Companies works for 35 hours only a week, and so they should also work not more than 36 hours. But I do not find any sufficient reason to bring them at par with the Head Office Departments where conditions of service are undoubtedly different. I find no substance in the contention that this department of C.R.P.O. is nothing but a branch of Joint Labour and Welfare Department, or Joint Traffic Audit Department or Joint Claims Department or Joint Marine and Engineering Department. As the names of these departments suggest, the nature of their primary job or work is quite different from that of the C.R.P.O., and they are separate and independent establishments. From paragraph 10 of the Companies' written statement, it will be perfectly clear that this office was set up in 1955 only for the first time for dealing with the rating personnel independently of the other departments. But simply because this office is under the general control of the Head Office, it cannot be said that it is a part and parcel of the Head Office itself. It is contended that the staff of this office is transferable to Head Office and vice versa. But O.P.W. 1—Mr. Roberio—swears that the Head Office employees are not transferable to C.R.P.O. or other such offices. In fact, when the service conditions, pay-scales and privileges of the Head Office employees are different from those of the C.R.P.O. employees, the question of transfer from one to the other does not arise. P.W. 2—Shri Debendra Nath Deasi—tries to say that he actually worked for some months at the Head Office and then was transferred to this department. But the fact is that he, along with some other employees, were previously workers of different Ration Shops only and these Ration Shops were abolished sometime in 1955. After this abolition, they were likely to be thrown out of employment. So, on an agreement with some Union, the Companies agreed to absorb these Ration Shop workers in other departments without discharging them outright. Thus these are really not cases of transfer. One may be temporarily allowed to work in some section of the Head Office. So, this does not prove that this department stands on the same footing with the Head Office. It is next contended that the Labour and Welfare Department deals with passports, visa, etc., of the rating personnel and does necessary work in that connection; and this department also attends to a part of this passport job on behalf of that department, and thus this department is a limb or branch of the other. But the fact is that passports are mainly dealt with by the Labour and Welfare Department of the Head Office. The C.R.P.O. is required to do very little in that connection. Masters and Serangs of different vessels collect the passports of the crews and hand over the same to the C.R.P.O. and the C.R.P.O. simply issue receipts in printed forms for the passports received. These passports are thereafter sent to the Labour and Welfare Department which does everything needful in this connection. This department being in close touch with the crews, simply collects the passports for transmission and thus serves as conduit pipe only for these passports. Simply because receipts are issued by this office on behalf of the Passport Section of the Labour and Welfare Department, it cannot be said that the C.R.P.O. is also a part and parcel of that department. I have already said that determination of job-content is a Management function. So, merely because this department has been assigned the duty of collection of passports of the crews, it cannot, as of right, claim same service conditions with the Labour and Welfare Department. Existence of an independent Controlling Officer for this department also shows that this department is not really under the other department. The Labour and Welfare Department advises the Management in respect of labour problems of all departments and looks after the welfare of the personnel of all the departments of the Companies. So, the primary duty of the Labour and Welfare Department is largely different from that of the C.R.P.O. So, the contention of the C.R.P.O. being a Head Office Department cannot prevail.

The next contention of the workmen of C.R.P.O. is that their day's work actually commences from 10-30/11 a.m. and that they usually have no work to do before the ratings come to office. Admittedly, the gate meant for the crews opens at 10 a.m. It is accordingly urged that the Companies will not be prejudicially affected if the C.R.P.O. commences day's work at 10 a.m. But this contention makes no impression on me. This office is required to deal with and make payments to at least 500/700 crews every day, and in busy periods this office is required to make payments of Rs. 50,000/60,000 a day to the crews alone. So, one can easily imagine that necessary papers and records are to be checked and prepared and kept ready in advance before these huge payments to the crews are actually made and before they enter the office for receiving payments. It is admitted by P.W. 1 Shri Sambhunath Mukherjee also that they are to keep money ready in advance before crews come for receiving payments. It is also conceded that the amounts due to different crews are to be ascertained and calculated in advance before payment. This office admittedly calculates and prepares records in advance as to what payments are to be made in respect of different items to any one of the crews (vide deposition of Shri Mukherjee P.W. 1). So, it is idle to argue that these workmen have to sit idle for half an hour after 9-30 a.m. They have enough work to do before the ratings do actually come. It is admitted that they are often required to work overtime also and for that they earn overtime wages too. From the deposition of O.P.W. 2 Mr. Morris D. Braellan, an Assistant in the C.R.P.O., it will be clear that overtime work is a regular feature in this office now and for the last two months overtime work is being done every day. So, the normal duty hour cannot be curtailed as desired simply for facilitating the earning of overtime wages by the workmen. To me it appears that the necessity for overtime work should normally be reduced to the minimum for obvious reasons. Thus considering all the circumstances, I think, the Management has every justification for commencing the work of this office at 9-30 a.m. Undue delay in disposing of the rating personnel may mean delay in quick turn round of the vessels. The evidence is that these Steamer Companies have rival competitors in the field—both on land and water—and any unreasonable and uneconomic move involving delay in turn round may directly injure the interest of the employer and indirectly of the employees also. Any serious detriment to the interest of the employer may ultimately recoil on the head of the employees also. Our motto should always be to work reasonably hard and earn more in the interest of all concerned. Thus considering all the facts and circumstances, I find that the working hours of this C.R.P.O. cannot be made like that of the Head Office. Of course, the Management also has no objection to give the employees of this office same facilities as enjoyed by Ghat employees, etc., who stand more or less on the same footing. The Ghat employees work on Monday to Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. with one hour's recess in the middle. I have been definitely told on behalf of the workmen of the C.R.P.O. that they do not like to work from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. as in Ghat offices. They prefer their existing arrangement. Nor do they want one hour's recess in the middle. So, I direct that the existing working hours and spread-over will continue for all week days except Saturday. On Saturday the Ghat offices work from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. without recess in accordance with a Supreme Court decision. If any worker of Ghat Establishment is detained beyond 3 p.m. for half an hour or more up to 6 p.m. he is paid one-fourth day's wages in addition to his normal wages. So, I direct that on Saturday, this C.R.P.O. will have normal working from 9-30 a.m. to 2-30 p.m. without recess. If any workman of this department is detained beyond 2-30 p.m. for half an hour or more up to 5 p.m. he will be paid one-fourth day's wages in addition to his normal wages.

This is my award.

Amritasar Industrial Works and their workmen represented by the Amritasar Industrial Workers' Union to the Second Labour Court for adjudication regarding the issue mentioned in the order of reference.

Issue

1. Whether the discharge of Shri Sew alias Shewnath Bhar is justified? To what relief is he entitled?

After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 21st November 1961. On that day two witnesses on behalf of the Union were examined and cross-examined, and on the prayer of the Company the case was adjourned to 15th December 1961 for further evidence and arguments. On that day none appeared for the Company and no evidence was adduced on its behalf. The President of the Union who appeared for the Union argued the case of the Union. There was none to argue the case on behalf of the Company. The hearing was concluded and the award was reserved. Later that day Shri P. K. Nandi, Advocate, with Shri Keshar Singh, Proprietor, appeared for the Company and filed a petition praying for re-opening of the case and fixing a date for hearing, on the ground stated in the petition. Accordingly the case was adjourned to 29th December 1961 for fixing a date of hearing. On that date none appeared for the Company to press the prayer for fixing a date of hearing. Accordingly I ordered that the hearing of the case would be deemed to have been concluded on 15th December 1961.

The case of the Union, as stated in its written statement, is as follows:

Shri Sew alias Shewnath Bhar, the workman mentioned in the issue of the order of reference, was a permanent workman of Messrs. Amritasar Industrial Works (hereinafter referred to as the Company), Ranigunj. He was summarily discharged on 5th July 1957 without any charge-sheet or enquiry on a false charge of entering the bungalow of the Proprietor of the Company. The fact was that the Proprietor having not come for the whole day, the workers went to see him at his house for their wages. The proprietor instead of paying their wages abused them and drove them away. As the discharge of Shri Sew is unjustified, the Union prays for his reinstatement and payment to him compensation for the period of forced unemployment.

The case of the Company, as stated in its written statement, is as follows:

Shri Sew was discharged not on a charge of entering the bungalow of the proprietor on 5th July 1957, as alleged in the written statement of the Union. He had been given several charge-sheets on different occasions. On 21st May 1957 he was given a charge-sheet for stealing a bag of coal from the factory, suspended and was later let off with a warning. He was given another charge-sheet on 6th June 1957 for inducing all the coolies to suspend their work and not to use salt in the preparation of acid cakes, so that the quality of the product might be worse. He was asked to give a reply to the charge-sheet by 9th June 1957. On his failure to give any explanation to the charge-sheet, he was dismissed on 13th June 1957. He was also asked to collect his dues from the office. He collected all his dues and final settlement was made on 3rd September 1957. The Company therefore contends that the discharge of Shri Sew alias Shewnath Bhar is justified.

FINDINGS

The Union has examined two witnesses in support of its case. They have said that some workmen including Shri Sew went to the house of the proprietor of the Company on 5th July 1957 to demand payment of their wages. On the following day the proprietor paid wages to all the workmen except Shri Sew whom he discharged on that day. They have denied that any charge-sheet was issued to him on 6th June 1957 or that he was dismissed on 13th June 1957. The Company has not adduced any evidence in support of its case. So the case of the Union stands proved. Hence I hold that the discharge of Shri Sew alias Shewnath Bhar is unjustified. So I order that he shall be reinstated and paid wages for the period of his forced unemployment. The above order shall be carried out within a month of the publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

It appears from the evidence adduced on behalf of the Union that there have been changes in the name of the Company which is carrying on business at the site and with the machineries of Messrs. Amritasar Industrial Works, Ranigunj. It is on evidence of the Union that Shri Keshar Singh is the proprietor of all the companies in the names of which the business is being run. Shri Keshar Singh who appeared before me on 15th December 1961 has admitted in his petition that he is the proprietor of Messrs. Amritasar Industrial Works. So I order that the above award will be binding on Shri Keshar Singh, the proprietor of Messrs. Amritasar Industrial Works, Ranigunj.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by Shri Mahabir Roy, 316 Grand Trunk Road (South), Sibpore, Howrah, against the employers Messrs. BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, made by one Shri Mahabir Roy, alleging that Messrs. Master Stores (Flour Mill Department), the employers, dismissed him from service on 16th November 1960 without filing an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act to this Tribunal before which an adjudication proceedings had been pending, in which proceedings the applicant workman was involved. The workman therefore claimed that he should be reinstated and paid all wages for the period of unemployment from the date of his dismissal which is characterised as illegal and mala fide.

Messrs. Master Stores, the employers, filed a written objection contending therein that the applicant was employed in a separate establishment of this concern, and as such, he was not a workman concerned in the pending dispute. Besides, it is alleged, the workman was engaged purely on casual basis for a limited period and, therefore, his services had been terminated when the Government order for the execution of which this workman had been recruited was completed.

After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 7th February 1962. On that date neither the workman nor the lawyer representing him before the Tribunal appeared to proceed with the case. On the other hand, Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate, representing the employers, is present. The position, therefore, is that when the workman is not coming forward to proceed with the dispute, it becomes non-existence. A "no-dispute" award is accordingly passed.

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by one Sew Pujan Shaw, alleging contravention of provision of section 33(2)(b) ot the Industrial Disputes Act. It is further alleged that he had been dismissed by the employers arbitrarily on 23rd November 1960 without getting prior approval of such action from the Tribunal before which a proceeding had been pending in which the workman so dismissed was involved.

A written objection was filed by the employers, Messrs. Master Stores, contending therein that the applicant was not a workman employed by them and, therefore, there was no question of his discharge at their instance.

After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 7th February 1962 and on that date none appeared from the side of the Union, even though the employer was ready with his lawyer. As such I find that the dispute does not exist and a "no dispute" award is passed.

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Hindusthan Potteries, 105 Dharamtolla Road, Lillooah, Howrah, and their workmen represented by Hindusthan Potteries Workers' Union, 4 Panchkori Mohanto Lane, Salkia, Howrah, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, over the following issues, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 897-I.R./IR/11L-76/61, dated the 22nd February 1961.

Issues

(1) Dearness allowance.

(2) Increment.

Upon receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

AWARD

The workmen represented by the Hindusthan Potteries Workers' Union, (hereinafter referred to as the Union), duly filed the written statement on 12th May 1961, signed and verified by Shri Keshab Chandra Paul, described as the Secretary of the Union. Along with the written statement the Union filed a statement showing the wage-rates of the workers in this concern, which is marked as Annexure A to the written statement.

The Union authorised Shri Amar Chakraborty, Advocate, to represent the workmen in the proceedings before the Tribunal.

The employers, i.e., Messrs. Hindusthan Potteries (hereinafter referred to as the Company), filed the written statement on 19th July 1961 duly signed and verified by Shri Bankim Chandra Daw, General Manager of the Company. The Company on being directed to file the documents, filed the balance sheets, Profit and Loss Account from 1357 to 1366, B.S., Income Tax Assessment order for the years 1363-66, a copy of order No. 1381-I.R./IR/11L-257/57, dated 2nd April 1958, of the Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal, and the wage-structure of the workmen engaged in this concern.

After completion of all preliminary stages, the case came up for hearing on 7th February 1962. It appears from the pleadings that the company is engaged in manufacture of potteries works, employing about 70 workmen. A dispute between this Company and their workmen represented by the same Union had been referred to the Tribunal by the appropriate Government for adjudication by an order No. 3807-IR, dated the 27th September 1957. The only issue which was involved in that adjudication proceedings was relating to revision of wages. The learned Judge of the Tribunal, Shri M. N. Gan, gave his award on 21st March 1958. By that award the wage of the workmen drawing below Rs 50 per month was increased by 2 annas a day, and the workmen whose total earnings exceeded Rs. 50 per month, got an increase by 3 annas a day. It was further directed that the payment in accordance with the increased rates of wages should be made effective from 1st April 1958. It was contended by the Company in the written statement that there was no material change in the circumstances justifying enhancement in wages. It was urged upon reference to the Profit and Loss Account of the years 1357-1366 B.S., that in each of those ten years the concern suffered loss. It is, however, admitted by the parties that the wages of the workmen have remained same since the last award by which, of course, the workers got increment in daily-rates of wages by 2 or 3 annas. Admittedly, in this concern, almost all the workers are daily-rated and they are paid wages at a consolidated rate and that no separate dearness allowance is paid to the workmen. The Union, it appears, claimed an increment in favour of all the workmen at the flat rate of 4 annas per day after the period of operation of the last award. On the date of hearing after the opening of the case at length, the learned representatives of the parties felt that it would be best to the interest of both the parties to settle the dispute amicably without getting a legalistic decision by a compulsory adjudication by the Tribunal. As such, the parties agreed that the workers whose present total emolument is below Rs. 50 per month, should be given an increase in wages by 2 annas and those who are getting a total emolument at Rs. 50 per month or above should be given an increase in total wages by 3 annas daily and that the increased rate of wages shall become payable from 1st February 1962. I, therefore, dispose of the issue regarding increment allowing abovementioned increment to the daily-rated workers. It is further agreed by the parties that the monthly-rated workers would get an increase in wages by Rs. 4 per month with effect from the same date, i.e., from 1st February 1962. Upon casual study of the balance-sheet I find that the Company's financial position is not yet hopeful. I, therefore, make a recommendation that the Company should see their way to give some annual increment to the workmen in the next year.

So far as the issue of dearness allowance is concerned, the parties agreed that the wages would continue to be paid to the workmen at a consolidated rate as is now existing and that no separate sum would be paid under the head of dearness allowance either by way of splitting up the wage-structure or by imposing additional burden upon the Company. I, therefore, give my award on the consent of the parties disposing of two issues involved in this adjudication.

This is the award.

Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5593-I.R./IR/11L-455/60, dated the 1st November 1960, the industrial dispute between Messrs. ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Sudha Bidi Stores, Raniganj, Burdwan, and their workmen, represented by the Bidi Shramik Sangha, post office Raniganj, district Burdwan (Case No. VIII-573/60).

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Sudha Bidi Stores, Raniganj, Burdwan, and their workmen represented by the Bidi Shramik Sangha, post office Raniganj, district Burdwan, over the following issue, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5593-I.R./IR/11L-455/60, dated the 1st November 1960.

Issue

Whether the closure of the concern is real and bona fide and whether in the present circumstances it is justified? To what relief, if any, are the workmen entitled?

Upon receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

AWARD

The workmen represented by the Bidi Sramik Sangha filed a written statement on 17th February 1961. It is contended by the Union that the management which runs the Bidi Manufacturing Factory closed down the factory on 30th June 1960 without any bona fide or justified cause with a view to paralyse the workmen, and for that the workers are entitled to get full compensation for the period of their unemployment or, in the alternative, retrenchment compensation in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Thereafter the proprietor of Messrs. Sudha Bidi Stores filed the written statement on 15th March 1961. It is contended therein that the order of reference is bad in law inasmuch as the employers have not been properly described in the order of reference. Besides, it is alleged, there was no relationship of master and servant between the Bidi workers and the proprietors, and that there was neither any control of the proprietors upon the said workers nor was there any duty hours fixed for them. It is further alleged that the proprietors were compelled to close down their business on 30th June 1960 for bona fide reasons under circumstances beyond their control, and that in view of the fact that the names of the workers alleged to have been affected by such closure had not been mentioned in the written statement, no relief can be given in favour of such a body of persons as claimed to have been the workmen of the concern.

After completion of the preliminary stage and after several adjournments the case was fixed for positive hearing on 1st August 1961. On that date Shri P. Pathak representing the workmen in the proceedings before the Tribunal, prayed for an adjournment on the ground that a talk of compromise was going on between the parties. The prayer was allowed and the dispute was fixed for hearing on 16th August 1961. On that date as well, the parties made a prayer for further time to file a petition of compromise, and the prayer was allowed. Several dates had been given to the parties to file their petition of compromise with a definite direction that in case of failure to come to an amicable settlement, they should come ready to proceed with the case. Ultimately neither any petition of compromise was filed, nor any party came before the Tribunal to proceed with the case. In the meantime Shri Pathak verbally informed that the Union representing the workmen do not like to proceed with the case as the matter would be settled outside amicably through Shri P. K. Sannayal, Advocate, representing the employers. Be that as it is, when the Union does not want to proceed with the dispute, it is useless to keep the matter pending for an indefinite length of time. I, therefore, dispose of this case and pass an award of "no dispute".

Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

By order of the Governor,

No. 507-I.R./IR/4L-34/59.—15th February 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4083-I.R./IR/4L-34/59, dated the 2nd August 1960, the industrial dispute between the eight owners of passenger transport services plying on Route Nos. 52 & 58, Howrah, as mentioned in Annexure I to the said order, dated the 2nd August 1960, and their workmen represented by Howrah Jila Bus Karmi Parishad, 150 Mahendra Bhattacharjee Road, Howrah, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the third schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Seventh Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Seventh Industrial Tribunal has submited to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between the eight owners of Passenger Transport Services plying on route Nos. 52 and 58, Howrah, as mentioned in annexure I to the order of reference and their workmen represented by Howrah Jila Bus Karmi Parishad, 150 Mahendra Bhattacharjee Road, Howrah (Case No. VIII-504/60).

BEFORE THE SEVENTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. K. RAY, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issue given in the schedule to the order of reference and reproduced below was first referred for adjudication to the First Labour Court by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2050-I.R./IR/4L-34/59, dated the 13th May 1959, and the same dispute was subsequently referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4083-I.R./IR/4L-34/59, dated the 2nd August 1960, in supersession of the said previous order of reference after the abolition of the said Court.

The issue referred for adjudication stands thus:—

Issue

Fixation of the principle and quantum of bonus payable in 1958.

According to the order of reference, the dispute is between eight owners of Passenger Transport Services plying on routes Nos. 52 and 58, Howrah, as mentioned in annexure I to the order of reference and their workmen represented by Howrah Jila Bus Karmi Parishad, 150 Mahendra Bhattacharjee Road, Howrah.

After service of notices of the present reference issued by this Tribunal, the parties appeared. The Union filed its written statement and thereafter the employers concerned, except Nos. 4 and 6 of annexure I to the order of reference, adopted the written statements already filed by them before the First Labour Court and there was no appearance on behalf of the said employers Nos. 4 and 6. The case was first fixed for hearing on 3rd November 1961. On that date, none of the parties appeared and no step was taken on behalf of any of them. The Tribunal suo moto adjourned the case to 23rd December 1961 in order to give the parties another chance to appear and have an adjudication on the issue. In the meantime, on 19th December 1961 there was an application for adjournment for one of the employers and this application was directed to be put up on the date fixed, viz., 23rd December 1961. On 23rd December 1961 the case was adjounred to 15th January 1962 on the application for adjournment filed on 19th December 1961 by one of the employers. Excepting one of the employers who filed an application for adjournment on 19th December 1961, there was no appearance on behalf of any other employer or the Union on 23rd December 1961. On the 15th January 1962 there was no appearance for any of the parties except for employer No. 2, on whose behalf one Advocate put in formal appearance. The Tribunal again suo moto adjourned the case for hearing to 5th February 1962 in order to give the parties concerned the last chance to appear for hearing of the case, directing at the same time that if there was no appearance on the next date, the case would be disposed of according to law. On 5th February 1962 there was absolutely no appearance for any of the parties concerned. From the aforesaid conduct of the parties concerned and particularly from the non-appearance of the parties on the date finally fixed for hearing, 5th February 1962, it is clear beyond doubt that the parties are not taking any interest in the dispute and they have given up the dispute and in this manner, the dispute has ceased to exist. The result is that there is no adjudicable dispute before this Tribunal. Acordingly, there is to be a "no dispute" award in the case under rule 22 of the West Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" award in the case on the footing that the dispute referred for adjudication has ceased to exist.

S. K. RAY, Judge,

Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department order No. 830-I.R./IR/7L-33/60, dated 21st February 1961, and subsequent corrigendum No. 39-I.R./IR/7L-29(A)/61 dated 4th January 1962, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Titaghur Jute Factory Co., Ltd. No. 2 Mill, Titaghur, 24-Parganas (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Titaghur Jute Factory (Nos. 1 & 2) Workers' Union, P.O. Khardah, district 24-Parganas (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication in this case is this:

Whether the dismissal of Shri Dudnath Pathak is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

Briefly stated, the case of the workman concerned —Shri Dudnath Pathak—in his written statement is as follows: At the relevant time, Shri Pathak was working as Second Jamadar of the Company. On 28th March 1960 a charge-sheet was issued against him on false and malicious allegations. He gave a reply to the charge on 30th March 1960. Thereafter the Management held a perfunctory enquiry without affording him proper opportunity to defend himself. The enquiry was neither fair nor in accordance with the rules of natural justice. The Enquiring Officer, however, fund him guilty, and on his recommendations the Management dismissed Shri Pathak. Shri Pathak's allegation is that the Enquiring Officer —Shri K. K. Mukherjee—had grudge against him from before. Moreover, the Management also became displeased with him, simply because he pressed his just claim before the Management for his appointment as Head Jamadar. Thus it is alleged that this charge-sheet was motivated by other reasons, and not for any actual offence committed by him. Hence, this reference.

The Company's case, on the other hand, in its written statement is this: It is urged by the Company that a proper and impartial enquiry was held against Shri Pathak, and the Enquiring Officer had neither bias nor grudge against him. It is also urged that Shri Pathak was afforded all reasonable opportunities to defend himself, and no rules of natural justice were actually violated. In fact, even before the charge-sheet was issued a preliminary enquiry was held by the said Senior Mill Labour Officer in presence of Shri Pathak and the charge-sheet was issued after the case was prima facie established against him.' It is strongly urged that the decision of the Management was not influenced by any extraneous consideration or by any spirit of victimisation. The previous service record of Shri Pathak was also bad, and the Management rightly decided to dismiss him, as the offence committed by him was rather grave.

Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows:

DECISIONS

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication is whether the dismissal of Shri Dudnath Pathak, a Jamadar, was justified. He has been dismissed on the ground of a misconduct under rule 14(c)(ix) of the standing orders, i.e., for neglect of work. The charge framed against him was for "neglect of duty because he was found to be absent during duty period from 2-30 p.m. to 5-45 p.m. without permission of the Management." It is urged on behalf of the workman that mere absence from duty without permission cannot amount to neglect of work within the meaning of the rule 14(c)(ix) of the standing orders, and so on the charge levelled, no offence of "neglect of work" can be concluded. In fact, this was also one of the grounds taken in the written explanation submitted be the workman (vide Ext. D). But I must observe that geometrical precision in the language of a charge framed by a Management against its employee cannot be always expected. In judging the same, we must look more to the substance than to the mere form or formal expressions. If the language of the charge be sufficiently clear and if there be no confusion or difficulty in understanding the real significance of the charge, it cannot be said that the workman was prejudiced in his defence. In this case, in the heading of the charge framed it was clearly mentioned that the charge was for neglect of duty, as the workman remained absent from duty between certain duty hours without permission. Shri Pathak was a member of the Watch and Ward Staff. His duty hours were from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. The charge is that he remained at his duty post up to 2-30 p.m. and then he took french leave and slipped away without permission. He came back to his post again at 5-45 p.m. evidently to show as if he was there from the beginning to the end of his duty period. Thus apart from the dishonest motive, if any, if the charge be otherwise true, he certainly neglected his work or duty. The learned representative for the workman thinks that the charge as framed might at best be placed under rule 14(c)(v) and not 14(c)(ix) of the standing orders. But I am unable to accept this contention. Rule 14(c)(v) contemplates total absence from duty without leave, but not neglect of duty by surreptitiously withdrawing from it after joining it formally. The charge is that Shri Pathak purported to take over the charge of his duty and also to make over the charge at the close of duty hour and yet he did not actually do the duty entrusted to him. So, I find nothing wrong in the charge itself, and the dismissal cannot be held to be bad on this ground.

After the charge-sheet was issued, Shri Pathak filed his written explanation. It may be mentioned in this connection that the charge was not framed in hot haste and all on a sudden. On receipt of a complaint against Shri Pathak, a preliminary enquiry was held in presence of Shri Pathak who was given full opportunity to explain the circumstances alleged against him. The Management issued a charge-sheet only after being satisfied as to a prima facie case after the preliminary enquiry. A final enquiry was held after Shri Pathak filed his written reply to the charge-sheet issued. This enquiry was held with due notice to Shri Pathak and he was called upon to be present at the enquiry with all his witnesses (vide Ext. E). The final enquiry was held by Shri Kumud Kanta Mukherjee, the Senior Mill Labour Officer, and the entire proceedings of the enquiry before the domestic Tribunal were recorded by Shri Mukherjee in his own handwriting. Shri Pathak and his witnesses were present at the enquiry and they were examined also at length. The Management also examined its own witnesses. The Secretary of the Works Committee, evidently a representative of the workmen, was admittedly present all through. The Junior Labour Officer also attended the proceedings. From the deposition of Shri Mukherjee read with the recorded proceedings I am satisfied that Shri Pathak was given a patient hearing and allowed all opportunities to defend himself. I am unable to believe the worker's allegation that the statements recorded were not read over and explained to the witnesses within his hearing. The evidence is there to show the contrary, and I believe it. Shri Pathak admittedly affixed his signature to the statements. So, I find nothing wrong with the proceedings before the domestic Tribunal, and the finding cannot be challenged on that ground also. Even if the recorded statements had not been read over, that alone would not vitiate the porceedings unless it is clear that there was absence of bona fides on the part of the Enquiring Officer. It is urged on behalf of the workman that the enquiry was not impartial, as Shri Mukherjee had a grudge against him for he had refused to depose falsely in Shri Mukherjee's favour in a criminal case brought against certain persons. Shri Mukherjee has been examined before me and he swears that he never requested Shri Pathak to depose falsely in his favour in any criminal case. The alleged criminal case was filed at best 9/10 years back, and it is difficult for me to believe that this charge or enquiry was influenced by or had anything to do with that criminal case of a decade back or that the charge was motivated by any previous grudge. Shri Pathak was charge-sheeted more than once previously also, and he was punished also as a result. The complaint on the last occasion came from the Security Officer and not Shri Mukherjee, and a preliminary enquiry was held on the instruction of the Manager. After the result of the preliminary enquiry was reported to the Manager, he directed issue of the charge-sheet. I am unable to believe that Shri Mukherjee had any bias against Shri Pathak. Shri Pathak, of course, cites other causes also for this alleged false charge-sheet. But none of his contentions makes any impression on me. His contentin is that he repeatedly pressed his claim for being appointed Head Jamadar and assigned the quarter of that Head Jamadar after the old Head Jamadar had retired, and hence the Management got annoyed with him. But this allegation makes no impression on me. The evidence of the Management is that the post of the Head Jamadar was abolished for economic reasons after the retirement of the permanent incumbent of that post, and so there was no occasion for appointment of Shri Pathak (the then second Jamadar) as the Head Jamadar. This was a matter exclusively within the discretionary jurisdiction of the Management, and so I do not think that the disputed charge was motivated for any claim of Shri Pathak. Evidence is that Shri Pathak was never appointed as Head Jamadar even temporarily and he was not ever asked to do the duties of the erstwhile Head Jamadar. So, this allegation is too vague and airy to lead to any definite adverse conclusion. It is next urged that Shri Pathak in course of his round duties found Durwan Shri Purushuttam absent from his duty post, for the latter had gone out for taking opium liquor. It is alleged that Shri Pathak having threatened Shri Purushuttam to be reported against, the latter held out a threat to the former. The Management held an informal preliminary enquiry in this respect also and found no material to proceed against Shri Purushuttam. I fail to see how the misconduct, if any, of Shri Purushuttam can be a reason for this charge-sheet against Shri Pathak. It is absurd to suggest that Shri Purushuttam was big and powerful enough to influence not only Shri Mukherjee but also the Manager in issuing a false charge-sheet against Shri Pathak. I am afraid these are all wild and frivolous allegations only in an attempt to camouflage the offence committed by him. So, after carefully considering all the facts and circumstances on record, I am unable to accept the contention that the proceedings before the domestic Tribunal were vitiated by any bias of the Enquiring Officer or the mala fides of the Management. Shri Pathak also examined a few witnesses before the domestic Tribunal in support of his defence case. But the Enquiring Officer could not accept his contention or believe his defence witnesses. There were materials before the domestic Tribunal to support the conclusion drawn by the Enquiring Officer. It has not been accepted that Shri Pathak as Jamadar had any supervisory duties outside the mill premises and that he actually attended his normal duties on that day. Even Shri Baram Deo Durwan referred to by Shri Pathak himself does not support the contention of Shri Pathak. Shri Mukherjee in giving his finding after the enquiry has discussed his reasons and the evidences at length and the same cannot be said to be perverse or the conclusion drawn baseless. The law is, I am not to consider if a different conclusion might be drawn on the evidences recorded at the enquiry. My duty is to see if the conclusion drawn by the Enquiring Officer or the Management is supported by the materials. If the conclusion is possible, it cannot be called perverse any longer. Shri Pathak's witnesses were no doubt disbelieved. But there were many witnesses, on the other side to give a different version. Even before me, the same history has been repeated, and I have no reason to conclude that the Enquiring Officer was perverse in his finding and that the charge was baseless. Even the reply of Shri Pathak to the charge-sheet was drafted by a lawyer, and so at all relevant times Shri Pathak had presumably proper leagl advice too to guide him. Shri Pathak has no sufficient evidence to establish that all the Durwans except a few on his side entered into a conspiracy with the Management for bringing a baseless charge against him.

The witnesses (except Ram Sankar) who supported Shri Pathak bear surname "Pathak", and the Company's case is that these witnesses are related to Shri Dudnath Pathak, and hence their evidence was not acceptable. Shri Ram Sankar's statement before me is also at variance with what he had stated before the domestic Tribunal. So, it cannot be said that the Enquiring Officer was manifestly wrong in disbelieving these defence witnesses. Nor do I think that this Tribunal has any sufficient reason to interfere on the ground of severity of punishment. The service record of Shri Dudnath Pathak and previous depatrmental charge-sheets agianst him are on record. So, considered in the light of his previous service record and other circumstances, it cannot be said that Shri Pathak did not really merit dismissal, and that the punishment was unusually severe and harsh to raise a presumption of victimisation in his favour.

Lastly, it is argued that the departmental enquiry did not come to any finding that Shri Pathak had no duty outside the mill premises, and this point was not considered even though Shri Pathak pleaded that he had gone out in discharge of his duties only. But I may point out that Shri Pathak pleaded nothing like this in his reply. Rather, he pleaded therein that he had met different Durwans inside the mill premises several times during the relevant period and that he was on duty all along accordingly. He raised such a plea at the time of preliminary enquiry no doubt, and referred to Baramdeo Durwan in that connection. But Baramdeo failed to support him even at the preliminary enquiry. No such plea was however taken in reply to the charge-sheet. At the time of final enquiry, he relies on his statement in reply and not on the statement at the preliminary enquiry. He gives rather an evasive statement at the final enquiry that he is bound to go outside the mill premises to see the Company's mill premises. He does not say that he had gone out actually during the relevant period in discharge of his duties only. His statement is rather argumentative, and his allegation is that if his duties were not both inside and outside the mill premises, how he could be charge-sheeted for loss of Company's properties outside the mill compound? Evidently, Shri Pathak referred to the charge-sheet, dated 16th March 1960 (vide Ext. I). But in that case, the charge was for neglect of duty under quite a different circumstance. He was presumably off duty at the time and took no action to prevent loss or damage to Company's properties at the instance of some miscreants, even though he was informed about it by the round Durwan. So, that does not prove that he had normal duties outside the mill premises. That was an extraordinary occasion and that duty also was extraordinary on account of his very whole-time employment by the Company and not on the ground of normally assigned regular duties. So, I do not think that the action of the Management can be challenged on that ground. There is positive evidence before me to show that as a Jamadar Shri Pathak had no normal duty outside the mill premises. He could go out only on express direction or with previous permission of the authority. There are Line Durwans and Zamin Durwans for outside duties. Thus I am unable to accept the argument and hold that the Enquiring Officer was wrong in finding Shri Pathak guilty of neglect of work or duty.

Both the parties have adduced evidence before me also in support of their respective contentions. But I am not required to come to an independent decision on the merit of the issue, as the decision of the Management or the validity of the domestic enquiry has not been dislodged in accordance with the principles laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Indian Iron & Steel Co., Ltd. and their workmen (A.I.R. 1958 S.C. 130). However, this much can be said in brief that no sufficient material has been placed before me also for coming to a conclusion that it is a fit case for the Tribunal to interfere. There is sufficient evidence before me also to support the Management conclusion and decision. So, without further discussion, I find that this Tribunal has no reason to interfere. The workman is, therefore, not entitled to any relief in this case.

This is my award.

AWARD

In this reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, made by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4209-I.R./IR/11L-141/61, dated the 3rd July 1961, of an industrial dispute between (1) Messrs. Lakshmi Narayan Sadhukhan and Kartic Chandra Sadhukhan, (2) Shri Harihar Sadhukhan, on the one part and their workmen represented by Motor Transport Workers' Union, the only issue is whether the dismissal of the following workmen is justified and to what relief, if any they are entitled: (i) Shri Nandalal Sadhukhan (ii) Shri Savapati Singh (iii) Shri Chedi Mahato and (iv) Shri Mahadeb Pandit.

Harihar Sadhukhan on receipt of notice of the reference represented to the Tribunal that he had leased out the lorry No. WBQ 146 (Public Carrier) to Lakshmi Narayan Sadhukhan and others about 3 years back and he was not conversant as to what had happened thereafter. Then the written statement was filed on behalf of Lakshmi Narayan Sadhukhan, Kartick Chandra Sadhukhan and also on behalf of the Union. After this there was a compromise between Messrs. Kartick Chandra Sadhukhan representing the employers on the one hand and the Union on the other. This compromise is to the effect that the workman Shri Nanda Lal Sadhukhan being a near relative of the employers has come to a settlement with the employers restoring their happy relation; and the Union, therefore, would not press his case and that regarding the other three workmen mentioned in the reference, viz., (1) Shri Savapaty Singh, (2) Shri Chedi Mahato and (3) Shri Mahadeb Pandit, the employers would reinstate them all provided they reported for duty within a month from the date of filing the petition and that the Union gives up its claim regarding the wages of the workmen for the period since their discharge. The parties prayed for an award on the basis of this petition of compromise. As the petition was filed before the Tribunal by the representative of the Union who signed it I postponed my award till the other side appeared but the other side has not appeared so far in spite of notice. It was therefore, no use postponing the matter any further particularly when there is nothing in the award which is in any way specially beneficial to the workmen or specially disadvantageous to the employer. My award, therefore, on the basis of the petition of compromise is that the Union does not press the claim of Shri Nanda Lal Sadhukhan who has already come to a settlement with his Employer and that as regards other three workmen Shri Savapaty Singh, Shri Chedi Mahato and Shri Mahadeb Pandit, the employers would reinstate them all provided they report for duty within a month from the date when the application was filed, namely the 29th of December 1961 and that Union gives up its claim of wages of the workmen for the period since their discharge. The petition of compromise will form a part of this award.

Sarat Textiles Ltd., and their workmen to the First Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. During the pendency of that dispute Shri Madhab Chandra Das and 42 other workmen of the company filed a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act against the above company before that Tribunal. That Tribunal, as authorised by the Government of West Bengal notification No. 1916-I.R./IR/3A-1/58, dated the 13th May 1958, transferred the above complaint to this Court on 2nd November 1959 for disposal.

FINDINGS

After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 29th June 1961. Neither party appeared on that date. The case was adjourned to 12th September 1961, 13th November 1961 and 28th December 1961; but none of the complainants or nobody on their behalf appeared on any of the above dates. So it is clear that the complainants do not want to proceed with their complaint. Hence I hold that there is no longer any complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act in this case.

AWARD

In this reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act made by Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2919-I.R./IR/11L-206/61, dated the 5th June 1961, of an industrial dispute between National Conduits Private Ltd. and their workmen represented by the National Conduits Employees' Union, the only issues are (1) whether the dismissal of Shri Brahmanand Roy and Shri Bharmanand Roy is justified and to what relief if any they are entitled, (2) whether the termination of service of Shri Gouri Sankar Shah and Shri Kalipada Mondal is justified and to what relief if any they are entitled.

The parties filed their written statements in due course. On 8th February 1962 when the case was taken up for hearing the Company appeared through Shri J. R. Jain and the Union through their General Secretary, Shri Keshab Pal. The General Secretary filed an application praying for passing a 'no-dispute' award. This application is signed by the Assistant Manager and the Lawyer of the Company. As the parties agree that this is a case in which a 'no-dispute' award should be passed and as there is no reason why in spite of that an investigation of the facts should be undertaken by the Tribunal. My award is that there is at present no dispute between the parties on either of the two issues referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

AWARD

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Government of West Bengal, Labor Department, order No. 5490-I.R./IR/11L-473/60, dated the 31st October 1960, for determining the issues, namely:

(1) Revision of wages, (2) Confirmation of service, (3) Leave and holidays and (4) Bonus for 1958-1959 and 1960.

After notices were given to the parties on receipt of this reference from the Government, the Secretary of the Union appeared and filed a petition on 28th November 1960 with prayer for time to file written statement. On that date a letter of authority was filed by the officials of the Association of Manufacturers, Commercial and Traders, West Bengal, on behalf of the Company. The Union Secretary put in a written statement on 7th December 1960. Thereafter four dates elapsed but the Union remained absent without taking any steps until on 15th March 1961 when the Secretary of the Union put in a petition stating that necessary documents would be put in at the time of hearing. The Secretary also appeared on the following date 12th April 1961. Thereafter the Secretary of the Union remained absent without taking steps on three intervening dates thereafter. The Secretary no doubt, appeared on two following dates, 26th July 1961 and 28th July 1961 and also on the subsequent date 23rd August 1961. Thereafter neither party appeared on 3 subsequent dates. The Company took steps on 26th September 1961 but the Union remained unrepresented. The Union also remained absent on three further dates, viz., 26th October 1961, 14th November 1961 and 28th December 1961, on the last mentioned date the Company also remaining absent. On 15th January 1962 both parties were represented and 25th January 1962 was fixed for hearing of the case. On that date the Company's Lawyer appeared but none appeared for the Union which also took no steps whatever. Next, today was fixed for hearing, and a last chance was given to the Union for conducting the case. But even today, neither party appeared or took steps. It appears therefore, that the Union is not keen about proceeding with the case. In the absence of both parties in the aforesaid circumstances, it is presumed that no dispute now exists between the parties under the reference. So I proceed to dispose of the matter under rule 22 of the West Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules of 1958. Accordingly a "no-dispute" award is passed in this case.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Garganda Tea Estate (of Lankapara Tea Company Ltd.), P.O. Ranijhora, Jalpaiguri, and their workmen represented by Duars Cha Bagan Workers' Union, P.O. Kalchini, Jalpaiguri. (Case No. VIII-54/61.)

Shri N. B CHAUDHURI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri P. Ghosh, Advocate, and Shri D. Basu Thakur, Solicitor of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co.

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate, and Shri Anil Das Chowdhury.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department, order No. 554-I.R./IR/9L-7/61, dated 8th February 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Garganda Tea Estate (of Lankapara Tea Company Ltd.), P.O. Ranijhora, Jalpaiguri (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Duars Cha Bagan Workers' Union, P.O. Kalchini, Jalpaiguri (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication in this case runs as follows:

> Whether the termination of employment of Sarvashri Lachmen Baman, Harka Bahadur Newar and Ram Bahadur Darjee and suspension of Sarvashri Kancha Newar, Kancha Lopchan and Lutey and Shrimati Nirmaya are justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

Briefly stated, the workmen's case in their written statement is as follows: About 3,000 workmen are employed by the Tea Estate and a large number of these workers are members of Duars Cha Bagan Workers' Union, which was formed in the year 1957 much to the dislike and dissatisfaction of the Company. About 96 per cent. of the members of this Union are Nepali workers and the workers under reference were active organisers of the Union and they put in service for several years in this Company. Payments of monthly wages to the workers of this Company are usually made within the 8th of every month and the wages of Pahari workers are always paid on the first day of payment and before the Adibasi workers are paid. The Management knew it fully well that the members of the said Union were to join the All-India Conference of the 'United Trade Union Congress' (hereafter referred to as U.T.U.C.) to be held on 9th April 1960. But in order to frustrate the intention of these workmen to join the said U.T.U.C. conference, the Management adopted an unfair labour practice by extending without prior intimation the date of payment of wages to the 9th April 1960. As usual, the Nepali workmen assembled near the office of the Tea Estate on the 8th April 1960 for receiving their wages for the month of March 1960, but to their utter surprise these Pahari workers found that the Management was unwilling to make payment to them on that day and yet payment was being made to Adibasi workers in contravention of the usual practice. At this, the Nepali workmen got a bit agitated. They protested against this delay in making payment of their wages and unfair labour practice. But the Management refused to make payment to them on the 8th April 1960 even though repeatedly requested in this respect. Not only that, the Management in the meantime sent for Police to strike terror into the hearts of the peaceful workmen. Nevertheless, the Nepali workers remained peaceful all the time and prayed for some advance at least in the alternative, so that they might purchase Railway tickets for joining the said U.T.U.C. conference on the following day. But the Management failed to accede to this reasonable request also. The Police Officer who happened to come there made a request to the Management to accept the reasonable request of the workers and pursuaded the Management to agree to pay their wages on the following morning. After this, the workers peacefully left the place. On 14th April 1960, however, the Management issued charge-sheets against the workmen under reference on false and melicious grounds and placed them all under suspension from that date. The workmen submitted their replies to the charge-sheets denying the allegations made against them, but the Management without any proper enquiry and without giving them any opportunity to adduce evidence in their behalf came to a perverse finding and punished them. It is urged that the Management unjustly punished the workmen concerned and it was in utter disregard to and violation of the rules of natural justice and with a spirit of mala fides and victimisation only.

As against this, the Company's case in its written statement, in short, is this: At the relevant time, there were 1,362 workers including clerical and medical staff on the roll of the Company. There is another Union functioning in this garden, and this is known as "Duars Cha Bagan Mazdoor Sangha" affiliated to I.N.T.U.C. The Company believes that this Union really represents the majority of the workers of this garden. The Company denies any knowledge of the workers under reference being active members of their Union. It is also denied that payment of monthly wages to the workers of this garden is made within 8th of every month or that the Paharia workers are always given payment on the first day of payment and before the Adibasi workers. The workers are usually paid within 10th day of each month, and there were many occasions on which the Adibasi workers were actually paid before the Nepali workers. At the relevant time, the practice obtaining in the garden was that when the Wage Register was completed by the garden Accounts Department and payment was ready, the Line Chowkidar used to be instructed to inform the Section workers in the morning that payment would be made on that day. In accordance with this garden practice, the garden Chowkidar informed the Adibasi workers that their wages would be paid on the 8th April 1960. The Pahari workers were well aware that they would not be paid their wages on the 8th April 1960 and yet they deliberately came in a body to the office on that day at about 5-30 p.m. to intimidate the Management, so that their wages might be paid on that day, and the charge-sheeted workers took leading part in instigating the riotous conduct. Mr. McLeod, the then Manager, explained to the Pahari workers that it would not be possible to pay them on that very date because the relevant Pay Book, etc., were not ready by that time and assured them that they would be paid on the following day. In spite of this, the charge-sheeted workers incited and instigated other employees to surround the Manager and the Assistant Managers and abused them in filthy language and actually kept them confined for about 5½ hours. As the crowd became restless and their attitude threatening, the Management had to summon the Police. The Managerial staff were allowed to leave office at about 10-30 p.m. after the intervention of the Police Officer. Consequently, the Management was compelled to charge-sheet the workers under reference together with four others and after proper enquiry the Management took action against them as mentioned in the issue referred to above. There was no violation of the principle of natural justice and the Management was not actuated by any mala fides or spirit of victimisation.

Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows:

DECISIONS

From the issue framed in this case, it will appear that out of seven persons charge-sheeted, three were dismissed and the rest suspended for different periods. The contention of the workmen concerned is that they were punished without any proper enquiry and without consideration of the replies submitted by them. On the other hand, the Company's case is that proper enquiries were held in respect of all of them on two dates and in two different batches. So, before I look into the question of justifiability of the punishment inflicted on those workmen, I must consider whether there was any proper enquiry in respect of all or any one of them. In this connection, I may at once refer to the charge-sheets issued against those seven persons (vide Ext. A-series). From a reading of the charge-sheets, it will be clear that identical charges were levelled against all of them. It will also be clear therefrom that all of them were asked to explain their conduct by 10 a.m. on 19th April 1960. It was also mentioned in the charge-sheets that enquiries in respect of Ran Bahadur, Lachman and Harka Bahadur were to be held on 20th April 1960 at 10 a.m. and in respect of the other four persons on on 19th April 1960 at 10 a.m. From Exts. B to B-2 it will appear that Ran Bahadur, Lachman Baman and Harka Bahadur submitted their explanations in identical language on 20th April 1960, and Ext. B-8 is the English translation of these explanations. Similarly, Exts. B-3 to B-6 are the explanations submitted by the other four persons in identical language and Ext. B-7 is the English translation thereof. From a scrutiny of the exhibits referred to above, it will be apparent that the Management sorted out three workmen in advance and the enquiry in respect of them was fixed on 20th April 1960 and eventually all these three workmen were dismissed. It is also peculiar that these three persons submitted their explanations also in identical language. Similar is the case in respect of the other four persons. They also submitted their explanations in identical language and the Management also dealt with them in a similar manner. Be that as it may, the real point at issue is whether there was at all any enquiry or whether there was any proper enquiry in respect of all or any one of the workmen concerned. The Management files Exts. L-series read with Ext. O to show that enquiries were held in respect of these charge-sheeted persons on two different dates. But the Management fails to produce any other paper in this connection. From the papers mentioned above, the Management seeks to convince me that proper enquiries were actually held and that the enquiry was fair and impartial also. In this connection, I may at once refer to the deposition given before this Tribunal by P.W. 2, Shri Ran Bahadur, one of the charge-sheeted persons. He swears that there was no enquiry about the charge on 20th April 1960. He alleges that he went to the office of the Manager on that date at about 10 a.m. for attending the enquiry. He went there alone and saw five other persons already present there from before. He alleges that a few minutes after his arrival at the place of enquiry, he enquired of the Chowkidar, who was found sitting before the office of the Manager, about the intended enquiry. The Chowkidar, it is alleged, went to the Manager and reported to him the presence of the workers. The contention of the workmen is that after this information, the Manager came out of his office and informed the workmen including Ran Bahadur that the enquiry had already been finished within 9 a.m. Similarly, P.W. 3, Shri Lachman Baman, states before this Tribunal that he also went to attend the enquiry on 20th April 1960 at about 10 a.m. and he further affirms in all details the statement of Ran Bahadur referred to above. Thus if the statements of these two witnesses be believed, it can be held that there was no enquiry whatsoever. Mr. Mcleod, the then Manager of the Tea Garden, purported to hold the enquiry. But Mr. Mcleod is no longer in the garden and he is not examined also before this Tribunal. Mr. Douglas Baird, one of the then Assistant Engineers of the garden, two other Assistant Managers, two clerks and a few others have been examined on behalf of the Management before this Tribunal and they try to allege that in fact enquiries were held both on the 19th and the 20th April 1960 in respect of the two batches of charge-sheeted persons referred to above. So, it is incumbent on me to scrutinise the materials on record and see how far the Management's allegation of holding proper enquiries holds good. From Ext. A-series it will at once be clear that the charge-sheets were actually issued by the Manager himself and the recital of the charges will make it further clear that the Manager himself was the de facto complainant, the allegation being that the workers adopted threatening attitude, insulted and abused the Manager personally and also decided not to allow the Manager to leave the factory compound. But in spite of this position, the Manager himself figured as the Enquiring Officer at the domestic enquiry. Thus, he was not only the complainant but the judge also of the enquiry. He was not only personally aggrieved, but vitally interested also in the consequences of the enquiry. Most of the witnesses on the Company's side pleaded ignorance as to whether the Manager himself prepared any written statement in advance and whether it was read over at the time of the so-called enquiry. But even a plain reading of Exts. L-series—the so-called enquiry proceedings—will show that the Manager's personal opinion contributed a good deal towards his decision in the matter. He referred to his so-called personal knowledge whenever convenient and came to a finding against the charge-sheeted workmen. Thus it goes without saying that Mr. Mcleod unfortunately placed himself as a judge in his own case. It is the accepted principle of natural law that one should not be a judge in his own case or cause. Though this rule can sometimes be relaxed in departmental enquiries held on behalf of the Management, the rule should not actually be relaxed under all circumstances. In a case where the offence, if any, was committed personally against a particular person, he should not, in all fairness, hold the enquiry, because for obvious reasons he is likely to be strongly biased against the charge-sheeted persons and so his decision cannot always be impartial. So, in this particular case, I cannot approve of the action of Mr. Mcleod in holding the enquiry, if any, against the charge-sheeted persons. Nevertheless, I may point out that no witness on behalf of the Management was actually examined at the time of enquiry and in presence of the charge-sheeted persons. It is admitted by the Management that certain employees of the garden were asked to prepare written statements in respect of the incident long before the date of enquiry, and some time after the alleged occurrence. Exhibit O is one of the previously written down statements of seven different employees of the garden. This exhibit purports to show as if all these seven signatories witnessed the entire incident as recorded and their version was identical in all respects. Normally, this is not likely or possible. So, it is clear that the Management wanted them to have a statement prepared in advance with an ulterior motive. The matter does not stand there only. From the so-called recorded proceedings (Ext. L-series) it appears, as if the written statements of Mr. Mcleod, Mr. Anand, Mr. Baird and seven members of the staff referred to above (Ext. O) were actually read out, translated and confirmed as correct at the domestic enquiry in the very presence of the charge-sheeted persons. But peculiarly enough, none of the witnesses examined before this Tribunal has the courage to say that Mr. Mcleod also prepared a statement in advance and that it was also read out at the enquiry. Thus if these proceedings be taken as correct, Mr. Mcleod not only figured as a complainant, but also as a witness before himself and as a judge at the enquiry and ultimately he decided to punish all the seven charge-sheeted persons. But the funniest part of the story is that the written down statement of neither Mr. Mcleod nor of Mr. Baird are forthcoming. The statement of Mr. Anand, also finds no place in the enquiry proceedings produced before me. The Management simply pleads its ignorance about the whereabouts of the previously written statements of all the high officials except that of the poor clerks employed by the Company. Proceedings have been drawn up to show as if all the persons who made statements in writing were examined before the domestic tribunal afresh to get their statements confirmed. But unfortunately, all the witnesses swear that they were simply present at the enquiry and were not asked anything by anybody. I may observe that non-production of the statements of Mr. Mcleod, Mr. Baird and Mr. Anand may not be without significance. These statements may be purposely withheld or suppressed, and for reasons not disclosed by the Management before this Tribunal. In any case, I have great suspicion about the bona fides of non-production of these statements. The Company's case is that these statements in writing were not only read over and explained to the charge-sheeted persons, but these workmen were also given opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses examined on behalf of the Company, and yet the opportunity offererd to them was not availed of by any one of them. In this connection, I may refer to the cross-examination of O.P.W. 3, Mr. D. Baird. He says that he cannot say what was the date of enquiry. He, however, adds that the enquiry was held at about 9/10 a.m. But he admits that he went to the place of enquiry at about 10-30 a.m. and remained there for about five minutes only. From the deposition of O.P.W. 4, Mr. O. P. Anand, it will be clear that the charge-sheeted persons were called before the Manager one by one and Mr. Mcleod read out the statements already prepared (if he read out at all) to the individual charge-sheeted persons and asked them to cross-examine the witnesses examined by the Company. So, if it be a fact that enquiry was held in respect of different charge-sheeted persons one after another, Mr. Baird cannot possibly remain present at the enquiry to be cross-examined by all the charge-sheeted workmen, because he was admittedly there for not more than five minutes. I also fail to understand whether there was at all any scope for cross-examining Mr. Baird when he had been to the place of enquiry at 10-30 a.m., the enquiry having been held at 9/10 a.m. Mr. Anand tries to say that nobody made any oral statement before the Enquiring Officer on the date of enquiry, and no such statement was recorded there. But O.P.W. 6, Shri K. K. Bhan, gives a different story. He says that he was present at the enquiry on both the days and signed the enquiry proceedings also. He further adds that he did not make any statement in writing at or before the time of enquiry, but he gave an oral statement there and it was not recorded by anybody. From his depositions it will be further clear that Mr. Bhan was perhaps one of those witnesses who were said to have been present all along at the time of the alleged occurrence and yet the Enquiring Officer did not think it worthwhile to record his statement though he made an oral statement at the enquiry and in presence of the charge-sheeted persons. The Management has no explanation to give for this unusual procedure or circumstances. Mr. Anand in his deposition before me states that he actually recorded the proceedings of the enquiry and that he took down these things in manuscript and then handed over the same to the Manager. It is alleged that the Manager got these proceedings typed and then he got his opinion also typed thereon and thereafter the persons present including Mr. Anand signed those papers. It is alleged that these papers were got typed and signed by them in the same sitting. But peculiarly enough again, O.P.W. 7, Shri Nalini Kanta Ghose, who is said to be present at the enquiry all along on both the days, alleges that he cannot say if the enquiry proceedings were at all recorded. I do not know which witness of the Company is giving the true version. I may also point out that in the very charge-sheet, it was mentioned that the enquiry would be held at 10 a.m. It is almost undisputed that the enquiry, if any, was concluded before 10 a.m. The so-called enquiry proceedings (Ext. L-series) will show as if the charge-sheeted persons appeared at the Manager's Office at 8-30 a.m.(Indian Standard Time) on 19th April 1960 and the enquiry was taken up at once against all the four persons, i.e., one and half hours before the appointed time. Similarly, on 20th April 1960 also the enquiry was purported to be held at 9 a.m., i.e., one hour before the appointed time. Thus all these circumstances lend support to the workmen's allegation that the so-called enquiry was purported to have been completed before the workers actually went to attend the same. Of course, it may be urged that the workers actually appeared before the Manager long before the appointed time and so the enquiry was commenced or taken up before the appointed hour with the consent of the charge-sheeted persons and without any prejudice to them. But in such a case, I would normally expect the Enquiring Officer to obtain written consent of the persons concerned. In view of the allegations made by the workmen in respect of the enquiries, the matter becomes highly dubious and a shadow of suspicion is also cast on the very enquiry proceedings. O.P.W. 1, Shri Kalipada Rudra, also happens to be a signatory to the statement in writing marked Ext. 4. But peculiarly enough, not a single word has come out from his lips before me in respect of the said written statement. Mr. Baird in the concluding portion of his examination-in-chief rather tries to allege that Mr. Mcleod conducted the enquiry until 26th April 1960. He further adds that he was not only present at the enquiry but his statement also was recorded there. But the enquiry proceedings as recorded nowhere show that Mr. Baird made any oral statement at the end. So, without further discussion, I may at once observe that I have grave doubt if there was any enquiry; and if there was any enquiry at all, it can hardly be said to be a proper one. So, the action of the Management in respect of these charge-sheeted persons cannot be justified simply with reference to the so-called domestic enquiry made by the Management.

Nevertheless, the punishment inflicted by the Management cannot be straightway set aside, simply because there was no enquiry or no proper enquiry. In this connection, I may refer to a decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Punjab National Bank Ltd. vs. All-India Punjab National Bank Employees' Federation and another reported in A.I.R. 1960 (S.C.) 160 where there Lordships observed as follows:

> "If no enquiry has, in fact, been held by the employer, the issue about the merits of the impugned order of dismissal is at large before the Tribunal, and on the evidence adduced before it the Tribunal has to decide for itself whether the misconduct alleged is proved, and if 'yes', what would be the proper order to make. In such a case, the point about the exercise of managerial functions does not arise at all."

Thus it is clear that where there was no domestic enquiry in the true sense of the term, it is incumbent on the Tribunal itself to look into the merits of the case on the evidences adduced before it by the parties. Of course, it is needless to add that where the Tribunal has to rely on evidences before it, both parties must have sufficient opportunity to adduce proper evidence on the merits of the case. In the present case, both the parties have no doubt adduced evidence in support of their respective contentions and also on the merits of the case. So, I shall consider the evidences adduced by the parties before this Tribunal, I have already mentioned that the charge-sheets were drawn up in identical language against all the persons concerned. The charge, in short, is that these workmen of the Company along with many others formed a large crowd, came to the Manager's office at about 5-30 p.m. and demanded that they should be paid their wages for the month of March 1960 immediately. But in spite of the Manager's explaining the circumstances for not being able to make payment before the 9th April 1960, the workmen concerned adopted a most threatening attitude, insulted and abused the Manager and did not allow him to leave the factory compound before 10-30 p.m. Police also had to be called in before the crowd dispersed. As against this, the contention of the charge-sheeted persons is that they have been punished for no fault of theirs, but for their active participation in union activities and for urging upon the Management for making payment of their wages on the usual date, the 8th day of the month instead of the evening of the 9th April 1960; as the intention of making payment on that date (9th April) was to virtually calculated to deny them the opportunity to attend the U.T.U.C. conference, dated the 9th April 1960. In this connection, the positive case of the workmen concerned is that payment of their wages was all along made during the previous several months within 8th of every month, and that the Pahari workers were always paid their wages on the first day of payment and in any case before the Adibasi workers. But, it is alleged, contrary to this convention, the Adibasi workers were offered payment on the 8th April 1960 before the Pahari workers (Nepali workers). It is alleged that the Management did neither notify nor announce earlier that the payment to Nepali workers might be delayed owing to some unavoidable difficulty. It is their contention that this delay in making payment to them was purposely made with a view to create impediments to their joining the U.T.U.C. conference in time. So, before I come to a definite conclusion, I must see how far these allegations made on behalf of the workmen are really true. As to the allegation that wages used to be paid always within 8th of the following month, I may at once observe that the evidences on record do not warrant any such conclusion. From the deposition of P.W. 2, Shri Ran Bahadur Darjee, it will appear that even in November 1959 they received wages 1/2 days after 8th of the following month. This fact is admitted by P.W. 3, Shri Lachman Baman, also. Shri Baman further admits that wages for the month of March 1959 also were paid on the 9th April 1959. Similarly, he admitted that the wages for the month of October 1959 also were paid on the 9th and the 10th of November 1959. On the other hand, from the notice marked Ext. G it will appear that from 1958 there was a general notification that the wages of the garden workers would be paid within 10th of each month in respect of the previous month. Thus there was no hard and fast rule in the garden that the wages of a month must be paid within 8th of the following month. The fact appears to be that payments are usually made within the 10th of the following month and in some months payments are made after 8th also. The practice is that when Pay Books and Pay-sheets, etc., are made ready, the date of actual payment to any particular group of workmen is announced through the Line Chowkidar and also otherwise. No particular date is fixed for payment to any group of workers and it is expected that the workers should await the decision of the Management and an announcement also to that effect in the usual way. As to the contention that the Pahari alias Nepali workers are always paid before the Adibasi workers, I may at once refer to a statement of Shri Ran Bahadur given before this Tribunal. He categorically admits that in some months they (Pahari workers) used to receive their wages earlier and in some months the Adibasi workers used to receive their pay earlier. Thus without any further discussion, I may at once observe that there is no truth in the allegation that the Pahari workers have always been paid their wages before the Adibasi workers. The next contention of the workmen is that if for any reason the payment of wages was to be delayed beyond the 8th day of the month, it was the duty of the Management to notify or announce the same earlier. But I have already pointed out that there was no established convention that payments were to be made within the 8th day of a month. So, the question of notification in respect of delay, if any, in making payment does not really arise. If payment was to be delayed beyond the 10th day of the month as intended by the general notice marked Ext. G, the workmen might expect a notice of delay explaining the circumstances thereof. It is next urged that the Management knew it from before that the U.T.U.C. conference was due to be held on the 9th April 1960 and that non-payment of wages on the 8th April 1960 was mala fide and calculated to deny the workers the opportunity of joining the said conference. But this fact also is not borne out by any proper evidence. There is nothing sufficient on my record to show that the workmen either in writing or verbally actually represented before the Management that they should be paid their wages on or before 8th April 1960 in view of any such conference. It is also not in evidence that the Management had any occasion or source to learn in absence about the impending U.T.U.C. conference. So, there is no sufficient justification for imputing any motive to the Management, simply because payment of wages to the Nepali workers could not be made on the 8th April 1960. From the replies submitted by Shri Ran Bahadur and two other workers, it appears as if the Management was fully aware from before of the general meeting of the U.T.U.C. to be held on the 9th April 1960 and that the labourer approached the Management on the 2nd April 1960 for leave with a view to attend this meeting and that the Manager did gladly grant such leave. It is further alleged that the Manager assured on that day that payment of wages would be made earlier in that month. But I may at once observe that these allegations are not supported by any evidence whatsoever on record. Rather, Shri Ran Bahadur in his own deposition before me candidly says "it is not a fact that I went to the Manager on the 2nd of April and that he willingly granted leave to me for attending the conference." Thus Ran Bahadur himself contradicts his own statement which he gave in his reply. His statement before me is that he met the Manager on the 6th April 1960 and asked leave for himself and Mati Maya only. He tries to allege that the Manager pleaded his inability to grant any leave and asked him to do whatever he liked. But the fact is that Ran Bahadur and Mati Maya were actually granted leave by the Manager on a verbal request only. There is nothing sufficient on record to show that any other worker of the garden actually approached the Manager for leave in connection with the said conference. The positive evidence on the side of the Company is that nobody except Ran Bahadur and Mati Maya asked for leave, and no leave was actually granted to any other worker formally. It is also not in dispute that Ran Bahadur and Mati Maya left the garden before 8th April 1960 and that Ran Bahadur happened to return to the garden for some purpose on the 8th April 1960 but not for joining his duties. So, it is not correct to say that the Manager or the Management was actually in the know of the impending U.T.U.C. conference on the 9th April 1960 and the desire of the garden workers to join this conference. So, I am unable to conclude that non-payment of wages to Nepali workers on the 8th April 1960 was motivated by a mala fide intention to deny those workers the opportunity of attending the said conference. In his examination-in-chief Ran Bahadur no doubt tries to allege that he had informed the Manager on the 6th April 1960 that there would be an open session of the conference on the 9th, and that he had requested the Manager to be so kind as to permit the workers willing to join the conference to join the same. I have already pointed out that this was never the case of the workmen in their reply also to the charge-sheet. So, the story of giving an information as to the U.T.U.C. conference to the Management on the 6th April 1960 is a myth created for the purpose of this case at the time of hearing only. It is the common case of both the parties that a large number of Nepali workers went to the tea garden office at about 5-30 p.m. or so, and demanded payment of their wages then and there. Even according to Ran Bahadur about 500/550 Nepali workmen went to the office on that date for receiving their wages. Of course, it may be pointed out that this figure may not be exactly correct, because according to the Management there are much less number of Nepali workers on the Master Roll of the Company. Be that as it may, the fact remains that a large number of Nepali workers went in a body to the office and demanded payment of their wages for the month of March 1960 immediately. It is the common case of both the parties that wages to Adibasi workers were already being paid on that date. The evidence on the side of the Company is that these Nepali workers insisted on stopping payment to the Adibasi workers, unless payment to Nepali workers also was made. I have already pointed out that the Nepali workers tried to make out a case that they had a conventional right to receive payment of wages before the Adibasi workers, and I have also found that this alleged right has no basis in reality. In the circumstances, it is not difficult to imagine that the Nepali workers actually tried to insist that their wages should be paid before the Adibasi workers, though they had no legitimate ground or right to insist like that. Ran Bahadur in his examination-in-chief alleges that the Adibasi Line workers and the Nepali Line workers were to receive their payment on the 8th April 1960 and that he went to the office and inquired of Lalu Babu if their wages would be paid on that date. He adds that Lalu Babu informed him that their wages would not be paid on that date. But Ran Bahadur fails to explain how and when this settlement of payment to Nepali workers on the 8th April 1960 was actually arrived at and by whom. In his cross-examination, Ran Bahadur is forced to admit that the date of payment is usually announced at the time of weighment of leaf in the garden. He further says that he simply inquired of the workers if there was any announcement for payment of wages, and that the workers informed him that the Chota Sahib had announced that there would be payment on that date. He names one Kancha Kamin who is alleged to have mentioned this fact to him. But this Kancha Kamin has not been examined before this Tribunal. So, I find no basis for the allegation that any Kancha Kamin actually informed Ran Bahadur that Chota Sahib had made any such announcement regarding payment to the Nepali workers. Mr. Bhan and Mr. Anand were the two Chota Sahibs (Assistant Managers) at the relevant time and both of them have deposed before me. They categorically swear that they never made any such announcement. It goes without saying that Ran Bahadur had no personal knowledge of any such announcement. Thus, Ran Bahadur is not competent to say that any announcement in respect of payment of wages to Nepali workers on the 8th April 1960 was actually made. P.W. 3, Shri Lachman Baman, alleges that when he was passing by the Weighing Shed, he heard Mr. Anand to declare that wages would be paid both to Adibasi and Nepali workers in the afternoon of the 8th April 1960. Mr. Anand categorically denies that he ever made any such announcement. On the other hand, if payment on that date was actually decided upon from before, I fail to see any earthly reason for refusing payment to the Nepali workers on the 8th April 1960 in the afternoon. I am afraid, this is really a myth, and in fact there was no such announcement in respect of payment of wages to Nepali workers. O.P.W. 2, Shri Jetha Thappa, was the Line Chowkidar of the Garden. He swears that he made an announcement of payment of wages to Adibasi workers only on the 8th April 1960. This witness categorically swears that he made an announcement in respect of Adibasi workers alone, and not for the Nepali workers. It is also in evidence without any contradiction that the relevant pay books and pay sheets in respect of Nepali workers were not actually ready till about 11 p.m. on the 8th April 1960. So it is difficult for me to believe that the Management made any announcement regarding payment of wages to Nepali workers in the afternoon of 8th April 1960 without having the relevant books and pay-sheets ready from before. So, the story of announcement of payment of wages to Nepali workers in the afternoon of the 8th April 1960 carries no conviction with me. Thus it is clear that the Nepali workers had no sufficient reason or ground to go to the garden office in a body in the afternoon of 8th April 1960 to receive their payment. The fact appears to be that they really wanted to force the hands of the Management to make payment to them that very afternoon to suit their purpose and convenience. Admittedly, Ran Bahadur had been to Hashimara to attend the said U.T.U.C. conference before the 8th April 1960. He returned to the garden evidently with a mandate of the conference executives to take as many Nepali workers as possible to Hashimara for joining the conference. Presumably, on his return to the garden the workers pleaded their inability to join the conference for want of money to meet the expenses of the journey. I think, this was the real reason why Ran Bahadur and others collected all the Nepali workers, went to the garden office in a body and demanded payment of their wages immediately, though it was not the date fixed for payment of their wages. Evidently, they wanted the Management to act accordingly to their dictates. The workers admit that they had been to the garden office in a body, but they plead that they remained peaceful all through, after they had made a simple request to the Management for payment of their wages or some part thereof to cover the expenses for their journey to Hashimara. Admittedly, the Manager or the Management pleaded their inability to make any payment to them that afternoon as the relevant books and papers were not ready till then. This answer of the Management did not evidently satisfy the workers. The workers not only closed the gates and barricaded the exits from the office compound but also did not allow the Manager and other members of the staff to leave the office compound until they promised payment to them on the following morning. It is urged on behalf of the workers that a mere demand for payment of wages cannot by itself constitute an offence. But each case must be judged by its own merit and the peculiar circumstances surrounding it. When a few hundreds of Nepali workers without any reason or prior notice all on a sudden came to the office and demanded immediate payment of their wages, such act certainly became offensive and subversive of discipline. When the Management was sought to be coerced and dictated to act in a particular way by force or threats or abuse by a few hundred workers in a body, the conduct must be taken as riotous and disorderly and thus prejudicial to the maintenance of discipline. It was not simply a case of ventilating legitimate grievances of some aggrieved workers nor a case of concerted labour activity for achieving a legitimate purpose. So, the conduct cannot be treated as an inoffensive privilege of the workmen for making an agitation to fulfil their legitimate demands. The Management evidently had no obligation to make payment of wages or any kharcha money to the Nepali workers on the 8th April 1960, simply because the U.T.U.C. conference was going to be held on the following day. The workers even did not make any formal representation in that respect before the Management at proper time. So, the Management had ample reason to take exception to the disorderly behaviour of the crowd of Nepali workers that afternoon. That the gates and exits from the office compound were actually closed and barricaded is clear from the reply itself submitted by the four different charge-sheeted persons in the present case. The workers admitted in writing that they had found the gate closed and many people standing outside. It is also the unchallenged evidence of most of the witnesses on the side of the Company that the main gates of the office compound were not only closed but were blocked also. So, I have no reason whatsoever to disbelieve the Management's allegation that the Manager was not really allowed to go out of the office compound, though he had attempted twice in this respect. There is sufficient evidence on record to show that whenever the Manager started to move for going out, he was encircled or surrounded by the crowd of Nepali workers and not allowed to proceed further. It is also in evidence that the workers did not actually leave the office compound till 10-30 p.m. The workers were pleased to leave the office compound only when the Management gave them an assurance that payment of their wages would be made on the following morning. It is also sufficiently established that several clerks had to work overtime till 11 p.m. at night to make the books and other relevant papers ready for promised payment on the following morning. It is also in evidence that on account of obstruction and interference of a section of Nepali workers, Mr. Anand had to suspend payment to Adibasi workers also for some time. Of course, Mr. Anand could complete payment to Adibasi workers later, after the workers had made the Manager a target of their attack. So, in the face of all these facts and circumstances, I am unable to accept the contention of the workers that they had no mala fides or intention to break discipline. In paragraph 9(h) of the written statement filed by the workers, the workmen themselves admit that they had some reasons for getting agitated. But I have already shown that in fact the workers had no reason whatsoever to go to the office to make demand for immediate payment or to get agitated also in that connection. The Management in its discretion and without violating any previous undertaking wanted to make payment to Nepali workers in the afternoon of 9th April 1960. But the workers were not to listen to the Management or vacate the office compound. They not only squatted inside and outside the office compound, but kept the Manager and the members of the staff confined also till 10-30 p.m. I think, this act by itself constitutes a gross indiscipline. Because of this conduct of the workmen, Police had to be sent for and actually some Police Officers came to the garden that evening. The Police, of course, took no action against the workers, and the reason thereof is not very far to seek. The Police Officers rather advised the Management to make payment to the Nepali workers, if possible on the following morning, and the Management had to yield to such request and assured payment accordingly. Evidently, both the Police and the Management found that prudence or discretion was the better part of valour. From this it is sought to be argued on behalf of the workmen that if the workmen were not peaceful, the Police would have certainly taken action against them. But to me it appears that mere absence of arrest of anybody in that situation does not necessarily prove that the workers were not violent and that they remained peaceful. It is sufficiently in evidence that not more than two Police Officers came there at the time. One can easily imagine that such a Police Force was not strong enough to take action against some unruly elements in the face of an agitated crowd of a few hundred Nepali workers. So, this argument makes no impression whatsoever on me. Similarly, I think, there is no substance also in the contention of the workers that they had no reason or intention to keep the Manager confined there. My attention is drawn to a certain portion of the charge-sheet issued against these workmen. From the words "would not allow me to leave my factory compound from approximately 5-30 p.m. to approximately 10-30 p.m.", it is argued that in the charge-sheet the Manager actually expressed a mere surmise or apprehension against confinement. The argument is that mere surmise or apprehension of a future offence does not, in fact, constitute an offence. But to me it appears that it was not actually a case of mere surmise or apprehension of an offence, because there is enough evidence on both sides to show that the Manager was actually physically restrained from going out in his car on more than one occasion. Not only the workers expressed overtly by their words and actions not to allow the Manager to go out of the office compound, but actually they did not allow him to move out in spite of his best attempts. Any move in that direction by the Manager was restrained by the workers, because whenever he had wanted to move, the workers at once came to him and surrounded him from all sides. The Manager made two attempts to reach the gate, but he was stopped on both the occasions long before he could reach the gate. So, though the charge was not very happily worded in respect of confinement of the Manager, the fact remains that the workers not only decided not to allow him to leave the factory compound, but they also actually did not allow him to leave the same.

From what I have stated above, it is clear that these Nepali workers came to the office in a body not simply to receive payment of their wages in pursuance of any previous announcement made by the Management or in accordance with any established convention in respect thereof. They did not come to the garden office to make an appeal or submit any representation before the Management for this purpose. There was a demand for payment of their wages then and there, and they tried to coerce the Management to agree to make payment, even though it pleaded its inability to pay that very afternoon. This behaviour of the workmen by itself was sufficiently subversive of discipline. The Company's evidence is that it was not a case of peaceful demand even. These workmen took a threatening attitude, and also insulted and abused the Manager personally. Not only they held out threats to keep the Management in confinement, but they also actually translated their threats into action, and kept the Manager and other members of the staff confined till 10-30 p.m. From the deposition of Shri K. K. Bhan, it is clear that these workers started so much shouting that he had to stop payment to Modesia workers also. Mr. Baird swears that these workers were jesticulating, shouting and thumping on the table of Mr. Bhan, and as a result payment to Modesia workers also had to be suspended. So, there is no escape from the conclusion that these workers took a threatening attitude, and considered in the light of the surrounding circumstances, such an attitude was quite likely and probable too. Mr. Baird further swears that he heard Lachman Baman to say "maro" aiming at somebody. It is also stated by him that these charge-sheeted persons were seen abusing the Manager by calling him "Sala, Chor, Kukur." He is also sufficiently corroborated on the point by Mr. Anand. No reason has been shown why these responsible witnesses should be disbelieved. Mr. Anand is no longer in the service of the Company and naturally he cannot have any longer any personal interest in the cause of the garden. So, I do not see why he should perjure himself for nothing against these workers. O.P.W. 5, Shri Anil Kumar Dutta, also swears that the Manager was actually abused by Ran Bahadur and Harka Bahadur. One can easily imagine the situation when there gathered a big crowd, and the members of this crowd were shouting and shouting and insisting on immediate payment. The Manager having failed to agree to make payment then and there, it was not at all unlikely that he was abused and insulted too. From the recitals of the replies given by Shri Ran Bahadur, Harka Bahadur and Lachman Baman (vide Exts. B to B-2 and B-8), it will be clear that these three persons were the ringleaders of the crowd, and they were also the most vocal members of the crowd for pressing the said unusual demand of the workers for immediate payment. The other four workers, of course, denied in their replies that they took active part in any such affair. But from the evidence of Mr. Baird, Mr. Anand and Shri A. K. Dutta and Shri K. K. Bhan, it is sufficiently clear that they also took active part in shouting, abusing, etc. So, considering all the facts and circumstances, I think, the evidence on record is sufficient to establish the charges framed. From Exts. C to C-2 it will appear that Ran Bahadur, Lachman Baman and Harka Bahadur were also suspended previously for certain periods by way of punishment for similar offences. So, this was not their first offence of this kind and therefore the standing orders do not create any bar against the present action of dismissal. The other four charge-sheeted persons are no doubt the first offenders of this kind and so they were rightly punished by suspension. In this view of the matter, I think, there is sufficient justification for the punishments inflicted by the Management and this Tribunal has no sufficient reason to interfere. It is needless to add that maintenance of discipline is always essential for efficient running of an industry and maintenance of such discipline is exclusively a Management function. So, a gross misconduct, subversive of discipline, cannot be lightly dealt with. Legitimate grievances, if any, should always be constitutionally ventilated and should not lead anybody to indiscipline or disorderly behaviour. So, I think, the workers are not entitled to any relief in this case.

This is my award.

In industrial dispute between Messrs. Shri Gopal Tin Factory (P.) Ltd., 109/B Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta-4, and their workmen represented by Shri Gopal Tin Factory Workers' Union, 93/3/1/1 Hari Ghosh Street, Calcutta-6, over the following issue, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1788-I.R./IR/10L-201/60, dated the 10th April 1961.

Issue

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri Jitendra Nath Mukherjee and Shri Santi Banerjee is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

Upon receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

AWARD

The workmen represented by Shri Gopal Tin Factory Workers' Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union) filed the written statement on 30th May 1961, through Shri Sudhir Kumar Ghosh, the President of the Union. The dispute is concerning the dismissal of two workmen. The case as made out by the Union in the written statement is to the effect that Shri Jitendra Nath Mukherjee and Shri Santi Banerjee were recruited as Shoulderman and Machineman (Ball Press) respectively by the Company in the latter part of the year 1959 and that they along with other workmen organised the Trade Union in order to ameleorate the conditions of service of the workmen. A charter of demands was submitted by the Union. The management paid bonus in part, two weeks before the Pujas of 1960 to all workmen except these two workmen. Then on 19th September 1960 the management all on a sudden terminated the service of Shri Santi Banerjee without assigning any reason whatsoever. Again on 3rd October 1960 the services of Shri Jitendra Nath Mukherjee were terminated. For such unjustified action of the employer the Union took up the cause of the workmen, thus penalised before the Labour Directorate. All attempts for amicable settlement however failed, and as such the dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The Union alleges that the action of the management in dismissing these two workmen had been wholly mala fide, opposed to the principles of natural justice and arose out of unfair labour practice.

Messrs. Shri Gopal Tin Factory (P.) Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) filed the written statement on 4th July 1961. It is contended by the Company that these two workmen had never been dismissed as alleged and that their termination of service took place under different circumstances so much so that Shri Mukherjee was a casual and temporary worker recruited in February 1960 and that he was served with a simple notice of termination of service. As he was recruited as a temporary worker to carry out some surplus work and there was no need in retaining him in service the management discharged him.

As for the other workman, Shri Banerjee, it is stated that he was recruited as a casual worker and that he worked as a helper till 17th September 1960, and that he himself abondoned the service as he did not turn up for work since 19th September 1960 without giving any information whatsoever to the Company which resulted in an automatic termination of his services. It is contended by the Company that both these workmen were daily-rated workers who were paid on the basis of "no work, no pay." Besides, it is contended that the Company had never entertained any ill-will against these two workmen or against the Trade Union and that the charter of demands submitted by the Union on 14th April 1960 was settled by compromise on 30th March 1961. Regarding non-payment of bonus to these workmen, it is contended that such bonus according to the existing system was not given to any workman who had not completed one year of service with the Company and, therefore, there was nothing wrong in the matter of exclusion of these two workmen in the matter of participation in bonus.

At the time of hearing from the side of the Union, the two workmen who are concerned in this dispute were examined. The Company, on the other hand, examined Shri Gopal Saha, the Managing Director of the Company, and Shri Kaliprasanna Chakraborty, an officer of the Company, who is a formal witness and proved some documents. Besides, the parties produced and proved some documents, which are marked as exhibits in this case. After the close of evidence the learned Advocates representing the parties advanced arguments in support of their respective contentions.

The broad facts, as proved by evidence, indicate that this Company carries on its business by way of manufacture of tin containers, dice and similar materials employing both permanent and temporary workers. According to the evidence of O.P.W. 1., Shri Saha, there are about 30 or 32 workmen in the factory and amongst them 20 or 22 persons are permanent workmen and the rest are temporary. On the other hand, Shri Mukherjee and Shri Banerjee, the two workmen, who are concerned in this dispute, stated in course of their cross-examination that there were six or seven temporary workers, and that about 30 or 32 persons are permanent hands.

In any event, as the number of workmen in this industrial establishment is admittedly below 50 heads, there does not exist any Standing Orders as contemplated under the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946. There is also no rule and regulation showing the terms and conditions of employment of workmen engaged in this industry. It is also the admitted case of both the parties that no appointment letter had been given to either Shri Mukherjee or Shri Banerjee at the time of their appointment. It seems that the Company do not give any letter of appointment to the workmen. In the background of these admitted facts, it has got to be ascertained how far the action of the employer in terminating the service of these two workmen can be upheld as justified. I now proceed to consider the evidence adduced by the parties regarding the dismissal of these two workmen who are concerned in this dispute, one by one.

Shri Jitendra Nath Mukherjee

There is no dispute on the point that Shri Mukherjee was recruited and appointed on the 17th February 1960, as a Shoulderman, and that he was getting Rs. 3-8 per day. Apparently he was a skilled hand. In paragraph 6 of the Union's written statement, it was stated that Shri Mukherjee had been recruited in the latter part of the year 1959. It transpires from the admission of Shri Mukherjee that his appointment was on the 17th February 1960, and that the assertion in the written statement of the Union that he was appointed in 1959 is not correct. Shri Mukherjee stated that before taking the appointment in this Company he was working elsewhere and he resigned from that service as he was assured by the management here that he would be permanent hand and that he would get all the facilities available to a permanent worker.

The Company's version, on the other hand, is that Shri Mukherjee was a temporary worker and no such assurance was given to him. Admittedly he had been served with a notice of discharge and in the notice it was stated that the surplus work for which he had been taken was over. Exhibit D is the notice of discharge, dated 26th September 1960, wherein it is further mentioned that the workman had been recruited as a temporary worker to carry out some surplus work which was then over and for that his service was no longer required. Besides this notice, there is no evidence to indicate that actually Shri Mukherjee was recruited as a temporary worker for the so-called purpose of carrying out some additional surplus work. Evidently, unless there be some evidence to support the allegations contained in the notice of termination of service, those allegations contained in the letter of termination of service cannot lead to an inference that the workman concerned was merely a temporary hand. In its normal meaning a "temporary workman" is a workman who has been engaged for work which is of an essentially temporary nature, likely to be finished within a limited time. There is no evidence adduced by the employer to show what additional temporary work was in hand at the time Shri Mukherjee was recruited and whether the recruitment was at all connected with the execution of such temporary additional work likely to last for a limited period. The question whether Shri Mukherjee was a temporary hand or a permanent hand has got to be determined on the basis of evidence as adduced by the parties in the light of the assertion made by Shri Mukherjee that he was recruited on an assurance that he was a permanent hand or that would be treated as such after six months of service. The Company has produced the Wage Register showing paying of weekly wages to the daily-rated workmen week by week starting from the week ending on 25th April 1959 up to 13th April 1961. The calculation of wages and payment thereof as signed by the receipient workmen are noted week by week in the register. It is necessary to examine this Wage Register very carefully to find out the truth of the case. The name of Shri Mukherjee appeared in the Wage Register for the first time at the page wherein payment for the week ending 20th February 1960 was noted. This fits in with the case of the Company that he was appointed on 17th February 1960. It appears from the entries at that page of the Register, Ext. B, that at that time there were four permanent workmen and four temporary workmen in the establishment. The word "temporary" is clearly written above the names of four workmen and I take it that those four workmen including Shri Mukherjee were temporary hands in February 1960. Next, on turning to the page wherein the weekly payment for the week ending 13th August 1960 was noted, I find that the name of Shri Mukherjee was recorded above the list of the temporary workers as the fifth man in the list of permanent workers. Similar is the description of Shri Mukherjee in the Wage Register at several pages showing payment for the several weeks ending with 20th August 1960, 27th August 1960, 3rd September 1960, 10th September 1960, 17th September 1960, 24th September 1960 and 1st October 1960. It is significant to note that in the said Register showing payment of wages in the last seven weeks as mentioned above, the word "temporary" appearing under the name of Shri Mukherjee had been erased. Obviously, nobody other than the management could have any interest in defacing the writing in their own Register so that the issue as to whether Shri Mukherjee was a permanent worker or temporary worker could be clouded. It would not be unwise to draw an inference from these facts and circumstances that Shri Mukherjee was treated as a permanent worker at a time when he has just completed six months of service, i.e., from 17th February 1960 to 17th August 1960, under the Company. Had the workman been recruited as a temporary hand for the purpose of doing the work in connection with certain additional work which the employer had received and that such work was likely to be finished within a limited period, there would be no reason to treat the employee as a permanent hand after completion of six months of service under the Company. It is true that in the Attendance Register, Ext. 6, Shri Mukherjee had been shown as a temporary worker even in August and September 1960. But when the two Registers bear different descriptions with respect to same workman, the workman is entitled to get the benefit of the entries in one of the Register which is favourable to him, particularly, in view of the fact that the employer had deliberately tampered with the writing in one of the Register. It is curious to note from the Attendance Register that Shri Mukherjee was actually present at the factory on the 3rd October 1960. The evidence of Shri Mukherjee is that he was dismissed on the 3rd October 1960 and the letter of termination of service though dated 26th September 1960 was actually made over to him on 3rd October 1960. This statement of Shri Mukherjee appears to be correct as I find in the Wage Register that his wages had been calculated for six days from 25th September 1960 to 1st October 1960. There would possibly be any reason to pay wages to a workman after termination of his services. Besides, such payments of wages to Shri Mukherjee indicate that he was paid wages for the holidays as well, when it is the admitted case of both the parties that the factory observed holidays from the 27th September to 2nd October 1960 on account of Durga Pujas.

Undoubtedly, the management of a concern has the power to direct its own internal administration according to certain rules and conditions of service applicable to workman. But at the same time the power is not unlimited and when a dispute arises on the question as to whether the termination of service is justified or not, the Industrial Tribunal has got to examine how the termination took place and if it be found that the action of the management had been mala fide or that it was prompted by a spirit of victimisation, or as an unfair labour practice, the worker is entitled to get appropriate relief. In the instant case, the employer terminated the service of Shri Mukherjee all on a sudden. The reason assigned in the letter of termination that he was found surplus to requirement is not proved by evidence. The fact that the Wage Register had been tampered with goes a long way to show that the management is anxious to make out a case that Shri Mukherjee was a temporary hand though, as a matter of fact, he was recruited neither for the purpose of doing some work of a temporary nature, nor with an understanding that he would be retained only for a limited period. Rather the evidence shows that after six months of service he was made permanent. O.P.W. 1 Shri Saha stated in the examination in chief that permanent workers are paid bonus. By permanent workers he means to say that only those workers who work for 240 days in a year are to be treated as permanent. This oral statement of Shri Saha is not proved by any evidence. Rather the facts indicate that workers are treated as permanent after six months of service and that all permanent workers are admittedly paid bonus. In the fact of these circumstances it cannot be explained why bonus had not been paid to Shri Mukherjee. Of course, I am not concerned in this case to find out and determine any question relating to a claim of bonus in favour of Shri Mukherjee. But at the same time when it is admitted that bonus had been paid to permanent workers on the eve of Pujas, the fact that Shri Mukherjee had demanded bonus as permanent worker and that he stood dismissed all on a sudden after that can reasonably be taken as circumstantial evidence to indicate what was the real reason behind the dismissal.

It is true that the onus is upon the Union to establish the allegation as to victimisation. In this case I find from Ext. G that a charter of demands had been submitted by this Union on 13th April 1960 and that an amicable tripartite settlement had been made on 30th March 1961. The learned lawyer for the Company urged that the relation between the employer and the workmen had been cordial and the Company never thought of being harsh against workers who were prominently connected with the Union. The tripartite settlement leads support to the Company's version. Upon consideration of the facts and circumstances I hold that there is no case of victimisation established in the instant case. But it is proved beyond doubt that the employer dismissed this workman just because of the fact that a legitimate demand for participation of bonus had been put forward, and that in dispensing with his services the employer proceeded mala fide when a case to support the action was made out to the extent that the workman concerned was purely a temporary hand recruited for additional work undertaken by the concern. I therefore find that the Union has been able to establish a case of unfair labour practice on the part of employer. Besides, I hold that the management proceeded mala fide in terminating the services of Shri Mukherjee. So the normal relief as to reinstatement must follow. I therefore direct that Shri Mukherjee be reinstated by the Company in the same post he was occupying at the time of his dismissal and that he be paid the same wages as he was then getting. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I think it would be unwise to direct the employer to pay Shri Mukherjee the wages for the period of his unemployment from the date of dismissal till his reinstatement. His service during the period would be counted as leave without pay.

Shri Shanti Banerjee

There is no controversy on the point that Shri Banerjee was recruited as a helper in the Ball Press Department of this establishment. It appears from the Attendance Register that he was recruited on 18th April 1960. The said Register also shows that previously he worked in this concern in August 1959 and also for a few days in early part of September 1959. The evidence of Shri Banerjee that he was again taken in service in December 1959 is apparently not correct. Shri Banerjee admitted that he worked in September 1959 and then he was discharged. I take it that he worked for about two months in 1959 and then was discharged and that he was recruited afresh on 18th April 1960. He admits his signature in the Wage Register, Ext. C, wherein he is described as a temporary worker (vide Wage Register showing payment for the week ending 30th April 1960). The Wage Register further indicates that he received payment up to the week ending on 17th September 1960. But all through in the Wage Register his name was shown as a temporary worker. The evidence of Shri Banerjee is to the effect that he demanded that he should be made permanent and that he should be paid bonus. At the same time he stated in the cross-examination that temporary workmen are not paid bonus. Naturally, therefore, his demand for bonus was unjustified. The question however arises for consideration as to how the termination of service of this workman took place. According to the version of the employer, Shri Banerjee attended office up to the 17th September 1960 which was a Saturday and he failed to turn up on the 19th September onward. In the Attendance Register I find that he was marked absent on the 19th, 20th and 21st September. The employer's version is that when a temporary unskilled worker fails to turn up, they do not wait for an indefinite period for a workman to report to duty and make their own arrangement to carry on their work. From the facts and circumstances of the case I am inclined to hold that Shri Banerjee when refused bonus, considered it not worthwhile to continue his service under this employer, at a small wage of Rs. 1-9 per day and that he himself abandoned the services. Obviously, therefore, the termination of service of this workman did not proceed from any initiative taken by the employer. In the circumstances the termination of service of Shri Banerjee was not, in fact, in the nature of dismissal or even discharge of the workman, proceeding from the employer. In this view I do not find any reason to interfere with the termination of service of Shri Santi Banerjee.

This is the award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Jay Engineering Works Ltd., 183A Prince Anwar Shah Road, Calcutta-31, and their workmen represented by the Jay Engineering Mazdoor Congress, 7B Rani Rashmoni Road, Calcutta-13 (Case No. VIII-443/60.)

This reference was previously referred to the First Labour Court by order No. 622-I.R./IR/10L-51/60, dated the 16th February 1960, for adjudication which has been replaced by the Sixth Industrial Tribunal, constituted under notification No. 3115-I.R./IR/3A-6/59, dated the 21st June 1960, and has in consequence been abolished by notification No. 3508-I.R./IR/3A-9/59, dated the 11th July 1960.

The Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Tripith Singh is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

The case was taken up for hearing on 24th January 1962. Both parties' representatives appeared, but the workman concerned in the dispute, viz., Shri Tripith Singh, was absent. The representative of the Union Shri Pandey stated that the workman concerned was untraceable; hence, it was difficult for him to proceed with the case.

Therefore, in the above facts and circumstances, it seems to me that there is no dispute outstanding between the parties as the workman concerned in the dispute did not turn up on the date of hearing. Therefore, a "no-dispute" award is passed in this case.

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court

By order No. 1953-I.R./IR/10L-117/57, dated Calcutta, the 14th May 1958, and subsequent corrigendum No. 1313-I.R./IR/10L-117/57, dated 31st March 1959, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Sree Laxmi Iron & Steel Works (P.) Ltd. and their workmen represented by the Howrah District Engineering and Metal Workers' Union to the Second Labour Court for adjudication regarding the issue contained in the order of reference.

Issue

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri Panchanan Maity is justified. To what relief is he entitled?

FINDINGS

After many adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 6th February 1962. The Company put in appearance on that day; but none appeared for the Union. On the following day the Union filed a petition praying for an adjournment. As the hearing of the case had been closed and as there was no prayer for reopening of the case, the petition was rejected. As the Union did not care to put in appearance on the date of hearing, i.e., on 6th February 1962, I hold that there is no longer any industrial dispute in this case.

AWARD

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4641-I.R./IR/10L-150/61, dated the 27th July 1961, for adjudication upon the following issues:

"1. Whether the termination of service of Shri Birbal Jadav is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

2. Bonus for the year 1959-60.

3. Working hours.

4. Whether workers are entitled to wages for the strike period?"

After due notices were given to the parties, the Union representing the workmen concerned took time on 17th August 1961 for filing its written statement. On that date the Company produced a letter of authority authorising Shri C. L. Ganguli, Advocate, to represent its case. On 7th September 1961 Shri Ganguli appeared for the Company while the Union remained unrepresented. On the subsequent date on 30th September 1961 the Secretary of the Union filed a written statement. On 26th October 1961 neither party appeared nor took any steps. Next 14th November 1961 was fixed for filing written statement by the Company. On that date the Company appeared and took time till 14th December 1961 for filing its written statement. Another date was fixed for filing written statement of the Company on 20th January 1962, on which date also Shri Ganguli took another adjournment for the said purposes but the Union did not appear. Then 5th February 1962 was fixed for filing written statement of the Company. But in the meantime both the parties put in a joint petition of compromise on 3rd February 1962, settling the disputes amongst themselves out of Tribunal. Shri Ganguli and the Union Secretary were heard on the matter. I perused the terms of compromise as embodied in the joint petition and found the terms to be quite fair and reasonable and hence the terms were accepted. The compromise terms covered all the issues involved in the present dispute and the settlement reached between the parties out of Tribunal stands accepted. Award is passed accordingly. Petition of compromise shall be made Annexure "A" to this Award.

AWARD

These four applications under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by (1) Sundari, ticket No. 64, in case No. 151/59, (2) Sricharan, ticket No. 149, in case No. 152/59, (3) Sundari, ticket No. 96, in case No. 153/59 and (4) Kiron, ticket No. 102, in case No. 154/59, all belonging to the "A" shift of the High Speed Winding Department were consolidated at the instance of the parties, because the charge-sheets against all of them arose from the same incident and they were dismissed as a result of the same enquiry.

They were dismissed with effect from 4th December 1958 (vide Exts. 4, 4_1, and 4_2). The applications under section 33A were filed on the 2nd of December 1959. The Company filed its applications under section 33(2)(b) on the 6th February 1960 and tendered one month's wages at about the same time. Evidently, therefore, the applications under the proviso to section 33(2)(b) were made and one month's wages under that proviso were tendered more than a year after the date of dismissal of these workmen. Evidently, these cannot be construed as a substantial compliance with the requirements of the proviso and it must accordingly be held that there was a contravention by the Company of the requirements of the proviso to section 33(2)(b). The first condition therefore for the maintainability of the applications under section 33A is fulfilled and the applications must accordingly be held to be maintainable.

These workmen were dismissed on the ground that they were found guilty of misconduct in the shape of their having suddenly gone on a strike on the 19th of October 1958 in the "A" shift and of their having incited other workmen to stop their work with the result that there was a complete stoppage of work for sometime and there was little work throughout the shift. Charge-sheets were submitted against these four workmen and they also submitted their explanations. Then according to the Company, there was an enquiry and as a result of the enquiry they were found to be guilty of the charge. According to the applicants they did not incite other workmen, but there was a stoppage of work as a result of Bakridani, another workman being allowed to work although that was a day when she was enjoying her annual leave. It is further the case of the workmen that there was really no enquiry at all.

On behalf of the workmen the four workmen were examined, namely, Kiron, two Sundaris, and Sricharan and on behalf of the management Shri R. K. Goel, Labour Officer who held the enquiry, Ramdas Prulal who was at the time employed as the Officer-in-Charge of the High Speed Winding in the "A' shift, Bakridani, a workman over whom there was this trouble and Ramprotap Singh, the Time-Keeper in-charge of the "A" shift at the time.

The evidence on both sides indicates that troubles started on the 19th October 1958 shortly after the "A" shift began at about 5-30 a.m. According to the workmen Bakridani who was enjoying her annual leave was allowed to work and that is what admittedly led to the incident. Then according to the Company, a number of workmen came into the main alley shouting and signalling with their hands to others to stop work. Sricharan is alleged to have been amongst the workmen who took the lead in the matter and who came into the main alley shouting at their co-workers to stop their machines and signalling with their hands to do so. Kiron, Sundari, ticket number 96 and Sundari, ticket number 64, along with others are also alleged to have come to the main alley and then to have proceeded to other machines which were still running and to have forced the workmen of these machines to stop working. The workmen of course deny this. The workmen further deny that there was any enquiry. On the dates when the inquiry is said to have been held admittedly both the Sundaries and Sricharan were present although they say that there was really no enquiry. Kiron was, however, admittedly not present, both according to herself and according to the witness for the Company.

The first question therefore for consideration in this case is whether there was an enquiry at all and the next question is whether if there was an enquiry, on the evidence adduced during the enquiry, the charges against the workmen could be said to have been made out.

On the first point the cases of two Sundaris and Sricharan must be treated separately from that of Kiron because admittedly Kiron was not present during the enquiry. Sundari, ticket No. 64, says in her examination-in-chief itself as follows: "There was an enquiry into the charge-sheet. I was present at the enquiry. At the enquiry I was told that I would be called later and thereafter no letter reached me. About a month later I received a letter of the termination of my service." Of course, she also stated in her examination-in-chief that what she stated in her application was also true. In paragraphs 4 and 5 of her application, however, this Sundari states that an enquiry was arranged which was neither fair nor proper and repeated requests from her for the minutes of enquiry proceedings were turned down and there is good reason to believe that the minutes of proceedings may be recast according to the employer's will. Evidently, therefore, this Sundari at any rate never alleged that there was no enquiry at all and as regards her allegation that the enquiry was neither fair nor proper and that her requests for the minutes of the enquiry proceedings were turned down one may point out at once that there was no suggestion from her side to any of the witnesses for the Company that this was so. That would show that the statement of this Sundari in her application could not possibly be true. Then Sricharan says in his examination-in-chief that he was called to appear at an enquiry, he did appear at the enquiry and he waited there for sometime and then he was told by Sudhir Babu in the presence of Bijoy Babu, the Acting Manager, to come on another day on receipt of a letter from him and he was not questioned there by anyone on anything. Paragraphs 4 and 5 of Sricharan's application are in identical terms with paragraphs 4 and 5 of the application of Sundari, ticket number 64. On behalf of Sricharan also there was no suggestion to any of the witnesses for the Company that they asked for the minutes of the proceedings and that their prayer was turned down. As a matter of fact, paragraph 5 itself of the application would show that there was an enquiry and that the proceedings were recorded and as far as one can make out from their application their only apprehension was that the minutes of the proceedings might be recast later. The case therefore that is sought to be made out by Sricharan in his evidence that there was no enquiy at all is falsified by his own application. Then Sundari, ticket No. 96, also says in her evidence that 15 days after the service of the charge-sheet she was called to the office when she was told to go back and on receipt of another notice she went to the office again about 20 days later and had to go back without being told anything and about 20 days later she was served with the notice of termination of her service. In paragraphs 4 and 5 of her application she too makes the same statements as those of Sricharan and the other Sundari in their applications. The evidence, therefore, of these three workmen is clearly contradicted by their own statements in their own applications and obviously it is impossible to believe this part of their evidence because it is contradicted by their own allegations in their applications. As against their evidence there is the evidence of Shri R. K. Goel, the Labour Officer of the Company, who held the enquiry, of Ramdas Prulal, the Officer-in-Charge of High Speed Winding in the "A" shift on the 19th October 1958 and of Bakridani, the workwoman over whom there was the incident of that day. Their evidence is supported by the record of the proceedings during the enquiry. There is no reason at all why I should doubt the genuineness of that record.

It must accordingly be held that there was a proper enquiry and that these three workmen, namely, the two Sundaris and Sricharan were all present. The evidence adduced on behalf of the management is supported by the record of the proceedings and they go to show that these workmen were allowed an opportunity of cross-examining the witnesses but they declined to do so. They were also asked to make statements if they liked but they refused to do so. Obviously, therefore, the management did whatever it could to have the enquiry properly conducted but as the workmen did not co-operate, there was no cross-examination of the witnesses examined for the Company and no statements of any of the workmen could be recorded. It must accordingly be held on the evidence that there was a proper enquiry, as far as the attitude of the workmen concerned made it possible for the management to ensure such an enquiry.

The next question for consideration is whether on the materials on the record of that enquiry the three workmen concerned, namely, the two Sundaris and Sricharan were rightly held guilty. It appears that during the enquiry three witnesses were examined, namely, Ramdas, Rajnarain and Bakridani. Ram Das stated that Sricharan along with others started shouting at their co-workers to stop their machines and signalling with their hands to stop the machines and that he also left his machine along with them and created rowdyism. Sricharan according to him was also amongst them and shouted slogans. Sundari, ticket No. 96 and Sundari, ticket No. 64, along with others also came into the main alley and then all these workmen proceeded to the machines which were still running and forced all the workmen who were working on their machines to stop. Raj Narayan says that Sricharan removed him from his machine and prevented him from working. Bakridani mentioned the two Sundaris as amongst the workmen who collected in the centre of the department and further said that while she was doing her work the two Sundaris went to her and abused her for doing her work and stopped her from doing her work by cutting the yarn. On this evidence the two Sundaris and Sricharan were clearly guilty of the charges and the Enquiring Officer was justified in coming to that conclusion.

As regards Kiron admittedly she was not present during the enquiry. Notices had been issued to her at her local address. Admittedly these notices could not be served on her and returned unserved with the postal endorsements "left". Kiron's case is that she fell ill and then went to her daughter's house at Dhakuria because there was no one else to look after her during her illness at her local address. Whether she was actually ill or not, the fact remains that the notices could not be served on her as she was found absent from her local address. As she was not present during the enquiry it is not possible for her to say whether there was an enquiry and in fact she does not say so. I have already found that there was an enquiry and the enquiry against Kiron was held on the same day as against the two Sundaris and Sricharan. At the enquiry against the two Sundaris and Sricharan, while Kiron was absent the other three were present. On behalf of the management two out of the three witnesses examined at the enquiry, namely, Ramdas and Bakridani were examined before me. The third examined during the enquiry, namely, Rajnarayan could not be produced as he is no longer in the employ of this company. Rajnarayan, of course, mentioned Kiron as having cut the yarn on the bobbins and she and other workmen asked the other workers to stop and stopped the machines which were still working. But as Rajnarayan has not been examined at this enquiry it is only fair that his statement at the enquiry in her absence should be disregarded by this Tribunal. There is, however, the evidence of Ramdas and Bakridani who were examined at the enquiry. According to Ramdas, Kiron along with the two Sundaris and others came into the main alley and then proceeded to the machines which were still running and forced the workmen who were still working on their machines to stop. Bakridani also says that Kiron and others collected at the centre of the department. She did not say anything more specifically against Kiron. In his examination-in-chief before the Ramdas does not say anything specifically against Kiron but says in his cross-examination that Kiron was permanently attached to machine No. 15 and that all the workers gradually joined the first set of workmen who had come to the main alley shouting "ho" "ho", etc., but he had no talk with Kiron. Bakridani in her examination-in-chief mentioned Kiron as one of the persons who had come to the centre and shouted "ho" "ho" raising their arms and kept shouting "stop work, stop work." In her cross-examination she mentioned Kiron also as having come to her machine and cut the thread of her machine and abused her, although as I have already stated, she did not include Kiron in her evidence at the enquiry as being amongst those who had cut the yarn of her machine and abused her. She had, however, mentioned at the enquiry Kiron as one of the persons who had collected at the centre. Then there is the evidence provided by the Production Book. According to Ramdas, Kiron was permanently attached to machine No. 15. In the production book there is no entry of any production against machine No. 15 on the 19th October 1958. On the 19th October 1958 the only production recorded is on machine No. 14. On behalf of the workmen the Production Book has been criticised first because the entries therein bear nobody's initials and secondly because if there was some work as the witnesses for the Company say there was, there must have been some production, however little. None of the witnesses for the Company, specially Ramdas who speaks about the Production Book was not questioned as to why there was no output recorded even against these workmen who claim to have worked for sometime. Ramdas was of course questioned about nobody signing the entries in this register. The mere fact that the entries are not signed by any one even on days about which there is no controversy goes to show that it is not the practice for anyone to sign the entries of the Production Book, presumably because that would mean too much clerical work. On the materials on the record it is difficult to say that this is not a book kept in the usual course of business. It must accordingly be held that the register is kept in the normal course of business and that the entries in it are genuine. The absence of such entries as against Kiron shows that she did not do any work on that day. Her own statement in her examination-in-chief itself is that from about 6 a.m. up to 11-30 a.m. she was standing idle near her machine without doing any work and from about 11-30 to 12 noon she worked and at 12 the shift closed. Of course as I have already stated, the evidence on the other side is that she came to the main alley shortly after a number of men went there shouting "ho, ho" and signalling with their hands for other workmen to stop their work. The fact that there was no entry in the Production Book means that she did not do any work at all and it must accordingly be held that she was not telling the truth when she said that she did some work or she was standing by her machine from 6 a.m. to 11-30 a.m. On the materials on the record it must be held that she joined other workers shortly after the trouble began and did not do any work at all that day and that the finding of the Enquiring Officer that the charges against her were proved is justified.

Admittedly, the whole incident of the 19th October 1958 arose from what the workmen considered the managements' unwarranted permission to Bakridani to work while she was still enjoying her annual leave. The management has led evidence to show that Bakridani was not actually enjoying her annual leave on that date as her photo book Ext. N shows that she actually had no leave in 1958 at all. It appears from this exhibit that she had leave from 26th August 1957 to 8th September 1957 and thereafter she had leave from 6th March 1961 to 20th March 1961. On behalf of the workmen this exhibit has been challenged on the ground first that it should have been in the custody of Bakridani herself and secondly that it does not bear anybody's signature. There is no column in the book for anybody's signature. It appears that it is a book prescribed under rule 87 of the rules under the Factories Act. There is nothing in rule 87 to suggest that the entries in the leave book must be signed by anyone. Of course, the rule provides that the leave book shall be the property of the worker and the Manager or his agent shall not demand it except to make entries of the dates of holidays or interruptions in service and shall not keep it for more than a week at a time. The question how the management came to be in possession of the leave book so as to enable it to produce it before the Tribunal was not put to any of the witnesses. Consequently, it is impossible for the Tribunal to say how the management was in possession of the book. It is just possible that Bakridani was cited as a witness by the management and the management got hold of the leave book from her in order to ensure its production before the Tribunal. Whether that is so or not, the fact remains that the leave book does show that Bakridani was not on leave at all in 1958 so that the question of her being on leave on the 19th October 1958 was obviously raised by someone among the workmen with a mischievous purpose. The trouble therefore that occurred on the 19th October 1958 is entirely due to this incorrect impression in the mind of some of the workmen. Even if it could be assumed for the sake of argument that Bakridani was enjoying her leave on the 19th October 1958 there would be no justification at all for the workmen behaving in the manner in which they did behave and I have no hesitation in saying that the behaviour of the workmen was wholly unjustified, when there was no basis at all for the information that Bakridani was enjoying her annual leave.

The Company in the charge-sheets issued against the four workmen concerned mentioned section 14(c)(vi) and 14(c)(xi) of the Standing Orders which is Appendix VIII to the award published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 10th June 1958, i.e., the award forming part of the omnibus textile award. Section 14(c) mentions certain acts as misconduct. Clause (vi) refers to leaving the proper place of work before time or remaining outside the place of duty during working hours without permission. Clause (xi) speaks of striking work or inciting others to strike work in contravention of the provisions of any law or rule having the force of law or any contract. This award was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on June 10, 1958, and must accordingly have come into force with effect from the 10th July 1958. It is however, argued that the Standing Orders forming part of Appendix VIII did not come into force till they were certified. Issue No. 12 in that reference related to Standing Orders about the rules of service. Regarding issue No. 12 the Tribunal says in paragraph 16 and 16(i) at page 2097 that it framed the Standing Orders and Rules of Service as mentioned in Appendix VIII to the award for application to the Cotton Textile Industry in West Bengal, on a perusal of the Standing Orders suggested by the Union and the Bengal Millowners' Association and also the Standing Orders framed by the Major Jute Textile Tribunal for the Jute Textile Industry of West Bengal. Then in paragraph 1 of the Standing Orders, it is said that it shall come into force as indicated in the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1957. Section 5 of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act provides for certification of Standing Orders on receipt of the draft under section 3. Evidently, therefore, it is only where the employer submits a draft set of Standing Orders that it is open to the Certifying Officer to certify them. There is no provision for certification of Standing Orders which form part of a Tribunal's award, because the Tribunal frames the Standing Orders after giving the parties an opportunity of suggesting their own draft Standing Orders and after hearing them. It would be perfectly useless for a Tribunal to go through the procedure of letting the parties have an opportunity of submitting their draft standing orders, then of giving them a hearing on their draft, and finally framing Standing Orders of its own, if the whole process has to be gone through afresh before the Certifying Officer. As a matter of fact, section 5 itself provides an answer to the question whether it was intended that the Certifying Officer should again sit in judgment over the Tribunal's award in the matter. The very use of the clause "on receipt of the draft under section 3" with which section 5 opens shows that it is only when draft standing orders are submitted by the employers that the Certifying Officer is entitled to certify them. The Standing Orders in a Tribunal's award cannot by any means be construed as a mere draft. Consequently, there is no question of certification of such Standing Orders. The question now arises what is the meaning of paragraph 1 of the Standing Orders which says that these orders shall come in force as indicated in the manner in the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946. I think the only reasonable meaning that can be attached to this paragraph of the Standing Orders is that the Standing Orders should come into force as stated in section 7 which of course is not applicable in terms to the Standing Orders forming part of an award because where there is no certification by a Certifying Officer there is no question of any appeal from the order of the Certifying Officer. The date of operation of a set of Standing Orders forming part of a Tribunal's award must be the same as that of an award under section 17A of the Industrial Disputes Act In other words section 7 of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act in its application to the Standing Orders forming part of a Tribunal's award has to be read in the light of section 17A of the Industrial Disputes Act, and subject to such modifications as this may require. The obvious implication, therefore, of paragraph 1 of the Standing Orders in this case is that these Standing Orders shall come into operation on the expiry of 30 days from the date of publication of the award exactly like the rest of the award of which it forms a part. In this view the Standing Orders on which the management relies are the Standing Orders governing the cases of these four workmen. On the materials therefore, the management was justified in holding that the workmen were guilty of misconduct with which they were charged under section 14(c)(vi) and (xi) of the Standing Orders.

I have already said that there has been a contravention, in each of these four cases, of the requirements of the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. I have also come to the conclusion that on the materials the management was justified in finding all the four workmen guilty of the misconduct with which they were charged. The question now is what the Tribunal's award should be in such a case. The Supreme Court has laid down the law on this matter clearly in the case of Equitable Coal Ltd. and Algu Singh and another, 1958, I, L.L.J. 793. That was a case in which the Supreme Court had to consider the scope and effect of the provisions of sections 22 and 23 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act of 1950. These sections raise the same question as sections 33 and 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. Consequently, the law as laid down there will govern the cases under sections 33(2)(b) and 33A also. Their Lordships observe as follows: "In an enquiry held under section 23, two questions fall to be considered. Is the fact of contravention by the employer of the provisions of section 22 proved? If yes, is the order passed by the employer against the employee justified on the merits? If both these questions are answered in favour of the employee, the Appellate Tribunal would no doubt be entitled to pass an appropriate order in favour of the employee. If the first point is answered in favour of the employee, but on the second point the finding is that, on the merits, the order passed by the employer against the employee is justified, then the breach of section 22 proved against the employer may ordinarily be regarded as a technical breach and it may not, unless there are compelling facts in favour of the employee, justify any substantial order of compensation in favour of the employee. It is unnecessary to add that, if the first issue is answered against the employee, nothing further can be done under section 23." In this case the Supreme Court has also considered whether the Tribunal would be justified in passing an order of compensation in favour of the workmen if in spite of contravention of the requirements of the section the management was justified in holding that the workmen concerned were guilty of misconduct and if that finding justifies the order of dismissal. In the light of that decision it must be held that in this case also in spite of contravention of the provisions of section 33, the workmen are not entitled to anything in the shape of compensation for their dismissal, for the dismissal is by no means wrongful although there was a technical contravention of the requirements of the proviso to section 33(2)(b). On behalf of the workmen reliance was placed on the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Sasa Musa Sugar Works (Private) Ltd., and Shobrati Khan and others 1959, II, L.L.J. 388 and the case between Hotel Imperial, New Delhi, and others and Hotel Workers' Union in the same volume of the Labour Law Journal at page 544. In the first case the workmen concerned were suspended by the employer pending enquiry against them regarding charges of adopting go-slow tactics and without any departmental enquiry the employer applied to the Industrial Tribunal under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act for permission to dismiss the concerned workmen for the alleged misconduct of go-slow. The Industrial Tribunal found on the evidence led by the employer in the course of the said enquiry that the workmen were guilty of unjustified and deliberate go-slow tactics. It, however, granted permission to suspend some of the concerned workmen for seven days. The applications by the concerned workmen under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act complaining against their suspension were rejected by the Industrial Tribunal on the ground that the suspension was not by way of substantive punishment but was only pending enquiry. On appeal the Labour Appellate Tribunal found all the concerned workmen guilty of the charges and the appeal of the concerned workmen against the order of the Industrial Tribunal rejecting their applications under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act was withdrawn. The Labour Appellate Tribunal, however, refused to give permission to the employer on the ground that the suspension had been meted out by way of punishment and the subsequent application by the employer for permission after meting out the punishment must be held to be mala fide. The Supreme Court reversed the decisions of the Industrial Tribunal and the Labour Appellate Tribunal and held that the employer was entitled to permission under the Industrial Disputes Act in view of the finding that the workmen concerned were guilty of the misconduct alleged against them. But as the management held no enquiry after suspending the workmen and as the proceedings under section 33 were practically converted into the enquiry which normally the management should have held before applying to the Industrial Tribunal, the management is bound to pay the wages of the workmen till a case for dismissal was made out in the proceedings under section 33 of the Act and the employer was directed to pay to the workmen their wages for the period from the date of suspension till the award of the Industrial Tribunal under section 33.

In the second case as the result of a general strike in those hotels notices were issued by the management of the hotels to their workmen informing them that it had been decided to dismiss them under section 33 of the Act, while a general reference of the industrial dispute was pending before the Tribunal. Applications were filed on behalf of the workmen for interim relief. The Industrial Tribunal passed an order granting interim relief. There were appeals by the three hotels against the three orders in the three cases and these appeals were dismissed by the Labour Appellate Tribunal and then the three hotels applied for special leave. Two questions were canvassed before the Supreme Court in these appeals, namely, firstly whether any wages were payable at all to the workmen who were suspended pending permission being sought under section 33 of the Act for their dismissal and secondly whether an industrial tribunal was competent to grant interim relief without making an interim award which should have been published. It is clear that the decisions in these two cases have little or no bearing on the cases before me. Consequently, the law as laid down by the Supreme Court in the Equitable Coal Co. Ltd. and Algu Singh and another must in my judgment be followed. My award, therefore, in these four cases is that there was undoubtedly a contravention of the requirements of the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act on the part of the employer but the management was justified in holding the four workmen guilty of the misconduct with which they stood charged and that being so the workmen concerned are not entitled to any compensation for their dismissal for the technical contravention of the law by the employer.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd., 96 G. T. Road, Howrah, and their workmen represented by the Paschim Banga Alpa Betan Karmachari Samity, 157/2 Upper Circular Road, Calcutta. (Case No. VIII-C-155 of 1958.)

By order No. 2904-I.R./IR/15L-7/58, dated Calcutta, the 12th July 1958, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. and their workmen represented by the Paschim Banga Alpa Betan Karmachari Samity to the Second Labour Court for adjudication regarding the issues contained in the order of reference.

Issues

1. Leave and Holidays.
2. Pay and Dearness allowance.

After the Union and the Company mentioned in the above order of reference filed their respective statements the Union filed a petition praying that Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal be made a party in this dispute on the ground that Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. had leased their business to that Company. Accordingly that Company was made a party in this dispute.

The Union in its written statement has stated that Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. are earning huge profits and has made the following prayers in respect of the issues mentioned in the order of reference.

(1) Leave and Holidays

The Union has prayed for 10 days' casual leave with pay, 10 days' medical leave with pay, 15 paid holidays in a year and other leave according to the Factory Act.

(2) Pay and Dearness Allowance

The Union has prayed for a minimum pay of Rs. 50 per month and has also prayed for scales of pay in respect of the different workmen employed in the Company. In that scale the minimum salary has been stated as Rs. 115 rising by annual increments of Rs. 5 to Rs. 215. The Union has also prayed for a dearness alowance of Rs. 45 per month for all the employees.

Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. have raised a preliminary objection that this reference is not maintainable on the ground that whereas the company closed its business with effect from 1st June 1958, the order of reference is dated 12th July 1958; as such there could be no dispute between an non-existent Company and its erstwhile employees.

As to the merits of the issues the Company denies that it is making huge profits and contends that the Company along with other Companies in the oil industry was carrying on its business with great difficulty in untoward circumstances. The Company maintains that it was paying its employees wages which compared favourably with the wages obtaining in comparable concerns in the region. In particular, the Company pleads its inability to pay the scales of pay demanded and dub them as fabulous. As to leave, the Company contends that the workers were in enjoyment of leave and holidays as provided for in the Factory Act. So the Company prays that the prayer of the Union in respect of the two issues mentioned in the order of reference may be rejected.

Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal, the added party, have raised a preliminary objection that since Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. closed their business before the date of the order of reference, the order of reference is not maintainable and as such the order adding Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal as a party is not maintainable. That Company further contends even if it be added as a party, this cannot enlarge the ambit or after the character of the disputed mentioned in the order of reference. In the circumstances there is no relation of employer and employee between that Company and the workmen of Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. That Company has also raised the objection that this is not an industrial dispute on the ground that the Union mentioned in the order of reference is not a Union of the workmen of that Company.

As to the merits of the issues the contention of that Company is the same as that of Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd.

FINDINGS

I first take up the preliminary objection raised by the two Companies. Both the Companies say that Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. closed their business on 1st June 1958 and a few months later leased their machineries and the premises to Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal. The deed of lease (Ext. 3) shows that the lease was for a period of one year and five months up to 31st March 1960. None of the Companies has adduced any evidence on the point as to whether Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal continued to hold over after the expiry of the lease or whether Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. started their business again. Even if it be held that Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. closed their business finally on 1st June 1958, there is no evidence to the effect that the dispute which has led to the present order of reference arose after 1st June 1958. The fact that the date of the order of reference is only a month after 1st June 1958 raises a presumption that the dispute was raised before 1st June 1958. It has been held by the Supreme Court in the case of Pipraich Sugar Mills Ltd. reported at page 95 of A.I.R. 1957 (S.C.) that the power of the State to make a reference must be determined with reference not to the date on which it is made but to the date on which the right which is the subject matter of the dispute arises, and that the machinery provided for in the matter would be available for working out the right which accrued prior to the dissolution of the business. Again, it has been held by the Bombay High Court in the case of New Guiarat Cotton Mills Ltd. reported at page 111 of A.I.R., 1957 (Bombay) that if a successor decides to run the same business which was carried on by the predecessor, the employees of the old concern are entitled to submit a dispute before the Industrial Tribunal regarding their rights and obligations in the business of the old concern, and those rights and obligations must be regarded as continuing and enforceable against the new management and not affected by the substitution of the new management for the old. This is exactly the situation in the present dispute. So I hold that the order of reference is perfectly valid and the order adding Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal as a party is free from any legal defect.

As to the objection of Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal that the Union mentioned in the order of reference is not a Union of the workmen concerned, that Company has not adduced any evidence in support of this objection. As the order of reference raises a presumption that the Union mentioned in the order of reference is the Union of the affected workmen and as there is no evidence to rebut that presumption, I hold that the Union mentioned in the order of reference represents the workmen in question and reject the objection of Messrs. Lal Chand Sohanlal on this point.

I now come to the merits of the issues.

As to issue No. 2, the Union has stated in its written statement a list of scales of pay which it has demanded in respect of the different workmen. As I have stated already, the minimum in that scale is shown to be Rs. 115; but in another paragraph of the written statement the Union has prayed for a minimum pay of Rs. 50. So these two statements are obviously contradictory. The Union has not produced before me any material on which it has based the scales of pay mentioned in its written statement. It has demanded a minimum pay of Rs. 125 even for an unskilled workman. So I agree with Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. in their description that these scales of pay are fabulous. So I at once reject those scales of pay. The next question is whether any scales of pay should determined in respect of the workmen in question. The Union has not shown any evidence as to the financial capacity of the Company to justify fixing any scales of pay. So I reject the demand of the Union for fixing any scales of pay. But at the same time the employer must be ready to pay the minimum wages to each one of his employees. The minimum wages is not related to the capacity of the employer; it depends on the bare necessities of the workmen. In 1950 the Government of West Bengal appointed a Committee to advise Government for fixing minimum wages in respect of employment in the oil mills in West Bengal. That Committee have recommended the following monthly minimum wages in respect of Calcutta and Howrah:

(i) Unskilled—Basic wage Rs. 26, dearness allowance Rs. 30.

(ii) Semi-skilled—Basic wage Rs. 32, dearness allowance Rs. 30.

(iii) Skilled—Basic wage Rs. 52, dearness allowance Rs. 30.

Since then there has been a great rise in the cost of living index of working man. So I order that the employer in the present case shall pay to its workmen of different categories the basic wages mentioned above and a dearness allowance of Rs. 40 per month. Messrs. Nava Rastra Oil Mills (P.) Ltd. in their written statement have described all the workmen except five as ordinary labourers; but it appears from evidence that some of them work as Expellermen or Engine Khalasis; the former class has been included in the category of skilled workmen and the latter in the category of semi-skilled workmen by the Committee mentioned above. The Union has not given complete evidence as to which categories the workmen working in the oil mill in question belong to. So it is not possible for me to order the minimum wages in respect of every workman working in the mill. The categories of the workmen should be determined in the light of the recommendation of the above Committee. In accordance with those recommendations the workmen should be divided into different categories and they should be paid the minimum wages and dearness allowance stated by me above. Those who are already in receipt of higher emoluments are obviously out of the present order. Those who are in receipt of lower emoluments should be paid the minimum emoluments ordered by me above. The above order should be given effect to from 1st January 1962.

Issue No. 1.

As to issue No. 1, the Union has not adduced any evidence that any other concern in the oil industry in the region grants the leave and holidays demanded by it in its written statement. As the industry is a factory, it is obviously governed by the Factory Act. So the employer is bound by that statute to grant the leave mentioned in that Act. I order that the employer in this case shall in addition grant eight paid holidays in a year to his employees. This order shall be carried out with effect from this year, i.e., 1962.

As none of the two Companies has adduced any satisfactory evidence as to which Company is running the business, I order that the above award shall be binding on both of them.

AWARD

This is an application by Shri Jnanendra Nath Das under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act complaining against the termination of his services by a notice, dated 11th August 1961, with effect from 17th August 1961 and praying for reinstatement. His case is that he was employed as a clerk at a monthly salary of Rs. 60 with effect from 27th July 1960, that at the time of his appointment he was not given any letter of appointment, that he is an active member of the Union and his father who is also an employee of the Company has incurred the displeasure of the Company by the assistance he rendered to the Secretary of the Union in the matter of inspection of the account books of the Company under the orders of the Tribunal and that was why the applicant was victimised by the termination of his services. He has also stated that the Company has kept his father in service but because he assisted the Secretary of the Union he has not been allowed to do any work but only to record his attendance and to sit idle through the whole day. The case of the Company, on the other hand, is that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was employed as a temporary clerk for a period of nine months and the appointment letter, dated 17th August 1960, was issued to him: that the termination of the services of Shri Das has nothing to do with the help the applicant's father rendered to the Secretary to the Union in inspecting the documents of the Company and that his services were terminated in terms of the contract between the Company and the applicant. The whole case of the applicant Shri Jnanendra Nath Das is this that he was appointed without any letter of appointment embodying the terms and conditions of service being given to him and he was verbally told by Shri Bikash Sett, the Director that he would be made permanent after completion of six months' satisfactory service, whereas the case of the Company is that he was appointed only for nine months to start with and he was given a further extension of three months because he was in arrears with his work and his services were terminated on completion of the period of extension.

The first question, therefore, for decision is whether Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was appointed on a verbal assurance that he would be made permanent on completion of six months' satisfactory service or he was appointed for a period of nine months and whether at the end of nine months his services were extended for three months more. Exhibit C is admittedly an application in the handwriting of Shri Jnanendra Nath Das. He says he saw Shri Bikash Sett, the Director, with this written application and handed it over to him but Shri Bikash Sett did not accept it and he took it back and left it in his desk on the 27th July 1960, i.e., one day after he had seen Bikash Sett with the application and then the Company took it from his desk after he had left. On the other hand, Shri Bikash Sett and Shri Satya Narayan Sett, witnesses Nos. 1 and 2 for the Company, say that when Shri Jnanendra Nath Das handed over his written application to Shri Bikash Sett, Shri Bikash Sett wrote on his application from what date he would be appointed and asked him to go away telling him that he would be appointed with effect from the 1st Bhadra 1367 B.S. It is admitted that Shri Kanta Charan Das, father of the applicant Shri Jnanendra Nath Das, was already an employee of the Company and it was at his instance that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was appointed. Shri Kanta Charan Das as an old employee must have known whether a written application was necessary or not. When Shri Jnanendra Nath Das admittedly saw the Director with a written application it is obvious that his father must have asked him to do so and that is precisely the evidence of Shri Satya Narayan Sett who says that when Shri Kanta Charan Das told them that he was looking for a job for his son and asked them to give him that job, he was asked by Shri Bikash Sett to file a formal application and that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das came with a written application. So far there is no dispute between the parties, namely, that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das actually saw the Director with a written application. If a written application is filed it is difficult to understand why it should be returned particularly when the applicant who submits the written application is appointed. At that stage admittedly there was no strained relationship at all between Shri Kanta Charan Das and the management and this is proved by the very fact that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was appointed at all. The story, therefore, of Shri Jnanendra Nath Das that the application was returned to him and that it was taken from his desk in his absence seems to me to be utterly incredible. In the first place, as already pointed out, there is hardly any reason why the application should be returned to Shri Jnanendra Nath Das when he is appointed whether immediately after the application as claimed by Shri Jnanendra Nath Das and his witness Shri Pulin Behari Dey or from the 1st of Bhadra, as stated by the Company. Secondly, why should Shri Jnanendra Nath Das preserve this application and leave it in his desk though on his own showing he succeeded in obtaining employment even without the application being kept by his employer? Thirdly, why should he leave it in a desk in his office so as to give his employer a chance of removing it later? Shri Jnanendra Nath Das's evidence furnishes no answers to any of these questions. On this application Ext. C there is the following order written in the handwriting of Shri Bikash Sett: "He may be appointed as a clerk on purely temporary basis for a period of nine months from 17th August 1960." This application is dated 27th July 1960. When, therefore, Shri Jnanendra Nath Das says he saw Shri Bikash Sett on the 26th July with this application he seems to have made at least an incorrect statement as regards the date when he saw Shri Bikash Sett with the application for it is most unlikely that he should see the Director of the Company with an application which bears not the date when he saw the Director but the date following that day. How far these things affect his story that he was appointed with effect from 27th July 1960 will be considered later in connection with that story. For the present it is necessary to consider the case of the parties with respect to Ext. C and to Ext. C1 the order on it of Shri Bikash Sett, dated 27th July 1960. It was suggested to him in cross-examination that this order Ext. C1 was made on a subsequent date but he denied it. The evidence on this point of Shri Pulin Behari Dey cited by Shri Jnanendra Nath Das is that when he was appointed about 25 years ago no appointment letter was issued to him but about 4/5 years ago the practice was introduced and appointment letters were given to some persons to the effect that they would be appointed for six months and if at the end of six months their work was found satisfactory their services would be further extended and they would be made permanent. This statement is made by Shri Pulin Behari Dey in his examination-in-chief itself. The evidence of Shri Bikash Sett also is to that effect. He says that whenever a man is appointed in their Company he is appointed for a fixed period. some for six months and some for nine months and so on. It is, therefore, clear that there was in this Company for the last 4/5 years at any rate as stated by Shri Pulin Behari Dey and Shri Bikash Sett the practice that appointments were made actually for a fixed period say for six months and on satisfactory service for the period, a candidate's service would be further extended and then he would be made permanent. The evidence of Shri Amiya Kumar Mondal, a witness for the Company who is himself an illustration of this practice of the Company, is to the effect that he has been in the employee of this Company for the last 6/7 years or so; that he was given an appointment letter and that he is now on extension having received his last extension for one year about two years ago and that period has already expired. Obviously, therefore, the general rule in this Company is that men are appointed for fixed periods to start with and then their services are extended for further periods and ultimately if their work is found satisfactory they are made permanent. The fact that Shri Amiya Kumar Mondal has not received any extension when his last one year's extension expired although he was retained in service would go to show that he was probably nearing the stage when he would be made permanent. Although it may not be a sound practice to keep anyone in service temporarily for such a long period, on the evidence it must be held that that is the practice followed by the Company. Why that practice should be departed from in the case of Shri Jnanendra Nath Das it is again difficult to understand. Shri Jnanendra Nath Das claims that his father's record of service in this Company is brilliant and although it was not stated by him or by anyone else that that might be a reason for making an exception in the case of Shri Jnanendra Nath Das, that could probably be the only reason. The record of service of Shri Kanta Charan Das might have been a good inducement to the management to employ Shri Jnanendra Nath Das at all but why should the management go out of its way to employ him without accepting his written application? The position, therefore, that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das has taken on this point is utterly incredible. Besides, Ext. C1 completely belies that story. If of course Shri Jnanendra Nath Das had succeeded in showing that Ext. C1 had been made subsequently the matter would have been different but there is nothing whatever to show that this was a subsequent writing.

There are certain other facts also which would go to show that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was appointed as shown by Ext. C1 for nine months to start with. The pay register admittedly used to be kept in loose sheets month by month and then at the end of a year these loose sheets were bound up for audit purpose. This is the evidence of Shri Pulin Behari Dey, Shri Jnanendra Nath Das's own witness in his examination-in-chief and he also states in his examination-in-chief itself that the back sheets were there at the end of each month when the payments were made every month although he volunteers that the back sheets were not shown to the employees when they enter their receipts at the time of receiving payments in the register. It is quite possible that the back sheets were not shown to the employees or that the employees had no occasion to look at the back sheets while signing the receipts for their monthly pay in the pay register. Whether the employees had occasion to see the back sheets or not is to my mind not of much importance. The fact that is important is that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das signed a register in which are entered the names of only temporary members of the staff and not the names of the permanent members. In the month of Bhadra 1367 B.S. at any rate when the Company claims to have appointed Shri Jnanendra Nath Das the Director could not possibly have had any reason for having an incorrect or false entry made in the register According to Shri Jnanendra Nath Das the Company victimised him because of the services of his father to the Secretary of the Union in inspecting certain documents. Exhibit F is an application supported by an affidavit for inspection of the documents and in the application Shri Kanta Charan Das is named as one of the persons for helping the General Secretary of the Union for inspecting certain documents on the 9th, 10th and 11th of May 1961. The application is dated the 3rd May 1961 Up to date of filing this application the Company or his Director could not have had any motive to have the name of Shri Jnanendra Nath Das entered in the wrong register. If from the month of Bhadra 1367 B.S. onwards when according to the Company he was first appointed his name finds place in the register where only the names of the temporary staff are entered, that goes to confirm the evidence adduced on behalf of the employer and to that extent to belie the whole story of Shri Jnanendra Nath Das.

As regards Shri Jnanendra Nath Das's story, supported by the evidence of his witness Pulin Behari Dey, that he was appointed not with effect from the 17th of August 1960 which corresponds to the 1st of Bhadra 1367 B.S. as shown by Ext. C1 but with effect from the 27th of July 1960, the attendance register does not show Shri Jnanendra Nath Das's name at all in the month of Sravan 1367 B.S. He says that he duly signed the attendance register that month. But he fails to find his signature in the register for the month of Shravan. Of course, the month of Shravan is not noted at the beginning of the month but obviously the entries in the register

Ext. B, between the end of Ashar and the beginning of the month of Bhadra are the entries relating to the month of Shravan. As the name of Jnanendra Nath Das does not appear in this register in the month of Shravan 1367 B.S. it must be held that both Shri Jnanendra Nath Das and Shri Pulin Behari Dey perjured themselves when they stated that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was appointed with effect from the 27th of July 1960 corresponding to the 11th of Shravan 1367 B.S. As regards his wages for Shravan, about which also his story is that, like other months, he did not sign the receipt for the salary of Shravan 1367 B.S. in the pay register for that month but on a debit voucher. This is sought to be corroborated by Shri Pulin Behari Dey who further says that this was entered in the Jabeda. But Jabeda was not called for till the day when Shri Pulin Behari Dey was examined and then an oral prayer was made for the first time that the Jabeda should be called for. An application was filed to that effect on the 15th, just before arguments began. Obviously it was impossible to grant such a prayer at that stage without reopening the whole case. In any event if Shri Jnanendra Nath Das had been appointed in the month of Shravan 1367 B.S. there is no reason at all why his name should not appear in the attendance register for that month and that conclusively proves that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das could not have been appointed in the month of Shravan 1367 B.S., as stated by him. Shri Jnanendra Nath Das's story on this point must, therefore, be held to be false.

There is yet another matter which must be considered in this connection. It is this that the Company sent to Shri Jnanendra Nath Das under a certificate of posting, Ext. 1, dated 17th August 1960 and that it reached Shri Jnanendra Nath Das on the 11th May 1961. The explanation given by Shri Satya Narain Sett for this is as follows: "Some time in 1961 a copy of the letter of appointment issued originally to Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was sent to him. This was done because in the case of temporary employees we review the work done by a temporary hand and when doing that I found that there was no indication in the office papers whether Shri Jnanendra Nath Das had received a copy of that appointment letter or not and that is why we sent a copy of that letter to him. The clerk in charge of that department at the time was Pulin Behari Dey and when I asked him he told me that he did not remember whether a copy of the appointment letter had been given to Shri Jnanendra Nath Das." I have already referred to Shri Pulin Behari Dey's evidence that about four years ago a practice was introduced of giving appointment letters to some persons. In that connection he further said that such letters were issued in duplicate, one copy being signed by the appointee and kept in the custody of the employer and the other copy was made over to the appointee. It is, therefore, clear from the evidence of Shri Satya Narain Sett and also of Shri Pulin Behari Dey that for the last 4/5 years at any rate the Company was following a practice of issuing appointment letters to some at least of its employees and whenever an appointment letter is issued by the Company a copy is signed by the employee and kept in the custody of the employer and the other copy is made over to the appointee. If, therefore, it was found that in the case of Shri Jnanendra Nath Das there was no indication in the office papers that any such letter had been sent to him it might have struck the Director or the Officer-in-Charge that such a copy should be sent to him. It is just possible that it struck the authorities that a copy should be sent to him in view of the assistance that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das's father was rendering the Union and it is equally possible that this provided Shri Jnanendra Nath Das and probably also the Union with an opportunity of coming forward with false stories and trying to build upon them his story that it was a case of victimisation because of his father's services to the Union. But, as I have already held that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was appointed for a fixed period of nine months to begin with and then at the end of that period of nine months he was given a further extension of three months and as the whole period expired on the 17th of August 1961 as stated in Ext. 6, it was not a case of termination of service by way of punishment nor was it an alteration of the conditions of service. Consequently, on the findings arrived at by me the case does not come within any of the clauses (a) and (b) of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act. If the case does not come within either of these clauses there is no question of any of these provisions being contravenes. Section 33A opens with the clause "Where an employer contravenes the provisions of section 33 during the pendency of a proceeding before a Tribunal, etc." In other words it is only where there is a contravention of the provisions of section 33 that the Tribunal can entertain an application under section 33A and make an award on it. As section 33 itself does not apply, the application under section 33A obviously is not maintainable at all, although admittedly there was a reference under section 10 pending at the date of this application.

My award accordingly is that Shri Jnanendra Nath Das was appointed by the Company on a temporary basis for a fixed period of nine months to start with from 17th August 1960, i.e., the 1st Bhadra 1367 B.S. and then on the expiry of the first period of nine months for another period of three months, i.e., up to 17th August 1960 and that his services were actually terminated on the expiry of this extended period of three months, so that the application filed by Shri Jnanendra Nath Das does not come within either of the clauses (a) and (b) of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act. His application, therefore, is not maintainable at all and must accordingly be dismissed.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by one Raghunath Beura alleging that the employers, Messrs. Master Stores, arbitrarily dismissed him from service with effect from the 9th November 1960 without getting approval of such action from the Tribunal under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The employers, Opposite Party, filed a written objection in which it is contended that the workman concerned was employed on probation on 9th May 1960, and as his work was not found satisfactory he was not confirmed.

After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 7th February 1962 and on that date neither the workman nor the lawyer representing the workman appeared before the Tribunal to proceed with the case. Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate, representing the employers, was present. I therefore take it that the dispute does not exist at the moment and a "no dispute" award is accordingly passed.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department Order No. 2684-I.R./IR/8L-28/60, dated 16th May 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Shri Sarathi Cotton Mills (Private) Ltd., 43 Shyamnagore Road, Dum Dum, Calcutta-28 (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Sree Sarathi Cotton Mills Workers' Union, 185 Dum Dum Road, Calcutta-28 (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication is this:

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri Ramesh Chandra Das is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

Both the parties have filed written statements stating their respective cases in the matter in issue. The case of the workmen concerned is that he was a permanent employee of the concern and yet his services were suddenly terminated with effect from the 2nd of June 1961 without any notice, charge-sheet or enquiry. It is alleged that this wrongful act of the management was motivated by a spirit of victimisation alone because of the trade union activities of the workman concerned.

The Company on the other hand, inter alia, alleges that Shri Das was never a workman of the Company and as such no industrial dispute can be raised in this connection. It is alleged that Shri Das was only a consultant and used to come to the Company's factory only intermittently. The Company, it is urged, had absolutely no control over Shri Das, who was in fact a free-lance advisor to several Companies including this Company on technical matters, and the present Company having felt that Shri Das's advice was no longer required, informed him to that effect and he also stopped advising the Company as from the 1st January 1961.

Thus from what I have stated above, it will be clear that the real point at issue is whether there is at all any industrial dispute within the meaning of the law. If Shri Das is not a workman within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act as alleged, a reference in respect of such a person will no doubt be invalid and this Tribunal will have no jurisdiction to adjudicate in the matter and the other workman of the concern not being interested in the employment or non-employment of such a person no industrial dispute can be raised also.

The essential condition of a person being a workman within the terms of the definition in section 2(s) is that he should be employed to do the work in the industry, that there should be, in other words, an employment of him by the employer and thus there should be the relationship of employer and employee or master and servant. The prima facie test for the determination of the relationship between master and servant is the existence of the right of the master to supervise and control the work done by the servant not only in the matter of directing what work the servant is to do, but also the manner in which he shall do his work. The nature or extent of control which is requisite to establish the relationship must necessarily vary from business to business. In the present case the Company runs a power loom factory of ten looms only, engaging 18/19 workers in all. The positive evidence of one of the directors of the Company is that Shri Das was a mechanic and used to do job-work only for this Company and he would correct machineries as and when required. Further evidence is that the Company had no control over his duty hours and he had no fixed hour of attendance also in the factory. His services would be requisitioned only when machineries would go wrong and he used to leave the factory after attending the job and setting the machine right. It is also in evidence that Shri Das used to be paid for those days only whereon he actually worked at Rs. 2 per diem or occasion of job. His name was never entered into Company's attendance register as he was a job-worker only. It is also in evidence that Shri Das used to work part-time like this not only for this Company but several other power loom factories also of this locality. In fact there are ten different factories like this at 43 Shyamnagore Road alone and it appears no one of such factories is alone capable of maintaining a whole-time mechanic. Thus the Company's evidence shows that Shri Das was really job-worker who used to go round to different factories when called or required; attend particular jobs and used to be paid also job-wise. It appears there was no permanent relationship of master and servant between the present Company and Shri Das. As against this, the other side has practically adduced no competent evidence before me on all these points. Shri Das himself is conspicuous by his absence at the time of hearing. He was the best person to deny the Company's allegations and yet he fails to turn up at any stage of the hearing. The only witness who purports to speak on behalf of the workman is Shri Sunil Kumar Sengupta, who happens to be the President of the Union concerned. But unfortunately Shri Sengupta is not a workman of this Company and he has no personal knowledge in the matter or in anything relevant for our purpose. His evidence is purely hearsay and he candidly admits that he says what he has heard from Shri Das. There are ten power loom factories within the same compound and Shri Sengupta had never any occasion to enter this compound even. He at best saw Shri Das from a distance to enter this compound and so Shri Sengupta is not in a position to say how and where Shri Das used to work; he does not know the terms of appointment, if any, of Shri Das by this Company, and he cannot say what was the contract, if any, between Shri Das and the other Companies there. So it does not lie in the mouth of Shri Sengupta to say that Shri Das was a whole-time worker of this Company and that he had eight hours' duty per diem. I can also point out that a mechanic like Shri Das would not be agreeable to work whole day (eight hours) for a sum of Rs. 2 only. I think Ext. A series really means that he used to be paid Rs. 2 per job or occasion of attendance in a factory and not per diem of eight hours' duty, as alleged; for otherwise, he could not be paid 18 days' remuneration at Rs. 2 per diem during a period of fortnight only from 1st September to 15th September 1960 (vide Ext. A/3). Thus it is clear that this Company and Shri Das had actually no relationship of master and servant and the former had no control over the other. The latter would act as consultant or mechanic for particular jobs only when required and would be paid accordingly. So in this view of the matter Shri Das is not a workman within the meaning of the Act. The terms and conditions of employment of other workmen of the Company are not surely same as that of Shri Das and the former cannot, therefore, be interested in the employment or non-employment of the latter. So there is really no industrial dispute to be adjudicated upon in this case. So the reference itself is invalid and no relief can be granted to Shri Das in the present case.

This is my award.

For the Union: Shri Prahlad Das Purohit, the workman concerned.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department by order No. 4812-I.R./IR/10L-142/58, dated the 10th September 1960, with subsequent corrigendum No. 3228-I.R./IR/10L-142/58, dated the 19th June 1961, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the abovementioned dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal regarding a matter specified in the second schedule to the Act.

This dispute was previously referred to the First Labour Court by Government order No. 4674-I.R./IR/10L-142/58, dated the 8th November 1958, for adjudication which has been replaced by the Sixth Industrial Tribunal constituted under notification No. 3115-I.R./IR/3A-6/59, dated the 21st June 1960, and has in consequence been abolished by notification No. 3508-I.R./IR/3A-9/59, dated the 11th July 1960.

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Prahlad Das Purohit is justified. To what relief is he entitled?

On 18th December 1961 the worker under reference and the Company put in a joint petition of compromise embodying therein the terms of settlement. It appears that the workman concerned in this case voluntarily withdraws all claims of the dispute and does not want to proceed with the case any further, and the worker and the Company jointly prayed for an award of "No Dispute" in terms of the said petition of compromise dated 18th December 1961.

Therefore, a "No Dispute" award is made in this case.

Corrected and dictated by me.

P. M. LAHIRI,
Judge.

P. M. LAHIRI, Judge,
Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

The 21st February 1962.

By order of the Governor,

S. C. MUKHERJEE, Asstt. Secy.

AWARD

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 5680-I.R./IR/10L-86/60, dated the 4th November 1960, for adjudication on the following issue, namely:

1. Gratuity Scheme.

The Burn's Employees' Union represents the case of the clerks, sub-staff, sarkars, checkers of the Burn and Company at its Howrah unit renowned as the Howrah Iron Works. All other Unions represent the labours or workmen of this particular unit of the Company. Hereinafter the Burn & Company will be described as the Company whereas the Unions will be described by their respective names whenever necessary. Each of the said Unions has filed a separate written statement in which it has described the facts and circumstances and laid its claim towards the framing of the gratuity scheme.

In the written statement of the Burn's Employees' Union the following case has been made out. The Company is a highly prosperous engineering concern employing about 8,000 workmen in all, the number of the clerks, sub-staff, sarkars and checkers being about 1,100. The employees were suffering from various difficulties and inconveniences and had serious grievance for a long time. Their representations to the Management for redressing proved futile. This Union was formed in 1946 for ameliorating the conditions of the employees. The Company has only one type of retiral benefit in the form of Provident Fund Scheme introduced for the clerks in 1926 and for the sub-staff and others in 1946. On account of low wages given to them and growing needs for maintenance of their family, they often take loan from friends and relations with or without interest and also from the Burn's Employees' Co-operative Credit Society with interest and in extreme cases from their own Provident Fund. The employees are thus unable to save any money to fall back upon after retirement and the family is at ruin when death occurs to the workmen. The matter was agitated in the past. By the award of late G. Palit, passed in 1960, the rate of Provident Fund Contribution was increased to 10 per cent. of the basic pay but the claim for gratuity scheme was disallowed. Again in the award of the First Industrial Tribunal of West Bengal, published in July 1953, the claim for gratuity scheme was rejected. The Union preferred an appeal against that award and the Learned Labour Appellate Tribunal by its judgment, dated 29th April 1955, upheld the decision of the Tribunal and rejected the claim for gratuity scheme. Several very material points were not considered by the Learned Tribunal and the Labour Appellate Tribunal. On 4th November 1959 the Union gave notice to the Company, terminating the award and claiming one month's pay for each year of service as gratuity. The Union has summarised its reasons in support of the claim for gratuity, thus:

(a) The workmen were always in debt and Provident Fund money was insufficient to fall back upon after retirement, particularly when unemployments of the sons and dependants are very common;

(b) The Engineering Industry is not in any difficulty and has got the full advantage of the First and Second Five-Year Plans and all the conjectures of the earlier Tribunals have been found to be non-existent;

(c) This particular Company has earned fabulous profit in the past few years compared to earlier years making it conclusive that time has come when the double retiral benefits should be introduced;

(d) The Mercantile Tribunal which was based on Bengal Chamber of Commerce Award allowed double retiral benefit to the employees and the Labour Appellate Tribunal in case of Associated Electrical Company Ltd., and Western India Match Company in judgment allowed one month's pay as gratuity to the employees for each year of service on retirement, death or disability in addition to 10 per cent. basic pay contribution towards the Provident Fund; and

(e) The Company grants gratuity to the workmen of Raniganj unit in addition to the Provident Fund and also to the employees of this unit in the name of "Ex-gratia" which is about three weeks pay of each year of service.

The Union has annexed chart to its written statement for appreciation of the financial stability of the Company.

The case of the Shramik Union is briefly this: The Company is a highly prosperous concern having made remarkable progress during the Plan period. But the workmen of such a prosperous concern are denied even minimum wages recommended by the 15th Labour Conference. There is no proper gratuity scheme for the workmen who, in the result, are denied this benefit after termination of a service, forced or voluntary retirement, death, or any other reason beyond their control. The demand of the Union, made at proper time, was turned down by the Company which showed unreasonable and non-conciliatory attitude. Because of low wages paid to the workmen, they are compelled to take loan from different sources. They cannot save anything out of their present income and are put to helpless condition after forced or voluntary retirement, etc. For want of sufficient fund, the families of the workmen are sometimes put to starving conditions after death of their respective earning members. The payment of gratuity should be regarded as deferred wages payable after termination of service or voluntary retirement or death, etc. There has been material change in the circumstances from before and this Company has capacity to introduce a gratuity scheme for the benefit of the workmen. This Company has been earning substantial profits and has created huge reserves out of profits within a few years. The Company has increased the rate of dividends of the share-holders from 10 per cent. in 1954 to 28½ per cent. in 1958 and within this period the Company has taken as dividends more than one lakh of rupees. The facts and circumstances will show that the Company has become a well-established stable concern, and under the industrial plan such engineering concern has got unprecedented scope of growing prosperity. Even in Raniganj unit of the Company, the workmen are given gratuity for the total service, in addition to other statutory benefits in the shape of provident fund, etc. The Company should pay gratuity to these workmen for the total service period at the rate of one month's wages for each year of service.

The Burn's Mazdoor Union has made out its case in its written statement as follows: The emoluments paid to the workmen of the Company are far below the living wage standard and they continue to remain in debts which continue to grow in dimension with the number of years of service. The Company is very affluent and has been growing in prosperity by leaps and bounds from year to year. The margin of profits has gone up by nearly more than five times but the wages and other emoluments and privileges of the workers have remained stationary. A handsome amount as retirement compensation in the shape of gratuity is more than needed. The Company itself has introduced double retiring benefit at its Raniganj Works and also in this establishment but the latter is described as ex-gratia. This uncertain state of thing should be ended and a complete scheme for gratuity as such should be introduced. The Company's reserve funds and the dividends, etc., granted by it would undoubtedly show that the Company enjoys more than financ'ial stability and as such grant of relief by way of gratuity will not in any way adversely affect the Company in regard to its financlai position or stability. In its written statement, this Union has farmulated a scheme of its own as to payment of gratuity. It has stated that the gratuity should be payable to the workmen on death, retirement due to superannuation, resignation, retirement on medical or personal grounds, resignation for better prospect and for dismissal or discharge.

The case as made out in the written statement of the Burn's Labour Union is this: The Company is a very prosperous and well-established engineering concern. It is a pretty old concern and a large number of employees work under it. Though this Company earns huge profits regularity and is one of the top-ranking concerns of the country, it pays very meagre wages to its workmen. To ameliorate the condition of the workmen, this particular Union was formed in 1941. The money available to the workmen by way of provident fund is not even adequate to liquidate the loan taken by them for maintenance of their families. On the other hand, the Company's financial position has been rapidly and steadily improving year after year and the Company's net profit in 1959 has increased by more than 300 per cent. compared to 1950. The workmen made representations to the Company for introduction of the gratuity scheme but without any effect on account of the unreasonable and unsympathetic attitude of the Company. The Raniganj unit of this Company pays gratuity to the workmen there at the rate of about three weeks' wages for each year of completed service, and the Company gives some money to the workmen of the Howrah Iron Works in the name of "ex-gratia payment". The Union prays for grant of one month's wages as gratuity for each year of completed service or part thereof in excess of six months to all workmen on termination of service due to any cause except gross misconduct involving financial loss of the Company.

The Company, on the other hand, has in its written statement made out its case thus: The question of gratuity should be determined on an industrywise basis and not on a unit basis particularly when the conditions of service of the different categories of the workmen employed in the Engineering Industry in West Bengal have been standardised by the Omnibus Engineering Tribunals; otherwise, the industrial peace and the quality of competitive condition should be adversely affected. The Government of India has set up a Technical Committee to examine the question of the enhancement in the rate of provident fund contribution. Pending such assessment, the present adjudication should not proceed. The First Engineering Tribunal in 1948 awarded some sort of gratuity under certain conditions. Those provisions were implemented by the Company for the hourly-paid workmen but did not affect the monthly-paid employees of the Company as they had been in enjoyment of prvoident fund benefits since 1918. The provident fund scheme, meant for the hourly-paid workmen, was first introduced by the Company in 1946. The question of gratuity was not referred for adjudication either to the Second Omnibus Engineering Tribunal in 1950 or to the Third Omnibus Engineering Tribunal in 1953, the Government made a reference to the First Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal, for adjudicating the question of gratuity at the instance of Burn's Employees' Union, who claimed to represent the monthly-paid clerical, technical and subordinate staff and hourly-paid sarkars and checkers. That Tribunal rejected the issue for additional benefit of gratuity by its award, dated the 24th July 1953. The Union's appeal against that award was rejected by the Learned Labour Appellate Tribunal. The Company has not attained sufficient financial prosperity or stability to undertake an additional long-term financial burden of the nature of gratuity. Any additional payments/benefits by one unit would affect its competitive strength. The existing terms of employment and other fringe benefits are adequate and generous. For the hourly-paid workmen the Company has an "Attendance Bonus" scheme whereby they, on an average, annually earn about 75 per cent. of their monthly basic salarly. In addition under "Purashkar" scheme (Production Bonus) they, on an average, annually earn 7/8 months' basic salary. For the monthly-paid staff and subordinate staff there is also an Incentive Scheme in force. Instead of solving industrial peace, this spasmodic reference/adjudication will create more labour complications. The provident fund schemes in operation are generous and will go a far way towards old age pension. The award of the First Industrial Tribunal, confirmed by the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in rejecting the employees' claim to gratuity or pension, is based on sound reasonings which still hold good and operates as "res judicata". There has been no material change of circumstances since the last award to justify a re-examination or introduction of a scheme for gratuity. The grounds urged by the different Unions in support of their claim for gratuity are not sustainable on merits also. The Company is not in a position to bear a long-term financial burden which a scheme of gratuity will envisage for the reasons mentioned above. In view of these facts and circumstances the claim of the Unions for introduction of the gratuity scheme should not be allowed.

First of all I deal with the value and force of the previous Award of 1953, which was upheld in appeal by the Learned Appellate Tribunal. In that dispute also, the scheme for gratuity was a point at issue. That claim was rejected by the then Learned Tribunal as well as by the Learned Labour Appellate Tribunal. The contention on behalf of the Company is that the said award is binding on the parties and still holds good and also operates as res judicata. The argument advanced by Shri D. L. Sengupta on behalf of the Employees' Union is that the previous award became infructuous by reason of notice of termination given by this particular Union under section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is, therefore, said that the said award has lost its binding character. In the written statement of the Company or in the argument of Mr. Jinwalla on behalf of the Company it has never been denied that notice of termination was given by the Employees' Union. It has, however, been argued before me by Mr. Jinwalla that notice of termination should have been given also to the other Unions and such notices had not been given, and as such, the award in question has not been legally and properly terminated and it is still in force. To this contention the reply on behalf of the Employees' Union is that in the previous reference, only the clerks, sub-staff, sarkars and checkers—represented by the Employees' Union—were parties, no other workman or employees of the Company, so that the award in question was binding only on the employees represented by the Employees' Union and the award has been legally and properly terminated by notice given by this particular Union. It is also said that as the other workmen or Unions were not parties to that particular award in question, it was not at all necessary for the Employees' Union to give notice of termination of the award to those other Unions. Mr. Jinwalla, in course of his argument, referred me to the provisions of sections 18 and 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act and his contention was that notice of termination should have also been given to other employees than those represented by the Employees' Union. This contention carries no substance. Under section 18(3)(a) of the Act the award is binding on all parties to the industrial dispute; and under clause (d) of sub-clause (3) of this section the award binds all persons who were employed in the establishment or part of the establishment, as the case might be, to which the dispute related on the date of the dispute. In the present case, the persons to whom the dispute in question actually related were the particular categories of employees whom the Employees' Union now represents. So it cannot be said that the workers other than those represented by this particular Union were bound by the award is question. Section 19(6) of the Act provides that the award shall continue to be binding on the parties until a period of two months has elapsed from the date on which notice was given by any party bound by the award to the other party or parties intimating its intention to terminate the award. The Employees' Union was no doubt a party in the award in question and bound by it. This Union gave notice of termination only to the other party, namely, the Company. Mr. Jinwalla referred to the word "parties" occurring in sub-clause (6) of section 19 as stated above and contended that the plurality of the term indicates that notice of termination should have also been given to other parties, namely, the employees represented by the three other Unions. This is not a sound or valid contention at all. What is required by section 19(6) of the Act is that notice should be given by any party bound by the Award to the other party or parties which also must be bound by the same award. Here, the other party bound by the award in question, was the Company itself, none else. So it was not at all necessary for the Employees' Union to give notice of termination to the other workers represented by the three other Unions as they were not parties to the award in question. To give notice of termination to persons who are not parties to or bound by the award in question will bear no sense. So there is nothing wrong or defective in the giving of termination notice by the Employees' Union alone to the Company. So this objection on behalf of the Company falls through.

In this connection I may also make mention of Shri D. L. Sen Gupta's contentions made on behalf of the Employees' Union. His argument is that the earlier award may be interfered with if it appears that there have been changes of circumstances since then and that, even without change of circumstances, the previous award may be interfered with if there was any fundamental error in the award itself. Reference has been made to the cases reported in 1957 (1) L.L.J. 226 at page 231 (the case of the Burn & Company) and 1961 (2) L.L.J. 660 (the case of Gujrath Engineering Company). The gist of the decision in the former case under reference is that for change in circumstances and fundamental error, the award in question may be interfered with. The principle enunciated in the other case under reference is that the fact that in similar other concern there is no gratuity scheme must be held to be immaterial in adjudicating on the demand for introduction of gratuity scheme, that the proper way to look at the problem is that if a gratuity scheme can be introduced in a concern taking into account its financial position, it should not be refused simply because no gratuity scheme is in force in similar other concerns. The previous award of the Tribunal was passed by Shri N. C. Banerjee, who simply rejected the claim for gratuity without stating any specific reason. In the judgment of the Learned Appellate Tribunal, the following reasons were stated in rejecting the claim for gratuity:

(a) sufficient retiring benefit in the shape of provident fund contribution:

(b) under the Engineering Award or the Mercantile Award, there is no provision for double retiring benefit;

(c) the introduction of gratuity scheme will entail heavy financial burden on the Company and will adversely affect its position on the competitive market; and

(d) in the sister concerns there is no such provision.

It is to be noted that in that judgment the Company's financial position does not appear to have been considered in the least. The rejection of the claim was based on sufficiency of provident funds and non-existence of such a scheme in sister concerns. These views are clearly against the fundamental principles enunciated in the cases referred to above. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that double retiring benefit in the shape of gratuity in addition to provident fund may be given if the financial position of the Company properly and really justifies it. It has been found to be immaterial whether similar other concerns granted or did not grant such a scheme. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed in the Gujrath Engineering Company's case that so far as other concerns are concerned, gratuity scheme may also be introduced there later if there is demand by the workmen and if the financial position justifies it. So it is no use saying that other similar concerns had not provided such a claim for gratuity in addition to provident fund or that provident fund system is quite sufficient or substantial. In short, if there have been changes in the circumstances, since the previous award and if the financial position of the Company permits, then the double retiring benefit in the shape of gratuity may be introduced.

In the above views, therefore, the objection of the Company regarding the point of termination of the previous award in question is rejected. Other relevant points may be considered and discussed in due course.

Another objection of importance as adumbrated by Mr. Jinwalla on behalf of the Company is that the matter concerning a gratuity scheme should be considered on industrywise basis, not on the basis of a unit alone like the Howrah Iron Works of the Company. It is undisputed that the Company has several units including the Howrah Iron Works at Howrah and the Raniganj Works at Raniganj. Mr. Jinwalla tries to draw analogy to the framing of grades and wage scale according to industrywise basis. As to the reason for his contention, Mr. Jinwalla says that the effect of the standardization fixed in the First Engineering Award would be nullified if only one unit here and one there is selected to be festened with the burden and as such it is quite wrong to differ from the norms fixed by the older award to make a new scheme for a particular unit. He has referred to two cases reported in 1960 (2) L.L.J. 21 at page 30-32 (Bharat Khand Textile Manufacturing Company Ltd.) and 11 F.J.R. 372 (Mill Owners' Association, Bombay) in support of his contentions. In the last named case under reference the Bombay Industrial Court held that a gratuity scheme, if awarded, should be on industrywise basis after taking into consideration the capacity of the Industry as a whole and not of the individual units or groups. In 1960 (2) L.L.J. 21, the Industrial Court adopted Industrywise basis in deciding the question of gratuity scheme. The Hon'ble Supreme Court approved of that. But I do not think this case would go to help the cause of the Company. Even the Hon'ble Supreme Court held in the above case that it would no doubt, be open to the Industrial Court to deal with the dispute unitwise, just as it was open to the Industrial Court to deal with it on an industrywise basis, and that there were several factors in favour of adopting the latter approach. It is clear, therefore, that the consideration of the question on industrywise basis is not the only way of approach to decide above the question of gratuity scheme, and that in view of particular or special facts and circumstances of each case, the matter may be decided on unitwise basis or on industrywise basis, as the case may be. In support of the Union's contention that unitwise consideration is applicable in suitable cases, reference has been made to the cases reported in 1961 (1) L.L.J. 513 (case of Garment Cleaning Works) and 1961 (2) L.L.J. 180 (case of French Motor Car Company Ltd.). In the first case it has been observed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that it is one thing to hold that the gratuity scheme can, in a proper case, be framed on industry-cum-region basis, and another thing to say that industry-cum-region basis is the only basis on which gratuity scheme can be framed, and that in fact in a large majority of cases, gratuity schemes are drafted on the basis of the units and it has never been suggested or held that such schemes were not permissible. In reference to the French Motor Car Company's case as cited above, it may be said that a gratuity scheme existed for the Bombay branch of the Company whereas a fresh scheme for gratuity was introduced in the Calcutta branch. In that connection it was held that the introduction of the scheme in the Calcutta branch of the Company would not adversely affect the Company's finances. Mr. Jinwalla has argued with reference to the case in 1961 (2) L.L.J. 660, which was cited on behalf of the Union and partly discussed above, that mere financial condition is not enough if other sister industries have no such schemes and that the decision in the case under reference does not militate against the proposition about industrywise basis. I am unable to accept this contention particularly when, as seen above, the industrywise basis is not the only way of consideration of the point at issue inasmuch as every case would depend on special circumstances and facts bearing on the same. But the point has been made clear by the Hon'ble Supreme Court by holding that if a gratuity scheme can be introduced in a concern taking into account its financial position, then it should not be refused simply because no gratuity scheme is in force in similar other concerns. In fact it is not correct to say that no sister concerns have formulated any scheme for gratuity. From the evidence of P.W. 1, Shri Bamapada Mukherjee, as well as the documents filed in that connection, it appears that there are gratuity schemes in the Indian Iron and Steel Company and the Indian Standard Wagon Company. I am not so much concerned with the actual reasons for which the schemes were introduced by those Companies. Anyway, such schemes were framed on compromise after a strike and the fact remains that such gratuity schemes are in existence in those Companies which are sister concerns undoubtedly being of the same group (including the Burn & Co.) under the self-some Managing Agents. It goes without saying, therefore, that gratuity schemes do exist in similar concerns. What is more is that the present Company itself has a gratuity scheme for its Raniganj unit. So, whatever the reason for introduction of that scheme for the Raniganj Works, the Company cannot now successfully contend that the consideration of the gratuity scheme for purpose of the Howrah Iron Works must be on industrywise basis when it has a scheme for gratuity for another unit of its own. As to the reasons for that scheme at Raniganj, the same may be discussed later on in some other connection.

In consideration of the above, I find this particular objection of the Company to be absolutely untenable. A gratuity scheme may be introduced on basis of unitwise consideration if the circumstances as well as the financial position of the Company permit.

The next objection of the Company to the introduction of a gratuity scheme for the Company's Howrah Iron Works, it is said that the employees here are handsomely paid in the shape of wages, etc., and there is a substantial provision for provident fund to which the Company itself makes a very handsome contribution. Besides, it is said, there are the schemes for payment of Puraskar allowance, attendance allowance, medical benefits and canteen subsidy. It is also said as stated above that the Company also makes ex gratia payments to employees on retirement or death as the case may be. As regards ex gratia payments, the Employees' Union have put in a chart (Ext. 15) to show that only nine persons were given that ex gratia and one person was proposed to be given such payments (vide Ext. 5 also). The highest amount of ex gratia payment appears to have been Rs. 7,633 and the lowest amount Rs. 1,300 only. These amounts cannot be said to be substantial. Besides, there is no certainty or guarantee that the Company would always make ex gratia payments in every case. Such a grant depends on the wish of the Company and can be stopped at any time at its desires. So, the payment of ex gratia amounts cannot be taken as a substantial ground for objection.

It is an admitted fact that the Company's contribution to the employees' contributory provident fund is at the rate of 10 per cent. of the basic pays or 6¼ per cent. of the basic pays and dearness allowance taken together, whichever is greater. In majority of cases, it is admitted, 10 per cent. of basic pays is contributed by the Company. According to Mr. Jinwalla, this contribution is very generous, besides, very good amounts of wages are paid to the employees of the Company. It is therefore argued that from the money which the employees thus earn, they are quite able to save substantially for their future, so that no additional liability in the shape of gratuity need be fastened on the Company, which would then be put hard financially. In conderation of the evidence adduced, I am unable to say that the wages earned by the employees are very substantial. It cannot be said that they get even fair wages, not to speak of living wages. In this connection the Company relies on certain charts filed by it, viz., Exts. D, E, F, G and H. Exhibit D shows the maximum and minimum earnings of the monthly-paid staff as in April 1961. Exhibit E shows average salary per month of monthly-paid clerical and technical staff and subordinate staff for 1960-61. Exhibit F is the statement showing maximum and minimum earnings of the hourly-paid workmen in April 1961. Exhibit G is the chart of average monthly wages of these workmen in 1960-61. Output of Puraskar units is shown in Ext. H in regard to the years 1956-57 up to November 1961. In Ext. D dearness allowance, Company's contribution to provident fund and to State Insurance Fund as well as canteen subsidy and medical benefit have been included. These items are also included in Exts. E, F and G, besides incentive allowance being included in Ext. D, attendance and Puraskar allowances being included in Ext. F. Contributions to provident fund and Employees' State Insurance Fund are legal obligations. Canteen subsidy and medical benefits are also legal obligations of the Company under the Factories Act. Puraskar allowances and attendance allowances are not payable to all the employees inasmuch as those who produce more and those who have regular attendance are entitled to get such allowances. The workers include both skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled persons. The average shown in the Company's charts would undoubtedly show somewhat high figures as the skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled have been considered together and as highly paid and low paid members of the staff and subordinate staff have been taken together. So, such an average is not indicative of substantial benefits received by the workers as a whole. Extra production, for which Puraskar allowance is paid, would certainly require extra energy and hence extra consumption as well, but the earnings of the workers do not justify the contention that they get even any fair wages at all. The incomes shown by the Company in its charts fall below the lower levels of fair wages, not to speak of living wages, vide 1961 (Vol. 1) L.L.J. 227. Exhibits D to H do not, in the circumstances, represent a correct picture and the earnings of the workers or employees are not so substantial as the Company means to establish. So, these charts do not help the Company in regard to the question of introducing a gratuity scheme.

Apart from the above, the Unions, particularly the Employees' Union, contend that the employees and the workers are so much hard-put on account of low incomes that they frequently take loans from Employees' Co-operative Credit Society and also from provident funds as well as from some other sources, so that they cannot make any savings and, on the contrary, remain entangled in debts. The Employees' Union has put in a list of employees to show the truth of its contention. Exhibit 3 series contain the names of 585 employees who, except one, are loanees to the Co-operative Credit Society. This list shows that in many cases, the amounts of loans are very big, several times the monthly wages drawn by them. These outstanding loans, if remain unsatisfied during the terms of their services, would be deducted from their provident fund at the time of retirement or on death, so that practically no useful amount would come to their hands when they would retire or to their heirs on death. In Ext. 4, the Employees' Union have shown certain incidents as to the outstanding loans at the time of death in case of five persons. In this very chart it has been shown that in 1954, there were only 243 members of the Co-operative Credit Society, which increased to 860 in the year 1960-61. Loan issued was Rs. 2,893 in 1954 and Rs. 6,07,796 in 1960-61. The number of loanees was 33 in 1954 which increased to 585 in 1960-61. Dividend declared was nil in 1954, 7 per cent. in 1956-57, 1958-59 and 1959-60, whereas the proposed dividend was 8 per cent. for 1960-61. According to Mr. Jinwalla, these facts show that the employees can save money from their actual earnings, otherwise they could not have purchased shares and made deposits towards this Co-operative Credit Society. This contention bears little substance. True, this fund has been created by share purchase and deposit by the employees, but that was only to enable themselves to take loans in case of extreme necessity, not to gain any extra income or benefits therefrom. From the above list, it would appear that more than 72 per cent. of the employees take loans frequently and these loans are very high amounts in many cases. Besides, there is another list (Ext. 12 on admission) which shows (a) Provident Institution as a whole, (b) Provident Institution at Howrah unit and (c) Howrah Iron Works Provident Fund as on the 31st March 1961. Here "(b)" relates to officers and clerks of monthly-paid staff and "(c)" to hourly-paid employees and sub-staff. The number of members appears to be 1,214, 777 and 7,566, respectively, the number of loanees being 420, 341 and 3,724, respectively. This also shows the percentages of the loanees to be 34.60, 43.89 and 49.22, respectively. Thus, the employees take loans not only from the Co-operative Credit Society but also from the provident funds according to necessity. These facts would certainly reflect the financial conditions of the employees under the Company. It cannot be said, therefore, that they earn much and can save sufficiently from their earnings. It is a fact that for the loans taken by the employees interest at 6 per cent. is payable. If they are well paid and if they can save at all, there is no reason why they would take loans off and on with interest.

As a result of the above considerations, it can be unhesitatingly held that the objection of the Company on these grounds cannot be sustained in the least. In this connection I may also refer to the case of Standard Batteries Ltd., decided by the Labour Appellate Tribunal at Bombay and reported in 5 F.J.R. 69. In that case a modest scheme for gratuity was made though the Company was only three years old and granted several increases in wage structure and a substantial provident fund was in existence. This case, therefore, lends support to the cause of the Unions in the present case. If there have been changes in the circumstances since the previous award and if the financial condition of the Company permits, then a proper or reasonable gratuity scheme may be prepared in respect of the Company's Howrah unit. I shall, therefore, now consider as to the question of change of circumstances and the financial position of the Company to see whether a gratuity scheme is to be or is not to be introduced for the Howrah unit of this Company.

The points for consideration would be financial condition and general stability of the Industry concerned, its profit-making capacity, its reserves, the claims of capital to a fair share in the profits having regard to the risk or investment and other material factors—all these have to be taken into consideration; the capacity of the Industry must be judged not on its working in a paricular year but on its working over a number of years (vide 11 F.J.R. 372). In considering these things it has to be remembered as to whether the capacity of the Company is such as to be able to bear the additional financial burden involved and long-term stability in view of the fact that retirement benefits are long-term arrangements.

In showing the Company's progress from year to year, the Employees' Union has put in a chart (Ext. 14) as follows:

CHART

Financial year.	Amount of Net Profit as shown in Profit and Loss Account.	Dividends.	Reserve and Surplus.	Net balance of Assets.	Remarks.
	Rs.	(Per cent.)	Rs.	Rs.
1949-50	8,08,344	15	62,15,693	2,80,88,823	9,000 and 21,000 Ordinary Shares of Rs. 100 each issued as Bonus Shares fully paid without payment in Cash.
1950-51	8,20,107	15	70,90,694	2,92,31,093	Same as above.
1951-52	8,12,449	15	81,65,001	3,15,26,515	Same as above.
1952-53	8,02,697	15	1,06,90,000 (42 lakhs has been transferred to Capital from this item and one Bonus Shares of Rs. 100 has been issued to the Share-holders)	3,25,83,321	Same as above.
1953-54	10,44,746	10	81,15,000	3,51,45,659	21,000 and 42,000 Ordinary Shares of Rs. 100 each issued as Bonus Shares fully paid without payment in Cash.
1954-55	14,28,237	15	94,65,000	3,62,56,588	Same as above.
1955-56	18.77,284	20	1,32,09,258	3,82,73,318	9,000, 21,000 and 42,000 Ordinary Shares of Rs. 100 each issued as Bonus Shares fully paid without payment in cash.
1956-57	18,57,957	20	1,67,27,288	4,07,51,941	72,000 Ordinary Shares of Rs. 100 each issued as Bonus Shares fully paid without payment in cash.
1957-58	18,81,069	20	2,00,75,281	4,33,79,697	Same as above.
1958-59	26,07,391	28	2,27,53,647	4,67,77,236	Same as above.
1959-60	26,14,452	28	2,34,85,218	4,82,41,501	Same as above.

The above chart shows that the net profit of the Company increased from Rs. 8,09,344 in 1949-50 to Rs. 10,44,746 in 1953-54, and the amount of net profit became gradually higher and reached the figure of Rs. 26,14,452 in 1959-60. Dividends decreased from 15 per cent. in 1949-50 to 10 per cent. in 1953-54, but the same amount again shot up to reach the figure of 28½ per cent. in 1959-60. There was also gradual increase of reserves and surplus from Rs. 62,15,693 in 1949-50 to Rs. 81,15,000 in 1953-54, and after gradual increases the same amounted to Rs. 2,34,35,218 in 1959-60. Net balance of assets also gradually increased from Rs. 2,80,88,823 in 1949-50 to Rs. 3,51,45,659 in 1953-54 and to Rs. 4,82,41,501 in 1959-60. Similar is the case in regard to the ordinary shares as shown in the above chart. These figures, as shown in this chart, are not incorrect inasmuch as the same have been taken from the Company's balance-sheets which have been produced before this Tribunal.

Regarding the dividends of 28½ per cent. in 1958-59 and 1959-60 as per Ext. 14, it has been stated by Mr. Jinwalla on behalf of the Company that in reality this rate would amount to 19 per cent. only as 30 per cent. of this rate should be deducted from the rates shown in the chart. As a matter of fact the deduction of 30 per cent. would be in respect of preference shares only, not ordinary shares. Even supposing that the real rate would be 19 per cent. after deduction of 30 per cent. of the dividends, still the rate of 19 per cent. is a very big and substantial amount, not an insignificant one. As regards the progress as to net profits, there is nothing to contend about against the steadiness and stability. The progress in the matters of reserves and surplus, as well as net balance of assets as shown in the chart, nothing can be successfully said on behalf of the Company to minimise the value of steadiness and progressive prosperity by leaps and bounds from year to year. There was also sufficient increase in regard to ordinary shares of 30,000 in 1949-50 to 63,000 in 1953-54 and to 72,000 in 1955-56 to 1959-60. It is contended for the Company that previously prices were much low whereas prices increased since the Second World War which broke out in 1939. It is further said with reference to Company's balance-sheets that reserves were set apart for the construction and rehabilitation and the same were made for modernisation and reconstruction as well. It is Mr. Jinwalla's argument that in spite of increases in reserves, the Company is placed in the same position as before by reason of increase in prices of materials since 1939, and, therefore, there is really not a very great increase of profits, and the so-called increase cannot be called fabulous in fact. The net contention of Mr. Jinwalla is that the Company's prosperity, if any, is quite temporary and uncertain, not stable, and as such gratuity scheme if introduced will act very severely against the Company.

I do not find any real substance in an argument likely this in the face of the evidence and materials before me. Mr. Jinwalla told this Tribunal at the time of opening of the case that the Company started its business in 1895 with the original capital of Rs. 40 lakhs, and its prosperity up till now has been very very slow. There is nothing to show that the Company had taken any loan at any time for running its business in somewhat great scale since 1895. Shri Ram Sen has argued on behalf of the Sramik Union that all the reserves and surpluses had been made out of profits derived by the Company from year to year since the inception of its business. There is nothing to refute this argument. No doubt, the Company set apart reserves for reconstruction, modernisation and rehabilitation, etc. But that does not mean in any way that it had to undergo any financial crisis at any time. There might have been some difficulties or inconveniences for want of supply of steel and electric powers, but there is no reason to say or even to suppose that the Company was ever faced with any danger of incurring lossess. There is, of course, a question of lay-off in 1958 on account of shortage of raw materials, and also there was a time when the Company did not get the required electric power. I shall have occasion to deal with these matters in some details later on. For the present it would be quite enough to say that in spite of rise in the prices of articles and materials since 1939, the Company's progress has never been slow or unstable. As a matter of fact, it would appear from the chart mentioned above (Ext. 14) that during the last 10 years, the Company was able to double its assets. It is said for the Company that the shareholders are far worse at present because of the new taxation. But it cannot be said that the Company's assets accumulated on account of the sacrifice on the part of the shareholders, nor it be said in the circumstances of the case that the shareholders are sterving or are in a worse position. Regarding the ordinary shares, no money was paid in cash, whereas the accumulated share values amounted to Rs. 72,000, that is, nearly 2½ times of what the same were in 1948-50. Of course, the employees have been getting bonus from the Company. From this is cannot be said that there is no sign of stability and prosperity of the Company inasmuch as the reserves and surplus increased by nearly 4 times in 1959-60 from what the same were in 1949-50. This is a pure indication of a very steady and stable progress, in spite of the fact that the employees have been getting bonus and other benefits already mentioned. The Company has put in a chart (Ext. H) to show the decrease in production in Structural. Points and Crossing and Wagon. This chart shows that structural production in 1956-57 was 9,960 tons and came to be 7,775 tons in 1960-61. Points and Crossings came down from 4,529 units in 1956-57 to 3,356 units; and the Wagon production decreased from 4,051 units in 1956-57 to 2,293 units in 1960-61. But, on the contrary, net profits increased from Rs. 18,57,957 to Rs. 26,14,452. It appears therefore that there was no setback in gradual and progressive prosperity of the Company even when production at some time had decreased. The gradual and the steady increase in the net profits must have been achieved even if prices might have increased since 1939. The increase in the net profits as such was not in the least affected by gradual rise in prices.

The Director's report, dated 23rd June 1961, as embodied at page 6 of the balance-sheet of that year (Ext. O/3) itself shows that the Howrah Works has large volume of work booked though there is little improvement in the unsatisfactory steel position. As regards the difficulty about steel position, I would discuss the point very shortly, and here it may well be said that that difficulty was quite temporary. Such temporary difficulties would not matter in the least to understand or ascertain about the correct financial position of the Company (vide 3 F.J.S. 482). Large booking of works is an indication of stability, not a retardation in progress; this is very much suggestive about the problem of growth, not of hindrance. The Company had expanded its business and works and has also been expanding the same as the balance-sheets produced go to show. It is seen from the balance-sheets that the Company started two new Projects called Salem Project and Niwar Project since 1959 out of its profits, the total amount set apart for these projects being Rs. 30 lakhs and 21 lakhs respectively (vide Ext. O/3, page 19, Schedule E). This is also a very strong indication of Company's prosperity, not a sign of crisis at all.

What is more, the Company opened a crane section at the Howrah Works for manufacture of cranes since June 1960 and, roughly speaking, there are orders pending for manufacture of 58 cranes (vide O.P.W. 4, Shri Sukumar Das, Assistant Manager of the Company at Howrah). Although this witness cannot speak of the prices of cranes without knowing their different sizes and weightages, yet he admits that the booked orders for cranes include some cranes of 25 tons, and by guess he says that the prices of such a crane of 50 ft. span would be about Rs. 1,70,000. If there were any difficulty or inconvenience in regard to the Company's financial condition, it is quite expected that the Company would not venture to hazard a tremendous task like production of cranes. So, the opening of the crane section also is sufficiently indicating that the Company's financial position is very secured and stable apart from being steady as well.

According to Shri Ram Sen's calculation in course of his argument on behalf of the Sramik Union, Rs. 1,98,00,000 was taken as dividends during the years from 1948 to 1961, whereas the Managing Agents' Commission was to the extent of Rs. 1,00,00,000. This was the position reached by the Company, apart from other profits and gains mentioned above while the starting capital was only Rs. 40 lakhs. So, in view of these facts and circumstances, it would not be wrong to say that the Company's profits have been fabulous and it has a very steady and stable prosperity financially. An Engineering concern like this has a very very bright future indeed.

Now, I come to the consideration of the question of difficulties experienced and undergone by the Company. I may make mention of three things referred to on behalf of the Company. Firstly, there was a shortage of raw materials, resulting in declaration of lay-off in 1958. There was also some difficulty and hindrance to work on account of non-supply of proper electric powers for some time. Secondly, the Company was not getting matched steel, in spite of its orders and repeated reminders, for purpose of going on with its normal works. Thirdly, some tenders of the Company were rejected and hence it could not carry on its works in a proper way. For these reasons, it is said, the output could not be satisfactory at all.

Regarding the lay-off, the Company has put in some notices (Exts. L series). That lay-off took effect by instalments in some sections of the Company with effect from 10th August 1958. It was lifted gradually by instalments, so to say, from 15th December 1958, the last lifting being on 29th December 1958. The Company gave compensation for the period of lay-off at 50 per cent. of the total of the basic wages and dearness allowances. The reason for the lay-off is said to have been shortage of raw materials. The Company has put in papers to show its endeavours to get the required materials as early as possible. At a time the Company felt urgent necessity of supply of steel, particularly matched steel, for purpose of production works. About the time of preparation of the Director's report, dated 23rd June 1959, vide page 5 of the relevant balance-sheet (Ext. Q/1), the quantity of steel delivered to the Company had increased though the report states, "it remains to be shown that there is any improvement in the planning and supply of matched steel." That the Company was in need of steel about that time is neither denied nor disputed. But the contention on behalf of the employees and the workers is that in spite of such shortage the output of the Company was not very seriously or materially affected. The Company very much challenges this contention of the Unions. In a letter, dated 7th October 1960 (Ext. N/4), the Company wrote to the Director of the Railway Stores at New Delhi informing about inadequate supply of steel and unsatisfactory position as well as reduced output. In the letters Ext. N series, the Company was complaining of the shortage of steel as no appreciable improvements in the supply had taken place. In reply to the Development Directorate the Company supplied the required information regarding the position as per pro forma (Ext. N/2). All these have remained practically unchallenged. So there can be no doubt that the Company was in very urgent need of raw materials for production works and, in the particular circumstances of acute shortage, it had no other alternative but to declare the lay-off part by part for nearly 4½ months. Yet, it is to be noted that there was no lay-off in regard to all the sections or departments of the Company. The difficulty experienced by the Company was in respect of three main departments—Structural, Points and Crossing and Wagon. In all, there are about 10 departments at the Howrah Iron Works. It is the argument on behalf of the Unions that even if there was difficulty for some time in regard to only three out of 10 departments, that was short-lived and did not affect the Company's production or output in the true sense. It is also said that in the circumstances of the case, it may well be presumed that the remaining seven departments of the Company had worked perfectly well, otherwise there could have been lay-off regarding those departments as well. If the relevant facts and circumstances of this case are properly analysed, it will appear undoubtedly that the contentions made on behalf of the Unions are not to be lightly brushed aside.

The Company has put in a chart (Ext. R) to show loss of production during January to November 1961. This does not obviously relate to the year 1958 in which the lay-off took place. There are graphic charts (Ext. S-S/2) showing the availability of matched steel from October 1958 to December 1961 with respect to Structural Shop and Points and Crossing shop and from October 1959 to December 1961 for the Wagons. The Company has also put in a chart (Ext. T) to show the position of labour, order booked and steel stock as on 1st December 1961. These have been put to severe criticisms on behalf of the Unions. These charts undoubtedly show some reduction in production in some cases and shortage of alleged steel for purpose of works in these three departments. But it does not appear necessarily that wherever there was lesser supply there was lesser production or wherever the supply was greater, the production was also greater. In short, it would appear, the production did not depend merely on the quantity of supply. There is evidence on the side of the Company that unmatched steel might be converted into matched steel (vide O.P.W. 4, page 4). The explanation given by this witness is that the conversion requires some troubles. Although this witness did not explain what the troubles were, it was argued by Mr. Jinwalla that the troubles of conversion included expenses and difficulties. Certainly some amount of extra or additional expenses might be incurred after this process of conversion was undertaken. It is not known why the Company refrained from undertaking such a process for conversion although it was faced with acute shortage of matched steel. It might be that on account of such additional expenses, the profit might be somewhat less than what it had been. So, in my view, it is no use explaining away the matter for reason of some additional expenses. By referring to the chart Ext. T, it has been argued for the Company that the quantity of materials at hand was not sufficient to execute the orders. From Ext. T itself it appears that the annual capacity of wagons was 4,800 tons whereas orders in hand were to the extent of 5,897 tons, the annual capacity for structural fabrication was 12,000 tons. But the orders in hand were to the extent of 21,789 tons, and the annual capacity for Points and Crossing manufacture was 3,000 sets whereas the orders in hand were for 305 sets. These figures show that the orders in hand were far less than the annual capacity in regard to Points and Crossings. But the orders in hand regarding the two other departments were much higher than annual capacity. Mr. Jinwalla's contention is that pending orders do not indicate prosperity and stability of the Company. I am unable to accept this argument as a satisfactory one. If the Company's financial position was not good or sufficient, it would not have ventured to accept orders far in excess of its annual capacity in two of its three main production departments, while the Company was for some time faced with great difficulties by reason of shortage of materials. Of course, the papers filed by the Company show lower production at times. But such a reduction in production may not necessarily be attributed to mere shortage of materials. There does not appear to have been any want of work. From the balance-sheets of 1959-60 and 1960-61 it would appear that in 1959-60 production on three heads was more than what it was in the following year. But the net profit was less than that in the following year. In Ext. R, output of production per month has been shown for the period from January to November 1961. This relates to the aforesaid three departments only. In Ext. H, only seven months' production in 1961-62 has been shown.

In spite of the lay-off on account of shortage of raw materials, the Company gained huge net profits to the extent of Rs. 26,07,331 whereas dividends in that year was to the extent of 25½ per cent. Even after the lay-off, the Company had, as admitted by O.P.W. 4, appointed more officers than one. It is the explanation of Mr. Jinwalla, not the witness, that new appointments were made as some officers were necessary by reason of increase in administrative works, or by reason of some retirements. It is his contention that these appointments did not depend on actual works and output. This explanation seems to be only an ipso dixit as there is nothing else on record in support of his contention. The difficulty about supply of steel is no longer in existence now-a-days. The temporary disadvantage was over pretty long ago. So, in view of the facts and circumstances above, the lay-off for want of shortage of materials was not such as would show any financial crisis of the Company.

The Company has put in a list (Ext. U) to show loss of some tenders. It is said for the Company that these losses told very heavily on the progress of work of the Company. The list shows 21 tenders lost from 25th March 1958 to 31st October 1961, that is, during the period of a little over 3½ years. That loss was in respect of six tenders in a year in average. Such loss of tenders cannot be said to be very material. Not only that rejection of tenders is a normal feature in all Companies just as all engineering concerns also might be faced with this shortage of steel from time to time previously. These circumstances are not a special feature in this Company alone.

Mr. Jinwalla has argued before me that though all Companies are liable to lose tenders, the Burn Company lost so many tenders and this fact shows that this Company has no long-term prosperity or stability. The reason for loss of the above tenders is given in evidence on Company's side. It has been said that the quoted prices of the Company were higher than those of other Companies. It is not known exactly why this Company could not get the said tenders by trying into reduce prices to some extent. There is nothing to say that the loss of tenders entailed any sort of financial loss to the Company. It was found while discussing Ext. T that the Company had in hand many orders beyond its own annual capacity. It is seen that the Company gained sufficient profits even in spite of loss of the said tenders. So, this alleged loss is quite immaterial in the circumstances of the case, and there is no substance in this part of the Company's contention.

Another point urged on behalf of the Company is that for sometime there was cut of electric power, for which works of the Company were very much hampered. As regards the supply of electricity, it cannot be forecast that there would be no difficulty in future regarding supply of such power. This is a common feature for all concerns. From Ext. O series, it appears that the Company had a contract for getting supply of 57.00 kilowatts of electric energy from the Electrical Company and that for sometime there was reduction in that supply. It cannot be denied that such a cut in electricity would put a setback to the progress of normal works. But that cut does not necessarily mean that it had a very adverse reaction on the general output as a whole. It is to be noted that even on account of shortage of electricity, there was no lay-off. On the contrary, the Company had as usual worked in four shifts daily, no shift being curtailed. There was only temporary disadvantage, and such a thing ought not to be counted in regard to finding out whether the Company is financially strong enough to admit of the introduction of a gratuity scheme on the basis of a long term arrangement. O.P.W. 4 cannot say whether the Company's balance-sheets would show less production on account of shortage of raw materials, loss of orders and rejection of tenders. So, I do not find any substance in the matter of the said temporary difficulty by reason of reduction in electricity.

From the award of Shri M. C. Banerjee, it would appear that there was greater profit of the Company in 1949 on account of the Raniganj Works. But in the same award, it was observed by the then Learned Tribunal that the Howrah Unit is the most prosperous one. Yet in a very prosperous unit like the Howrah Iron Works, there is no provision for gratuity. It does not matter much if the profit was greater in one year due to the Raniganj Works. The point is whether by reason of the prosperity of the Company on a long-term basis, the scheme for gratuity should or should not be introduced at the Company's Howrah unit. It is said by Mr. Jinwalla that the Raniganj unit relates to Ceramic and Refractory Works, not Engineering Works and the scheme for gratuity was introduced there by agreements as the workers there get low wages and income. The Company has put in charts showing average earnings of the workers at the Raniganj unit but on a proper analysis of evidence and comparison of the figures as to the earnings of the Raniganj unit and the Howrah Iron Works, I am not satisfied as to the reason stated for the introduction of the scheme at the Raniganj Works. The Raniganj wage chart for 1948 will show less amount of dearness allowance there than at Howrah. This would indirectly mean that price of articles is less at Raniganj. From Exts. B and C it appears that the average earnings of the subordinate staff at Raniganj and at Howrah unit are Rs. 136 and Rs. 102 respectively. Thus, the average earnings of the substaff at Howrah is much less than at Raniganj. Of course, the average earning of the clerical staff at Raniganj unit is Rs. 215, while that of the clerical and technical staff at the Howrah Iron Works is Rs. 350. The reason of this higher average income at the Howrah Works is quite obvious. Here, the technicians have been included in the group for ascertaining the average and hence, the average must necessarily be higher. Accordingly I come to the conclusion that it is not at all a sound reason to say that the scheme prevails at the Raniganj Works because of low earnings of the workers there, and hence this contention on behalf of the Company is totally unconvincing.

The Company's balance-sheet of 1955-56 (Ext. Q-12) shows that even after the previous Award of 1953, the Company reserved rights for granting benefits in the shape of gratuities. The Company's notice incorporated at page 4 of this balance-sheet shows that Article 151(17) of the Company's Articles of Association was deleted and substituted by two clauses—one of which runs thus:

> "(17a) to give pensions, gratuities, allowances .....to or for the benefit of persons who are or have been employed by or who are serving or have served the Company.....or the wives, children.....of such person or persons as may appear to the Directors just and proper.....".

The above provision reflects the intention of the Company to grant retiring benefits in the shape of gratuity. This goes not only against the contention that a scheme like this should be considered on industry-wise basis alone but also against the argument that Company's position would not be such as to admit of any gratuity scheme.

Though, as stated above, the Company has put in some papers to show reduction in output at sometime, the balance-sheets produced in this case do not show any appreciable loss of production. Even O.P.W. 4 cannot say whether loss of production can be shown or ascertained from these balance-sheets.

O.P.W. 2 Mukunda Prosad Majumder, the Works Accountant of the Howrah office of the Burn Company, has stated in his deposition that the immediate liability of the Company would be to the extent of nearly Rs. 60 lakhs if the gratuity scheme is framed according to the scheme preferred by the Unions on the basis of one month's wages. He further says that this would be only to meet the past services whereas the recurring liability of Rs. 6 lakhs per annum would accrue in future and that no liquid balance is available to the Company for meeting these payments. This evidence also, in my opinion, is quite unconvincing as being lacking in substance or corroboration. This evidence presumes that gratuity would be paid at the rate of one month's wage. Besides, the loan positions in which the workers and the emoloyees have been involved, would go to show that at the time of retirement or death, etc., big sums of money would not be actually payable in cash to them as the loans would have to be deducted. In my opinion, there is no reasonable foundation for this apprehension on the part of the Company. The papers filed on beha'f of the Unions show that only a very few employees retired or died in a year so far. There is no reason to fear that the number of such casualties would be very great in future.

The balance-sheet of 1956-57 (Ext. Q 13) shows that in March 1957 the Company donated a big amount of Rs. 1,15,000 to the Congress Party Fund. It is said that the Company makes donation to the Congress Fund in every election year. This may or may not be correct. But the donation in 1957 is a fact, and the amount of donation is a large one. Nobody can or should envy such a donation if the Company was minded to make it. But the fact of donation of Rs. 1,15,000 indicates prosperity and stability of the Company. If the Company's financial position was not very satisfactory, such a donation could not be expected from a Company like this.

I have touched upon and considered all the points raised by both parties in this case. I have seen the very good financial condition and the general stability of this Company. I have also seen its profit-making capacity and its reserves and surpluses. All material factors in ascertaining about a long-term prosperity and stability of the Company, including very appreciable changes from the time of the previous Award, have been considered and found to be in favour of the Unions as above. The financial capacity of the Company has been judged, not on its working in a particular year but on its working over a long number of years. In view of this facts and circumstances I hold in the result that the Company's financial position is absolutely satisfactory and sound and that it can easily afford to grant gratuities to its workers and employees at not very exaggerate rates. So a gratuity scheme shall be introduced for the Howrah unit of the Company.

I, therefore, shall now proceed to consider about the terms and rates for gratuities. The Mazdoor Union has claimed gratuity at some exaggerate rates, viz., (a) 1½ months' wages for each year of service for over 10 years' service, (b) one month's wages for each year of service for over seven years' but below ten years' service, (c) three weeks' wages for each year of service for over five years' but below seven yars' service and (d) two weeks' wages for each year of service for over three years and below five years' service. This Union also claims gratuity for persons even for termination of services by dismissal or discharge. On the other hand, the three other Unions have claimed gratuity for one month's wages for each year of service. The Employees' Union has itself stated that the gratuities should be paid except for termination of service for misconduct involving financial loss to the Company. The claim made by the Mazdoor Union is obviously too excessive to be considered in its favour. The claim of the other Unions for gratuity at the rate of one month's wages for each year of service may also appear to be somewhat inflated. It is contended on behalf of the Unions that the rates of gratuities prevailing in the Indian Iron and Steel Company and the Standard Wagon Company of the same group to which the present Company belongs, rise even higher than one month's wages according to long services. The Employees' Union has put in a chart (Ext 1) in support of this. This gets support also from the Standing Orders of the aforesaid two Companies, which have been filed on behalf of the Company (vide Exts. V and V/1). But, as for me, even the rate of one month's wages for long duration of service, seems to be very high, so that I am unable to accept this proposition as a very sound one if all the facts and circumstances connected with the present case are considered as a whole. In my opinion, the rate of 15 days' wages for 10 years of services and over, seems to me quite fair and reasonable. There is one point to be considered in this connection viz., whether there should be a limit of maximum in regard to the duration of service for purpose of this gratuity scheme. At one time it was contended on behalf of the Company that if a scheme is introduced at all, there should be limit for maximum up to fifteen months' wages irrespective of the duration of the service exceeding 30 years. It appears that there was a reference to the Tribunal for revision of the scale of gratuity prevailing at Raniganj Works. In the agreements (Exts. C and C/1), no specific limit is found to be mentioned it being stated that the rate would be 15 days' wages for each year of service. By the award of late G. Palit fifteen months appear to have been fixed as a sort of maximum with the reservation that if any better facilities existed, then the same should continue. There was a further reference to this Tribunal regarding a similar point, and my predecessor-in-office, Shri P. K. Sarkar, accepted fifteen months' wages as being the maximum. Against that decision of Shri Sarkar, a case is still pending in the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta. It is the case of the Unions that even before and after Shri Palit's award, but prior to the decision of Shri Sarkar, the Company itself granted gratuities at Raniganj at higher rates than the said maximum in several cases. The Employees' Union has put in a list (Ext. 2) to show grants of such higher rates to as many as fourteen persons, eight of them getting the higher facilities before Shri Palit's Award and six getting the same subsequent to that award. Thus, there must be a very good reason for not fixing any limit for maximum wages payable as gratuities. So I accept this proposition as being reasonable and fair. In my view, however, no gratuity should be paid to a person unless he completes 10 years of services; nor should gratuity be paid to a person who is dismissed for misconduct or misdemeanour. It is said for the Unions that in case of termination of services for misconduct, gratuity may be given if the misconduct does not involve any financial loss to the Company. Of course, there are some cases in which this proposition was accepted but even in Exts. V and V/1, to which the Unions have referred such a benefit to a dismissed person was denied. I also think it quite proper that in case of dismissal or discharge for misconduct, no gratuity should be paid.

In the result, I frame the gratuity scheme in this case as follows:

(1) On the death of an employee or worker while in service, or on his becoming physically or mentally incapacitated for further service, or on retirement or resignation of an employee or worker, or on termination of service of an employee or worker by the Company except for misconduct, gratuity shall be paid at the rate of half a month's basic wages for each completed year of service, to be paid to the employee or the worker concerned or his heirs or nominees, as the case may be. There should be no limit for maximum in respect of longer duration of service.

(2) There shall be no gratuity payable to a person rendering service below 10 years.

(3) Basic wages for the purposes of the present scheme shall be the average of basic wages payable to a worker or employee during the 12 months immediately preceding death, disability, retirement, resignation, or termination of service otherwise than for misconduct, as the case may be.

(4) For the purposes of reckoning continuous service, break not exceeding six months shall be condoned.

(5) No gratuity shall be paid to a person dismissed or discharged for misconduct or misdemeanour.

(6) This scheme shall have retrospective effect from the date of the present reference. In giving this effect, ex-gratia payments, if any, shall be adjusted.

This is my award.

For the Company: Shri K. B. Basu, Counsel, with Shri N. M. Das Gupta, Advocate.

AWARD

By order No. 3143-I.R./IR/13L-24/60, dated the 22nd June 1960, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Oxford University Press, Mercantile Buildings, Lall Bazar, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by Oxford University Press Employees' Association, 23 Netaji Subhas Road, Commercial Buildings, Block-3, 2nd floor, Calcutta-1, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issues

1. Grades and scales of pay.
2. Dearness allowance.
3. Overtime.
4. Privilege leave.
5. Retiring age.

This reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, was made by the Government by order No. 3143-I.R./IR/13L-24/60, dated the 22nd June 1960, in respect of industrial disputes raised by Oxford University Press Employees' Association (hereinafter be referred to as the Union) against Messrs. Oxford University Press (hereinafter be referred to as the Company).

The reference was received on 29th June 1960, and as usual thereafter notices were served upon both the parties who duly entered appearance through their respective lawyers, but the Company did not file their written statements before taking some adjournments. The Company also took some time to produce the documents called for and relied upon by the Union. Hearing of the case was spread over a considerable period. Both parties examined a number of witnesses and tendered numerous documents into evidence.

In short, the Union's case is that the Company is one of the branches distributed all over the world of the parent organisation named Oxford University Press, Amen House, London. It undertakes publications of huge number of books on different subjects either directly from its Head Office in London or from its branches spread all over the world. Besides its publication business it has arrangement of selling books published by the Oxford University Press, London, and of other branches spread all over the world. At the same time the Company is the sole selling agent for a number of foreign publishers and a good number of American University Presses and also acts as Commission Agents for selling some publications by renowned Indian authors. Thereby the Company makes huge profit and income but its employees are not being properly and adequately paid. There is no pay scale for the employees of the Company in comparison with the magnitude of its business. The employees are being paid disproportionately low wages and D.A. The Company most arbitrarily fixed D.A. in September 1955 without proper regard to the prevailing cost of living index and since then it has not been increased in spite of rise of the cost of living index. The Company has altogether ignored the prevailing rate of D.A. offered by the neighbouring mercantile firms as recommended by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. As a result, the standard of living of all employees of the Company has deteriorated since September 1955. The Company also does not properly pay for overtime work. The rate of overtime is generally higher than the rate of normal salary but the existing rate of overtime with the Company is 1/160th of the basic pay plus 1 4th per hour which is grossly inadequate.

The present practice of retiring age is 60, but the management has the option to ask an employee to retire after reaching the age of 55 without assigning any reason. This option of the Company must go and the retiring age should be 60 years unconditionally. The Union placed their grievances before the Manager in a charter of demands in November 1959 but having received no sympathetic response from the management it had to approach the Labour Directorate of the Government of West Bengal in December 1959 for their intervention and conciliation but no conciliation was possible because of the adamant attitude of the management. Hence this reference.

The Company's case is that Oxford University Press is a department of the University of Oxford and is wholly owned and controlled by the University of Oxford which is a charitable corporation and a non-profit-making body having for its object the encouragement of learning and research and the propagation of knowledge throughout the world. The Indian branches of the Oxford University Press, of which the present Company is the one, are wholly owned and controlled by the University of Oxford and they have been established for the fulfilment of the purpose and object stated above. Their profit is devoted to the production of works of scholarship and research, a large portion of which, for obvious reasons, can never recover even their costs. Therefore, any undue increase in the running expenses of the Press in any one particular part of the world must, of necessity, reduce its resources and consequently will hamper its valued contribution to the intellectual, spiritual and economic development. The Press exists solely for the advancement of education, knowledge and culture of the people at large. The Company has denied the Union's allegation of disproportionately low wages and D.A. of its employees in comparison with its huge earning as a publisher, book-seller and selling agents of different foreign publications. It is also denied to be the sole selling agent for Messrs. Harraps, Ginns of the American University Presses, or the Commission Agents for any renowned Indian authors, as alleged by the Union. According to the Company, the wages and other benefits available to its employees compare very favourably with other similar industries of the region. The employees of the Company have got to discharge stereotype and routine works requiring no special skill and efficiency. It is also the contention of the Company that not only wages and D.A. received by the employees compare favourably with those offered by identical industries of the region but also the employees are given increments liberally besides various amenities enjoyed by them. The workmen have been receiving three months' basic wages or more as bonus in addition to their retiral benefits in the shape of provident fund and gratuity. For the benefit of the workmen a considerable portion of the D.A. was merged into basic pay in September 1955 and even thereafter the D.A scheme in vogue with the Company is very fair and reasonable. The leave rules for the employees are also very liberal and generous. The retiring age of the employees is 60 years and there was not a single case in which an employee was asked to retire at the age of 55 years. But, of course, there is provision in the rule which reserves the Company's right to ask an employee to retire at the age of 55 in exceptional cases when the employee is found unfit for work for reasons of poor health and incapacity to work.

Both parties have examined a number of witnesses—four witnesses by the Union and four witnesses by the Company, besides enumerable documents tendered into evidence by them. Both sides also advanced lengthy arguments. I shall presently proceed to consider the issues one after another.

Issue No. 1: Grades and scales of pay

The Company, contrary to what the name suggests, is a big book shop selling books and at the same time it is a publishing institution. The Company's document Ext. H (notice displayed in the shop under the provisions of Bengal Shops and Establishment Act 1940) shows that the Company carries on publishing and book-selling business. Two other documents Exts. M and M/1 which are letters issued by the Chief Inspector, Shops and Establishment, Government of West Bengal, one to the Assistant Secretary of the Union and the other to the Manager of the Press, will show that the Oxford University Press is a book shop. Shri S. R. Das Sharma who is an employee of the Press and the Vice-President of the Union has stated on oath before the Authority under the Payment of Wages Act that selling of books is a principal work of the Oxford University Press. He further deposed in that case that the sale proceeds of books constitute the revenue of the Company (vide Ext. F). Therefore it is abundantly clear that the Company is not a Press but the concern carries on book-selling and publishing business.

The number of workmen involved in the disputes under reference is not many, may be numbering about 60 at best as will appear from the evidence of P.W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen, an employee of the Company and Assistant Secretary of the Union.

The Union demands fixation of grades and scales of pay in respect of these workmen on the allegation that there is none in existence in the Company (vide evidence of P.W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen). Non-existence of grades and scale of pay is practically admitted by the Company's witnesses D.Ws. 2 and 3 who are two of the Sectional Heads. The Company, of course, does not specifically plead existence of any, but contends regular payment of increment to its employees. There is evidence to show that the Company has been paying increments but hardly there is any uniformity as to the rate. P.W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen admits that he has been receiving annual increments of pay all along since his appointment in 1950 up to 1959, but he says that the annual increment is left entirely at the discretion of the Company. Be that as it may, the Company is admittedly granting annual increments of pay to its workmen in spite of absence of any grade or scale. The Company, has, however, included in the chart (Exts. A and Y/2) showing wages and other benefits available at the Oxford University Press, some grades and scales of pay purported to have been offered. There is no evidence to show when these proposed grades and scales were, if at all, offered by the Company to its workmen. In any case, the Company now readily offers certain grades and scales of pay.

It is well settled that in the fixation of scales of wages, the capacity of the industry to pay is one of the essential circumstances to be taken into consideration excepting cases of bare subsistence or minimum wage where the employer is bound to pay the same irrespective of such capacity. In the instant case the Company has not, of course, pleaded incapacity to pay, but the learned Counsel appearing for the Company has drawn my attention to the admitted fact that the sale proceeds of books constitute the income and revenue of the Company as deposed by Shri Gangadhar Sen, the Assistant Secretary, and also by Shri S. R. Das Sharma, Vice-President of the Union, who are also employees of the Company, in cases before the Authority under the Payment of Wages Act (vide Exts. K and R). Attention of this Tribunal has further been drawn to the Company's written statement to the effect that the Oxford University Press is a department of the University of Oxford and is wholly controlled by the University of Oxford which is nothing but a charitable corporation having for its object the encouragement of learning and research and the propagation of knowledge throughout the world. Therefore, whatever profit they earned is devoted to the production of works of scholarship and research. In the circumstances, it has been contended the Company should not be unnecessarily saddled with extra burden of additional wages, etc., that will be detrimental to the laudable object of its existence.

Not only the Company has not pleaded its incapacity to pay additional wages and monetary benefits, but on the other hand, there is evidence to show that the Company has been regularly granting increments of pay to its workmen though not in accordance with any fixed scale, but it is entirely left at its discretion and as such the workmen are entirely kept in the dark as to the increment, if any, that may be granted and if so, its amount. This uncertainty about the future prospect must go.

It is no doubt admitted that the main source of income and revenue of the Company is sale proceeds of books, which amount is considerable as will appear from the Company's documents, Exts. N, N/1 and P, P/1. The total annual sales come to about 20 to 22 lakh of rupees. Of course, there is evidence to show that the Company is the sole publisher of many books but the prices thereof are not entirely fixed by the concern, but they are nowadays fixed by the Government and published in the "Calcutta Gazette." Be that as it may, the Company has not pleaded any loss or inability to pay, but it has simply pointed out that it is a non-profit-making concern and its income is well utilised for lofty purposes of advancement of education and knowledge throughout the world. Therefore, when the Company exists for the good of humanity as a whole it is all the more desirable that it should show a little more sympathy and consideration to ameliorate the economic condition of its own employees and to help them to fight successfully the hard struggle for existence in order to survive.

The Union submitted a charter of demands (Ext. 7) to the Company sometimes in November 1959. But there is no evidence to show that the Company readily responded. The Company has placed before the Tribunal some grades and scales of pay purported to have ben offered by it, but there is no evidence to show if the scales were offered to its employees before the hearing of this reference. The Union demanded in the charter of demands two grades of pay for the clerical staff, one for the packer and another for the Subordinate Staff. They are identical with those demanded by the Union in paragraph 14 of its written statement. They are as follows:

Clerical Staff

Grade A—Rs. 80—6—110—10—210.

Grade B—Rs. 160—16—400.

Packing Babus

Rs. 60—3—75—4—95—5—120.

Sub-staff

Rs. 50—2—60—3—90.

The Company has offered the following grades and scales in Exts. A and Y/2:

Grade A—Rs. 80—3—110—E.B.—4—150.

Grade B—Rs. 110—4—150—E.B.—5—200.

Grade C—Rs. 200 and upwards. (Specially at the discretion of the employer.)

Sub-Staff

Packer—Rs. 55—1—75.

Peons—Rs. 50—1—70.

Admittedly Oxford University Press has three branches in India—in Bombay, Madras and Calcutta with its Head Office at Bombay. The Union's contention is that the workmen of the Calcutta branch should not be paid lesser pay and D.A. than the workmen of the other two branches in India, namely, Madras and Bombay, in consideration of the fact that Calcutta branch has the maximum sales and consequently the maximum earning. But in my view the pay scales of Bombay and Madras are not very relevant to decide what should be the pay scales in Calcutta. The Union itself, as will appear, does not think it proper to demand grades and scales of pay prevalent in the Bombay or Madras branch of the Oxford University Press and it has not actually done so in the charter of demands (Ext. 7) or in the written statement paragraph 14. It should be remembered that the capacity of the industry to pay to be considered on the industry-cum-region basis after taking a fair cross-section of the industry as has been held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. Therefore, in the fixation of pay scales for the workmen of the Company we must have consideration of the pay scales of similar concerns in the neighbourhood. Union has placed before the Tribunal the pay scales agreed upon between the Company on the one hand and its workmen on the other of the Bombay branch. Exhibit 5 is the copy of the memorandum of settlement so arrived at. It may be pointed out that the Union itself thought it wise not to demand the grades and scales of pay agreed upon between the Company and the Union representing the workmen of the Bombay branch. This fact will be quite apparent on a comparison of the pay scale demanded by the Union in paragraph 14 of its written statement with the pay scales appearing in the memorandum of settlement Ext. 5. The Union in its written statement (paragraph 5) has further contended that even on the basis of the principle of, industry-cum-region, the pay and other amenities available to the workmen of the Calcutta branch are far less favourable than those of the employees of Messrs. Macmillan Co. Ltd. and Orient Longmans India Ltd., Calcutta and other mercantile firms of Dalhousie Square area. Messrs. Macmillan Co. and Orient Longmans India Ltd. are no doubt similar concerns in the Calcutta region. Let us see what their existing grades and scales are. The Union has produced a letter Ext. 3 purported to have been sent by the Secretary of the Macmillan Co. Ltd. Employees' Union on 20th April 1960. P.W. 1 Shri Ajit Roy Chowdhury is the Secretary. This witness has no doubt proved this document Ext. 3 but he cannot support the entire statements appearing in this document. He himself admits that Grade D as shown on this document was abolished about four years ago, that means long before the document was brought into existence. This witness also cannot support some statements and figures appearing in the comparative chart Ext. 8. According to him there is no such grade for Senior Subordinate Staff as shown in this chart Ext. 8. Then again P.W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen admits incorrectness of the figure 64 shown as the D.A. of the Subordinate Staff of Messrs. Macmillan & Co. It should be 58. Therefore, it is extremely difficult to have full reliance upon this document Exts. 3 and 8 in view of the admitted inaccuracies appearing therein. However, there is no challenge as to the existence of the following grades and scales of pay:

Special Grade—above Rs. 260.

Grade A Rs. 160—10—260.

Grade B—Rs. 100—7—180.

Grade C—Rs. 70—4—134.

It is in evidence of P.W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen, the Assistant Secretary of the Union and also an employee of the Company, that the grades and scales of pay awarded by Bombay Tribunal in respect of the workmen of Messrs. Orient Longmans Private Ltd., Bombay, have been adopted in the Calcutta branch of Messrs. Longmans Private Ltd. Exhibit 9 is the award which shows that the grades and scales of pay so fixed are as follows:

Grade A—Rs. 150—10—250—15—310.

Grade B—Rs. 100—7—170—10—210.

Grade C—Rs. 70—5—120—8—160.

Packers and Peons—Rs. 30—2—60.

The Company has submitted a chart Ext. Y showing the grades and scales of salary of the workmen of some similar concerns in the region. The chart shows that in respect of two of the concerns, namely, Messrs. Thacker Spink & Co. Ltd. and Messrs. Newman & Co. Ltd., the salary scales were fixed by awards. In the case of the former it was in the year 1953 and in the case of the latter in the year 1959. The awards were published in the "Calcutta Gazette" but no copy of the Gazette was placed before the Tribunal, nor any reliable document or evidence has been placed before me. In the case of Messrs. Das Gupta & Co., of Calcutta, there is evidence of D.W. 4 Shri Amulya Chandra Das Gupta, the Managing Director of the Company. I am satisfied from his evidence and on reference to other documents on the record that his is a smaller concern than the Oxford University Press. They have got very little work of publication of books in comparison with that of the Company. His concern is a customer of the Oxford University Press. He admits that he has no idea as to the extent of the business of the Oxford University Press. But this much he knows that the business of the Oxford University Press is larger in extent than that of his. Therefore, Messrs. Das Gupta & Co. is, in my opinion, not a suitable comparable unit with the Oxford University Press. As regards Messrs. Blackie & Sons India Ltd., there is no evidence to show as to the extent and nature of its business. Therefore, this concern is equally unsuitable as a comparable unit. Messrs. Manton & Co. and Messrs. Continental Commercial Co. Ltd. are not carrying on similar business, one of them is dealer in arms and ammunition and the other is a stationery shop. Therefore, they are most unsuitable as comparable units. As regards the grades and scales of pay said to be prevailing in Messrs. Thacker Spink and Co. and Messrs. W. Newman & Co. shown in the chart Ext. Y, there is hardly any reliable evidence in support thereof, and there is also no evidence to show the extent and nature of the business and the volume of publication works, if any. I have already observed that none of the said firms has come forward to support the statements nor the awards have been placed before the Tribunal. Moreover, the alleged grades and scales of pay prevailing in the said concerns as per document Ext. Y will be no guiding factor in the fixation of salary scales for the workmen of the present concern without disclosure of the nature and extent of the business of the said concerns and other amenities and financial benefits available to the workmen of the concern. Moreover, the present Company itself on its own motion offered scales of pay to its workmen better than the scales said to be prevailing in those concerns. The Company has stated in its written statement at page 10 that the clerical staff of the State Government do not get as much basic salary and total emoluments as its employees do. Therefore, it is relevant to consider what the State Government employees are getting now. The following are the pay scales of the clerical staff (Lower Division and the Upper Division) working in the Regional Office and Directorate:—

Regional and Directorate

Lower Division—Rs. 125—3—140—4—200 (Efficiency bar after the 10th stage).

Upper Division—Rs. 200—10—300.

The D. A. has been merged into the pay in respect of all employees under the Government. The pay scale of the Record Suppliers, Duftry and Orderlies and Peons is as follows:

Rs. 60 1/2 65—1—75.

D. A. in case of these employees also has been merged into pay. It is in evidence that there are five Packers working in the Company. The Union has of course described them as Packing Babus in the charter of demand Ext. 7 and at the same time stated that they are really Sub-Clerks. But it is clear from the evidence of P.W. 3 Shri Satish Chandra Laha who is one of the five Packers and who claims to be called Junior Assistant on the basis of letter of appointment Ext. 12 that they are subordinate staffs and can hardly claim to be treated as Clerks. He admits that he and other Packers and Peons of the Company have got to attend office a bit earlier than the hour fixed for attendance of the Clerks and as subordinate staffs they have got to follow the procedure different from that of the Clerks, and they cannot leave the office earlier than 5-30 p.m. without permission in writing of the departmental head (vide Exts. L to L/2) and as subordinate staffs they are provided with dhoties every year before the Puja which the Clerks do never get. Therefore, it is very clear from the evidence that by whichever name may be described either as Packing Babus, or Packers or as Junior Assistants they are for all practical purposes subordinate staffs. The duties discharged by them as apparent from the evidence on the record will show that they are almost similar to the Record suppliers working under the Government. The salary scale of the Record Suppliers is the same with the peons and other subordinate staffs of the Government. Their scale of pay may appear better than the scale of pay offered by the Company to its Packer. But it is to be remembered that in addition to the pay scale offered by the Company, it is also paying D. A., whereas in case of Government servants the D. A. has been merged into pay. In fixation of salary scales the total emoluments of workmen should be taken into consideration or in other words, the basic wage as well as the D. A. because it is the total emoluments that matters. The Company is paying D. A. at the following rates (vide Exts A and Y/2):

Basic salary.	D. A.
From Rs. 50	30
Rs. 52	... 31
Rs. 54	... 32
Rs. 56	... 33
Rs. 58	... 34
Rs. 60	... 35
Rs. 68	... 38
Rs. 76	... 41
Rs. 84	... 44
Rs. 92	... 47
Rs. 100	... 50
Rs. 120	... 54
Rs. 140	... 58
Rs. 160	... 62
Rs. 180	... 66
Rs. 200	... 70
Rs. 225	... 75
Rs. 250	... 80
Rs. 275	... 85
Rs. 300	... 90
Rs. 450	... 100

These will be adjusted upwards and downwards by 5 per cent. whenever, for three consecutive months, the cost of living index has moved 10 points. The present D. A. is 25 per cent. more than the above figures. Union admits the 25 per cent. increase of D. A. as will appear from the document Ext. 10 which shows salary being Rs. 100 original D.A. was Rs. 50 and the present 25 per cent. increase of D.A. in that case will be Rs. 12.50 nP., that means when the salary is Rs. 100 the total D. A. will be Rs. 62.50 nP. and so on.

There is no Packer employed by the Macmillan Company or by the Longmans & Co. of Calcutta. There is also none in any of the concerns mentioned by the Company in the document Ext. 1. But the Packers are employed by the Bombay branch and Madras branch of the Oxford University Press and also by the Orient Longmans Private Ltd. of Bombay and their scales will appear from the documents Exts. 5, 11 and 9. The scale of the Peons and Packers of the Bombay branch is Rs. 60—2—90 and that of the Packers of Madras branch of the Company is Rs. 40—1—50 2—70. There is another grade for Head Packers and Specialised Peons. It is in the evidence of P.W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen, the Assistant Secretary of the Union and a Clerk of the Company, that there is no Head Packer or Specialised Peon employed in the present Company (Oxford University Press, Calcutta). So the grade fixed for Head Packers and Peons is irrelevant for the present purpose. The pay scale fixed for the Packers serving under Orient Longmans Private Ltd., is Rs. 30– 2—60. In case of Head Packer, if any, he shall get an additional pay of Rs. 5 per month. In the present case there is no Head Packer. I have already found from the evidence of P.W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen that the pay scale prescribed for the employees of Messrs. Orient Longmans Private Ltd., Bombay, have been adopted by the Longmans Co., Calcutta. The same witness has admitted that their set up is different from that of the Madras branch I have already observed that the pay scales of Bombay are not very relevant to decide what should be the pay scales in Calcutta and there is also no evidence about the qualifications and duties of the Bombay staff. It is significant to note that the Union itself has not claimed Bombay grades and scales in the charter of demands itself.

The Company has offered three grades, as I have already stated, the maximum of the Grade A is Rs. 150 and the maximum of Grade B is Rs. 200 and the beginning of Grade C is Rs. 200 and upwards at the discretion of the Company. It may be noted that nearly a dozen Clerks are drawing more than Rs 200 per month at present as will appear from the Company's chart Ext. B, and a few of the staffs who are now serving as departmental heads are drawing more than Rs. 400 per month. D.W. 2 Shri Santosh Kumar Sen Gupta who is in charge of the Record Department is drawing basic salary of Rs. 400 per month. D.W. 3 Shri Santosh Kumar Bosh who is in charge of Stock Department is drawing monthly basic salary of Rs. 540. According to P W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen, there are 17 Graduates out of the 30 Clerks serving in the Company which has four distinct departments, namely, Stock Department, Accounts Department, Records Department and Despatch Department. Therefore, I find some justification for extending the scale beyond the amount of Rs. 200 to a certain extent and putting efficiency bar at the 10th stage of the Grade B which I am just going to prescribe.

Therefore, regard being had to the entire facts and circumstances discussed as above I prescribe the following grades and scales of pay:

For clerical staff

Grade A—Rs. 80 –4 120 E.B 5—150.

Grade B—Rs. 130—10 –260 E.B. 10 300.

Sub-Staff

Packers Rs. 55—1 80.

Peons—Rs. 50—1—75

The grades and scales of pay prescribed by me as above will not stand in the way of the management exercising its discretion to offer better pay and prospect to any of the workmen for his extraordinary skill and efficiency and devotion to duty. Promotion from the Grade A to the next higher Grade B will be automatic provided a Clerk has shown normal efficiency and is not otherwise found unsuitable for promotion which matter is left at the discretion of the management. These grades and scales of pay will not disturb the existing higher pay and better privileges if any. The present pay will be the guiding factor in respect of putting all the workmen in these new grades and scales of pay. The employees who are at present drawing less than the pay in the grade for one year will be pulled up to the next higher pay point.

Peons reaching the maximum of the grades may be eligible for promotion to the next higher grade prescribed for the Packers provided he is found qualified for the job on promotion.

Similarly a Packer reaching the maximum of his grade may be eligible for promotion to the Grade A prescribed for clerical staffs provided he is found possessed of adequate qualifications for the job by the management. There is evidence to show that Shri Rukmini Sarkar who entered service as a Packer was later on promoted to the post of an Assistant by the management He is a Matriculate. Therefore, it is provided that a Packer possessed of requisite qualifications who should deserve consideration of the management for promotion as a Clerk in the Grade A

The new grades and scales of pay will be effective from the date the award shall become enforceable under section 17A of the Industrial Disputes Act The Union's demand for having retrospective effect of the award is rejected, in view of the fact that no retrospect is expressly or by necessary implication indicated in the order of reference (1958 L.L.J. Vol. I, page 571.)

Issue No. 2: Dearness Allowance

The union claims dearness allowance at the rates prescribed by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry. I have already noted the rates of D. A. in vogue with the Company. The Company is admittedly not a member of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry. So, it is under no obligation to adopt the rates so prescribed by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. Moreover, the Bengal Chamber of Commerce rates of D. A. are known to be most generous rates and are said to be the highest possible rates in India. I have very carefully considered the existing rates of D A., available to the employees of the Company, and at the same time taken into consideration the rates of D. A offered by other similar concerns in the region (vide Ext. Y). The Company admittedly has been paying 3½ months' basic pay as bonus every year and at the same time contributing 3½ per cent. of the basic wage towards the provident fund. There is also a scheme for payment of gratuity to its workmen. All these benefits available to the workmen should not be lost sight of in the fixation of scales of wages and D. A I have already observed that it is the total emolument that matters. In the fixation of salary scales I also took into consideration the existing rates of D. A. available to the employees and I have no hesitation to conclude that on the whole the existing rates of D. A. compare favourably with the prevailing rates if not better, save and except the Bengal Chamber of Commerce rates. It is admitted by the Union that a portion of the D. A was merged into pay in September 1955 and the Company has further increased the present rate of D. A by 25 per cent therefore, I leave the existing rates of D. A. as per Ext. A and Y/2 undisturbed.

Issue No. 3: Overtime

One of the points of dispute specified by the Government in the order of reference is overtime. It is not working hours and overtime. The Union claims that working hours should also be fixed as incidental to the overtime or by way of consequential relief. This Tribunal has been called upon to fix the overtime allowances and there is nothing specified in the order of reference as to the fixation of the working hours. Unless and untill that point is specified in the order of reference by the Government, this Tribunal, in my opinion, will have no jurisdiction to go into the question of working hours and fixing the same without being called upon by the Government to fix the hours of work, and as such that point being outside the scope of reference this Tribunal is ousted of jurisdiction to fix the working hours.

The Union's case is that overtime is being paid at the rate of 1/160th plus 1/4th of the basic wage for any work done after 5-30 p.m. which amount is considered inadequate by the Union. The Company admits the payment at the above rate but some attempt was made to describe the overtime payment as an incentive allowance. In this respect the Company, of course, has failed miserably. Some of the Company's witnesses have admitted overtime payment and maintenance of overtime registers (Exts. X series). These registers have been clearly described as overtime registers in which overtime paymnts have been recorded. Therefore, it is proved beyond doubt that the Company has been paying overtime at the rate of 1/160th plus 25 per cent. for any work done after 5-30 p.m. The basis of this calculation, according to P. W. 2 Shri Gangadhar Sen, is the monthly basic wage divided by the total number of working hours in a month which is 160. So, the existing overtime rate is 1¼th of the basic wage for any work done beyond 5-30 p.m. The Union is dissatisfied with this rate. The Union claims that it should be at the rate of basic salary divided by 160 plus half. I have already found from the document Ext. H that the Company claims to be a shop under the West Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, and similarly it has been recognised by the Government (vide Exts. A, A/1). The Union has also admitted the fact in its letter, dated 27th August 1959, addressed to the Manager of the Oxford University Press (vide Ext. E/1). Therefore, I find that the Company is liable to pay for the overtime work at the rate of one and one-half times the ordinary rate of wages payable to the workmen as provided in section 13 of the Bengal Shops and Establishment Act, 1940. The overtime wages be paid accordingly.

Issue No. 4: Privilege leave

The Union in the charter of demands (Ext. 7) claimed 21 days' privilege leave per year of service with accumulation up to two years. But in the written statement filed at a subsequent date, the Union asked for 30 days' privilege leave per year of service accumulating up to 120 days. In this connection it may be useful to refer to the entire leave rules of the Company (Exts. I and I/1). The Company grants sick leave to its employees on full pay for 14 days in a year on production of a medical certificate and unused sick leave on full pay will accumulate till retirement and at the time of retirement may be added to any other kind of leave due and will be paid for at the rate of pay last drawn. To avail of this benefit, employees generally do not take sick leave but ask for privilege leave when they fall ill. The Company has imposed a condition that privilege leave must be taken at one time and it is not cumulative. To my mind this entails hardship on the employees, specially when the law provides for its accumulation. I have already found that it is admitted both by the Company and the Union that the concern is governed by the Shops and Establishment Act, 1940. Therefore, under section 12 of the Act the privilege leave may be accumulated up to the maximum of not more than 28 days. This section, of course, provides for 14 days' privilege leave per year on full pay. The Company has, on its own motion, provided for 21 days' privilege leave on full pay for each completed year of service. Therefore, it is not for me to interfere with the benefit conferred by the employer on its employees in excess of what is provided in law. But the Company must allow the privilege leave to accumulate up to a maximum of 28 days as the wokmen are entitled to under the law.

Issue No. 5: Retiring age

Union's claim in the charter of demand (Ext. 7) that the age of retirement should be 60. Further the Union wants that the Company and the members of the staff shall have option if physically and mentally fit to continue beyond the age of 60. In the written statement the Union has further stated that there should be extension of service up to the age of 65. It seems to me that the Union is seldom satisfied even with their own claims set out in the charter of demands (Ext. 7) which were issued not very long before the written statement was submitted.

The normal retiring age with the Company is 60 years as will appear from the document Exts. A and Y/2. It is admitted by the Union's Assistant Secretary Shri Gangadhar Sen (P.W. 2) that uptil now not a single member of the staff has been asked to retire before the age of 60. He further admits that one of the Assistants Shri S. N. Mitra has recently retired from service at the age of 65. According to the Company, no employee has uptil now been made to retire at the age of 55 years. Union does not challenge this fact. It, however, appears from the documents Exts. A and Y 2 and Annexure D of Company's written statement that a member of the staff may be asked or permitted to retire at any time after reaching the age of 55. This provision is very much objected to by the Union, but I find nothing unreasonable in it. The Company must have the right to ask an employee to retire after the age of 55 years if he is found physically unfit and mentally not alert to carry on. This provision in my view should remain in the interest of both. The normal age of retirement for all members of the staff being 60 years, I refuse to interfere on this point.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Clive Mills Co. Ltd., 43/1 Garden Reach, Calcutta-24, and their workmen represented by Bengal Chatkal Mazdoor Union, 1-1 Garden Reach Road, Calcutta-24. (Case No. VIII-591 of 1960.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

Present for the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, an officer of the Union.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 5764-I.R./IR/7L-51(A)/60, dated the 9th November 1960, for determination of the following issues, viz.:

(1) Whether the transfer of Shri Asit Ranjan Paul is justified? If not, whether he is entitled to be transferred to his original post?

(2) Whether the management is justified in not paying the workmen (as per list "A" attached) for the sick leave which was duly sanctioned?

(3) Whether the workmen of the Building Department (as per list "B" attached) are entitled to any wages for the period of their forced unemployment from 10th November 1958 to 30th November 1958?

(4) Whether the dismissal of Shri Narendra Nath Banerji is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

(5) Whether the termination of service of Shri Sher Bahadur is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

It may be stated at the outset that originally there were four issues for adjudication. Subsequently, by an amendment the fifth issue was added. After that amendment an additional written statement was filed by the Union in regard to the case concerning Sher Bahadur (vide issue No. 5).

In the original written statement of the Union which was in respect of the first four issues, the case as made out is briefly this:

Shri Asit Ranjan Paul is the Vice-President of the local branch of the Union and was one of the trustees of the Employees Provident Fund elected by the workmen. To create hindrances to smooth discharge of his responsibilities the Company, on the plea of an agreement, arbitrarily transferred him from the Manager's Office to the Finishing Department of the Mill where he has to hold an unimportant job. The Union immediately took up the cause of Shri Paul and moved the Labour Directorate which conducted an enquiry in the Mills and recommended retransfer of the employee concerned to the Manager's Office. But the Company turned down that recommendation. The workmen concerned in issue No. 2 are the victims of the Company's arbitrary and unjustified actions and have been denied the facilities granted by successive Tribunals. These workmen were laid up in bed on account of illness during the year 1959. Each of them was first examined by the Medical Officer of the Mill and was granted leave, and as their condition worsened, it was physically impossible for them to appear in the Mill for extension of leave. All of them were under local medical practitioner for treatment and after their recovery they took "fit certificates" from their attending physicians and submitted to the Company. Though the Company did not challenge the bonafides of their illness, and granted them leave, it refused to pay wages to them for the period of their illness. The matter could not be amicably settled by the Union on account of the adamant attitude of the Company. The workmen in relation to issue No. 3 are all permanent hands of the Building Department of the Company. They were asked to work overtime and they complied with it. But as they were not paid any overtime wages, they had no other alternative but to express their inability to do overtime work without payment of additional overtime allowances. On and from 10th November 1958 the Company as a measure of reprisal did not allow them to work without showing any reason whatsoever or without issuing any charge-sheets. The workmen concerned protested to the Company's refusal to allow them to work and the matter was referred to the Conciliation Officer. The Union brought the matter to the notice of the Director, Managing Agents, Clive Mills Co. Ltd., for his intervention. Thereafter on 14th November 1958 the Company sent back-dated charge-sheets to each of these workmen to which they gave pertinant replies by denying the alleged charges. On 17th November 1958 the Union again wrote to the Conciliation Officer to intervene in the matter as the Company refused to hold any enquiry. On the intervention of the Labour Directorate the Company came to its senses and allowed the workmen to resume their duties on and from 1st December 1958, but their wages for the period from 10th November 1958 to 30th November 1958 were not paid, and hence no settlement could be arrived at on that issue on account of the Company's unsympathetic attitude.

Shri Narendra Nath Banerji whose case is covered by issue No. 4 was a permanent workman of the Company having put in 16 years' faithful service. On 27th February 1957 he was involved in a police case on the basis whereof a back-dated charge-sheet (with date 27th February 1957) was issued on 20th March 1957. The workman denied the allegations and informed the Company that the matter was then sub-judice. Ultimately this workman was acquitted honourably on 16th December 1957 in the criminal case and thereafter he went to the Company for resumption of duties. He also submitted to the Company a certified copy of the judgment of the criminal case as desired by the Company. But despite all this he was not allowed to resume his duties, nor was there any enquiry held on the charges levelled against the workman. After waiting for a long time he filed an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act before the Third Industrial Tribunal. In reply to his application the Company stated that he was dismissed from service on 1st April 1957 and that the application itself was not maintainable. The said Tribunal fixed 6th December 1958 for hearing of that application of which date neither the workman concerned nor his representative was aware or had been informed, and as a result the application was rejected for default. Next the workman applied for review of the case. The Union also immediately took up his cause and represented the matter to the Joint Secretary of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, for a fresh reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Union was asked to move the matter through Conciliation proceedings, which it did. In spite of several conciliation meetings, the Company refused to open the chapter once again.

In the additional written statement concerning the case of Sher Bahadur, the following case is made out by the Union: He was a durwan of the Clive Mills Co. Ltd. since April 1951. He was being deprived of the statutory facilities in regard to Provident Fund. The Union took up his cause and ultimately on the intervention of the Office of the Regional Commissioner of Provident Funds, West Bengal, the Company was forced to make him a member of the Fund. This enraged the management of the Company which openly began to threaten him with dire consequences on any plea. In January 1959 he fell ill and after his recovery went to resume his duties, but he was refused his job. He was, however, allowed to resume his duties on the intervention of the Labour Directorate. In March 1959 the workman found that deduction for Provident Fund had not been made from his wages. In April of that year he applied for leave for going home as he had not seen his family for long four years and did not take any long leave after 1954. He was verbally granted leave from 1st May 1959 for two months. But till the date of his departure he was not given any written leave-pass though applied for sufficiently ahead. On the expiry of the leave he returned in time to resume his duties on 1st July 1959 but was refused the job by the Manager of the Company. The matter was immediately brought to the notice of the Managing Director of the Company and the Union also took up the cause and represented it to the Labour Officer of the Indian Jute Mills Association and to the Labour Officer, Government of West Bengal. But all attempts at conciliation on the part of the Labour Directorate proved fruitless on account of the adamant and irrational attitude of the Company.

The Company's case as made out in its written statement is briefly this:

The Company's Jute Mill was divided into two sheds each of which being treated as a complete unit in itself with its own separate complement of staff—one was called the Old Mill and the other the New Mill. This Old Mill was closed in 1957 and the employees thereunder were given option of retrenchment or new appointment in the New Mill, if and when available. Many of the workmen accepted retrenchment, but others indicated their willingness to accept new employment in the New Mill, and some remained silent. Shri Asit Paul was working as a jute ledger clerk in the Old Mill at the relevant time. There were three ledger clerks including himself in the office—one working in connection with the New Mill, one in connection with the Old Mill and another for both the Mills. After the closure of the Old Mill there was work only for one clerk in the Ledger Department. One of the clerks had retired. As Asit Paul was junior to the other clerk in service, he would have been retrenched in normal course. But the Company transferred him to the New Mill as a measuring clerk without loss of earnings. The Union's allegation that Shri Paul was arbitrarily transferred to an unimportant job is totally baseless. In fact, the transfer was to his advantage and benefit. Besides, the services of all clerks are transferable from one place to another and from the Manager's Office to the Mill and the vice versa. Shri Paul was not a trustee of the Provident Fund when he was transferred.

As regards the workmen covered by the issue No. 2, they were not entitled to get any wages for the period or periods in question as they did not comply with the requirements for granting leave with wages as per the Tribunal award. It is untrue that the Company did not challenge the bona fides of the said workers' illness. For good and cogent reasons they were refused wages during which they remained absent.

As regards the Union's allegations concerning the nine workmen of the Building Department (as per the issue No. 3), they were asked to work on Sunday, the 9th November 1958, by a notice, dated 8th November 1958. They were told and given to understand distinctly, both verbally and in the notice, that they would be given an alternative weekly holiday on 10th November 1958. But they refused to work on the said Sunday by saying that they would not work unless they were assured of payment for the said day on over-time rate. The Company could not agree to that proposal, and so they in a concerted manner refused to work and did not attend on 9th November 1958. Accordingly the Company issued charge-sheets against them, to which they submitted replies. As their explanations were not found to be satisfactory, an enquiry was arranged and these workmen were asked by a notice, dated 19th November 1958, to appear before the Manager on 21st November 1958. They appeared on the date and appreciating their illegal and improper attitude apologised for their past conduct and agreed to work on Sundays with alternative weekly holidays without any claim for over-time rate of payment.

The Manager, therefore, executed them but it was settled that the days of their absence and suspension would be treated as dies non. For all these reasons these workmen are not entitled to wages for the period from 10th November 1958 to 30th November 1958.

Regarding the case of Narendra Nath Banerji (vide issue No. 4) it is said by the Company that the reference itself is bad in law. He committed a gross misconduct for which a charge-sheet was issued, but he refused to submit any explanation on the plea that his case was sub-judice before the Criminal Court. An enquiry was made by the Management with a proper notice to him, but he did not attend that enquiry which was held ex-parte and as a result thereof he was found guilty. He was dismissed on 1st April 1957. After that he made an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, but the application was dismissed as he did not proceed with the case. The order passed in that case is an award and, as such, his case cannot be reagitated by virtue of section 18 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The dismissal of Shri Banerji was quite justified and he is not entitled to any relief.

The Union's case in respect of Sher Bahadur (vide issue No. 5) is incorrect on material facts and the story given in the statement is a deliberate falsehood. Sher Bahadur was only a badli durwan, but did not put in continuous service since 1951, as alleged. His last continuous service as a badli durwan was from 17th January 1959 to 31st March 1959. Some time in March 1959 he approached the Manager of the Company for the post of a driver by stating that he had learnt motor driving and got a license for it. But the Manager refused to appoint him as a driver. Thereafter he did not report for duties and the Company came to know that he had secured a job under some other employer. For these reasons, therefore, the claim of the Union should be dismissed.

DECISION

Admittedly, Shri Asit Ranjan Paul was working as a ledger clerk in the office of the Manager of the Company. It is undisputed that in all he has put in 20 years' service. At present he has been working as the second measuring clerk in the Mill since 1958 on being transferred from the Manager's Office. His case, as deposed by him, is that he is the Vice-President of the Bengal Chatkal Mazdoor Union and he was agitating for regularising the defects of the Provident Fund matters and election of the Provident Fund Trustee Board members which was long overdue. He also says that subsequently he was elected a member of the Provident Fund Trustee Board. In the written statement the contention on behalf of this clerk is that the Company on the plea of an agreement arbitrarily transferred him with a view to creating hindrances to smooth discharge of his responsibilities and also that the transfer was made to a job which was quite unimportant in comparison with the former job he used to do in the Manager's Office. It is further in evidence of this clerk that in the Mill he has got to work for 48 hours a week whereas his duty hours in the office as a ledger clerk were 41½ hours per week. He says that he has been incurring pecuniary losses and also there is difficulty in getting a proper grade if he remains a measuring clerk in the Mill. On the other hand the Company's case is that Shri Paul along with others were found to be surplus by reason of the closure of the Old Mill of the Company which took a most sympathetic view in retaining him in service and making his transfer to the Mill as there was no necessity of retaining three clerks (including Shri Paul) in the Manager's Office. It is further contended for the Company that after the closure of the Old Mill the Company gave offer of option to the surplus personnel either to accept retrenchment or to accept appointment as might be necessary in the New Mill, and in that consideration Shri Paul's service was retained and he was transferred to the Mill. The Manager has deposed as the only witness for the Company. He has said that the duty hours in the Mill and in the office are the same, not that Shri Paul has to work for more hours in the Mill than before. The arguments advanced on behalf of the Company is that Shri Paul has not been adversely affected in any way either in respect of his pay or as to the security of service. That the Old Mill of the Company was closed and a number of workers including clerks were found to be surplus is not disputed. It is also undisputed that the pay which Shri Paul has been getting has not been affected by reason of his transfer from the Office to the Mill. The point is, whether there was any malafide intention behind the Company's move for making the transfer of this clerk and whether the security of service is or is not really adversely affected by that transfer. Shri Sen, on behalf of the Company, has referred to a case of the Labour Appellate Tribunal at Madras reported in 1956 (I) L.L.J. 342 in support of his contention. In that case, due to mechanisation in the factory some workmen became redundant and were transferred to work in the fields. They were neither prejudicially affected in their emoluments nor required to work for more number of hours per day. In those views of the matter, the transfer was found to be not unjustified. Shri Sen wants to apply this principle in the present case by saying that the pay of Shri Paul has remained the same and is unaffected, and he has not got to work for more hours than in the office before. As regards the working hours in the Mill and in the office, the Manager of the Company has said in his examination-in-chief that in the office works are done for 48 hours a week, and the duty hours are also 48 hours a week though the duration of works there is not always strictly followed. Though the evidence on this point on both sides appears to be oath versus oath, the second part of the above statement of the Manager is suggestive as it indicates that probably the duration of working hours in the office is less than in the Mill otherwise there is no reason why the duration of works in the office would not be strictly followed. So there is justifiable reason for the contention on behalf of the clerk concerned that he has now got to work for more hours in a week in the Mill. Secondly, though the present pay of this employee has remained unaffected, the argument advanced on his behalf is that his future prospect is quite gloomy if he is to remain in the Mill. In the written statement of the Union and also in the deposition of the clerk concerned it has been stated that the job of a measuring clerk in the Mill is an unimportant work. The Manager pleads ignorance of such a fact. That this contention is true would appear from the observation of the Judge of the Third Major Jute Tribunal. It is therefore argued for this employee that he has been made to work more in the Mill and placed in a bad position, so that his status has been adversely affected. It has been elicited in cross-examination of Shri Paul (P.W. 1) that previously there was a case of reference of a dispute about the question of upgrading of employees of the Company to this Second Industrial Tribunal. In that dispute the names of eight employees were placed but the Tribunal passed an award recommending upgrading of two out of those employees without specifying their names. It is now an almost admitted fact that the Company since then has upgraded only one employee in place of two recommended by the Tribunal, though the Manager has said in his cross-examination that in the award of Shri Sarkar it was not recommended that there should be upgrading of two clerks. It is not known why the upgrading of another man has not yet been effected by the Company. The idea behind this evidence is that Shri Paul craves to be upgraded in view of the recommendation of the said award and he apprehends that this advantage would be far far remote to him if he remains in the Mill. Of course, the Manager has further said that the works of the ledger clerk in the office and those of the measuring clerk in the Mill are almost similar. But it cannot be denied with success that the facilities of the Mill clerks are largely different and as such there is also the question as to the exact status of these two kinds of jobs. In view of these facts and circumstances, I find that the principle enunciated in 1956(I) L.L.J. 342 would not apply in the present case. It may well be noted that even in that case retransfer of the worker concerned was recommended by the Labour Appellate Tribunal despite that decision as the worker concerned was probably unable to bear the strain of work involved in the place of transfer.

Further, the evidence of Shri Paul is that there are still 3/4 clerks in the office who are junior to him, and that some clerks were once retrenched and after re-employment some of them are still working in the office. It is also stated by him that even after his transfer some workers from the Mill Section have been transferred to the office of the Company. This evidence of Shri Paul has remained practically unchallenged by the Manager. It is, therefore, argued by Shri Pathak on behalf of the Union, that Shri Paul instead of being transferred from the office to the Mill could have been easily retained in an important job in the office itself, and there would not have been necessity for the Company to transfer junior clerks from the Mill to the Office. Even if the Company's case be accepted that some employees became redundant on account of the closure of the Old Mill, still there is force in the abovementioned contention advanced by Shri Pathak that the Company could have retained him in the office by giving him some important job instead of sending him to the Mill where the job is an unimportant one. It is admitted that before the closure of the Old Mill, the Manager's Office was manned by three ledger clerks of whom Shri Paul was the juniormost one. One of them is said to have retired. So it is contended by Shri Sen on behalf of the Company that the retention of the senior ledger clerk Seonandan Prosad alone in the office as the only ledger clerk is quite justified, whereas the transfer of Shri Paul from the Office to the Mill is not at all unjustified or unfair. From the cross-examination of Shri Paul it appears that though the Company states about less work in the Office after the closure of the Old Mill, and necessity for only one ledger clerk there, it appears that the work-load in the Office has not become less. The evidence of Shri Paul in his cross-examination is that Seonandan Prosad lives in the Mill area and has to work even on Sundays as he cannot cope with the work, that every day he works even after 5 p.m. besides working on Sundays as well. Shri Paul has given explanation as to why Seonandan Prosad does not make any grievance for over-working by saying that he learnt from the clerk that he had expressed his grievance, but the Manager threatened to dislodge him from quarters, so he is working under pressure and does not venture to submit any representation through the Union of which he is a member. The Company has not refuted this evidence of Shri Paul by examining Seonandan Prosad. This would go to show that the Manager's Office has the necessity of more than one clerk and as such it may well be stated that the transfer of Shri Paul from the Office to the Mill cannot be called justified or done with any genuine or bonafide reason. In this connection I may refer to a letter, dated 4th June 1958 [Ext. 7-(b)], written by the Company's Manager to the Assistant Labour Commissioner in reply to the Union's allegation about the illegal harassment of Shri Asit Paul [vide correspondence Exts. 7 and 7(a)]. In that letter the Manager in denying the allegations only stated that the service of the clerk concerned was transferable and so the employee was transferred and this was a management function, so the Union had nothing to do with it. In that letter the reason as to redundancy of a clerk in the Manager's Office has not been stated. Exhibit 7(b) appears to be a blunt reply of the Manager in which the right of the management to make transfer was only asserted and nothing else.

Another ground of objection taken by the Company is that there was an agreement in view whereof the transfer is to be justified. Exhibit A is a bipartite agreement, dated 8th March 1958. It contains signatures of as many as 26 employees including Asit Paul. The preamble of this agreement shows that it contains the terms agreed upon to give employment to certain clerks whose services were terminated (vide notices, dated 28th December 1957 and 30th January 1958). In that agreement there is a stipulation that the clerks concerned would have to work where they would be assigned. The contention of Shri Pathak on behalf of the Union is that this agreement, though it contains the signature of Shri Paul as a mere witness only, does not bind him at all. It is said that Ext. A is concerned with those whose services were terminated by notices dated 28th December 1957 and 30th January 1958. By a notice, dated 28th February 1958 (Ext. 4), the previous notice, dated 30th January 1958, was superseded and four clerks including Shri Paul were asked to continue their services in the Company from the first day of March 1958. Thus, on 8th March 1958, when Ext. A came into existence, the notice of 30th January 1958 was also superseded. It appears, therefore, that by the notice Ext. 4, dated 28th February 1958, the name of Shri Paul appearing in the notice of 30th January 1958 was withdrawn and he was allowed to continue in service. It is said for the Company that Ext. 4 did not cancel the agreement. But from what I have found above, this contention of the Company cannot be accepted and it must be held that the agreement per Ext. A is not binding upon Shri Paul by virtue of the notice Ext. 4.

Again, though the Old Mill was closed in December 1957 the transfer of Shri Paul was made in May 1958, not immediately after the closure of the Mill or after the agreement per Ext. A was reached. From the correspondence filed by the Union, it appears that even the Assistant Labour Commissioner recommended retransfer of Shri Paul but that was not heeded by the Company.

From what has been found above, I come to the conclusion that the alleged ground of Shri Paul's transfer from the Manager's Office to the Mill on account of surpluses is unsatisfactory and that Shri Paul has been put to a worse or at least an unimportant job by the transfer, and has to work for more hours than what he would have done in the office proper, and the future prospect as to the security of service is also not a bright one. It follows that the transfer of Shri Paul was motivated by some ulterior intention on the part of the management. So the transfer in question is held to be unjustified. He is, therefore, entitled to be retransferred to his former job. Accordingly, the Company is directed to retransfer Shri Asit Ranjan Paul to his former job in the Manager's Office, if not unfeasible or as a secondary relief he shall be transferred to a job in the office other than the Manager's Office, within one month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

This issue is in respect of 12 workers of the Company as named in the list "A" attached to the order of reference.

They are as follows:

1. Sailen Hazra, No. H.S./79.
2. Forhan, No. L.No. 128.
3. Gour Mohan Ghose.
4. Gomir Ali, No. MT/1/4.
5. Benoy Mandal, No. HM4/170.
6. Tajim Mondal, No. MT1/10.
7. Manik, No. HM2/151.
8. Ohid Ali, No. MO 1/25.
9. Pulin Bairagi, No. L. No. 208.
10. Erad Ali, No. L. No. 10.
11. Atul Chandra Parui, No. L. No. 90.
12. Chotu, No. HC 1/52.

The Union's case is that these 12 workers are victims of the Company's arbitrary actions in refusing to pay them wages for the period they remained absent on being ill. It is said that they became ill in 1959 and each of them was first examined by the Medical Officer of the Mill and was granted leave, that as their conditions worsened they could not appear in the Mill for extension but were treated by local medical practitioners from whom they took "fit certificates" after their recovery, and submitted the same to the Company which, without challenging the bonafides of their illness, granted them leave, but refused to pay wages for the period of their respective illness. The Company, in its written statement, denies that it did not challenge the bonafides of the said workmen's illness. In this written statement of the Company it has been simply stated that the workmen concerned were not entitled to any wages for the period in question as they did not comply with the requirements for granting leave with wages according to Tribunal awards, and that payment of wages was refused for good and cogent reasons. In the Second Omnibus Jute Award the Tribunal prescribed that with regard to employees of all descriptions sick leave on half pay up to 15 days in a year shall be allowed on the basis of medical certificate from the Medical Officer of the Mill or from a qualified and registered medical practitioner approved by the Mill authorities. It is said by the Company that no such medical certificate as contemplated in that award had been filed by any of the 12 workers mentioned above. It is also said that none of them applied for sick leave before or immediately after leave, and that none of these persons has come to depose before this Tribunal. For these reasons it is said that the contention of the Union must fail and the said workers are not entitled to any relief.

In the relevant paragraph of the Company's statement the period of absence of these workers has not been denied. It is also not denied that they were sick or that they were absent on ground of sickness. If the Company's contention be accepted at all, then the period of absence of these workers could be considered as unauthorised leave, and in that case the Company was expected to issue charge-sheets against them for unauthorised absence. But no such step was at all taken by the Management. It is true no formal application was filed by these 12 workmen for sick leave. But in the written statement of the Company it has not denied the Union's statement that they were examined by the Medical Officer of the Mill and were granted leave originally, and subsequently they took "fit certificates" from the attending physicians and submitted the same to the Company. In the absence of such denial the statement of the Union is to be accepted as correct. The Company's action in refusing wages to these workmen for the period of their respective illness might be justified if the Company had followed the principle of natural justice by issue of charge-sheets to the workmen and by holding enquiries. In the absence of such things, therefore, the Company's action is considered to be amounting to arbitrary one and hence unjustified. Accordingly, these workmen are entitled to get their wages for the period of their illness at the rate of half basic wages and full dearness. The Company shall make these payments to them within one month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette". The issue is disposed of accordingly.

The workmen of the Building Department as per the list "B" mentioned in this issue are as follows:

Name.	Record No.
Saharat	MS 2/168
Ash Mohd.	MA 4/107
Pir Mohd.	MP 1/46
Sukoor	MP 1/93
Mackshed	MN 2/126
Sk. Hanif	MS 2/122
Bhuloo	MB 1/130
Samsuddin	MS 3/139
Darbari	MD 1/88

Their case is that they are all permanent hands of the Building Department of the Company. The Union's case is that they used to work overtime on being asked to do so, but as they were not paid overtime wages, they expressed their inability to do overtime without payment of additional allowances.

For that, it is said, the Company did not allow them to work from 10th November 1958 and subsequently on 14th November 1958 the Company sent back-dated charge-sheets to each of them to which they sent replies. It is also said that the Company refused to hold enquiries and so the Union wrote to the Conciliation Officer on 17th November 1958 for intervention and at last the Company allowed the workmen to resume their duties from 1st December 1958. Their real grievance is that their wages for the period from 10th November 1958 to 30th November 1958 were not paid by the Company which acted unreasonably and arbitrarily. The Company's case, on the other hand, is that the Manager asked these nine workmen by written notice and also verbally to work on Sunday, the 9th November 1958, the notice being dated 8th November 1958, and it being made known that for their work on Sunday they would be given alternative holiday on 10th November 1958. It is said that the workers refused to comply unless they were assured of payment for overtime work for that Sunday, and that on that plea they refused to work on 9th November 1958 for which they were charge-sheeted. It is further said that their replies to the charge-sheets were found unsatisfactory, and so an enquiry was arranged and the workers were asked to attend on 21st November 1958, and that they appeared on that date and apologised for their past conduct by agreeing to work on Sundays with alternative holidays without any claim for overtime rates of wages. Regarding this particular matter, the Company appears to have issued charge-sheets, dated 10th November 1958 (vide Ext. 8), charging them with misconduct under rule 14(c) of the Standing Orders and calling upon them to show cause within 24 hours. In the reply it was stated that the charge-sheets were sent on 14th November 1958 and received by them on 15th November 1958. In that reply the allegations of the Company were denied. The fact appears to be that from 10th November 1958 to 30th November 1958 these nine workers remained out of employment on being in a state of suspension, so to say. In the argument of Shri Sen, on behalf of the Company, it has been said that it is not a case of suspension as such and that though the workers were liable to be dismissed for misconduct in refusing to work on 9th November 1958, on being asked to do so, the Company very generously allowed them to continue work from 1st December 1958. In his argument Shri Sen did not say as to on what ground these workers remained absent during the said period or the Company kept them out of employment. In the written statement of the Company it is stated that the workmen in a concerted manner refused to work and did not attend on 9th November 1958. But it is not stated in the written statement how and why they remained absent from work up to 30th November 1958. The evidence of P.W. 3, Sk. Saharaf Ali, one of the nine masons in question, is to the effect that the Company suspended them for three weeks in November 1958 without there being any enquiry held by the Company before or after their suspension and that the Company drew up charge-sheets after their suspension. There is no denial by the Manager of the Company to the above evidence that the Company suspended the workers for three weeks. In the absence of any proper explanation as to the workers' remaining absent for three weeks and in view of the unchallenged evidence of the P.W. 3, I may well accept the evidence of the Union that the workers were really suspended from 10th November 1958 till 30th November 1958. Though the Company's charge-sheet bears the date 10th November 1958, P.W. 3 denies that they got the charge-sheet on that date. It is his evidence that they received the charge-sheets much later by registered post.

Now, according to Shri Pathak, this suspension for three weeks is illegal even under the Standing Orders. He referred me to section 14(b) of the Standing Orders which runs thus:

> "A workman may be suspended for a period not exceeding four days at a time....."

In view of the above provision, suspension for a period of three weeks at a stretch would be quite illegal. Besides, it is contended by Shri Pathak that there was no written order for suspension. Under section 14(f) of the Standing Orders, an order of suspension shall be in writing. Though it is found to be a case of suspension, the provisions of the Standing Orders were not complied with. As a result the suspension must be held to be invalid and illegal.

As a matter of fact, no enquiry was actually held by the Company although charge-sheets were issued and replies obtained. The Company's case is that ultimately the workers tendered apologies and were allowed to continue works. It is also said that the workers agreed that they would not in future demand overtime allowance for work on Sundays. This is vehemently denied by P.W. 3. Of course the Company's Manager speaks of an agreement by the workers that they would not make demand for wages for the period of their absence from work. This is denied by the Union and by the P.W. 3. Except the verbal statement of the Manager of the Company there is no paper to show that the workmen agreed not to claim for wages for the aforesaid period. In the absence of proper enquiry and documentary evidence, I find it extremely difficult to accept the Company's statement that the workmen themselves apologised and agreed to remain satisfied without getting any wages for the period from 10th November 1958 to 30th November 1958.

The Company has produced the notice, Ext. C, to show that by this notice these workers were asked to work on Sunday (9th November 1958) with alternative holiday on 10th November 1958. This notice is denied by the workers through the Union. Shri Pathak's contention that under the Factories Act three days' notice is to be given for alternative holidays if work on Sundays is to be done remains unrefuted. In this view, the notice, Ext. C, dated 8th November 1958, would appear to be somewhat belated, if this notice was given at all. A similar notice is to be given to the Factory Inspector also. The Company has put in a notice, Ext. C(1), dated 8th November 1958, purporting to have been given to the Chief Inspector of Factories, Government of West Bengal. But there is no proper proof that this was actually delivered to the Factory Inspector. This lacuna on the part of the Company has not been made up.

Though the Company's case is that the workers refused to work on Sunday and did not work on that date (9th November 1958), it is not stated in the written statement of the Company or in the evidence of its Manager as to whether the workers came to work on 10th November 1958 or not. On the other hand, P.W. 3 says that they went to work on 10th November 1958, but the Manager turned them out through the durwan and since then they were suspended. In view of the facts disclosed, it may be taken that what P.W. 3 says is acceptable.

The Company has put in a certified copy of the judgment (Ext. B) of the Authority under the Payment of Wages Act passed on 22nd May 1959 rejecting the claim of the workers for refund of wages unlawfully deducted by the Company. It is argued for the Company that a similar claim of the workers was dismissed by the said Authority. In fact, the claim per Ext. B does not appear to be exactly similar as in the present case. That was prior to the present occurrence and as such this judgment has no substantial bearing on the present issue.

In view of the above considerations, it appears in connection with this issue also that the Company did not follow the principle of natural justice in regard to these nine masons of the Building Department, so that its action in keeping these workers under suspension for three weeks without issue of timely charge-sheets and without holding any proper enquiry is also to be considered unreasonable and unjustified. In the result, these workers are also entitled to get wages for the period of suspension from 10th November 1958 to 30th November 1958, and this must be paid within one month from the date of publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

The employee concerned in connection with this issue is Shri Narendra Nath Banerji. The dispute raised in this case is against his dismissal by the Company. The facts are these: He was caught and arrested by the durwan named Shyamnarayan while removing some article from the Company's premises. He was charge-sheeted and he submitted a written reply. A criminal case was also brought against him at the instance of the police. The Manager of the Company decided to hold an enquiry as a departmental measure in consequence of the charge-sheet and asked the employee to appear before him. According to the Manager, this worker refused to make any statement before him at the time of enquiry on the plea that a criminal case was then pending. So the enquiry was held ex parte, and the Manager after obtaining the statement of Shyamnarayan durwan found this worker guilty and dismissed him. Next, the judgment in the criminal case was announced acquitting the worker. He then filed an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act on 12th May 1958 (Ext. 5). That application was dismissed by the then Tribunal. The Company now makes a two-fold objection to the present reference regarding this particular workman. Firstly, it is stated that there was an award rejecting the application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, and hence the present reference under section 10 again in regard to the same cause of action is untenable. This second objection relates to the merits of the case which I would discuss in due course. First of all I take up the legal objection raised on behalf of the Company. According to the argument of Shri Sen there was the finality in the matter by virtue of the award passed by the then Tribunal rejecting the application under section 33A of the Act. According to Shri Pathak, appearing on behalf of the workman, the rejection of the application does not amount to an award and hence a fresh reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act is quite legal and tenable. The Company has put in a copy of the order of the Tribunal by which the workman's application under section 33A was rejected. It appears from it (Ext. D) that the application in question was filed in connection with Government Order, dated 17th December 1957, whereas the workman was dismissed on 1st April 1957, i.e., eight months earlier than the date of reference itself. Thus there was no dispute pending at all when the dismissal of the workman took place. On that ground alone the application could have been at once rejected as being non-maintainable. On the contrary, the proceedings in connection with that application proceeded for a pretty long time till 6th December 1958 when the Company was ready through its Advocate, but the petitioner was absent and took no step. The Tribunal then rejected the application for default. The question is whether such an order, though published as an award in the "Calcutta Gazette", would be taken as a real award in the true and legal sense of the term.

Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act requires that on receipt of a complaint under this section the Tribunal shall adjudicate upon the complaint in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall submit its award to the appropriate Government. In view of the facts stated above, it may be said that there was no real adjudication upon the complaint of the workman concerned. Under rule 21 of the West Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules of 1958, if without sufficient cause being shown any party to a proceeding before the Tribunal fails to attend or to be represented the Tribunal may proceed as if such a party had duly attended or represented. This rule does not appear to have been strictly followed in rejecting the complaint for default. In the circumstances, I am unable to consider the order of rejection to be an award in its true sense as the dismissal was long before the making of the reference itself, in connection with which the complaint was made. It may be considered that the rejection of the application would mean nothing more than non-maintainability of the application, as no dispute was pending about the time of the workman's dismissal. In this view of the matter, therefore, I hold that the present reference is quite tenable under law.

Coming to the question of merit also, I find that the contention of the Company cannot stand. The alleged occurrence took place on 27th February 1957, and the workman was charge-sheeted by the Company on 20th March 1957 according to him. The Company's case is that he was charge-sheeted on the very date of the occurrence. Whatever that may be, the point is whether any proper enquiry was held and the principle of natural justice was followed by the Company. The Manager says that after the workman's reply to the charge-sheet he was called to his office when he said that as a police case was then pending, he would not make any statement and refused to give evidence at that enquiry. The Manager also says that Shyamnarayan durwan made a statement in the very presence of the workman concerned and he took down that statement in writing. The workman, Shri Narendra Nath Banerji (P.W. 4), denies that the Manager called him to his office and that the durwan made a statement in his presence or that the Manager took down that statement in writing. In Ext. 6, the written statement filed by the Company in the case brought by the workman under section 33A, it was not specifically mentioned that Shri Banerji appeared at the enquiry and refused to make a statement. This is admitted by the Manager in his cross-examination. If any enquiry was at all held by the Manager, it must have been some days after the occurrence so that the statement of the durwan, if at all taken down by the Manager in his office during the enquiry, must be some time later than the time of the occurrence. But the alleged statement of Shyamnarayan (Ext. E) reveals a very strange state of things. This statement does not bear any signature or thumb-impression of the durwan, but bears the date 22nd February 1957 in the handwriting of the Manager himself, this date being the very date of the occurrence. So there can be no doubt, if this statement was at all made by the durwan, this was on the date of the occurrence, and not later. As such it cannot be said to have been made during any enquiry. From this fact alone, I can hold confidently that the deposition of the Manager as well as the contention of the Company is totally unreliable. In the circumstances I cannot believe that any enquiry was really held by the Manager in regard to the incident in question. No paper of proceedings has been filed by the Company to show when the alleged enquiry was held, if it was held at all. That being so, the principle of natural justice was clearly violated and hence the dismissal of the workman cannot be justified. The result is that the Company shall reinstate this particular workman Shri Narendra Nath Banerji to his former job with all back wages and continuity of service within a month from the date of publication of the award in the "Calcutta Gazette"

Regarding the case of Sher Bahadur, his evidence is as follows:

> "In January 1959, I was attacked with chicken-pox. I took leave for 15 days. There was a medical certificate from the Company's doctor. Exhibit 2 is that certificate. I resumed my duties after recovery. Next, some time later, I prayed for regular leave. After I resumed work after recovery from chicken-pox, contribution to Provident Fund was stopped by the Company. My prayer for regular leave was also refused by the Company. I sent a complaint to the Labour Commissioner through our Union. Next the Company told me that I might go on leave but refused to give me the leave-pass necessary for the purpose. I did not go on leave at that time. Subsequently I again applied for leave and the Company again told me to go away by saying that there was no necessity for any leave-pass. On that understanding, I went on leave for two months, giving the due intimation to all concerned. On the expiry of my leave I came to resume my work in time. The Manager of the Company asked me to submit resignation, saying that he would give me re-employment after my submitting the resignation.....I went on two months' leave with effect from 1st May 1959, after working for the last time on the preceding date".

His case is that when he went to resume his duties on expiry of two months' leave as stated above, the Company refused to allow him to resume his job. The above evidence of the workman has not been denied by the Manager at all who has deposed on behalf of the Company. The Manager's only evidence in this connection is that the workman has not been discharged from service by the Company, that in or about March 1959 the workman came to him and requested for a job of a motor driver. It said that on the Manager's refusal to appoint the workman as an additional driver, the latter gave up his regular job and went away, and long after that he again came to the Manager though he was working as a motor driver elsewhere. The story given by the Manager in his evidence has been totally denied by the workman Sher Bahadur (P.W. 2). It appears from the evidence that this workman learnt motor driving and got a licence therefor as far back as in 1953. He worked as a durwan under the Company and was also in actual service till he went on leave on and from 1st May 1959. It does not stand to reason as to why he would approach the Manager in March 1959 with a request for the post of a motor driver. It is stated in the written statement of the Company that the workman made the prayer saying that he had learnt motor driving. If he had learnt motor driving in or about 1953, it would bear no sense that he would come to the Manager in March 1959 to say that he had learnt motor driving. So this part of the evidence of the Manager cannot be accepted as representing the correct state of things.

The workman's Provident Fund book (Ext. 1) shows that contribution towards the fund was cut from July 1958 to January 1959, and there was no such cut for two months following. It is an admitted fact that the workman rendered continued service for more than 240 days and hence he got the benefit of the Provident Fund. The fact of not cutting contribution to the Provident Fund for two months might have been due to his getting chicken-pox and taking leave. But the fact remains that there was continuity of his service even in February to April 1959. There is, therefore, no good reason for denying him the benefit of Provident Fund contribution after January 1959.

The position of this workman is that of a badli durwan. According to the definition in the First Jute Tribunal Award, a badli is a worker who is appointed to the post of a permanent workman or probationer who is temporarily absent. The Company's books produced before this Tribunal do not show against whom Sher Bahadur was working as a badli worker. It is contended by Shri Pathak on behalf of this workman that the position in the circumstances is that he is really a permanent workman. It is contended that the Manager refused to give him appointment after the expiry of his leave inasmuch as he wanted his job to be made permanent. The question whether this workman is to be regarded or made a permanent worker is not before me in this present reference and, as such, this particular question is out of the mark and remains undecided.

The workman prays for being reinstated with other consequential relief on the ground of the Manager's arbitrary refusal to allow him to resume his duties. It is to be seen whether this prayer is to be allowed or not. The Manager stated that Sher Bahadur gave up the job and did not turn up after the Manager refused to appoint him as an additional driver. I have already seen that the story of Sher Bahadur's coming for the job of a motor driver and the refusal of the Manager to appoint him as such is not correct. I do not find any sufficient reason as to why this man would give up his regular job of his own accord. If he had been at all working as a motor driver elsewhere (as stated by the Manager), I fail to understand why he would go to the Manager to ask for the job of a driver under this present Company. The workman has denied that he gave up his job of his own accord. In view of the facts and circumstances taken as a whole, I think his denial of the story of the Manager is acceptable. It is therefore held that he did not give up his job of his own will, I rather hold that he was refused to continue in his service for his alleged insistence on being made permanent. At the time of the opening of the case, and also towards the close of argument of Shri Sen on behalf of the Company, it was stated that the Company was quite agreeable to take the man in service under the old conditions in which he used to work. By the terms "old conditions of service" it is meant that this Sher Bahadur would not be made permanent or regarded as a regular worker. I have already indicated clearly that this question remains undecided in the present reference.

In view of all that has been seen above, I hold that Sher Bahadur is entitled to be reinstated as a badli durwan with other consequential reliefs. The Company is directed to reinstate him in his former job and pay him full back wages within one month of the publication of the award in the "Calcutta Gazette". It is further directed that this workman shall be entitled to continue his contribution towards the Provident Fund. There will be no break in the continuity of his service. I pass this award accordingly.

AWARD

The above dispute over the Issue given in the schedule to the order of reference and reproduced below was first referred for adjudication to the First Labour Court by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 521-I.R./IR/4L-7/59, dated the 13th February 1959, and the same dispute was subsequently referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 3978-I.R./IR/4L-7/59, dated the 28th July 1960, in supersession of the said previous order of reference after the abolition of the said Court.

The Issue referred for decision is as follows:—

Issue

Whether the dismissal of (i) Shri Sk. Panchu, (ii) Shri Bhupati Majhi, and (iii) Shri Ajit Patra is justified? To what relief are they entitled?

After service of the notices of the present reference upon the parties and after the necessary preliminary proceedings, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 12th February 1962. On that date, the parties filed a joint petition of compromise setting out the terms upon which the whole dispute under reference had been settled between them and praying for a compromise award in terms of the said petition.

I have heard the learned representatives of both the parties. I have carefully considered the terms of compromise set out in the joint petition. The terms appear to be quite lawful and fair. I am satisfied that there has been a bona fide settlement of the dispute between the parties in terms of the joint petition filed by them. So, the case is to be disposed of by a compromise award in terms of the joint petition.

In the result, I make a compromise award in terms of the joint petition filed by the parties, a copy whereof is made a part of the award as an Annexure.

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by Shri K. N. Ratnam, 26A Naroden Street, Calcutta-16, an employee of Messrs. Spences Hotel Ltd., 4 Wellesley Place, Calcutta-1, against the aforesaid Company. (Case No. 3 of 1961 under section 33A.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court

Appearances:

For the complainant: Shri Parimal Das Gupta, Advocate.

For the Company: None.

The original reference out of which this present complaint has arisen was made under Government order No. 4177-I.R./IR/11L-276/59, dated the 27th August 1959.

The case was fixed for hearing on 5th December 1961. The complainant Shri K. N. Ratnam appeared with his lawyer on that date; but none appeared for the Opposite Party Company. So the hearing was concluded ex parte and the award was reserved. Later the Company filed a petition praying for rehearing of the case on the ground that its representative Shri H. K. Banerjee was not aware that the case would be taken up for hearing on 5th December 1961. But it appears from the record of the case that on 27th July 1961 the case had been fixed for hearing on 27th October 1961; Shri H. K. Banerjee was present on 28th July 1961. So he was aware that the date of hearing was 27th October 1961; but he did not care to come to the court on that date. On that day the case was adjourned to 5th December 1961 for hearing. So, if Shri H. K. Banerjee was not aware that the case would be taken up for hearing on 5th December 1961, he is to thank himself alone on that score. Hence this is no ground for reopening of the case. So I rejected that petition and held that my order, dated 5th December 1961, would stand.

The case of the complainant Shri K. N. Ratnam, briefly stated, is as follows:—

He was working under Messrs. Spences Hotel Ltd. as a confectioner for about eight years. On 22nd March 1961 a charge-sheet was issued to him on the ground that he prepared bread and butter pudding in a deep bowl and thereby spoiled the food. On that very day he gave a reply to the charge-sheet explaining the reasons why he prepared the pudding in a deep bowl and why he was not responsible for the spoiling of the pudding. In spite of the above reply he was suspended on account of the above charge. On 8th April 1961 the Managing Director of the hotel called him and advised him that he should prepare even small quantity of pudding in a big flat dish in future. The complainant replied that he had no objection to abide by that instruction, though the previous instruction was to the contrary. Thereafter the complainant was dismissed by a letter, dated 3rd May 1961, on account of the above charge. No enquiry about the charge-sheet was held. At that time a dispute between the Company and its workmen was pending before the Second Labour Court. The Company contravened section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act by not seeking the approval of the Second Labour Court and by not paying him salary as mentioned in the proviso to section 33(2)(b). So the complainant contends that his dismissal is unjustified.

The Company, on the other hand, in its written statement contends that two enquiries were held about the charge-sheet issued to the complainant. On those enquiries his guilt of carelessness and inefficiency in preparing the pudding was proved beyond any shadow of doubt. Hence the management decided to dismiss him. The management applied to the Second Labour Court for approval of its action and also gave a cheque, to the complainant for the moneys due to him as per the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. So the Company contends that the dismissal of the complainant is justified.

Findings

As stated already, the Company did not adduce any evidence in this case. The complainant examined himself in support of his case. He was not cross-examined by anybody on behalf of the Company. He says in his evidence that he was given a cheque by the managing director of the Company; but he could not cash it on account of some objections raised by the Bank. He then approached the managing director to remove the defects for which the Bank refused to honour the cheque; but the managing director did nothing of the sort; so the cheque remained uncashed. In the circumstances it cannot be held that handing over of the cheque is payment as contemplated in proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is true that the Company applied to this Court for approval of its action. But the fact remains that the Company did not comply with the other part of the above proviso. Hence I hold that the Company contravened section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and that as such this complaint is maintainable.

As to the merits of the complaint, the complainant has said that no enquiry was held about the charge-sheet issued to him. His evidence remains uncontradicted. It is true that he admits that he prepared the pudding in a deep bowl, as mentioned in the charge-sheet. But the Company has not adduced any evidence as to how this action of the complainant can be considered to be a misconduct meriting dismissal. Hence I hold that the dismissal of the complainant is unjustified. So I order that he should be reinstated and paid back wages from the date of his suspension.

The above order shall be carried out within a month of the publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette."

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Santosh Bhowmik, H/2 Upendra Banerjee Road, Calcutta-11, against the employers Messrs. Oriental Rubber Works, 38 Bagmari Road, Calcutta-11. (Government order No. 33-I.R., dated 5th January 1961) (Case No. 47 of 61).

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Parimal Das Gupta, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri N. K. Mukherjee, Advocate.

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Santosh Bhowmik, a workman of Messrs. Oriental Rubber Works. It is contended by the applicant workman that the employer Company in contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, verbally dismissed him from service on 12th June 1961. It is alleged that the Company laid off a large number of workmen including Santosh Bhowmik, with effect from 8th August 1961, and after the lay-off was lifted on 12th December 1960, he reported to duty but was refused work. On the 15th December 1960 he was served with a charge-sheet on an allegation of his refusal to work and for "conduct subversive of discipline". The petitioner claims that he should be reinstated and paid full wages from 15th December 1960 till the date of his reinstatement as the action of the employer was completely unjustified.

Messrs. Oriental Rubber Works, the employer, filed a written objection on 24th August 1961. It is stated by the employer that after the withdrawal of lay-off on 12th December 1960 when all the laid-off workmen resumed their duties, this petitioner though repeatedly asked by the Supervisor to resume work, refused to do so, and when such state of things was continuing, he was duly charge-sheeted on 15th December 1960 and was placed on suspension. The employer denied the allegations made by the complainant that he had at any time been dismissed. On the contrary, it is alleged that the workman since resumed his duties some time after the withdrawal of lay-off of workmen and that there was no violation of the provisions of section 33.

After several adjournments the case came up for hearing on 14th February 1962. The case was opened at length by Shri Parimal Das, Advocate, representing the workman and also by Shri Nalini Mukherjee, Advocate, representing the employer. It transpires from the pleadings as well as the statements of the lawyers that the workman concerned had resumed his duties from 19th June 1961. It is also the admitted case of both the parties that this workman along with others had been laid off with effect from 8th August 1960 and the lay-off was lifted on 12th December 1960. In view of the fact that the workman concerned has already resumed his duties, it is conceded by the learned lawyer for the workman, that he does not press for any wage on behalf of the workman from 12th December 1960 till 18th June 1961. In a case under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Tribunal has to find out, first of all, if there was any contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is only if there be any contravention of the said provision of law that the Tribunal would enter into the merits of the complaint and determine what relief the workman is entitled to. The provisions of section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act at once gives a right in favour of the workman to move the Tribunal and to demand an adjudication as to the action taken by the employer as in the case of a reference made by the appropriate government under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act provided, of course, it is first of all shown that the provisions of section 33 had been contravened. In the instant case the fact that the workman had resumed his duties virtually gives him the principal relief which he prayed for in this complaint case, no matter whether section 33 had been contravened or not. It is thus not necessary to determine if the employer had taken any action in contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The question whether he would get back wages is also solved by the admission of the representative of the workman that no claim is made on that account. The parties also agreed that there would be no break in service of the workman concerned for the period he was out of engagement under the Company, and that his continuity of service would be maintained. Naturally he would get same wages as he was getting before being laid off. Virtually, therefore, on the consent of the parties, an award in the above terms is passed.

Ltd., 11/3 Lindsay Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Edward Keventer Workers' Union, 51 Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-12, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Third Industrial Tribunal;

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Edward Keventer (Private) Ltd., 11/3 Lindsay Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Edward Keventer Workers' Union, 51 Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-12. (Case No. VIII-86 of 1961.)

AWARD

By order No. 995-I.R./IR/11L-89/61, dated the 28th February 1961, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Edward Keventer (Private) Ltd., 11/3 Lindsay Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Edward Keventer Workers' Union, 51 Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-12, regarding the matter specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

1. Whether the discharge of Shri Hassain Ali is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

The reference relates to an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Edward Keventer Private Ltd. (hereinafter be referred to as the Company) and their workmen represented by Edward Keventer Workers' Union (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

As usual immediately after receipt of this reference in March 1961 notices were issued. Both parties duly entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. The case was finally fixed on 6th February 1962 for hearing. But on that date the Union asked for an adjournment on the ground that the witnesses to be examined have not been available for being summoned. The alleged ground was far from satisfactory and the adjournment was very much objected to by the Company. Excepting the learned lawyer representing the Union none of the Union was present.

The only point for adjudication in this reference is: Whether the discharge of Shri Hassain Ali is justified?What relief, if any, is he entitled to? But the said workman even did not attend the Tribunal on the date fixed. The learned Advocate representing the Company informed the Tribunal that the concerned workman had already been re-employed by the Company on completion of the repair of the tractor, of which he was the driver. In support of this fact some documents were also placed before the Tribunal. However, to ascertain the correct position the case was adjourned to 12th February 1962 for positive hearing or disposal. On that day the learned Lawyer representing the Union has informed the Tribunal that none of the Union and not even the concerned workman has again absented and no step has been taken for hearing of the case. He has further submitted that he has received no instruction to proceed with the reference. The learned Advocate appearing for the Company has reiterated that the concerned workman having been taken back in service by the Company, there is no further dispute in existence relating to the concerned workman. In the circumstances, I have reason to presume that the dispute under reference is no longer in existence and as such a "no dispute" award is given.

This is my award.

The Electrical Engineer Member of the Board also happens to be the Chief Electrical Engineer and Electrical Adviser to the Government of West Bengal. Pending appointment of a Secretary for the Board, Dr. M. Datta, Superintending Engineer of the Board, functioned as Secretary during the year under review with a break for about 8 months when Shri B. N. Choudhury, Divisional Engineer, took over the charge of the office.

The merging of the Electricity Development Directorate with the Board, did not necessitate any fundamental change in the organisational pattern. Those officers and staff of the Electricity Development Directorate who were either substantively appointed or were under probation to substantive posts, were deemed to have been lent to the Board on foreign service. The temporary officers and staff of the Directorate who were ready to serve the Board on their respective pay and allowances as on 30th April 1955, were absorbed in the Board's service on resignation from Government service and their past services have been agreed to be counted in full towards leave and increment. Altogether six hundred and sixty-four persons under this category have been provided by the Board.

The terms of deputation of 240 permanent Government officers and staff are being worked out in consultation with the State Government in the Development Department under which the Board functions.

Consequent upon the formation of the Board, certain rules of business were framed and small committees formed for recruitment and promotion of staff and officers, examination of tenders, drawing up and supervision of the Board's development programme and for dealing with certain administrative matters.

Coming as it does in the place of Government, the Board is approached for whatever sanction of the Government had to be obtained under the Government regime. Under the rules, the Board meets generally once a month when all cases referred to it are considered.

Under section 79 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, the Board is empowered to make regulations in respect of a number of matters including inter alia:—

1. The administration of the funds and other property of the Board and the maintenance of its accounts.
2. The summoning and holding of meetings of the Board, the times and places at which such meetings shall be held, the conduct of business thereat and the number of members necessary to constitute a quorum.
3. The duties of officers and servants of the Board, their salaries, allowances and other conditions of service.
4. Procedure to be followed by the Board in inviting, considering and accepting tenders.

Except for service conditions which are under preparation, regulations on the above subjects have already been finalised by appropriate committees and accepted by the Board.

Regulations relating to the Administration of the Board's funds and maintenance of its accounts are under the scrutiny of the State Government whose ratification is awaited.

Pending finalisation of the regulations relating to duties, salaries and allowances and service conditions of the officers and staff, the Board is following closely the precedent of the State Government for the staff of undertakings acquired. The classification of staff follows the Government pattern. For purposes of recruitment two Selection Committees have been formed.

The Selection Committee No. I deals with recruitment of all Class I and Class II officers whereas the Selection Committee No. II interviews candidates for appointment to Class III posts. The respective Selection Committees also act as Promotion Committees. The Selection Committee No. I is composed of the following members:—

1. Sir D. N. Mitra, Chairman of Selection Committee No. I.
2. Professor H. C. Guha.
3. Shri A. K. Bhaumik.

The Selection Committee No. II is a bigger body consisting of—

1. Shri Bimal Ch. Sinha, Chairman, Selection Committee No. II.
2. Shri A. K. Bhaumik, Electrical Engineer Member.
3. Shri R. K. Mukherjee, Financial Adviser.
4. The Secretary to the Board.

The Committees may co-opt at their discretion any outsider as a member. During the year under review, there were 15 sittings of Selection Committee No. I and 49 sittings of Selection Committee No. II—total number of candidates interviewed by these Committees being 69 and 462, respectively.

For carrying on day to day administration, the activities of the Board have been allotted to a number of well defined groups each under the charge of a Divisional Engineer or a senior officer of the Board. The jurisdiction of the Board extends over the whole of West Bengal which at present has been divided into two circles—north and west—the basis of the division being that all areas from Barrackpore in the south up to Murshidabad district in the north along the east coast of river Hooghly and the districts of Malda, West Dinajpur, Cooch Behar, Jalpaiguri, Darjeeling and also a few towns to the west of the river Hooghly served by extension lines from the main H.T. line in the eastern portion of the river are in the north zone and the rest in the west zone. Each of these two zones are in charge of a Superintending Engineer, who is assisted by a number of Divisional Engineers, Assistant Divisional Engineers, Assistant Engineers and other technical and non-technical staff. Day to day technical administration of the undertakings and supply systems of the Board are looked after by the local technical officers working under the concerned Superintending Engineer. Both the Superintending Engineers work directly under the Electrical Engineer Member.

Apart, however, from those two posts of Superintending Engineers sanctioned on territorial basis, there are certain specific technical matters which have been left to the exclusive charge of technical officers in the Divisional Engineer's rank. Thus the posts of Divisional Engineer (Purchase and Stores), Divisional Engineer (Commercial), Divisional Engineer (Planning), and Divisional Engineer (Hydro investigation) created on functional basis, are directly under the supervision of the Electrical Engineer Member of the Board.

Similarly in all matters relating to accounts, viz., receipts, investments, financial obligations, etc., the Accounts Member is consulted. The daily administration of the accounts branch is, however, under the immediate charge of an Accounts Officer who is assisted by one Assistant Accounts Officer, Accountant and a body of staff conversant with commercial accounts. Since appointment of the Financial Adviser from December 1955, the demands which the Board had to make upon the Accounts Member from time to time have been considerably lessened. The general establishment cases relating to appointment, promotion, increment, transfer, disciplinary action in respect of all officers and staff except those of the Secretariat of the Board, are handled in the General Section which is under the immediate charge of the Administrative Officer.

Audit Branch

The Audit Branch is vested with the responsibility of scrutinising the accounts of private licensees throughout the State and reporting instances of infringement of any of the provisions of the Sixth Schedule to the Electricity (Supply) Act. The branch is in immediate charge of an Audit Officer. The Chairman of the Board has been appointed authority under section 11(i) of Indian Electricity Act, 1910, to examine these accounts with effect from December 1955.

The Secretariat

The Secretariat besides functioning as a recruiting body serves as a co-ordinating link between the Board and its different departments.

For consultation in legal matters, the Board has appointed the Government Solicitor as a retainer.

CHAPTER II

A RESUME OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE EX. ELECTRICITY DEVELOPMENT DIRECTORATE

Since the Board is the legal successor to the Directorate, and is actually carrying forward the programmes and plans of electrification initiated by the Directorate, an understanding of the present activities of the Board will necessarily entail a reference to the schemes as originally prepared by the Directorate. The importance of such an analysis in retrospect is all the more heightened by the fact that the year under review happens to synchronise with the concluding year of the First Five-Year Plan and marks the culmination of the process of development envisaged under the Plan.

The different schemes of electrification taken up for implementation during the First Plan period can be broadly classified under the following heads:—

A. Plan Schemes

1. North Calcutta Rural Electrification Scheme.
2. Diesel Electric Pool Scheme.
3. Appointment of Power Engineers.
4. Extension of Barrackpore Electric Supply to Manirampore and Talpukur areas.
5. Extension of Barrackpore Electric Supply to Baraset.

Besides the above schemes, a number of other schemes were taken up under additional grant of a little over Rs. 1 crore allotted to the Directorate out of State Revenue.

B. Schemes Financed by State Revenue

1. Cooch Behar Dinhata Development Scheme.
2. Bulk supply to Garia, Rajpur and Sonarpur.
3. Bulk supply to Gouripore Electric Supply.
4. Bulk power supply to Joynagar-Majilpur and Diamond Harbour.
5. Power supply to Raniganj Coalfields.
6. Bulk power supply to Bongaon.
7. Development of Kurseong and Siliguri Electric Supply.

C. Schemes under Community Development Project

This included electrification of the towns of Baruipur, Guskara, Nalhati, Ahmedpur, Mohammad-Bazar, Jhargram, Saktigarh, Sonamukhi and Dinhata.

C. (I). Tube-well Irrigation

The scheme was designed to irrigate lands for agricultural purposes at Fulia and Habra by means of tube-well and lift irrigation with the help of electric power.

D. Schemes of other departments undertaken by the Electricity Development Directorate.

There are only three schemes under this category. These are all multipurpose schemes, the electrical portions of which have been left to be executed by this Directorate:—

1. Mayurakshi Hydro-Electric Scheme.
2. Sonarpur-Arapanch Drainage Scheme.
3. Kalyani Development Scheme.

E. Employment Facility Scheme

To help solve the acute problem of almost chronic unemployment in the rural sector, the Planning Commission prepared a scheme which while extending the benefit of electricity to rural areas for domestic use as well as for use by small-scale and cottage industries at the village level, was designed to open up vast avenues of employment for the army of unemployed in the country. The Directorate got a grant of Rs. 163.33 lakhs towards the latter part of 1954 under this scheme which enabled the Directorate not only to extend some of the earlier schemes already executed but also to prepare an ambitious scheme of rural electrification with a view to bringing a number of additional towns numbering altogether 60 under the ambit of the scheme. Instances where such extensions have been carried out have been shown under the schemes concerned in the following Chapter.

CHAPTER III

OUTLINE OF SCHEMES—PROGRESS MADE SO FAR

An attempt has been made in this Chapter to give an outline of the various schemes mentioned in the preceding Chapter and the progress made up to the period ending 31st March 1956, specially with reference to the progress made during the year under review.

(1) The North Calcutta Rural Electrification Scheme.

This was the most ambitious of all schemes taken up under the First Five-Year Plan. The scheme was designed to open up a number of towns covering about an area of 1,000 square miles to the north of Calcutta from Chord Road (a place adjacent to Shamnagar Railway Station, which is at a distance of about 22 miles from Calcutta proper) to the use of electricity at moderate rates. The entire scheme was executed in two stages. The first phase of development which was completed in 1951 carried electricity up to Krishnagar in the north electrifying en-route the towns of Ranaghat, Shantipur, Kalna, Birnagar, Habra, Badkulla and Kalyani township besides giving bulk supply to Haringhata Agricultural Farm, Kanchrapara T. B. Hospital and the licensees of Krishnagar and Nabadwip Electric Supply.

The power is purchased under this scheme from the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation's Power House at Mulajore in bulk at 33,000 volts and then stepped up to 66,000 volts at the main receiving station at Chord Road, wherefrom this is transmitted to the towns en-route through a 66,000 volts H. T. Line.

Under the second phase, lines were extended from Krishnagar to Berhampore and thence to Jiaganj connecting the towns of Beldanga, Debagram, Azimgunj, Katwa, Matiari and Dainhat and bulk supply given to the licensees of Berhampore Electric Supply. The connection to Kalna, Katwa and Azimgunj has been given by means of submarine cables. Completed in 1954 at a total cost of Rs. 109 lakhs, the scheme covers 14 towns, 170 miles of H. T. lines, 8 sub-stations and 6 bulk consumers. The earning from this scheme in 1955-56 amounted to Rs. 8.39 lakhs on the basis of North Calcutta grid tariff rate.

(2) The Diesel Electric Pool Scheme

The Diesel Electric Pool Scheme as the name suggests was intended to open up isolated rural and semi-urban towns not for the time being served by grid line to the use of electricity by means of diesel generating sets. With the completion of the scheme as originally planned, at a total cost of Rs. 2.51 lakhs in 1953, five towns came under electrification.

Under the expansion of Power Facility Scheme for increasing employment opportunities, small diesel power houses were set up in the following places during the year under review:—

District.
24-Parganas	...	Port Canning
Hooghly	...	Arambagh
Midnapore	...	Contai Digha
West Dinajpur	...	Balurghat
Malda	...	Old Malda Harishchandrapur
Nadia	...	Karimpur
Murshidabad	...	Dhulian
Cooch Behar	...	Mathabhanga Changrabandha

A diesel power station at Nalhati in the district of Birbhum has also been set up under the Community Development Scheme.

(3) Appointment of Power Engineers

Estimated to cost Rs. 7.38 lakhs, the scheme concerns appointment of power engineers and other technical and non-technical personnel for purposes of carrying out planning, erection and maintenance of schemes for the development of electricity in West Bengal. Recruitment of officers to superior posts under the scheme was made by the Public Service Commission prior to the formation of the Board. Recruitment of personnel for Head Office establishment was made under this scheme.

(4) and (5) Extension of Barrackpore Electric Supply to Manirampur and Talpukur areas, and Barasat.

The Barrackpore Electric Supply Company which was under private management was taken over by the Government in 1947. The area of supply under Company management which was about four square miles was considerably enlarged by extending supply to Manirampur, Talpukur, Anandapur, Chandanpukur and also to Rahara and Barasat. The extension schemes were completed in 1951 at a total cost of Rs. 2.65 lakhs. Revenue yield was Rs. 5.63 lakhs (inclusive of revenue from Barrackpore Supply undertaking) during the year.

B. Schemes Financed out of State Revenue

(6) Cooch Behar and Dinhata Extension and Remodelling Scheme.

Following the merger of Cooch Behar with West Bengal, the Cooch Behar and Dinhata undertakings were taken over by the Electricity Development Directorate in 1951.

The scheme for development of Cooch Behar Electric Supply undertaking envisaged—

(i) Extension of power house building, (ii) installation of one 300 kw and one 150 kw A.C. diesel generating sets, (iii) conversion of existing D. C. supply to A.C., (iv) extension of mains to non-electrified areas and (v) extension of H.T. lines to Dinhata.

The 150 kw A.C. diesel generating set had already been installed and order for generating set, transformer and switch-gear was placed in the early part of 1954. The scheme is expected to be self-supporting from the very start.

Dinhata, a town situated at a distance of 16 miles south of Cooch Behar, was electrified in 1941 with three diesel generating sets. Here also the supply was changed from D.C. to A.C. The construction of one 11 kv transmission line from Cooch Behar to Dinhata was completed in 1955.

But due to late arrival of plants and machinery, the scheme could not be completed within the target date. By the beginning of 1956, the 300 kw diesel set was delivered to the Board, but due to scarcity of controlled materials like cement, steel and also because of transport bottleneck, the work could not be completed during the year under review. It is expected, the whole work of the scheme as originally planned, would be completed by 1956. The existing D.C. loads are being supplied through a mercury arc rectifier installed in 1955. The total amount of capital expenditure incurred against the scheme during the year 1955-56 amounts to Rs. 4.5 lakhs as against a total amount of revenue receipt of Rs. 2.76 lakhs.

(7) Bulk supply to Garia, Rajpur and Sonarpur

The main transmission line of the Sonarpur-Arapanch Drainage Scheme has passed through the towns of Tollygunge, Garia, Sonarpur and Baruipur. Provision was made in this scheme for giving bulk supply to distributing licensees. Power is purchased from the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation's South Calcutta Station at Tollygunge at 6 kv and stepped up to 33 kv at the sub-station of the Board, wherefrom this power is transmitted to a number of places en-route. The whole scheme was executed in 1955 at a total cost of Rs. 150 lakhs.

As no prospective licensees came forward, the retail supply to Garia, Rajpur and Sonarpur has been given under the Expansion Scheme. Baruipore has been electrified under the C.D.P. Scheme.

(8) Bulk Supply to Couripore Electric Supply Co. Ltd.

Under this scheme, the Government entered into a contract with the Couripore Electric Supply Co. Ltd. for supply from the Chord Road Sub-station. The supply commenced in 1955. The demand was, to start with, in the order of 4,000 kw rising up to 8,000 kw during the next five years. For this purpose, a double circuit 33 kv line was constructed from the main receiving station at Chord Road to Naihati at a cost of about Rs. 5.85 lakhs in 1955. Revenue from the scheme during the year amounted to Rs. 1.39 lakhs.

(9) Bulk power supply to Jaynagar-Majilpur and Diamond Harbour.

The advantage of the main transmission line under the Sonarpur-Arapanch Drainage Scheme was taken to supply power in bulk to the towns of Jaynagar-Majilpur through a branch line. The electrification of this township is in the hands of a private licensee. Licence was granted for the electrification of Diamond Harbour but as no action was taken by the licensee, the electrification of the locality is under the active consideration of the West Bengal State Electricity Board. Except for the electrification of Diamond Harbour, the whole scheme was completed in 1955 at a total cost of Rs. 5.5 lakhs. The annual revenue of the scheme is Rs. 20,000.

(10) Power supply to Raniganj Coalfields

The Raniganj Coalfield area is an immensely potential area and it was therefore decided to extend the use of electricity to the coal mines situated outside the licensed area of the existing licensees there. This is being done by purchasing power in bulk from the Damodar Valley Corporation as well as from the Mor Project near Pandaveswar Railway Station and already supplies to as many as seven collieries have been given up to the year ending 31st March 1956. Of these, two collieries have been given power in the year under review. Total capital expenditure up to last year has been Rs. 5.18 lakhs and annual revenue Rs. 1.23 lakhs during the year.

(11) Bulk power supply to Bongaon

Bulk supply was given to a distributing licensee at Bongaon in the year 1955 connecting this town with North Calcutta Grid line. As against a total capital expenditure of Rs. 2.0 lakhs, the annual revenue is Rs. 8,500.

(12) Development of Kurseong and Siliguri Electric Supply. (Capital Outlay Rs. 14.82 lakhs.)

The Kurseong-Siliguri Hydro-Electric Supply undertakings were then over in the public interest by the West Bengal Government on and from 30th April 1953. The supply condition at the time of taking over was extremely deplorable. Emergency repairs had to be done on the flume lines and pipe lines. Initially, there was only one hydro station near Kurseong of 800 kw installed capacity. The following additions were planned:—

(1) a new reservior of 40,000 cft. in addition to one existing reservoir of 30,000 cft.,

(2) a second penstock from the reservoir to power house and of the same size as that of the existing one,

(3) installation of another 400 kw pelton wheel generator with necessary extension of power house building,

(4) installation of a 900 kw diesel power house at Siliguri, and

The augmentation of Kurseong-Siliguri power supply system was, however, taken up out of the allotments under the "Expansion of Power Facilities for Increasing Employment Opportunities Scheme". With the completion of the scheme as planned, it is expected that the area near Kurseong and Siliguri can be served with about 1,300 kw maximum demand throughout the year. Diesel generation will be utilised as stand-by peak load supplier and for supplying power during dry period. Seasonal power for tea gardens can be supplied up to an extent of 700 kw. In the year under review, besides the completion of the 40,000 cft. concrete reservoir, preparation of bed for laying the penstock has been finalised and the pipes will be laid in or about April 1957. The 33 kv transmission line is complete. The Power House building for the 900 kw diesel station at Siliguri is under construction which is expected to go into commission by the end of 1956. The estimated revenue is Rs. 2.67 lakhs.

C. and C(I). Community Development Project Electrification Scheme. (Capital Outlay Rs. 31 lakhs.)

The electrification of townships in Community Development Project Blocks is one of the most important features of multipurpose development schemes formulated within the framework of the First Five-Year Plan. The Government of India in collaboration with the State Government selected 10 places in West Bengal for electrification under this scheme, and work is still continuing. Under this scheme electricity has been given to the following towns during the year under review:—

Saktigarh, Nalhati, Ahmedpur, Mohammadbazar. C.D.P. portion of work at Jhargram has been completed but supply cannot be commenced as the licensee of the Jhargram Electric Supply from whom it is proposed to take bulk supply is not yet in a position to effect supply. Fulia has already been electrified from the North Calcutta System. Negotiations are in progress to transfer the Electric Supply Administration to the Board. Guskara will get supply by the middle of 1956 by extension of Mor system from Bolpur. The town of Baruipur has already been electrified from Tollygunge-Uttarbhag 33 kv line and Sonamukhi would get supply from the D.V.C.'s system at Durgapur. Dinhata Community township in Cooch Behar is adjacent to the Dinhata Electric Supply. The necessary work will be completed by 1956.

For tube-well and lift irrigation in the neighbourhood of Habra in 24-Parganas and Fulia in Nadia, supplies will be given from North Calcutta Grid. Five tube-wells are already in operation at Fulia and electrical work in respect of the other tube-wells is also complete. Work in connection with the lift irrigation from river Churni is making good progress.

D. Schemes of other Departments undertaken by the Electricity Development Directorate.

(a) Mayurakshi Hydro-Electric Scheme

Of the various river valley projects undertaken in recent years, the Mor Project is an important one. At Massenjore in Santhal Parganas, intensive virgin forests and swamps constitute natural storage basins for water. Construction of a stone masonry dam at this site was planned and this scheme which is a multipurpose one, has been drawn up chiefly for irrigation and also for generation of power and flood control. It was decided to establish power facilities which would be made available to the existing townships near the Dam and also to industrial consumers in the area nearabout, which will in course of time develop into centres of industrial activities, as also to the adjoining coalfields. Requirement of power for town electrification was estimated to be about 2,000 kw and that for pump irrigation, the amount was almost the same. Two 2,800 H.P./2,000 kw turbo-generating sets were planned for installation at the power station at Massenjore. To meet the growing demand of power of the different towns in the project area and also to have a stand-by source of power in times of exceptional drought, provisions were made to import power from the Damodar Valley Corporation via their Pandaveswar sub-station. Estimated to cost Rs. 63 lakhs, the scheme was divided into two phases. The first phase comprises the erection of 41 miles of double-circuit transmission line from Pandaveswar to Massenjore via Dubrajpur and Suri, 34 miles of transmission line from Suri to Bolpur via Ahmedpur and Sainthia with the provision of future extension up to Nalhati in the north and Guskara in the south, 10 miles of transmission line from Suri to Mohammadbazar, generating station at Massenjore, retail distribution in the towns of Dubrajpur and Sainthia and bulk supply to the town of Dumka in Bihar. The second phase is mainly concerned with the extension of lines to the towns of Guskara, Mollarpur, Rampurhat and Nalhati and to different irrigation pumping areas. The entire project is expected to be completed by the end of the current financial year. The cost of the hydro-electric portion of the scheme amounts, as already stated, to Rs. 63 lakhs and the equipment and machineries for this project are being received from Canada as gifts under the Colombo Plan.

PROGRESS IN 1955-56

Although the building was complete, the machinery and plant which came from Canada, were received much behind the scheduled dates. Much work was however completed at the end of March, 1956. Most of the 33 kv lines were completed. Besides, the 33 kv lines have been drawn from Sainthia to Rampurhat, and also to Bolpur and 11 kv line to Guskara. The double-circuit 33 kv line of Mor system had to cross the river Ajoy near Pandaveswar and Mayurakshi river near Amjora where the spans are 1,700 feet and 1,600 feet respectively. This river crossing has been designed by a private firm. Design of all other overhead river crossings have been made by the Planning Department of the Board. Due to the late supply of information and technical data from Canada, most of the detailed lay-out of control equipments, switch-gear, generator and other terminal equipments and cable laying arrangements were done by the Planning Department in 1955. It is expected that by October 1956, the station will go into commission.

(b) The Sonarpur-Arapanch Drainage Scheme

The Central Government sanctioned a scheme called "Sonarpur-Arapanch Drainage Scheme" to drain out and reclaim a vast water-logged area measuring about 36 square miles by means of electricity-driven pumps located on the Pyali river at Uttarbhag situated at a distance of about 20 miles to the south of Calcutta. The power requirement of the four pumps is 2,500 kva. The power is obtained at 6 kv from the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation's Power Station at Tollygunge, stepped up to 33 kv at the sub-station of the Board and then transmitted to Uttarbhag by overhead transmission line. The scheme as envisaged was completed early in 1953 at a total cost of Rs. 11 lakhs.

As already mentioned, besides Joynagar-Majilpur which is connected by a branch transmission line, the towns of Tollygunge, Garia, Sonarpur, Rajpur and Baruipur have already been connected to the main transmission line.

(c) Kalyani Electrification Scheme. (Capital Outlay Rs. 17 lakhs.)

The Government of West Bengal took up a scheme for establishment of a model town on the pattern of an industrial estate at Kalyani to the north of Kanchrapara Railway Station. The electrification of the township was taken up in 1951-52. Already 18 miles of 11 kv transmission lines, 42 miles of distribution lines and several sub-stations have been constructed. Out of 500 buildings which have so far been electrified installations to 250 buildings were carried out in the year under review.

The annual revenue from the scheme is Rs. 36,000.

E. Expansion of Power Facilities Scheme

Under the scheme twenty-nine electrification schemes costing Rs. 163.33 lakhs and covering 60 new places were taken up for implementation in 1954-55.

Up to the year under report, forty-three new places have been electrified, forty-five distribution sub-stations set up and 154 miles of 33 kv, 243 miles of 11 kv, and considerable miles of L.T. distribution lines laid, benefiting a population of about half a million and providing employment to a little over six thousand heads. A list of places electrified under this scheme is given in Appendix A.

F. Jaldhaka and Balasun Hydro Projects

The important and ambitious electrification schemes of North Bengal areas are the two hydro-electric projects, viz., Jaldhaka Hydro-Electric Scheme and Balasun Hydro-Electric Scheme. The salient features of the two schemes are given below separately:—

(a) Jaldhaka Hydro-Electric Scheme

This scheme envisages harnessing the water of the Jaldhaka river near its point of entry at Bindukhola near the boundary of Bhutan. From this point, water will be conveyed by an open flume to a forebay near Paren and thereafter by individual penstocks to each of the two units of 12 mw generator to be housed in a power house near Jhalung. By the end of 1960-61, Jaldhaka will develop firm generating capacity of 12 mw (during dry season for about four months) and 24 mw during the period of monsoon lasting for eight months in the year, and thereby will be in a position to cater to the load demands of the tea gardens of North Bengal.

The area will be covered by a network of power distribution lines reaching far-flung places such as Chalsa, Malbazar, and then via Birnaguri, Hamiltongunj and Alipurduar in Jalpaiguri district and also to Cooch Behar. Another line will go via Bagrakot to Kalimpong.

(b) Balasun Hydro-Electric Scheme

This scheme envisages to tap the river Balasun at the confluence of the latter with the river Richington in the district of Darjeeling. The output of the generating plant will be maximum 5 mw for eight months and 2.5 mw for four months during the dry period.

From the Balasun Hydro-Electric Scheme, distribution system would extend up to Darjeeling to the north and Jalpaiguri to the south. The power would be utilised to augment the supply at Darjeeling, Kurseong, Siliguri and Jalpaiguri and for the supply to the tea estates in the area. The balance will be required for electrification of the neighbouring rural areas.

A sum of Rs. 50,000 was set apart for investigation work relating to these schemes in the year under report and the entire allotment has been used up in investigation work during the year.

PROGRESS MADE IN 1955-56

(a) Jaldhaka Hydro-Electric Project

Hydrological investigation on the Jaldhaka river such as flume route alignment, determination of intake point reservoir capacity, contour survey at forebay and power house site has been completed during this financial year. The sites for forebay, power house and routes of flume as well as of penstock have been provisionally selected pending geological survey and rock tests.

The measurement of river discharge has been carried out at the intake point and at two other sites by water current meter method and float method during the driest period. In order to determine the power potential of the river, a number of monsoon and winter gauges were erected at suitable sites on the side of the river and daily gauge readings recorded regularly throughout the whole year. The capital cost of the scheme has been estimated at Rs. 3.5 crores.

(b) Balasun Hydro-Electric Project

As in case of Jaldhaka, the various surveys of the Balasun Scheme had been carried out during this financial year. The intake point has been selected at the confluence of Balasun and Ritchington near Namsu. The river bed contour survey, flume-route alignment, determination of intake point and reservoir capacity were done. A permanent bench mark along the proposed flume route was also done by erecting pillars at regular intervals.

For the measurement of the river discharge a broad-crested weir had been built up at Namsu and the entire river was diverted through this. The readings of the permanent gauge fixed to the side of the weir were recorded daily. The minimum river discharge as also the seasonal variation have been plotted for assessment of power potential of the river. The estimated capital outlay on the scheme is Rs. 1.5 crores.

DESIGN AND PLANNING

The preliminary design calculations on the plant capacity, area and size of the flume and capacity of penstock, forebay and intake reservoir have been done based on the collected data. Also the rough estimates of volume of the individual items as well as the anticipated capital expenditure were prepared in the cases of Jaldhaka and Balasun.

PROGRAMME OF HYDRO WORK DURING 1956-57

A. Investigation and Survey

Regular gauge readings of both the rivers Jaldhaka and Balasun would be recorded till the end of this financial year. In order to increase the firm power and reliability of supply the possibility of constructing a supplementary reservoir of sufficient storage capacity in the vicinity of Gourigong has been explored.

Geological survey including rock-tests would be carried out under the supervision of the officers of the Geological Survey of India for finalising the sites for the forebay, the power house, etc.

B. Design and Planning

The design features of the project should necessarily correspond to the most modern developments of manufacture of the equipments so as to attain the highest possible efficiency within economic limits. For this purpose, a preliminary enquiry has been issued and leading firms representing the well-known manufacturers of wide reputation have been supplied with all data and findings of our investigation. The detailed design features of the plant and machinery, power house, flume, penstock, forebay and all other items have already been worked out in this office. Minor additions and alterations are expected to be effected on receiving the suggestions from the leading firms, specifications for tenders would be issued thereafter. The analysis of the tenders received in response to our final enquiry to be issued by November-December, is expected to be started by the end of this financial year.

C. Execution of the Project

(a) Jaldhaka Hydro-Electric Project

During the first year of execution (i.e., 1956-57), the total target of execution chalked out previously cannot be achieved due to unusual delay in land acquisition and performing other preliminaries which also concern other departments of the State Government. The following items of Civil and other works are expected to be complete by the end of this financial year:—

(ii) Road improvement—3 miles.

(iii) New Road—3 miles.

(iv) Culverts, bridges, etc.—4 Nos.

(v) Construction of departmental godown, office, inspection bungalow and a number of staff quarters.

(vi) A temporary arrangement for water supply.

(vii) Arrangement for telephone.

(b) Balasun Hydro-Electric Project

As this scheme was given second priority for implementation, the Board at the instruction of the State Government have decided to stagger the execution of this project by 6/8 months. As such besides investigation and preliminary arrangement, no material progress of work can be foreseen at this stage.

New acquisitions during the year

The supply undertakings of Suri and Tamluk so long run and managed by private licensees were taken over by the Board during the period under review and considerable improvements have been effected in their supply position since taking over. Revenue is of the order of Rs. 6.5 lakhs (inclusive of revenue from Burdwan and Santiniketan undertakings).

Preparation of schames under the Second Five-Year Plan.

During the year under report, eleven electrification schemes including Jaldhaka and the Balasun Hydro-Electric Schemes, details of which have been furnished in the preceding pages, were prepared envisaging a total outlay of Rs. 12.21 crores and submitted to the Planning Commission for implementation within the Plan period.

The outlines of these schemes except those of the two Hydro Projects in North Bengal are given below.

Kharagpur-Midnapur Electrification Scheme

This scheme envisages to purchase power in bulk from D.V.C.'s Kharagpur sub-station and then transmit this power to Kharagpur town, Hijli Institute of Technology, Eastern Railway Workshop at Kharagpur, Midnapur town and sundry rural areas in the district of Midnapur and partly in the district of Hooghly through a network of Transmission and Distribution Lines.

Howrah-Hooghly Rural Electrification Scheme

This scheme envisages to extend the Board's existing Lillooah-Amta-Bagnan Transmission System and Seoraphuli-Singur Transmission Line to electrify a number of rural areas in the districts of Howrah and Hooghly.

Extension of Mayurakshi Hydro-Electric System

This Scheme covers the extension of the transmission system completed early in the year under review to cater to some rural places.

Extension of North Calcutta Grid

This scheme covers the stringing of 66 kv second circuit between Shamnagar and Ranaghat and extension of the existing Chord Road, Haringhata and Ranaghat sub-stations to cater to the increasing demand of power from North Calcutta Grid and also to the demand of Track electrification of Sealdah Division.

Durgapur-Maldah Transmission Scheme

The districts of Maldah and West Dinajpur are in dire need of electricity. Under this scheme, a transmission line shall be constructed to link up the proposed Durgapur Power Station of Government of West Bengal with the existing Beldanga sub-station of North Calcutta Grid. Besides this, the existing North Calcutta Transmission system running from Shamnagar to Berhampore shall, under this scheme, be extended beyond Berhampore farther to the north via Farakka and across the Ganges up to Maldah from where, through a vast network of secondary transmission lines, power shall be transmitted to different places in Maldah and West Dinajpur, etc. Besides electrification of sundry rural and semi-rural areas, a sizeable amount of power shall be utilized for running tube-well irrigation pumping stations.

Diesel Electric Pool

Under this scheme, a few places being far-flung and far-off from the existing and proposed grid lines, are proposed to be electrified by isolated diesel electric sets.

Rural Electrificaton Scheme

There is no denying the fact that Rural Electrification possesses immense potentiality in resuscitating rural economy, decentralizing industries and what is more—bringing about a balanced development throughout the country. A comprehensive rural electrification covering the whole of the State was prepared. The scheme envisages extension of existing and proposed power systems to cater power in rural areas.

Colliery Electrification Scheme

The scheme envisages giving bulk supply to a number of collieries and industrial concerns and at the same time affording retail supply for domestic and other purposes in intervening rural areas. Supply shall be given by extending the three existing transmission systems of the Board already catering to a few collieries. The three transmission systems are being fed by purchasing power in bulk from D.V.C's Pandaveswar sub-station, New Churalia and Victoria sub-stations of Andrew Yule & Co., Ltd.

Tube-well Irrigation

The scheme provides for the extension of Board's Transmission System to cater to the demand of power by the tube-well irrigation pumps to be installed by the State Agricultural Department under Second Five-Year Plan.

Suburban Electrification Scheme

This scheme envisages to electrify a few suburban areas lying on the outskirt of the licensed area of Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd.

Central Testing Laboratory

The proposal for Central Testing Laboratory is chiefly designed to secure the benefit of applied electrical testing and research in connection with the extensive programme of electrification throughout the State by setting up one meter testing section, one relay testing and maintenance section and one high voltage technique section

Survey and Investigation

As the very caption suggests this scheme covers work in the nature of load survey, hydrological investigation, etc., to explore the feasibility and justification of actual implementation of the schemes beyond Second Plan period. This also covers the preparation of schemes to be implemented beyond the Second Plan period.

Of the eleven schemes originally presented to the Planning Commission, none of the schemes was rejected outright except that the Balasun Hydro-Electric Scheme has been placed under priority II and has accordingly been kept in abeyance. Nevertheless, due to the limitation of finance, Planning Commission allocated Rs. 617.00 lakhs for the implementation of the schemes during Second Plan period. Accordingly, most of the schemes have been partially curtailed or deferred and consequently recast de-novo with reference to the revised allocation. The schemes had to be recast in such a way that the Capital expenditure as well as the operational deficit of the schemes under Second Five-Year Plan can be met up from the revised allocation of Rs. 617.00 lakhs.

Programme for the next year

The next year's programme of work under Second Five-Year Plan envisages retail electrification of 29 rural and semi-rural places, construction of 140 units of 11 kv overhead transmission line, 5 diesel stations, 45 miles of L.T. distribution line and 30 Nos. 11 kv sub-stations.

CHAPTER IV

THE BOARD'S FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

1. General principles for Board's Finance

Prior to the formation of the Board, the State Government used to provide in the State Budget under appropriate budget heads, amounts required for Capital expenditure as well as Revenue expenditure (including depreciation and interest charges) for execution of the electrical schemes duly sanctioned and for maintenance of those schemes completed and put into operation respectively. The Revenue Receipts derived from the operative schemes in turn were fully credited to the consolidated fund of the State Government under proper head of account opened for the purpose in the State Budget. The net profit or loss arising from the working results of the operative schemes was also shared or borne by the Government.

With the formation of the Board with effect from 1st May 1955, a separate fund was created in the Reserve Bank of India, Calcutta, known as "State Electricity Fund" under Government order No. 2740/IB—57/55, dated 30th April 1955, and operated by the persons authorised in the said Government order. Subsequently, the fund has been declared as "Local Fund" under Government order No. 9385/IB—57/55, dated 21st December 1955. For execution of the schemes (Capital expenditure) and maintenance of schemes put into operation (Revenue expenditure) no fund is provided in the State Budget except the loan budget for loans to the Board as requisitioned for Capital expenditure. For maintenance of the operating schemes, the Board will have to adjust all working expenses from its revenues under section 59 of the Electricity (Supply) Act read with section 67 of the said Act.

To carry on the maintenance work with effect from 1st May 1955, when there was no money at the credit of the Fund of the Board, a sum of Rs. 10.89 lakhs (estimate for 4 months' working expenditures) was advanced by the State Government as Ways and Means Advance refundable within the financial year 1955-56. This sum of Rs. 10.89 lakhs was duly refunded to the State Government on 27th March 1956, out of the Revenues of the Board during the year under review.

Final account forms (Profit and Loss Account and Balance-Sheet) having been drawn up recently in consultation with Finance (Budget) Department of the State Government, figures of Final Accounts for 1955-56 are being recast in the new form in anticipation of Government approval and the same will be furnished after audit to the State Government.

Meanwhile tentative working results are shown for information pending submission of the final accounts in the prescribed form:—

		Rs. (Lakhs.)
Total revenue receipts	...	29.61
Deduct—Working expenses (excluding depreciation and interest).	...	25.09
(Gross surplus) (+)	...	4.52
Deduct depreciation	...	3.63
		.89
Deduct interest	...	11.63
Net deficit (—) (1955-56)	...	10.74

Total amount of salaries actually drawn by the members, officers and staff of the Board during 1955-56 are given below:—

(i) Members	...	¹13,020
(ii) Officers	...	2,18,455
(iii) Other staff	...	7,73,835
		10,05,310

2. Assumption of obligations of State Government by the Board

Board has assumed all obligations as under section 60(1) of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 under section 60(2) of the said Act, all expenditures which the State Government incurred on Capital Account before the constitution of the Board shall be deemed to be a loan advanced to the Board under section 64 and all the assets acquired by such expenditure shall vest in the Board.

Accordingly a statement of expenditure incurred by the State Government before the formation of the Board, i.e., up to 30th April 1955, has since been prepared and submitted to the State Government. The loan figures approximately come to Rs. 202.52 lakhs against value of assets vested Rs. 228.81 lakhs. The difference between the figure of loan capital and assets vested, i.e., (Rs. 228.81—202.52) Rs. 26.29 lakhs is due to the following reasons:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
(i) Non-payment of compensation money to vendors of undertakings taken over ...	21.49
(ii) Contribution received from consumers and credited to Government account ...	4.80
	26.29

The matter is under correspondence with the State Government and the Accountant-General, West Bengal, and amount of loan capital will be fixed on finalisation of the whole question by the State Government in due course.

3. Annual Financial Statement (Budget Estimates)

Under section 61 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, the Board is required to submit to the State Government in February of each year in the prescribed form the estimated capital and revenue receipts and expenditure for the ensuing year and revised estimates for the current year.

The budget estimates for 1955-56 and the revised ones for 1955-56 of the Board were prepared more or less in the form similar to standardised Government forms obtaining in the Electricity Development Directorate. The Government was duly referred to for approval of the forms. As no decision could be arrived at during the year, the budget estimates for the year 1956-57 were prepared in the form prescribed under the Indian Electricity Act of 1910. A more suitable and convenient form has since been drawn up and will be submitted to Government in due course for approval.

The financial forecast of the Board for the ensuing year (1956-57) is detailed below:—

	Rs.
Total Revenue Receipts ...	68,01,000
Deduct—Revenue expenditure excluding depreciation and interest ...	65,27,100
Surplus (+) ...	2,73,900
Deduct—Depreciation charges but excluding interest. ...	4,15,100
Deficit (—) ...	1,41,200
Deduct—Interest charges ...	13,45,000
Net deficit (—) ..	14,86,200

This does not include a sum of Rs. 7.35 lakhs in respect of interest on Rs. 163.33 lakhs for rural electrification schemes as according to the statement made by the Hon'ble Minister, Irrigation and Power, Government of India, in the Parliament, interest on loan financed by the Government of India for rural electrification schemes will not be chargeable for the first few years.

The deficit of Rs. 14,86,200 during 1956-57 is mainly due to interest on capital outlay. The revenue receipts for the new supply stations under commission or likely to be commissioned very soon under the scheme are not sufficient to cover even the bare maintenance expenses, not to speak of depreciation and interest charges as the lines are constructed in remote places where development of load growth is comparatively slower.

It may be mentioned in this connection that rural electrification schemes are never self-financing from the very first year of operation. This is more pronounced in West Bengal due to the fact that the prospective places with quick revenue return have already been electrified by the private licensees.

4. Subventions to the Board

No subventions have been received by the Board during the year under review.

5. Loans to the Board

The whole of the capital expenditure of the Board is met from the loan advanced by the State Government under section 64 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948. The State Government has advanced a sum of Rs. 184.48 lakhs to the Board during 1955-56 as loan from the State Loan Budget for construction and execution of the following schemes:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
(a) Long term loan for normal extension to existing schemes ...	24.82
(b) Expansion of power to rural and urban areas scheme ...	154.66
(c) Jaldhaka-Balasun Hydro investigation ...	.50
(d) Community Development Project ...	4.50
	184.48
Total amount actually drawn against (a), (b) and (c) ...	179.98

The amount of Rs. 2,40,500 against (a) was drawn for Government portion of the Mayurakshi Hydro-Electric Project of Bihar side. As this work has been executed by the Board on behalf of the State Government, the value of the work, viz., Rs. 2,40,500 is chargeable to Government Account and as such the loan amount against (a), (b) and (c) would come to (Rs. 1,79,98,000 minus Rs. 2,40,500) Rs. 1,77,57,500 against amount of Rs. 179.98 lakhs actually drawn. This has been referred to Development Department of the State Government for approval.

		Rs.
As regards (d) amount actually drawn	...	4,50,000
The amount of loan raised by the Development Department by adjustment for cost of the imported equipments	...	5,75,699
		10,25,699

Less—(i) amount spent during 1955-56 for the irrigation schemes in C. D. P. area	Rs. 1,74,744	Rs.
(ii) amount spent up to March 1956, for house wiring and service connection charges in Government buildings in C. D. P. townships	52,928	2,27,672
Loan during 1955-56		7,98,027

The loan amount under C.D P. head, therefore, should stand at Rs. 7,98,027 against Rs. 4,50,000. The matter has been referred to Development Department (C.D.P. Branch).

Total loan taken by the Board during 1955-56 by cash drawal and adjustment:—

		Rs.
(i) against C D.P. Scheme	...	7,98,027
(ii) against other schemes	...	1,77,57,500
		1,85,55,527

This is subject to confirmation by the State Government.

6. Power of Board to borrow

Although the Board has been empowered to borrow money by issue of stock or bond under West Bengal State Electricity Board Rule, 1955, Part V, framed under section 78 of the Act, no such borrowings were made during the year under review.

7. Priority of liabilities of the Board

Under section 67 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, the operating, maintenance and management expenses are made the first charge against the revenues earned and thereafter the depreciation and interest charges. An analysis of the working results of the Board as shown before will show that the Board's revenues can cover up to the depreciation charges and the deficit is only due to interest on loan which could not be met on account of heavy capital investment during the construction phase.

8. Depreciation reserve

The depreciation reserve fund is being created under section 68 and in accordance with the Seventh Schedule of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, out of the revenues of the Board on Sinking Fund method.

9. Account and Audit

Under section 79(a) of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, Accounting Regulations were drawn up and adopted by the Board under Resolution No. 2, dated 7th October 1955, subject to approval of the State Government as contemplated under the proviso to section 79 of the Act.

The operation of the State Electricity Fund and the maintenance of books of accounts, registers, forms, etc., are being followed as per procedure prescribed in these regulations. In all matters not expressly provided for by these Accounting Regulations, the rules, forms, registers, returns specified in the West Bengal Treasury Rules and Subsidiary Rules made thereunder or rules in force for the time being under the orders of Government or West Bengal Financial Rules where applicable in so far as they are not inconsistent with these regulations and with the Act, apply to the accounts of the Board. The Audit of the Board's Accounts for the year under review, i.e., for 1955-56, has been entrusted by the State Government to Messrs. G. Basu & Company in accordance with section 69(2) of the Act.

The Audit is in progress now and the audited accounts for 1955-56 will be submitted to State Government on completion as contemplated in section 69(c) of the Act.

CHAPTER V

Commercial Activities

The commercial activities of the Board consist in carrying out load survey throughout the State with a view to working out the economics of each new connection or extension, formulation of tariff for different purposes and collection and maintenance of statistics relating to electric supply industry.

Tariff Policy of the Board

A great variety of retail tariffs was in existence at the Vesting day. The following tariffs were also framed by the Board in addition to the already existing ones:—

(c) Burdwan-Mogra area.

The Board also framed grid tariff for bulk supply to the licensees of Bankura and Vishnupur.

The absorption of many individual and self-contained undertakings, e.g., Burdwan, Tamluk, Suri, Santiniketan, etc., inevitably brought into the fore anomalies of charges inherited from the former undertakings. Such anomalies and inequalities called for an early treatment on the ground of equity alone.

Section 49 of the Electricity (Supply) Act provides that the prices to be charged by the Board, shall be in accordance with tariffs as may be fixed by the Board from time to time. The primary question for decision by the Board was whether there should in fact be one tariff or different tariffs for different areas of supply.

The Board has been purchasing energy in bulk from different supply undertakings for retail distribution in the Board's area of supply which are not contiguous. As such, the pooling of the cost of purchase of energy and transmission over the whole areas of supply was not considered advisable. Pending further examination of tariffs in general, the Board decided to retain as an interim measure the same tariff for bulk supplies as was in vogue before the vesting date. At the same time, as a step towards the cheapening of supplies in mainly rural areas, the Board in approprite cases has reduced the flat rate charges which were in excess of 6 annas per unit. Realising that detailed cost analysis would not be practicable until the organisation has advanced further, the reduction of certain high flat rates was the first step to the removal of anomalous variations in actual changes from area to area.

To suit seasonal consumers to that they may not be penalised during adverse period of low energy consumption, provision for levy of minimum charges on annual basis has been introduced instead of monthly basis as was in vogue for industrial consumers. The rate of charge has also been reduced from Rs. 5 to Rs. 3 per H.P. per month.

Towards the close of the year in question the Members of the Board met in a conference with the Chief Minister to work out a plan for cheapening rates of electricity so as to encourage small-scale and cottage industries to avail of cheap power and it was decided at the meeting that industrial establishments conforming to the standards prescribed below should be given concessional rates as shown against these class of establishments:—

Type of establishment.	Capacity.	Concession proposed (As /KWH)
		Grid Supply:	Diesel.
(1) Industrial Establishments liable to registration under Factories Act, 1948.	(1) For power purpose up to first 100 units BHP per month.	2·0	3 0
(2) Establishments coming within the meaning of section 2(m)(i) and (ii) of Factories Act, 1948, but not employing more than 25 hands per shift.	(2) Above 100 units.	1·5	2·5

After the introduction of this tariff the overall rate will be reduced by 33⅓ per cent. over the existing North Calcutta rate for the first 100 units per month per BHP installed. Thereafter the rate will get reduced with the increase in monthly consumption. A reduction of 40 per cent. from the existing rate will be obtained by a factory running for 5½ hours a day on the average when the supply is taken from the Board's North Calcutta system of supply. In case where the power is purchased from any of the Board's diesel stations, the same 40 per cent. reduction from the existing tariff will be obtainable by a factory working for about 8 hours a day on the average.

Assisted Wiring Scheme

This scheme has been extended to cover all the places already electrified by Board.

To meet the needs of the small house-holder with limited means the Board will supply on hire-purchase for approved cases, electrical apparatus to the consumers and in addition premises will be wired by the organisation in approved cases for consumers on deferred payment terms under the Hire-Purchase Wiring Scheme.

The scheme will be confined at present to dwelling houses in a main street or road where distributing mains are laid. It is not proposed to wire premises in portions.

It is obviously not possible due to the different types of installation and of the fluctuation in the price of materials to prepare a fixed schedule of cost incorporating the Hire-Purchase Wiring Scheme at present but the method of payment shall be as follows:—

The total cost to hirer will be the net cost of the installation plus interest on the capital outlay involved. The hirer will pay a first instalment of 10 per cent. of the total cost before the work is commenced and the remainder by equal monthly instalments spread over two years.

If a consumer so desires, he may at any time pay off the balance outstanding when the installation will immediately become his own property.

The work is carried out by the departmental staff to a standard specification and the installation is maintained by the local staff of the Board until final payment is made.

Control of undertaking, generating station or main transmission line

The Board has not assumed control of any undertaking, generating station or main transmission line during the year in question.

Acquisition of undertaking, generating station or main transmission line by the Board under section 23 or 37 of Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948

No acquisition of any description under the provisions of section 23 or 37 of Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, has been effected by the Board during the year in question.

Rating Committees

No rating committee was set up during the year.

Directions to local authorities under section 58 of Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948

The year under report did not offer any scope for issue of directions to local authorities by the Board under the provisions of section 58 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

Inter-State Agreement

There had been no occasion for inter-State agreements during the year.

Reference to Central Electricity Authority

There was no occasion to refer any matter to the Central Electricity Authority under the provisions of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

As none of the schemes during the year exceeded Rs. 50 lakhs, no reference to the authority was necessary for prior approval.

Statistics

Some statistical data relating to the sale of electricity, the number of consumers under different categories, the segregation of connected load and the number of undertaking owned and operated by the Board during 1954 and 1955 are given in Appendices C to G.

Summing Up

Looking back to the year under review, the Board can feel legitimately proud over its achievements. As against a total of 23 undertakings during the previous year the Board is working 78 undertakings at the end of the year with another 24 undertakings being fully equipped during the year for operation. The addition of 55 new undertakings during the year and equipping the 24 undertakings for commission have entailed the setting up of an extensive net-work of H.T. and L.T. lines. Twenty miles of 33 KV/DC lines, 154 miles of 33 KV/SC lines, 243 miles of 11 KV lines laid during the year bear testimony to the progress done so far. The expansion has been similarly marked by a steady rise in the number of distribution sub-stations and the number of consumers served. The Board has set up 13 new Diesel Stations and 45 distribution sub-stations during the year and the implementation of the schemes of the Board has benefitted a population of over half a million besides providing direct employment to a little over 6,000 persons.

Electricity occupies a vital place in any programme of national planning. This is specially so in India with her under-developed economy. The West Bengal State Electricity Board which is just one in a series of agencies throughout India entrusted with the task of strengthening the base of the national economy by rational and progressive exploitation of the power potentialities of the country, is fully conscious of its responsibilities in building up a new and prosperous India.

In the artistry of life that should be ours in the "New Era" that is dawning before us in India to-day, electricity has a place all its own—from the hearths and homes to the mills and factories extends its benign and illumining sway. As the purveyor of that light and power, the West Bengal State Electricity Board wants to play its part in building up a New Bengal. It symbolises our urge for a brighter and happier life.

With imagination and determined urge, millennium will be ours and it will be not before long that we may see the fulfilment of our high hopes—The promised land of peace and plenty.

Annual Administrative Report of the West Bengal State Electricity Board for 1956-57

CHAPTER I

A GENERAL REVIEW OF THE BOARD'S ADMINISTRATION DURING 1956-57

The Report for 1956-57 is the Second Annual Administrative Report of the Board.

The following were the members of the Board during the year:—

1. Sir D. N. Mitra, Chairman.
2. Shri Bimal Chandra Sinha.
3. Shri H. C. Guha.
4. Shri A. Mitra, I.C.S.
5. Shri H. Banerjee, I.C.S.
6. Shri N. N. Majumdar, I.A. & A.S., Accounts Member.
7. Shri A. K. Bhaumik, Electrical Engineer Member.

Shri Bimal Chandra Sinha tendered resignation from the membership of the Board in terms of rules governing the terms of office of the Board's members in consequence of his contesting for a seat in the State Legislature during the second general election in the country and his resignation was accepted with effect from 20th December 1956, by the State Government in the Development Department. The Board takes this opportunity of putting on record its deep appreciation for the invaluable service rendered by him. Shri H N. Sanyal, a leading Barrister of the Calcutta High Court, was appointed a member in the vacant place of Shri Sinha under section 5 of the Electricity Supply Act, 1948, from July 1957.

The total amount of salaries actually drawn by the memebrs, officers and staff of the Board during 1956-57 was as follows:—

(1) Members—Rs. 16,961.
(2) Officers—Rs. 3,77,960.
(3) Staff—Rs. 12,94,162.

Shri A. K. Bhaumik, the Electrical Engineer Member of the Board, was also appointed a member of the Durgapur Board during the year.

Shri T. G. Mukherjea, a retired officer of the Government of India in the Ministry of Communication, was appointed Secretary to the Board and he took over the charge of his office from Dr. M. Datta, the acting Secretary, with effect from 1st June 1956.

Dr. M. Datta, the Superintending Engineer and acting Secretary of the Board, was deputed for higher training in Hydro-electric installation, generation and allied subjects in U. K., Scotland and Wales as a sponsored officer of the Board for about 8 months in order that the Board may utilise his services after training to its best advantage in carrying through the Hydro Projects of the Board in North Bengal.

The setting up of a Central Research Laboratory for carrying on repair and test of delicate meters and intricate relays, and studying the effects of lightning surges on different electrical equipments under controlled conditions, localisation of fault with the help of mobile High Voltage Testing Equipment and carrying out all necessary pre-commissioning tests figures out prominently amongst the schemes to be implemented under the Second Five-Year Plan.

The Board appointed during the year an Engineer with years of experience in the field of meter and relay testing in U. K. and India as the Testing Engineer of the Research Laboratory.

The Board also takes this opportunity of putting on record its deep sense of appreciation to the authorities of the Jadavpur University for the donation of a sizeable plot of land within the campus of the University for construction of the Laboratory Buildings.

Negotiations were afoot with the University Authorities during the year to settle the terms of the gift of the land in question and these were concluded on the terms as set forth below:—

1. That the building on the land would be the property of the Board to be maintained by it.
2. That the Board would give all reasonable facilities for training and education to students of the Jadavpur University at the Laboratory in meter and relay testing.
3. That the buildnig would not be used for any purpose other than for which it is meant.
4. That in the event of the Laboratory being discontinued the University may purchase it on payment of valuation assessed at the time of purchase.

Quotations were also invited during the year from Architects and Building Contractors for design and construction of the building.

During the year in question the Second All-India Power Engineers' Conference were held at Bangalore where Dr. M. Datta represented the Board as a delegate and was appointed a member of the Equipment Procurement Committee set up under a resolution passed in the Conference. The Chief Electrical Engineer of each State having been recommended by the delegates in the Conference for appointment as an ex-officio member of the Zonal Grid Develpoment Committee, the Board considered the proposal and approved of the appointment of its Electrical Engineer Member as a member of this Committee—the present Electrical Engineer Member of the Board being also the Chief Electrical Engineer and Electrical Adviser to the State Government.

The Board also enrolled itself as a sustaining Member of the Indian Standards Institution under section 24 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 and decided to have it represented in the I.S.I. through its Divisional Engineer in charge of Planning.

The Legal Adviser to the Board as already mentioned in the Annual Report for 1955-56 is the Solicitor to the Government of West Bengal who has been appointed as a retainer on terms and conditions which were settled during the year under review.

For maintenance of supply undertakings or sub-stations commissioned during the previous year and also for execution of new works during the year it was essential to undertake an assessment of staff required for the purpose on the basis of some well defined and scientific yardstick. A high power committee was appointed by the Board consisting of Sarbasree A Mitra, I.C.S., B. C. Sinha and A. K. Bhaumik—all members of the Board to go into the question of staff requirement for maintenance or construction work in the context of the prevailing workload in terms of current expenditure within and outside the revenue account and to prescribe the basis for sanction of staff in future for maintenance work of supply undertakings.

The Committee after a number of prolonged sittings drew up its report and the Board after further scrutiny of the report accepted its recommendations about the extra staff and the basis for appointment of staff for maintenance work in future. According to the accepted basis, the requirement of various categories of staff—both technical and non-technical, has been related to the type of the supply undertakings in question, the classification of undertakings, in turn being solely determined by the number of consumers served. According to this system of classification the undertakings of the Board have been classified into four classes as follows:—

Class of undertakings.	Number of consumers served.
Special (Grid or Diesel)	... More than 500.
A	... Up to 500
B	... Up to 150
C	... Up to 50

Over and above the staff recommended for appointment for maintenance and construction, the Board separately sanctioned during the year the staff for the Accounts, Administration and Stores Organisation besides the staff for the Nucleus set-up of the Jaldhaka Project.

In order to broad-base the structure of the Tender Sub-Committee of the Board, the membership of the Committee was enlarged by the addition of the Secretary, the Financial Adviser and the Superintending Engineer (Headquarters) to the Sub-Committee in question. Shri H. C. Guha and Shri A. K. Bhaumik continue to be its members and Chairman, respectively. Due to heavy preoccupation, Shri N. N. Majumdar, stepped out of the Sub-Committee.

Having finalised the set-up of the different working units, the Board set itself the task of providing necessary staff benefits with a view to tone up the fabric of the administration to ensure its general standard being raised to a pitch of high efficiency. To that end in view, the Board introduced during the year the scheme of Contributory Provident Fund—the employees and the Board contributing in equal proportion at 6¼ per cent. of employees' basic pay with the benefit being extended to all employees having completed one year of service and with the option given to employees to contribute to the fund retrospectively after admission with effect from the Second Anniversary dates of their service under the Board.

The Board also finalised all arrangements during the year for purchase of additional plot of land from the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta for extension of the Board's Stores at Majerhat and also for the purpose of building staff quarters for the stores personnel.

The West Bengal State Electricity Board Staff Receration Club having decided to open a Library Section, approached the Board through its President who is the Electrical Engineer Member of the Board, for financial help and was given a non-recurring capital grant of Rs. 2,000 towards purchase of books and other ancillary articles for the Library.

With the expansion in the size of the establishment, the Board is thus progressively extending the scope and sphere of welfare activities for benefit of all class of staff in its employ today. While a contended base is an essential pre-requisite of sound administration, it is equally essential for the administration to ensure that the outside world knows what the Electricity Board is doing for the people. Goaded by that consideration, the Chairman of the Board convened a Press Conference in December, 1956, where the scope and extent of the activities of the Board were explained before the representatives of the leading dailies of Calcutta. Advantage was taken of the good offices of the Calcutta Centre of All India Radio in explaining the role of the Board through talks given by the Secretary of the Board and by Dr. M. Datta, the Superintending Engineer.

Thus far by way of a general review of the administration of the Board during the year under review. In the following chapters we shall give a descriptive narration of the progress made in the planning and progress of Board's schemes, its commercial acitvities during the year and a short analysis of the accounting and financial condition of the Board, besides giving a financial forecast for the next financial year.

CHAPTER II

PLANNING AND PROGRESS

The Board continues to make progress in the execution of its schemes during the year. Detailed estimates and works order were prepared for electrification of a number of places under the Plan Schemes and their execution undertaken with the funds available under the plan supplemented by funds advanced out of the unspent balance in the C.D.P. Budget and also by the Relief and Rehabilitation Department of the State Government. With the report of the departmental load survey unit behind it to help it in selection of places on grounds mainly of business economics, the Board had other considerations of a purely altruistic nature to take into consideration before finally chalking out its programme of work for the coming years. These considerations mainly relate to the prospect of the extent to which the extension of supply in the area is likely to open up channels for further developmental activities in other directions so that the area may ultimately reap the benefit of all-round development through the initial impetus provided by electricity. The policy of the Board in the matter of chalking out its programme of work has been and continues to be to harmonise as much as possible its commercial interests with the declared objective of promotion of public welfare.

The electrification of the undernoted places was envisaged during the year under the different schemes of the Board as per programme drawn up last year an outline sketch of which is given below:—

1. Rural Electrification Scheme

Falakata, Dhupguri, Moynaguri, Malbazar, Haldibari, Raiganj, Kaliganj, Panchthupi, Aurangabad, Muragacha, Panchkura, Baidyapur, Diamond Harbour, Bishnupur and Amtala.

2. Suburban Electrification Scheme

Arabindanagar, New Barrackpore and Bansdroni.

3. Kharagpur-Midnapore Electrification Scheme

Construction of Kharagpur Sub-station and drawing transmission lines for bulk supply to Midnapore Electric Supply Co., Ltd., and to the Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur.

4. Howrah-Hooghly Rural Electrification Scheme

Bargachia, Durgapur Colony, Bally Nischinda Colony, Mekhla, Nabagram, Raghunathpur, Dankuni, Garalgacha, Chanditala.

5. Extension of Mayurakshi Hydro-Electric Scheme

Hetampur,

6. Diesel Electric Pool

Ghatal.

7. Colliery Electrification Scheme

Electrification of Ukhra and Domohani and Bulk Supply to the undernoted seven collieries:—

1. Victory Colliery.
2. Pure Samla Colliery.
3. South Samla Colliery.
4. East Sitalpur Colliery.
5. Gurugobindapur Colliery.
6. Sarpi Kajora Colliery.
7. Samsundarpur Colliery.

Schemes Financed out of State Revenue

Besides electrification of the above places under the plan schemes, other schemes were also prepared for execution with the help of loans advanced to the Board from the unspent balance in the C.D.P. Budget and also with funds supplied by the Relief and Rehabilitation Department.

The total amount of long term loan available this year for work in the C.D.P. Block was Rs. 7,17,000 under normal C.D.P. Schemes. Besides this, a further sum of Rs. 35.80 lakhs was also advanced to the Board towards the later part of the year for additional work in (1) Nalhati Block (Rs. 1.67 lakhs), (2) Baruipore (Rs. 6.98 lakhs), (3) Guskara (Rs. 2.21 lakhs), (4) Jhargram (Rs. 10.78 lakhs), (5) Saktigarh (Rs. 1.15 lakhs), (6) Fulia Block (Rs. 3.06 lakhs), Ahmedpur (Rs. ·40 lakhs), Sonamukhi (Rs. ·14 lakhs), Dinhata (Rs. 1.01 lakhs), Habra (Rs. 8.39 lakhs) and Mahammad Bazar (Rs. .01 lakh). The loan bears 4¼ per cent. interest and is repayable in 30 equated instalments extending over 30 years. Extension of Fulia Electric Supply and electrification of Habibpur, Aistala, Kalinarayanpur in Fulia Block, Golpur, Khatura, Muslandpur, Guma and Prativabazar in Habra Block, Barsul in Saktigarh Block, Manickpara in Jhargram Block, Bonpass and Dharpara in Guskara Block, Champahati, South Garia, Mallickpur, Mallancha, Govindapur, Extension of Baruipur Electric Supply and necessary augmentation of sub-stations and extension of transmission lines were undertaken with the help of loan available from the unspent balance of the C.D.P. Fund. With the additional fund available, the Board went ahead in implementing its programme of connecting Nalhati Supply Station to the Mor Transmission System by extension of transmission system from Rampurhat and withdrew the diesel sets previously installed there. The released sets were however commissioned at Board's Contai Supply undertaking Further, the Board took up the construction of 33 kv. line from Kharagpur to Jhagram as a result of which the existing diesel generation would be discontinued.

The Relief and Rehabilitation Department advanced to the Board a loan of Rs. 24.33 lakhs during the year inclusive of Capital Contribution of Rs. 50,000 for street lighting for undertaking electrification of a number of mills, factories and rural areas with a view to opening up possibilities of rehabilitating the local displaced and unemployed persons in the areas through the use of power. The schemes sponsored by the Relief and Rehabilitation Department and taken up by the Board for execution during the year are enumerated below :—

	1956-57 (Rs. lakhs)	1957-58 (Rs. lakhs)	Total. (Rs. lakhs)
1. Power supply to Gayeshpur ..	1·00	1·54	2·54
2. Power supply to Industrial Consumers in Habra-Baigachi Colony	2·00	3·84	5·84
3. Retail supply to Habra-Baigachi Colony	1·38	9·12	10·50*
4. Power supply to Taherpur Mills ..	2·00	3·45	5·45

*Inclusive of Rs. 50,000 as Capital Contribution for street lighting.

It will be seen from above that Habra Block is getting share of the development cost both from the C.D.P. Budget as well as from the Relief and Rehabilitation Department. While retail supply of power to Habra-Baigachi Colony and bulk supply to industrial consumers in the area are proposed to be implemented with funds advanced by the Refugee Relief and Rehabilitation Department, the electrification of rural areas in the block and extension of tube-well irrigation there will be undertaken with funds available under the C.D.P. Loan Budget. Besides, to cater for the increasing load demand in the block in the foreseeable future, scheme for augmenting the supply position by extension of the Board's 66 kv. North Calcutta Transmission System from Naihati to Habra has been taken up for implementation during the year under review.

Due to delayed delivery of imported materials occasioned mainly by Suez Canal crisis and also due to substantial backload of last year's work under the "Expansion of Power Facilities for Increasing Employment Opportunities Schemes", approximately 30 per cent. of the targets fixed under the above programme of work could actually be finished during 1956-57. The installation of the 4th 500 kva. hydro set, and of the second penstock envisaged under the programme of development of Kurseong Hydro Electric Supply drawn up last year had been completed during the year under review.

Installation work in the Siliguri Power Supply Station was completed and the station was ready for commissioning at the close of the year. The programme of augmenting the installed capacity of the Tamralipta Co-operative Electric Supply Co. was carried through during the year by installing 3 additional diesel sets. In terms of the accepted policy of the Board, steps have already been taken to connect the undertaking to the Board's Liloouh-Bagnan Transmission System by drawing 11 kv. line from Golaghat via Panchkura during the next year. The released diesel sets will be utilised for power generation in a place where the existing load demand is comparatively meagre.

Mayurakshi Hydro-Electric Scheme

All the construction work envisaged under the scheme and devolving on the Board for execution was carried through in course of the year under review at a total cost of Rs. 63 lakhs. The Hydro-Electric Station which has an installed capacity of 4000 kw. was switched on by Sir D. N. Mitra, the Chairman of the Board, on 16th December 1956, in presence of a large and distinguished gathering where the High Commissioner for Canada in India was represented through his First Secretary Mr. Hampson.

The commissioning of the Hydel Power Station at Massenjore has opened up the towns of Suri, Mohammad Bazar, Mollarpur, Rampurhat, Nalhati, Sainthia, Ahmedpur, Bolepur, Guskara, Dubrajpur, Pandaveswar and the adjoining coalfield areas in the State of West Bengal and the town of Dumka in the State of Bihar to the use of electricity at a cheaper cost.

The construction phase over, the question of fixing responsibility for operation and maintenance of the stations came to the fore. It was held that as the Power Station is situated at Massenjore which is outside the territory of West Bengal, the Board could not have any jurisdiction over the maintenance of the station in terms of the provisions of section 18 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948. This view was also upheld by the Legal Remembrancer to the Government of West Bengal and accordingly the State Government in the Irrigation and Waterways Department brought out an order transferring the management and maintenance of the Massenjore Hydel Power Station and 13 miles of Transmission System from Massenjore to Bihar-West Bengal border to the charge of the Chief Electrical Engineer and Electrical Adviser to the Government of West Bengal with the Irrigation and Waterways Department of the State Government retaining all financial and Executive control of the station.

Ever since the station went into operation, the Board has been purchasing power from the Irrigation and Waterways Department of the Government of West Bengal from its Massenjore Hydel Station at 33 kv. in the capacity of a bulk consumer and then selling this power to its consumers in the towns referred to in this report through a number of 33/11 kv. and 11/.4 kv. sub-stations—the major ones being situated at Suri, Pandaveswar and Sainthia.

Supply Undertakings Commissioned during the year

It has been already pointed out that the serious dislocation in the supply position of machineries and equipments due to Suez Canal crisis created a situation under which the Board could not carry out its programme according to schedule drawn up last year. Considerable progress, however, was made in respect of the Board's carryover work of the last year under the "Expansion of Power Facilities for Increasing Employment Opportunities Scheme" and other schemes of the Board. The extent of progress made will be evident from the number of supply stations commissioned and the total mileage of transmission line drawn during the year under review. Details in this respect are given below :—

Under this year's programme of work, installation work in respect of Board's supply undertakings at Raiganj, Arabindanagar, New Barrackpore, Muragacha, and Panchthupi was over. Similarly all necessary work was completed during the year to bring into commission the Board's undertakings at Haldibari, Malbazar, Moynaguri, and Aurangabad in North Bengal.

The Board also made considerable progress in drawing transmission lines which will be evident from the total length of mileage covered under different sections as per details given below :—

For the sake of providing quickest means of communication amongst its supply undertakings the Board decided during the year to interconnect 13 major sub-stations with V.H.F. sets on payment of usual royalties to the Government of India. If the results are encouraging, the Board has a mind to go in for increased number of sets for its other sub-stations.

Jaldhaka Hydro-Electric Project

This scheme occupies a pride of position amongst the schemes to be executed under the Second Five-Year Plan. We shall describe in brief the progress made in the execution of the scheme during the year and progress anticipated in the coming year.

At the outset mention may be made of the fact that by arrangements with the railway authorities steps were taken to open a new Railway Siding at Champramari during the year for transportation of heavy hydro-electric machineries to the work-site at Jhalung.

Hydrological investigations on the Jaldhaka river consisting of contour survey at Nichu Dichu confluence and at the balancing reservoir site have been over. The measurement of the river discharge has been carried out at the intake point, Nichu and Dichu and at Bindukhola by float method during the driest period. Water gauges near the power house site were installed to ascertain the maximum rise of water level for tail race design. For determining the power potential of the river a number of monsoon and winter gauges were erected at suitable points of the river and daily gauge readings recorded regularly throughout the year. One rain gauge has been installed by the Meteorological Department and readings noted down. The tentative alignment of penstock route has been carried out to determine the most economical route. The access road survey from Gouribash to Jhalung and Jhalung to Dam Site has been complete. Tentative plans have been finalised for preparation of layout of the Project Head Quarter and Jhalung Township. The earth cutting, dressing and gradation of the approach road from Gouribash to Jhalung have been over. The Inspection Bungalows at Siliguri and Jhalung were almost complete. The work on approach road from Jhalung to Forebay, office-cum-godown, Superintendent Engineer's Bungalow at Siliguri, staff quarters at Siliguri were taken up.

Private lands at Siliguri have been acquired from private parties. Acquisition of 75 acres of land at Jhalung for power house and the township is under finalisation. Forest land for access road to Jhalung has been already acquired.

Technical Progress anticipated during 1957-58

Regular gauge readings of the Jaldhaka river would be recorded till the end of the year. Geological investigation including core boring tests would be carried out departmentally under the advice of the authorities of the Department of Geological Survey of India. The following final contour survey work and investigations are to be carried out.

Survey and Mapping

(i) A site of barrage area of 1,000 ft. up streams and down streams.

(ii) Cross section at work-site.

(iii) Site survey showing river and alignment of flume for first 9,000 ft.

(iv) Site survey for the river below 9,000 ft. and up to Jhalung.

(v) Detailed survey of the power house site.

(vi) A longitudinal section of the river from confluence of Bindukhola up to lower power house site and a longitudinal section through the conductor system after its alignment is finalised.

(vii) Photographic view of intake site, power house site and slope of hills.

The geological investigations would include boring holes along barrage axis, proposed alignment of tunnels up to Paren Hill, Pressure Shaft, Tail Race Channel at the site of power house.

Besides above the following items of work are expected to be completed during this year:—

(i) Temporary arrangement for water supply;
(ii) Installation of telephone at Jhalung; and
(iii) Installation of a Small Diesel Plant at Jhalung.

Programme of Board's work during 1957-58

The volume of agency work to be executed during the coming year in addition to working for attainment of the targets fixed under the programme for 1957-58 would be quite considerable as would be evident from details given in Appendix C to this Report.

CHAPTER III

THE BOARD'S FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

1. General principles for Board's finance

Since the formation of the Board with effect from 1st May 1955 the Board did not take any loan from the State Government for meeting its operating, maintenance and management expenses except a loan of Rs. 10.89 lakhs drawn during 1955-56 for meeting its revenue expenses. The entire amount was, however, refunded during the same year. The revenue earnings of the Board are now sufficient to cover the gross expenses including the depreciation charges. The Board takes loan from the State Government only for capital outlay in connection with the execution of the schemes under Second Five-Year Plan and the normal extensions of the existing schemes of capital nature. The normal extensions are financed by State Revenue proper.

The forms in which the final accounts (Revenue Account and Balance Sheet) of the Board will be exhibited have been approved by the State Government during the year. The final accounts of the Board for the year 1955-56 are under preparation in the forms approved by the State Government. It is expected that the final account will be ready for submission after audit very soon.

The tentative working results for 1955-56 were given in the last report. A similar report for the year 1956-57 is given below pending submission of the final accounts for the year under review:—

			Rs. Lakhs
Total Revenue receipts	..	..	52·65
Deduct—Working expenses (excluding Depreciation and Interest)	..	..	48·38
Gross surplus (+)		..	4·27
Deduct—Depreciation	..	..	4·39
Gross deficit (—)		..	·12
	Rs. Lakhs.
Deduct—Interest on loan	12·14
Interest to depreciation	·11
Reserve Fund	..	..	12·25
Net deficit (—)		..	12·37

Interest on loan of Rs. 163.33 lakhs drawn during 1955-56 and 1956-57 for schemes under expansion of power to urban and rural areas was not included in the above figure on account of the prospect of getting exemption from payment of interest on this development loan for the first few years to which effect the Planning Minister of the Government of India made an announcement sometime back in the Parliament. But as no formal communication from the Government of India was received in this connection it was decided to adjust the interest charges on Rs. 163.33 lakhs in the revised budget for 1957-58. In view of the above, the Revenue Account will receive further debit to the extent of Rs. 9.23 lakhs as per details below:—

		Rs. Lakhs.
For 1955-56	...	1.88
For 1956-57	...	7.35
		9.33

Thus the net deficit during 1956-57 is likely to amount to Rs. 19.72 lakhs (Rs. 12.37 lakhs + Rs. 7.35 lakhs) on the basis of the working results.

2. Assumption of obligation of the State Government by the Board

The loan amount under section 60(2) of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, in respect of the assets taken over on 1st May 1955 has not yet been finalised. This is still under correspondence with the Accountant-General, West Bengal, and the Development Department of the State Government.

Pending fixation of the value of the assets and the corresponding amount of loan, the final accounts of the Board for 1955-56 will be prepared on the basis of the provisional amounts as shown in the Statement, viz., Rs. 202.52 lakhs.

3 Annual Financial Statement (Budget Estimates)

As has been already mentioned, the revised budget form has been approved by the State Government during this year. The budget estimates for 1957-58 and the revised estimates for 1956-57 were prepared in the forms approved by the State Government.

The financial forecast of the Board for the ensuing year (1957-58) is detailed below on budget basis:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
Total Revenue receipts	85·24
Deduct—Working expenses (excluding Depreciation and Interest)	75·24
Gross surplus (+) ..	10·00
Deduct—Depreciation	5·11
Surplus (+) ..	4·89
Deduct—	Rs. Lakhs.
(1) Interest on Loan ..	18·41
(2) Interest to Depreciation Reserve Fund ..	·24
Net deficit (—) ..	13·76

The above figure also does not include Rs. 7.35 lakhs being the amount of interest on Rs. 163.33 lakhs for rural electrification schemes for the same reason as stated. The net deficit will, therefore, be increased by Rs. 7.35 lakhs bringing the net loss to Rs. 21.11 lakhs.

The deficit of Rs. 21.11 lakhs (Rs. 13.76 lakhs + Rs. 7.35 lakhs) during 1957-58 is mainly due to interest on loan taken from the State Government for capital outlay.

4. Subventions to the Board

No subvention has been received by the Board during the year under review.

5. Loans to the Board

The State Government has advanced a sum of Rs. 140.23 lakhs to the Board during 1956-57 as loan from the State Loan Budget for construction and execution of the following schemes:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
(a) Long term loan for normal extension to the existing schemes ...	43.84
(b) Long term loan for schemes under Second Five-Year Plan ..	51.16
(c) Long term loan for electrification schemes sponsored by Refugee Relief and Rehabilitation Department	3.00
(d) Long term loan for Community Development Project	42.97
	140.97
Less—Refund from (b)	.74
	140.23

Total amount actually drawn against (a), (b) and (c) is Rs. 97.26 lakhs. Details of drawal under (d) are as given below:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
(i) Amount actually drawn under normal C.D.P. Schemes ...	7,17,000
(ii) Under additional C.D.P. Schemes	35,80,002
	42,97,002
The amount of loan raised by the Development Department by adjustment for cost of the imported equipments ...	1,21,471
Total loan under C.D.P. Schemes ...	44,18,473

Total loan taken by the Board during 1956-57 by cash drawal and by book adjustment was to the tune of Rs. 1,41,44,473 as per details given below:—

	Rs.
(i) Against C.D.P. Schemes ...	44,18,473
(ii) Against other Schemes ...	97,26,000
	1,41,44,473

In addition to the amount shown above two cheques amounting to Rs. 2.88 lakhs were received from the Refugee Relief and Rehabilitation Department on 31st March 1957, as loan against the State Budget provision for 1956-57. But as these cheques were actually credited to the Fund of the Board during 1957-58, this amount was not included in the loan amount as drawn during 1956-57.

Further, a sum of Rs. 74,000 was drawn in excess as loan under schemes under the Second Five-Year Plan which was refunded to the State Government during that year. The excess amount was drawn on the basis of the provision made in the original budget estimate which was subsequently reduced in the revised budget.

6. Depreciation Reserve

Depreciation Reserve Fund is created on Sinking Fund method at 3 per cent. compound interest. As the amount is not invested outside the Board's Fund the interest is credited to the fund by the Board and the Depreciation Reserve Fund remains merged in the State Electricity Fund. The amount accumulated in the Depreciation Reserve Fund up to 31st March 1957 is Rs. 8.13 lakhs.

7. Accounts and Audit

The audit of the Board's accounts for the year 1955-56 has been entrusted by the State Government to Messrs. G. Basu & Co. in accordance with the provision of section 69(2) of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948. But the above section of the said Act has been recently amended providing for the audit of the Board's accounts by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or by such other person as may be authorised by him. The audit of the accounts of the Board for the year under report has not been taken up by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or by his authorised person as per provision of section 69(2) of the Electricity (Supply) Amendment Act, 1956, although negotiations were going on between the Board and the Accountant-General, West Bengal, during the year in this respect.

CHAPTER IV

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES

Commercial activities comprise continuous load survey operations, formulation of tariff and outlining the policy behind tariff formulation, examination of all cases for permission to supply power under section 27 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, initiating proceedings for revocation of licence, assessment of valuation in respect of acquired undertakings, drafting of all Commercial agreements for supply of power and disposal of cases involving application of the provisions of the Indian Electricity Act, Electricity (Supply) Act and the rules framed thereunder.

We shall give in this Chapter an account of the comparatively important of these activities in some detail.

The Paradox of Rural Electrification

By 1955-56 all the district towns and most of the subdivisional towns were electrified in addition to a number of important towns and villages. The remaining subdivisional towns were also programmed for electrification during the year under review. With all the district and subdivisional towns already electrified or under process of electrification, the Board enters from now on a menacingly wide and unchartered field comprising of no less than 42,000 villages scattered throughout the length and breadth of the State to direct its survey operations for chalking out its future programme of rural electrification for the years that lie ahead. The use of electricity is as much the function as it is the cause of economic prosperity. The paradox of rural electrification lies precisely in this situation. The remoteness of the rural hamlets from the grid or transmission system necessitates supply in the areas by disel generation which incidentally raises the unit cost of production over the grid rate. The chronic slump in the rural sector has combined with higher cost of unit production to complicate the situation to the point of intriguing even the most ingenious business talent to carry through a comprehensive scheme of rural electrification consistent with the objective of safeguarding business interest.

Committed however to a policy of rationalising the distribution and transmission of electricity in the countryside by progressively bringing ever-increasing number of villages under electrification, the Board cannot afford to let its decision be influenced by considerations of earning alone in drawing up schemes of rural electrification. Once the insularity of the villages is broken by the initial thrust given through supply of power other forces will be set in motion and under the gathering momentum gained from the original impact, channels will open up of themselves for increased development activities in other directions.

The Electricity Board is cut out to play this vital role in initiating the process of secondary developments in the rural sector by offering the potential power thrust to the withering fabric of the rural economy.

Such a benign role can hardly be possible for a business concern to assume of its own volition and should as such be left to be filled up by an organisation ready to finance the scheme even at the cost of initial financial loss. And this is exactly what the Board proposes to do. It intends to carry through its programme of electrification in the years to come by subsidizing supply to rural areas out of surplus from its earning schemes.

The magnitude of the programme justifying, the Board may have to have recourse to subvention from the Government to supplement the surplus resources available under its earning schemes.

Load Survey

A judicious selection of places based on survey report may as well keep the amount of subsidy well within the limit of surplus from its earning schemes without inflating the financial burden of the Board which may not otherwise be avoided. It is precisely here that the importance of the pattern and technique of survey would manifest itself.

The planning of survey pattern and of methods to be employed is in no way less important than the survey operation itself. Before deploying the survey teams in the huge areas lying mapped out before it, the Board has to take the initial decision on the technique of team deployment in the areas based on considerations of their administrative importance. According to the grading of administrative importance, the areas with police-stations come next to the district and subdivisional towns.

At the very outset of the year under review the Board decided that in all non-electrified villages where there is a police-station survey operations should be conducted and almost all such villages were surveyed in course of the year. Under the second phase of the survey programme chalked out districtwise extensive survey operations were envisaged, allowing for survey of such villages which are served by roads.

The districts of 24-Parganas, Hooghly and Burdwan (barring the left hand side of Damodar river) were intensively surveyed, according to the plan.

The scope of survey operations was further enlarged under a plan drawn up late in the year in terms of which all villages with population of over one thousand were earmarked for future load survey operations for assessment of their load prospects and potentialities. The villages in the district of Birbhum had been surveyed according to the latest plan. The schemes of electrification for the territories annexed to the State following the reorganisation of State boundaries in October 1956, were based on data collected by intensive load survey carried out in the district of Purulia immediately after the annexation was effected.

The total number of places surveyed during the year under review were well over six hundred. In addition to undertaking survey operations in rural areas, survey teams were also deployed in the industrial areas centred round the Eastern Railway main line from Belur to Serampore. Industries located in these areas are at present getting supply from the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd. under section 27 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910. The estimated load of these Industries is expected to rise to 33 MW in course of the next five years.

During the year under review the Central Water and Power Commission brought out a report based on the sample load survey carried out by the Commission in the State of West Bengal. According to the forecast of the report the aggregated maximum demand of all the undertakings of the Board would reach 84.55 MW at the end of the Second Five-Year Plan.

Taking over the Distribution system in Howrah-Amta area from C.E.S.C. Ltd.

In the interest of co-ordinated development of the Howrah-Amta area which is uptil now being served by the Calcutta Electric Supply Corp. Ltd. under section 27 of the Indian Electricity Act, the Board took a decision during the year to take over the distributing mains in the area together with other assets from the C.E.S.C. Ltd. at a total cost of Rs. 2,11,000 plus cost of service connection on the basis of agreed valuation drawn up.

The operating expenses including cost of electricity, interest, depreciation and other maintenance charges are expected to be of the order of Rs. 1,10,000 as against an anticipated yearly earning of Rs. 1,80,000 yielding a net profit of Rs. 70,000 per annum. Steps were afoot to take over the system from the control of C.E.S.C. Ltd. during the year.

Acquisition of New Undertakings

During the year 10 undertakings were acquired through transfer of management due to reorganisation of the State boundaries or otherwise and through the usual procedure of revocation of licence and simultaneous assumption of the charge of the undertakings. With these the total number of acquired undertakings under the management of the Board stands at 18. The following is a list of undertakings acquired during the year with the respective date of acquisition shown against each :—

(1) Fulia Electric Supply—1st September 1956.

(2) Sodepur Electric Supply Co., Ltd.—1st October 1956.

(3) Jhargram Electric Supply Co., Ltd.—9th October 1956.

(4) Adra Electric Supply, (ii) Anara Electric Supply, (iii) Raghunathpur Electric Supply, (iv) Dubra Electric Supply, (v) Kashipur Electric Supply and (vi) Para Electric Supply—1st November 1956.

(5) Diamond Harbour Electric Supply—15th December 1956.

The construction of supply system within the Fulia Township was undertaken as a part of the scheme of all-round development under Community Development Project. The construction phase over, its management and maintenance had been transferred to the Board with the amounts of all capital expenditure for the assets acquired being treated as loans advanced to the Board as under provision of section 60(2) of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948. The amount of loan for which the Board is liable under section 60(2) of the Act has, however, not yet been determined. The Sodepur Electric Licence, 1952, was revoked under clause (a) of sub-section 3 of section 4 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, with effect from 1st October 1956, under Government order No. 3460-M.P./2L-5/56, dated 29th September 1956, and its possession was handed over to the Board by order No. 3461M.P., dated 29th September 1956 the same day. The revocation was made following a request made by the Company for surrender of its licence on grounds of financial stringency. The Company was paid Rs. 1.2 lakhs as compensation in part pending determination of valuation by arbitration. Considerable augmentation has been effected in the supply system since taking over. For much the same reason the Jhargram Electric Licence, 1951, was revoked under clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 4 of the Indian Electricity Act, under Government order No. 3475M.P., dated 4th October 1956, and its possession handed over to the Board with effect from the date the licence was revoked, i.e., with effect from 9th October 1956 under Government order No. 3476M.P., dated 4th October 1956. A sum of Rs. 3 lakhs was paid to management of the Company in full settlement of compensation due in July 1957. The inability of the licensee of Diamond Harbour Electric Supply Co., Ltd., to complete necessary arrangements for taking bulk supply from the Board within the prescribed period and its inability to comply with certain financial obligations imposed under the terms of the licence prompted the State Government to revoke the Diamond Harbour Electric Licence, 1955, under clause (b) and sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (i) of section 4 of Indian Electricity Act, 1910, with effect from 15th December 1956 and to transfer the management of the Company to the Board with effect from the aforesaid date.

The six supply undertakings under item 4 above were located in the territory of Purulia subdivision in the district of Manbhum, Bihar, which had been annexed to the State of West Bengal with effect from 1st October 1956, as a result of the reorganisation of States. The undertakings were, however, transferred to the charge of the Board through its State Government with effect from 1st November 1956, i.e., exactly a month after the reorganisation of the State became effective.

In the hectic days that followed this transfer, the Engineers of the Board acted with remarkable expedition in carrying out an intensive load survey of the entire area transferred to the State of West Bengal from Bihar. The load potential of the areas comprised in the transferred territories was assessed with special reference to the economic and industrial possibilities of the areas.

By January 1957, the departmental officers of the Board collected all relevant data after intensive survey and prepared a comprehensive scheme for extension of the supply system in the district of Purulia entailing an estimated capital expenditure of Rs. 41.5 lakhs for the whole of the merged areas.

Prior to merger, bulk power was purchased by Bihar Electricity Department at 11 kv from D.V.C.'s Digwadih sub-station. Pending finalisation of an agreement for purchase of bulk power from D.V.C. at Purulia by the Board for which negotiations were started during the year, the Board continued to purchase power in bulk at 11 kV from the Bihar Electricity Department from the Digwadih-Anara line. This Digwadih-Anara transmission line which is insulated for 33 kV, but energised at present to 11 kV is the mainstay of supply in the Purulia district. The line is 19 miles long of which 13.3 miles have come to the share of West Bengal within the transferred areas. The total value of the transferred assets is approximately Rs. 11.5 lakhs. In the context of the load potential and the extent of transmission system required to serve the area with a well connected system of net work, the inadequacy of the existing Digwadih-Anara line was self-evident. Dual ownership of the existing line by the State Governments of Bihar and West Bengal also pointed to the necessity of going in for independent source of supply. To overcome this difficulty in the management problem and to serve the area's growing load demand, a scheme was prepared providing for three way ramification of a separate and independent 33 kV transmission line from Purulia to Jhalda, Purulia to Balarampur and finally from Purulia to Manbazar. Advantage may then be taken of these 33 kV lines to supply power to Jhalda, Tulin, Joypur, Balarampur, Hura, Barabhum, Puncha and Manbazar.

Since submission of the schemes for the areas to the Planning Commission it has been made known to the Board by the Planning Commission that a ceiling of Rs. 4 crores has been fixed for all the schemes within the areas transferred to West Bengal. The apportionment of the cost of schemes within the ceiling of Rs. 4 crores has not yet been finally settled.

Payment of compensation valuation

Payment of part compensation in respect of assets of Kurseong and Siliguri Hydro-Electric Supply Undertaking acquired on 30th April 1953 was made during the year by two instalments aggregating a total amount of Rs. 5 lakhs less Board's dues—Rs. 4 lakhs initially and Rs. 1 lakh subsequently pending determination of valuation by arbitration.

The arbitration proceedings for assessment of the valuation of Tamralipta Co-operative Electric Supply Co., Ltd., taken over by the Board on 30th November 1955 were under way during the year.

Tariff

Since taking over of Burdwan, Suri and Santiniketan Undertakings from private licensees further reduction of rates was under consideration although some reduction of rates was effected immediately after taking over. In the year under review a considerable reduction of rate has been effected at Burdwan, in conformity with the standard rates for Burdwan-Mogra Grid. On being connected to the Mayurakshi Grid, consumers of Suri, Saniniketan, Nalhati, etc., were offered North Calcutta Grid rate which was much less than the prevailing rate. In the year under consideration two more private undertakings, e.g., Sodepur and Jhargram were taken over by the Board. Sodepur is contiguous to Barrackpore and hence our Barrackpore rate which is the lowest rate has been applied in the case of Sodepur. Power is generated at Jhargram by diesel-electric generation and as such our standard diesel-rate has been offered. In both the above cases consumers were relieved of the burden to a considerable extent. In November 1956, the district of Purulia was transferred to West Bengal and all the existing undertakings of the Bihar Government came under the control of the Board. The prevailing rates were superseded and our standard rate for Burdwan-Mogra Grid was enforced. Among the amendment of the standard rate the cases of industrial rates of Burdwan-Mogra and Durgapur-Sonamukhi Grids may be mentioned. Some consumers having an installed capacity of above 15 H.P. are now gradually taking supply in some small undertakings where power is generated by diesel electric generation. Hence the limit of the rate has been extended from 15 H.P. to 50 kW. A special tariff has been introduced for bulk consumers whose maximum demand is above 50 kW, and the consumption of energy for lights and fans, etc., exceeds 10 per cent. of the total monthly consumption. Last but not the least in importance is the concessional rate for small-scale and cottage industries. This concession is only applicable to those who have an installed capacity up to 10 H.P. and consume energy for the above purposes. Consumers under this category are relieved of the burden to a very great extent by the introduction of this new tariff.

The existing rate structure for our different grids was under consideration for revision during the year.

Details of any undertaking, generating station or main transmission line of which the Board has assumed control.

There has been no instance of assumption of control under the provisions of the Electricity Supply Act, 1948.

Details of any undertaking, generating station or main transmission line which the Board has acquired under the provisions of section 23 or 37 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

No acquisition has been effected under the provisions of the aforesaid sections of the Act in the year under review.

Details of any directions given to Licensees being Local Authorities in respect of their Undertakings under the provisions of section 58.

The Board had no occasion to issue directions under the provisions of the section referred to.

The matters referred to the Central Electricity Authority.

The activities of the Board during the year did not offer any scope for reference to the Authority.

Names of Licensees for whom Rating Committees were set up by the Board during the year under section 57 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

A Rating Committee was constituted during the year in respect of Asansol Electric Supply Co., Ltd., under clause (a) of sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) of section 57 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948, to examine the charges of the licensee in consequence of the failure on the part of the licensee in the opinion of the Board to comply with certain provisions of the Sixth Schedule of the Supply Act, 1948. The Committee was constituted with Shri H. Banarjee, I.C.S., as the Chairman, and Shri N. N. Mazumdar, I.A. & A.S., and Shri S. N. Ghosh, the Chief Personnel Officer of the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation Ltd., as members.

The licensee in the meantime made a reference to the Central Electricity Authority under clause XVI of the Sixth Schedule to the Supply Act claiming arbitration over the points under dispute between the Board and the licensee. The Central Electricity Authority entered on the reference under section 76 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948.

As the Committee went ahead with the work of investigation, the licensee moved the Hon'ble High Court at Calcutta for injunction to restraint the Committee from holding any further proceedings pending disposal of the points under reference to the Central Electricity Authority. The motion was rejected by the Hon'ble High Court and the Committee continued its usual business throughout the year under review.

The foundation of the Central Testing Laboratory of the Board was laid by its Chairman on 18th June 1957, the construction of the building was completed in February 1958 and the Laboratory commenced functioning from 10th March 1958.

Recruitment and Promotion

As in the previous years, the recruitment and promotion policy of the Board has been to fill up higher posts as far as possible by promotion from the existing personnel, outside recruitment being resorted to only when suitable and qualified persons are not available amongst the existing hands. In the lower technical posts, recruitment is made, as far as practicable, from the staff employed on daily wage basis on work-charged establishment in connection with construction work with a view to progressively absorb those staff in the regular cadre. This ensures continued utilisation of the useful experience gained by the employees through their previous work on Board's grid.

Selections for filling up the various posts under the Board are entrusted to the two Committees as follows:—

Selection Committee I (for filling up Class I and Class II posts)

(1) Sir D. N. Mitra—Chairman.
(2) Shri H. C. Guha—Member.
(3) Shri A. K. Bhaumik—Member.
(4) Administrator of the Board—Member.

Selection Committee II (for filling up Class III posts)

(1) Shri S. N. Bose—Chairman.
(2) Financial Adviser of the Board—Member.
(3) Secretary of the Board—Member.

Training Facilities

The Board continued its scheme of sending its Engineers abroad for higher technical training. During the year under review, two Divisional Engineers—one from the Commercial Division and the other from the Planning Division—were sent for training in the United Kingdom and West Germany, respectively. While the Divisional

Engineer (Commercial) underwent training under the Colombo Plan with the East Midlands Electricity Board in the U.K. on load survey for Electricity development, tariff and other commercial matters to provide service to the consumers—Service in the widest interpretation of the term, the Divisional Engineer (Planning) on an invitation from the Siemens Schuckert Works undertook a study tour on design and operation of power plant and supply system in Germany.

During the year under review, the West Bengal State Electricity Board Staff Recreation Club started a Library with financial aid from the Board, its Chairman, Members and others.

The following Chapters give a brief review of the various activities of the Board and its finance during the year, 1957-58, including a financial forecast for the next financial year 1958-59:—

CHAPTER II

PLANNING AND PROGRESS

This Chapter gives an outline of the various schemes in the process of planning and implementation with special reference to the progress achieved during the year under review as also that anticipated during the year following. The general policy of the Board in chalking out its programme of work continues, as hithertofore, to be to harmonise as much as practicable its commercial interests with the objective of promotion of public welfare.

As indicated in the last year's Report, owing to the serious dislocation in supply position of machineries and equipments from abroad resulting from Suez Canal blockade, only 30 per cent. of the planned targets of that year could be completed leaving a balance of 70 per cent. for execution during the year under review, which happens to be the second year of the Second Plan period. With this carryover of last year's unfinished work, progress in the execution of various schemes was maintained with the funds available under the Plan supplemented by funds advanced by the State Government for C.D.P. Projects, Relief and Rehabilitation Schemes and Normal Expansion purposes.

An outline sketch of the programme drawn up last year that was taken up for execution during the year under review is given below:—

1. Rural Electrification Scheme.

Names of places to be electrified—Birpara, Gayerkata, Nimtita, Gokarna, Bahara, Chanchal, Kaligram, Chatna, Jhantipahari, Mogrihat, Dakshin-Baraset, Narayanpur, Gopalpur, Baguiati, Kaikhola, Gopalnagar, Dattabad, Dhanyakuria, Bomal, Uttar Nimta.

2. Kharagpur-Midnapore Electrification Scheme

(iii) 33 kV transmission from Kharagpur via Garbeta and Salbani to Ramjibanpur.

3. Extension of Mayurakshi Hydro-electric Scheme

Electrification of Labpur, Kirnahar-Parata and Kharidya.

4. Howrah-Hooghly Rural Electrification Scheme

Electrification of Amta, Haripal and Kona.

5. Suburban Electrification Scheme

Electrification of Rishra Refugee Colony, Sarada Colony and Khalisani.

The work according to the above programme was taken up as was permissible with the limited fund of Rs. 56.29 lakhs available during the year against the anticipated allotment of Rs. 75.17 lakhs under the Second Five-Year Plan.

In addition to the schemes enumerated above, the Board undertook execution of other schemes during the year with the help of loans amounting to Rs. 9.49 lakhs made available by the State Government from the C.D.P. Budget and also with funds supplied by the Relief and Rehabilitation Department.

During the year under review erection of both H.T. and L.T. transmission lines and other associated work in connection with thirty-three tubewells at Fulia and Habra under the C.D.P. Irrigation Scheme and electrification of Borsul in Saktigarh Block and Bonpass in Guskara Block were completed. Sixty per cent. of erection work of H.T. and L.T. transmission lines was done in respect of electrification of the additional C.D.P. townships, viz., Aistala, Kalinarayanpur, Habibpur in Fulia Block, Gaipur, Khatura, Maslandpur, Guma, Prativabazar and Dakshinchatra in Habra Block.

Progress was maintained in the execution of schemes sponsored by the Relief and Rehabilitation Department, as enumerated below, for electrification of a number of mills, factories and rural areas with a view to opening up possibilities of rehabilitating the displaced and unemployed persons in the areas.

Name of scheme.	Estimated cost. (Rs. lakhs)
1. Power Supply to Gayeshpur	2·54	Survey completed.
2. Power Supply to Industrial Consumers in Habra-Baigachi Colony	5·84	30 per cent. work completed.
3. Retail supply to Habra-Baigachi Colony ..	10·50*
4. Power Supply to Taherpur Cotton Mills	5·45	30 per cent. work completed.

*Inclusive of Rs. 50,000 as Capital Contribution for Street Lighting.

The extent of all-round progress made by the Board will be evident from the power stations and sub-stations commissioned, additional plants installed, number of supply stations commissioned, the total mileage of transmission line drawn, the number of industrial bulk consumers connected and agency works completed during the year under review. The maintenance work of three Government Estates, viz., (1) Government Housing Estate, Entally; (2) Government Housing Estate at Poddar Park, Tollygunge; and (3) Government Housing Estate at Ganguly Bagan, Jadavpur, continues to be done by the Board. The total number of tenements in these three estates is about 1,400.

Jaldhaka Hydro-Electric Project

Jaldhaka Hydro-Electric Scheme is the only major scheme of the Board under Second Five-Year Plan. The original project report submitted to the Planning Commission was based on the preliminary survey and investigations and was accordingly given preliminary approval for inclusion under the Second Five-Year Plan. Comprehensive investigation as detailed below were carried out during the year under review for the preparation of final project report:—

(1) Contour survey of Barrage area extending 1,000 ft. upstream and downstream at 5 ft. contour interval showing contour line up to 2,500 ft.

(2) Cross section along Barrage axis.

(3) Capacity survey of pondage at the intake Barrage for depth of 10 ft., 20 ft., 30 ft. and 40 ft.

(4) Longitudinal section of the river from the intake to the power house site and also of the water conductor.

(5) Detailed contour survey of the power house site.

(6) Complete plane-table survey of the entire project site showing all features of the terrain up to 2,500 ft.

(7) Cross section of the river and open flume at 200 ft. interval and also cross section of the river and the tunnel aligument at 500 ft. interval.

(8) Geological investigation for finalisation of Barrage site, alignment, surge shaft position and power house position.

(9) Stereoscopic photography and preparation of contour maps of the entire reach of Juldhaka from Bindu confluence to Naksalkhola confluence up to 2,500 ft. R. L. by aerial survey.

Gauge—Discharge observations were also carried out at several points on the river. The construction of project access roads, viz., from the Chapramari Railway siding to Khunia road and from Jhalung camp to Bindu intake site were taken up. The inspection Bungalows at Siliguri and Jhalung as also the construction of several other staff quarters and Office Buildings at Siliguri were completed.

Acquisition of land in the project area is in progress. Progress anticipated during 1958-59:—

(iii) Commencement of Jhalung Township construction.

(iv) Preparation of construction drawings.

(v) Preparation of specification of Barrage and intake, open flume, R. C. C. duct, tunnel, surge shaft, power house building and sundry other civil works and the electrical and mechanical plant and equipment.

(vi) Commencement of construction of Barrage and tunnel.

(vii) Commencement of construction of railway siding.

The Project Report after submission to the Planning Commission will be scrutinized by the Central Water and Power Commission for processing through the Advisory Committee on Irrigation and Power Projects after which necessary clearance from the Planning Commission for the execution of the scheme will issue. As the river Jaldhaka forms Indo-Bhutan boundary and approximately 70 per cent. of its catchment area above the intake point lies within the territory of Bhutan, an agreement has been reached with the Bhutan Government through the Ministry of External Affairs on payment of royalties. Full scale construction work will commence on receipt of final clearance from the Planning Commission.

CHAPTER III

FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

Since the formation of the Board there has been a steady increase in the revenues of the Board as indicated below:—

1955-56 (from 1st May 1955 only)—Rs. 31.62 lakhs actuals.
1956-57—Rs. 52.65 lakhs actuals.
1957-58—Rs. 82.93 lakhs actuals.
1958-59—Rs. 112.62 lakhs revised estimate.

During 1957-58 the revenue earnings of the Board were sufficient to cover the operating, maintenance and management expenses and also the depreciation charges. The Board takes loan from the State Government only for capital purposes.

The Final Accounts of the Board (Revenue Account and Balance Sheet) for the year 1955-56 duly approved by the Board have been submitted to audit. The account shows a net deficit of Rs. 6.46 lakhs only against the net deficit of Rs. 10.74 lakhs as shown in the tentative working results on cash basis which was incorporated in the report for the year 1955-56. (Vide page 27 of the Annual Administrative Report for 1955-56). The Final Accounts of the Board for the year 1956-57 are under preparation.

The working results for the year 1957-58, on cash basis are given below:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
Total Revenue Receipts ...	82.93
Deduct—Working expenses (excluding Depreciation and Interest) ...	75.20
Gross surplus (+) ...	7.73
Deduct—Depreciation ...	5.10
Surplus (+) ...	2.63
Deduct—
(i) Interest on loan .. 32.80
(ii) Interest to Depreciation Reserve fund .. 24
Net deficit (−)	30 41

The heavy deficit is mainly due to the fact that the Board has no working capital of its own and has to pay interest on all funds drawn from Government. Interest charges on loan has risen from 12.14 lakhs in 1956-57 to Rs. 32.80 lakhs in 1957-58. This is partly due to increase in the capital drawing from Government and partly to an adjustment of Rs. 7.35 lakhs as arrear interest charges on loan pertaining to 1956-57 as reported in the last year's Administrative Report.

Total amount of fees, salaries and allowances actually drawn by the members, officers and staff of the Board during 1957-58 are given below:—

	Rs.
(i) Members remunerations, fees and allowances ...	24,005
(ii) Pay of Officers (Administration and Operation) ..	3,47,096
(iii) Pay of Establishment (Administration and Operation) ...	12,08,158
(iv) Allowances and Honoraria (Officers and Establishment) ...	8,95,193
Total ...	24,74,452

Out of the total of Rs. 24,74,452 drawn during 1957-58 a sum of Rs. 1,76,738 has been capitalised being the salaries of the construction engineers whose salaries are initially paid from the head "Administration" but subsequently adjusted to new Constructions and Agency works executed by them during the year.

Assumption of obligations of State Government by the Board

The loan amount and the corresponding value of assets taken over by the Board on the date of its constitution have not yet been finalised. The matter is still under correspondence between the Accountant-General, West Bengal, the State Government and the Board. Pending fixation of the value of assets taken over by the Board on the date of its constitution, the final accounts for 1955-56 has been prepared on the basis of the provisional value of these assets.

Financial prospect for 1958-59

The financial forecast of the Board for the ensuing year (1958-59) is detailed below:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
Total Revenue Receipts ...	112.62
Deduct—Working expenses (excluding Depreciation and Interest) ...	100.39
Gross surplus (+) ...	12.23
Deduct—Depreciation ...	7.08
Gross surplus (+) ...	5.15
Deduct—
(i) Interest on loan .. 28.79
(ii) Interest to Depreciation Reserve Fund ... .40
	29.19
Net deficit (—).	24.04

The deficit of Rs. 24.04 lakhs during 1958-59 is mainly due to interest charges payable on Government loan. The loan advanced by the State Government is mostly for rural electrification schemes which do not yield sufficient revenue during the first few years of operation.

Loans to the Board

The State Government advanced a sum of Rs. 126.616 lakhs to the Board during 1957-58 as loan for execution of the following schemes:—

	Rs. Lakhs.
(a) Long term loan for normal extension to the existing schemes ...	40.000
(b) Long term loan for schemes under Second Five-Year Plan ..	56.290
(c) Long term loan for electrification schemes sponsored by R/R Department ...	20,830
(d) Long term loan for additional C.D.P. Scheme ...	9.496
	126.616

Besides the above, Development Department raised a debit of Rs. 60,857 during 1957-58 for the cost of imported equipments for Community Development Project thus raising the total loan drawn by the Board during 1957-58 to Rs. 1,27,22,457.

Depreciation Reserve

The amount accumulated in the Depreciation Reserve Fund up to 31st March 1958 is Rs. 13.48 lakhs. The amount is not invested outside the Board's Fund. The Board borrowed a sum of Rs. 2.00 lakhs from the Depreciation Reserve Fund during 1957-58 for expenditure in connection with bulk supply to consumers. The Board proposes to borrow a further sum of Rs. 2.25 lakhs during 1958-59 from the said fund for the same purpose. The amount will be repaid to the fund with interest as and when recovery is made from the bulk supply consumers.

Accounts and Audit

The audit of the Board's account for 1955-56 has not yet been completed by Messrs. G. Basu & Co., to whom the audit has been entrusted by the State Government under section 69(2) of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948. The section has been amended to provide for the audit of the Board's account being done by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India or by his authorised person with effect from 31st December 1957, i.e., from the date of the publication of the amendment. But it would be difficult to prepare two separate accounts for a financial year and to get these audited by two different audit agencies. So the Accountant-General, West Bengal, has agreed to audit the entire period of 1956-57 as there is no legal bar to the audit of the entire period of 1956-57 being undertaken by him.

The Accountant-General, West Bengal, has taken up the transaction audit of Board's account for 1956-57. He is also carrying out the audit of arrear accounts of the pre-Board period.

Decentralisation of Board's account

Under the present system of working of the Board all payments are made centrally from the Head Office and the accounting of receipts and expenditure is also made centrally. The Divisional Engineers have been vested with very little financial powers nor have they been made drawing and disbursing officers in respect of the expenditure relating to their respective divisions.

This system results in delay in making payments and also makes correct budgeting and control of expenditure difficult. Further more with the rapid expansion of the activities of the Board, the centralised system has been proving to be unworkable. The Board has decided to introduce the system of accounts on the model of the Government P.W.D. system. Necessary steps are already being taken to introduce the P.W.D. accounting system with effect from 1st April 1959 and Divisional Accountants for the purpose are being provided by the Accountant-General, West Bengal.

During the year the Board decided that under the powers conferred by rule 50 of the West Bengal State Electricity Board Rules, 1955, the surplus funds of the Board may be invested in Government of India Treasury bills.

CHAPTER IV

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES

Load Survey

During the year under review (1957-58), the Load Survey was mostly confined to four districts of the State. The whole district of Nadia, Rampurhat subdivision of Birbhum, Kandi subdivision of Murshidabad and Sadar subdivision of Howrah district, covering a total area of 2,735 square miles have been extensively surveyed. Under this programme, detailed Load Survey was carried out in the following police-station areas:—

(a) Nadia—(1) Chakdah, (2) Chapra, (3) Hanskhali, (4) Haringhata, (5) Kaliganj, (6) Karimpur, (7) Krishnaganj, (8) Krishnagar, (9) Nakasipara, (10) Ranaghat, (11) Santipur and (12) Tehatta.

(b) Birbhum—(1) Mayureshwar, (2) Murarai, (3) Nalhati and (4) Rampurhat.

(c) Murshidabad—(1) Burwan, (2) Bharatpur, (3) Kandi and (4) Khargram.

(d) Howrah—(1) Bally, (2) Domjur, (3) Jagacha, (4) Jagatballavpur, (5) Panchla and (6) Sankrail.

Most of the villages within the said area wherever the population exceeds one thousand were surveyed and the total number of villages surveyed during the year under review was 380.

Out of the total number of 380 places surveyed during the year under review, some 61 places might be recommended for electrification but it was found that the following places deserved early electrification:—

(a) Nadia—(1) Simurali, (2) Madanpur, (3) Chapra-Bangaljhi, (4) Bagula, (5) Hanskhali, (6) Haringhatahat, (7) Krishnaganj, (8) Majdia, (9) Dharmadaha, (10) Anulia, (11) Aranghata and (12) Pyradanga.

(b) Birbhum—(1) Murarai and (2) Chatra.

(c) Murshidabad—(1) Salar and (2) Burwan.

It may not be out of place to mention another investigation carried out by the Commercial Division during the year under review. The Central Water and Power Commission issued a directive to submit a list of towns and villages electrified by the Board. According to the directive, a place is to be considered as electrified where any part of that place is supplied with power for any purpose whatsoever and the places are to be considered as village or town as per Census Report of 1951. To prepare the list according to the above directive, investigation was carried out and each place wherever there is any consumer of the Board was surveyed. The investigation could not be completed during the year under review and is being continued. However, the number of places electrified as per the investigation carried out so far comes to 194.

Tariff

With the introduction of the decimal currency system since 1st April 1957, all the standard and special rates and charges of the Board for supply of power were converted into decimal currency.

During the year under review there had been only a few cases of rate amendments. The main reason for the amendments was the maintenance of uniformity in tariff in difficult zones. In this connection it may be mentioned that there are at present only five types of rates—(1) Rates which are applicable to the consumers of North and South Calcutta Grid, (2) rates applicable in the whole of West Zone (other than South Calcutta Grid), (3) special rates applicable to Cooch Behar, Kurseong, Siliguri, Barrackpore and Sodepur, (4) special individual rate to a few bulk consumers and (5) standard rates for isolated diesel supply undertakings. However, during the period under review the following amendments of rates, were made. For the sake of uniformity the standard tariff of the West Zone (Burdwan-Mogra Grid rate) was extended to Mayurakshi area where the North Calcutta Grid rate was applicable up to 30th June 1957. On introducing the standard tariff of the West Zone in the said area consumers have been relieved to a very great extent. Again, the old standard rate for collieries which was applicable to Pandaveswar area was reduced and the standard tariff of West Zone was introduced in this area also. Some minor amendments in the rate structure were made in the case of rate H of the standard tariffs of the Board. In addition to this, the rate of Power Factor surcharge was amended in the case of those grids which are fed with D.V.C. Power.

Undertakings taken over by Board

During the year under review, two licenses had been revoked and the Board sanctioned schemes for electrification of these two places namely, Amta and Kharagpur.

Special concessional rate for small scale and cottage industries

As mentioned in the Administrative Report for 1955-56, the Board has introduced a special concessional rate for small scale and cottage industries. During 1956-57, 39 consumers who were taking supply from grid and another consumer taking his supply from a diesel generating station were granted this rate. During 1957-58, 90 consumers fed from our different grids and 20 consumers fed from our diesel stations were granted this rate.

NOTIFICATIONS

Subject: Realisation of dues of Rehabilitation Finance Administration, New Delhi, together with interest from their borrowers as arrears of land revenue.

No. TM/TF.IV/RFA/827.—2nd March 1962.—The Rehabilitation Finance Administration, New Delhi, having been merged with the Ministry of Finance, it has been decided in supersession of this Office notification Nos. TM/TF/356, dated 4th April 1952, and TM/TF/372, dated 11th June 1952, that the dues of the Rehabilitation Finance Administration, New Delhi, should henceforth be remitted by the District Collectors direct to that office by means of Bank Drafts. The District Officers in West Bengal are, therefore, requested to ensure that the dues of the said Administration, realised in their districts during a month are remitted by Bank Draft to the "Government of India, Ministry of Finance (D.E.A.), Rehabilitation Finance Administration, Church Road, New Delhi", by the 5th of the following month duly supported by schedules containing full particulars in the enclosed form. Any particulars regarding the name of the borrowers or the loan Account Numbers subsequently required by the Government of India, Rehabilitation Finance Administration, for proper adjustment of the amounts against the accounts of the respective loanees should be promptly supplied to them.

2. The dues as and when collected should be initially classified in the treasury accounts under the Central head "S. Deposits and Advances—Part II Deposits not bearing interest—(c) other Deposit Accounts—Departmental and Judicial Deposits—Civil Deposits—Deposits of Rehabilitation Finance Administration" and at the close of the month the entire credit appearing under this head should be remitted by Draft as indicated in paragraph 1 above, the debit on account of the Bank Draft appearing in the Central list of payment of a month being invariably equal to the credit under the same head in the Central Cash Account of the previous month so that there may not remain any credit outstanding at the close of the month. The Collectors should instruct the Treasury Officers accordingly. The nomenclature of the Deposit head would change to "U—Deposits and Advances—Part II Deposits not bearing interest.....etc. Civil Deposits —Deposits of Rehabilitation Finance Administration" with effect from 1st April 1962 as per this office No. TM/NS/18-2/1892, dated 22nd January 1962, addressed to the Treasury/Sub-Treasury Officers.

3. It would not now be necessary for the Collectors to submit to this office, the detailed statements of the Deposits henceforth realised as the amounts would be remitted by them direct to the Government of India.

No. 742-I.R./IR/11L-157(A)/61.—2nd March 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2432-I.R./IR/11L-157(A)/61, dated the 10th May 1961, the Industrial dispute between Messrs. Associated Pigments Ltd. (No. 2), 260 Barrackpore Trunk Road, P.O. Sukchar, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by the Associated Pigments Workers' Union, R. P. Gupta Path, P.O. Titaghur, 24-Parganas, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Associated Pigments Ltd. (No. 2), 260 Barrackpore Trunk Road, P.O. Sukchar, 24-Parganas and their workmen represented by the Associated Pigments Workers' Union, R. P. Gupta Path, P.O. Titaghur, 24-Parganas. (G.O. No. 2432-IR, dated 10th May 1961). (Case No. 168/61).

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Associated Pigments Ltd. (No. 2), 260 Barrackpore Trunk Road, P.O. Sukchar, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by the Associated Pigments Workers' Union, R. P. Gupta Path, P.O. Titaghur, 24-Parganas, over the following issues, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2432-I.R./IR/11L-157(A)/61, dated the 10th May 1961:

Issues

1. Minimum Wages and Dearness Allowance.
2. Grade and Scale of Pay.
3. Sick Leave and Casual Leave.
4. Revision of Production Bonus Scheme.

Upon receipt of the order of reference on 17th May 1961, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

AWARD

Thereafter the workmen represented by the Associated Pigments Workers' Union filed the written statement on 19th July 1961 signed and verified by one Shri Ram Babu Saha described as the President of the aforesaid Union.

The employers, i.e., Messrs. Associated Pigments Ltd. (No. 2) then filed the written statement on 28th December 1961 duly signed and verified by Shri J. P. Narain described as the Factory Manager of the Industry.

The Company authorised their Labour Adviser, Shri J. R. Jain, to represent them in the proceedings before the Tribunal.

After several adjournments the dispute was fixed for positive hearing on 20th February 1962. In the meantime on 8th February 1962 a petition was filed by the Company stating therein that a tripartite settlement through the intervention of the Conciliation Officer had been arrived at between the parties on 12th January 1962. The Company along with the petition filed a copy of the memorandum of settlement which had been arrived at between the parties. It appears from the memorandum of settlement that it was duly signed for the workmen by Shri Ram Babu Saha, President of the Union, Md. Hadish, Secretary of the Union and Tej Pratap Singh, workman, and on behalf of the employers it was signed by Shri J. P. Narain, Factory Manager and Shri J. R. Jain, Labour Adviser. It is clearly stated in paragraph 5 of the memorandum of settlement that the workmen entering into the settlement are not interested in pursuing the case before the Tribunal. It is also to be noted that in spite of the fact that the memorandum of settlement was filed on 8th February 1962, none on behalf of the workmen came forward to challenge the memorandum of settlement or, otherwise, to proceed with the case. Apparently, the memorandum of settlement is signed by the proper representatives of the parties. Therefore, the position is that in accordance with the settlement made between the parties, the workmen represented by the Union as mentioned in the order of reference are not willing to pursue the dispute and wish that the proceedings might be dropped and that a "no dispute" award might be passed. I accordingly pass a "no dispute" award.

K. K. MITRA,
Judge,
Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

The 22nd February 1962.

By order of the Governor,
S. C. MUKHERJEE, Asst. Secy.

No. 706-I.R./IR/8L-33(A)/61.—27th February 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3188-I.R./IR/8L-33(A)/61, dated the 15th June 1961, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Sri Sri Lokenath Cotton Mills, Baruipur, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by the Sri Sri Lokenath Cotton Mills Workers' Union, Baruipur, 24-Parganas, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Seventh Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Seventh Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Sri Sri Lokenath Cotton Mills, Baruipur, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by the Sri Sri Lokenath Cotton Mills Workers' Union, Baruipur, 24-Parganas. (Case No. VIII-215/61).

BEFORE THE SEVENTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. K. RAY, Judge, Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

The above dispute over the issue given in the order of reference was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3188I.R./IR/8L-33(A)/61, dated the 15th June 1961.

The only issue referred for decision stands thus:

Issue

1. Whether the termination of employment of Shri S. Mukherjee and Shri N. K. Roy is justified?

To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

Notices of the present reference were duly served upon the parties and they appeared and filed their written statements. After necessary preliminary proceedings, the case was fixed for final hearing. At this stage, both the concerned workers filed separate petitions before the Tribunal stating that they had amicably settled their disputes with the Company and so they did not want to proceed with the case. The Union representing the workmen of that concerned Company was duly informed of these petitions and the Union also accepted the petitions and an officer of the Union made endorsements on the petitions stating that the Union would not pursue the dispute with regard to the two concerned workers further. In view of the aforesaid position, the dispute under reference must be taken to have ceased to exist and accordingly the case is to be disposed of by a "no dispute" award.

In the result, I make a "no dispute" award in the case on the footing that the dispute under reference has ceased to exist.

S. K. RAY,
Judge,
Seventh Industrial Tribunal.

G. S. Atwal, Mechanical, Fabrication, Structural, Civil Engineers and Contractors, Asansol, Burdwan, and their workmen represented by the United Contractors' Workers' Union, Station Road, P.O. Burnpur, Burdwan, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the third schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Third Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Third Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

The reference is in respect of an industrial dispute existing at the time between Messrs. G. S. Atwal, Mechanical, Fabrication, Structural, Civil Engineers and Contractors, Asansol (hereinafter be referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by the United Contractors' Workers' Union (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

As usual after receipt of the reference in May 1961, notices were issued for service upon both parties. The Company promptly entered appearance but the Union was rather late to appear and filed its written statement of claim on 10th July 1961. The Company filed its written statement on 2nd September 1961. The Union since the filing of the written statement of claim on 10th July 1961 did not take any step whatsoever nor attended on any of the dates fixed thereafter. However, in spite of its repeated defaults the case was adjourned with a view to enable the Union to appear and show cause why the case will not be dealt with ex-parte. The Union was timely informed by letters, dated 9th December 1961, 19th December 1961 and 31st January 1962. But in spite of the informations the Union failed to turn up to take any step. On the other, the Company regularly attended on the several dates fixed for hearing of the case.

Therefore, in the circumstances, I have no other alternative but to presume that the dispute under reference is no longer in existence and as such a "no dispute" award is given.

This is my award.

No. 813-I.R./IR/11L-90/60.—12th March 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3753-I.R./IR/11L-90/60, dated the 21st July 1960, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Oberoi Grand Hotels (1938) Private, Ltd., 15 Chowringhee Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Oberoi Grand Hotel Karmachari Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order, being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Industrial Tribunal Shri Manjusree Mitra, a workman of the said Company, made a complaint in writing to the said Industrial Tribunal against the said Company;

Oberoi Grand Hotels (1938) Private, Ltd., in connection with Government order No. 3753-I.R./IR/11L-90/60, dated 21st July 1960 against the said Company (Case No. 278/60, under section 33A).

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

Present:
Shri P. M. LAHIRI, Judge.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by one Shri Manjusree Mitra, c/o Upendra Nath Sen, post office Agarpara, North Station Road, 24-Parganas, an employee of Messrs. Oberoi Grand Hotels (1938) Private, Ltd., Calcutta, against the said Company, in connection with Government order No. 3753-I.R./IR/11L-90/60, dated the 21st July 1960.

On 5th February 1962, the applicant Shri Manjusree Mitra put in a petition stating that he withdraws his case voluntarily against the Opposite Party. It appears that the applicant having settled the dispute with the Opposite Party does not want to proceed with his application.

In the circumstances, there being no dispute at all by the applicant against the Opposite Party, the applicant is permitted to withdraw the said application; hence, the case is dismissed.

Kohinoor Rubber Works, 35/1A Canal East Road, Calcutta-11 (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Kohinoor Rubber Mazdoor Union, 38 Manicktola Main Road, Calcutta-11 (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

AWARD

After service of notices on the parties, they entered appearance and filed their respective statements. Thereafter the parties were given sufficient time and opportunity to complete their tadbir and file their documents and statements, if any. Though the Company has availed this opporunity to some extent, the Union has not filed any document or statement whatsoever. On 16th August 1961, 289 workers of this Company filed a petition supported by an affidavit stating that they have or had no dispute with the Management, that they never authorised the Union Executive to raise such a dispute, and that the dispute raised was never espoused by them. Be that as it may, the last date fixed for hearing of this case was 15th February 1962, and on that date the Company was ready all the time, but the Union or anybody on its behalf was conspicuous by its absence. Since then up till this day nobody has taken any step on behalf of the Union. So, I am afraid, the Union no longer thinks it fit to pursue its dispute. In the circumstances, I cannot but pass a no dispute award in this case. Hence, I find that there is no longer any dispute between the parties.

This is my award.

AWARD

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3193-I.R./IR/11L-35/61, dated 16th June 1961, for adjudication upon the issue below:

Issue

Whether the termination of service of Shri G. S. Chari is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

On receipt of the reference from the Government, usual notices were issued to both parties. But the Union representing workmen concerned did not put in appearance on two dates fixed successively for the purpose of filing written statement by the Union. On the 3rd date fixed (30th August 1961) Company appeared but the Union remained absent. Thereafter both the parties remained absent and took no steps on three successive dates. On 28th December 1961 a special notice was issued to the Union fixing 19th January 1962 for filing written statement by it. On the fixed date (19th January 1962) neither party appeared nor took any steps in spite of the special notice being duly received and acknowledged by the Union long before that date. As a matter of fact the Union did not at all appear before the Tribunal since the receipt of the Order of Reference, whereas the Company appeared only twice. On 19th January 1962 it was presumed, in the circumstances, that no dispute was then existing between the parties and award would be passed accordingly.

But before the award was prepared, the General Secretary of the Union put in a written statement of claim on 22nd January 1962. He was asked to show cause of delay by swearing an affidavit. The required affidavit was sworn on 3rd February 1962, the cause shown was found reasonable and the Union's written statement was accepted. Next 21st February 1962 was fixed for filing written statement by the Company. In the meantime the General Secretary of the Union filed a petition on 12th February 1962 stating that the dispute had been amicably settled and a no dispute award might be passed accordingly. The petition was perused and the General Secretary of the Union as well as Shri J. N. Chatterjee for the Company were both heard on the matter and award was reserved till the date fixed, viz., today (21st February 1962).

In terms of the petition filed by the General Secretary of the Union on 13th February 1962, no dispute is in existence between the parties, and accordingly a no dispute award is passed hereby. The said petition be made an Annexure to this award.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Shri M. A. Sultan, Proprietor of Messrs. M. A. Sultan & Co., 33 Phears Lane (Chuna Gali), Calcutta-12, and their workmen represented by Calcutta Leather Workers' Union, 12 Arpuli Lane, Calcutta-12. (Case No. VIII-87/61.)

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri S. K. Bhattacharjee and Shri A. K. Sarkar, Officials of the Association of Manufacturers, Commercial and Traders, West Bengal.

For the Union: Shri Lenin Roy, Advocate and Shri Atul Chandra Roy, Pleader.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department order No. 996-I.R./IR/11L-209/60, dated 28th February 1961, and subsequent Corrigendum No. 3175-I.R./IR/11L-227/61, dated 14th June 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Shri M. A. Sultan, Proprietor of Messrs. M. A. Sultan & Co., 33 Phears Lane (Chuna Gali), Calcutta-12 (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Calcutta Leather Workers' Union, 12 Arpuli Lane, Calcutta-12 (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication in this case is as follows:

(b) Shri Misri Ram.

(c) Shri Ekadashi Ram.

(d) Shri Dewanand Ram.

To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

AWARD

Briefly stated, the case of the workmen in their written statement is this: Messrs. M. A. Sultan & Co. is a proprietory concern—the proprietor being Shri M. A. Sultan. Shri Sultan carries on manufacture of leather goods under the name and style of Messrs. M. A. Sultan & Co. Lately the proprietor changed the signboard of the firm and named it as Messrs. S. Mahmood & Co. and this change in the name of the firm has been with an ulterior motive. Nevertheless, Shri Sultan continues to be the proprietor thereof. The present four workmen were dismissed previously also by the present employer and an industrial dispute was raised in that connection. The local First Labour Court was, however, pleased to direct reinstatement of all of them. The Management was also directed to pay the said workmen their entire back wages for the period of their forced unemployment. But despite the award of the First Labour Court, the employer failed to reinstate the workmen concerned or pay their back wages in terms of the award. So, these workmen had to move the Labour Directorate, and on the intervention of the Conciliation Officer only they were reinstated on 15th November 1958. The workmen had to take steps for realisation of their dues also in terms of the award. On 1st January 1959 these workers as usual went to the factory to join their work, but the Management did not allow them to enter into the workshop. The Management further told the workers that they had been dismissed from service. No charge-sheet was issued against these workers nor was any enquiry held against them. No reason even was assigned for their dismissal and hence the present dispute.

The Company, on the other hand, inter alia, alleges in its written statement that the present Union has got no representative character to raise the present dispute and thus the dispute is not an industrial one. As to merits of the case, the Company's case is that the present workers after their reinstatement in terms of the previous award intentionally set fire to certain properties of the Company on 30th December 1958 and caused damage to the extent of Rs. 500. The Company lodged an information with the Police in this connection and subsequently filed a regular complaint before the Criminal Court. On the final date of hearing, however, the Management failed to appear in person before the Criminal Court and did not proceed with the case. It is alleged that the Company has been paying back wages to the workers in terms of the previous award in monthly instalment of Rs. 80 and depositing the same with the Provincial State Bank of India. It is further added that the workers in question did not turn up to join their duties after the said fire on 30th December 1958, and presumably they were afraid of the consequences of their misdeeds. Thus, in short, the case of the Company is that these four workers were never dismissed or discharged as alleged, but they were simply absenting themselves from work and thus abandoned the employment.

Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows:

Decisions

Before considering the issue on merit, I must consider the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Company in respect of the maintainability of the reference itself. It is urged that the present dispute is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute, and so this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the matter in issue. It is contended that the Union which has taken up the cause of the workman has got no representative character to raise the dispute. The workmen concerned are being represented by Calcutta Leather Workers' Union, and this Union is undoubtedly not a Union confined to the employees of this particular concern or this particular employer. The present workers concerned are no doubt employees of the leather section or leather unit of the present employer, and the Union in question is an omnibus Union for the leather workers of the Calcutta region. The evidence is that workers of about 135 such Companies are members of this Union. An application (vide Ext. A) purported to have been signed by certain employees of Shri M. A. Sultan has been filed before me and the contention of the Company is that most of the employees of the Company are not members of the said Union, and thus the cause of these four workmen was never taken up or supported by the workers of the concern. Four witnesses have been examined before me on behalf of the Company, and only one of them says something in this connection, and he is O.P.W. 1, Shri Gani. He says that he is not a member of the said Union. He also adds in his examination-in-chief that Ram Nagina, Sukdeo, Hariram and Jhari Ram also are not members of that Union. The application (Ext. A) is purported to have been signed by about twenty persons. But in his cross-examination, Shri Gani says that he never saw the Membership Register of the Union and that he thinks (thus simply surmises) that the said four persons are not members of the Union. Thus I have reasons to believe that the witness Gani has no personal knowledge or competence to say that the said four persons are not really members of the Union. None of those four persons have been examined before me. Shri Gani was one of the three coolies employed by Shri Sultan at the relevant time for carrying materials to and from the factory. But admittedly Shri M. A. Sultan is the sole proprietor of the two different industries—leather factory and Iron works—housed in the same premises. Shri Gani may be one of the workers of the leather factory, but the application marked Ext. A includes twenty names. At the relevant time, the total number of employees of both these industries was 15/16 only and this is admitted by two witnesses of the Company, viz., O.P.W. 3 Fakir Mohammed and O.P.W. 4, Sultan Mohammed. It is also admitted by Shri Sultan Mohammed that the total number of workers of the leather factory at the relevant time was 7/8 only. Shri Gani also admits that the application (Ext. A) includes names of at least seven persons who are not workers of the leather factory. It is also clear accordingly that some of the signatories thereof were not the employees of Shri Sultan at the relevant time. On the other hand, a register has been produced by the Union to show that nine workers of this leather factory (including the workmen concerned) were members of the said Union. None of these nine employees has been examined by the Company to say that he was not a member of the Union. The name of Ram Nagina appears in the said petition, but it is not proved properly if all or any one of the persons named therein actually signed the same. Shri Gani's evidence is vague and not sufficient to prove this aspect of the matter or the genuineness of the signatures and thumb impressions thereof. The Secretary of the Union swears that Shri Nagina is still a member of the Union. So, I cannot attach much importance to this petition (vide Ext. A). The General Secretary of the Union swears that at least seven workers of the leather factory in question were members of the Union at the relevant time. The number of workers in the factory evidently fluctuated at different times, and accordingly the number of Union members also may have fluctuated at different points of time. But this much is clear that most of the workers of the leather factory were members of the Union at the relevant time. It is also clear that most of the workers of this leather factory were Hindus at the relevant time. So, there is no substance in the contention that the Union which has espoused the cause of these four aggrieved workers is or was not sufficiently representative. According to Shri Parash Ram and Shri Ekadashi Ram, three of the workers of this leather factory (besides the aggrieved workers) were also consulted in the matter of this dispute and they also supported the cause and went with the workmen concerned to the Union office to report about the dismissal in question. So, there is not the least doubt that the majority of the workers of this particular leather factory supported the cause and moved the Union to take up the case with the authorities. In short, I find that at the relevant time there were 7/8 workers including the workmen concerned in the leather factory in question, and at least seven of these workers made a common cause and moved the Union actively. So, a very large section of the employees of this particular industry having supported the cause, the particular dispute of the four aggrieved workers has actually been transformed into an industrial dispute. Even if I assume that Shri Nagina, who is still an employee of this very Company, no longer supports the case of the workmen concerned for some reason, yet the dispute cannot be any longer held to be an individual dispute, because he had lent such support when the dispute was initiated. If some supporting workmen subsequently resile from their previous stand and withdraw their support during the pendency of the proceedings, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal is not legally affected thereby. However, I think, the majority of the workmen of the relevant time really supported the dispute irrespective of the question whether Nagina also supported the same or not. So, the reference is valid and this Tribunal has every jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the matter in dispute.

Now I shall take up the point referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The point for adjudication is whether there was any justification for dismissal of the four workmen concerned. The order of reference, as it stands, prima facie shows that the Government is satisfied that there has been dismissal actually, and I am required to see if the dismissal is at all justified. The case of the workmen also is that they have been arbitrarily dismissed or discharged verbally by the proprietor without any charge-sheet or enquiry and for no fault or offence of theirs. The employer, on the other hand, contends that the workmen concerned were never dismissed or discharged as alleged. It is added that after an incident of outbreak of fire in the factory premises on 30th December 1958 the workers failed to report themselves for duty, kept themselves absent from duty without leave or permission and without showing any cause whatsoever, and thus forfeited their lien on the employment. It is not in dispute that these four workmen were permanent employees of this concern. It is nobody's case that any charge-sheet was issued against these persons on or after 30th December 1958 in respect of any offence or that they were dismissed or discharged after any departmental enquiry. It is also not in dispute that they worked for this employer at least till 30th December 1958, and that they did not work or were not allowed to work from 1st January 1959. The question is whether the employer really discharged or dismissed them and thus refused to employ them after 31st December 1958 or whether the workmen voluntarily absented themselves for any reason from 30th December 1958. All the four workers have identical and common case on the point. They allege that they had worked as usual till 31st December 1958, but they were refused employment from 1st January 1959 by the employer for extraneous reasons only. The Company alleges that the workmen concerned after their reinstatement in accordance with a previous award intentionally set fire to certain properties (some leather goods) of the Company on 30th December 1958 with an evil motive and thus caused damage to the extent of Rs. 500 and thereafter they started absenting themselves from duty without any notice to the employer.

Thus while the workers allege that the Management purposely refused employment to them, the Management alleges that the workers intentionally withdrew themselves from work and absented themselves after setting fire to some leather goods. It may be mentioned here that the Management filed a criminal case also against these four workmen under section 427, I.P.C., but this case was not proceeded with, and the accused were all discharged under section 259, Cr.P.C. No charge-sheet was issued by the Management against them and they were not found guilty by any domestic tribunal also The criminal case, it appears, was filed long after the alleged occurrence. The Union had already moved the Labour Commissioner in the matter on 1st January 1959. If the workers themselves decided to abandon the work voluntarily as alleged by the Management, they surely would not have gone so promptly to the Union and complained to the Labour Department without waiting for the reaction of the Management in respect of the incident of fire. Whatever be the incident on 30th December 1958, the Union was approached within a day or two and by 1st January 1959 the Union had already taken up the cause and wrote to the Labour Commissioner. Thus this conduct of the workmen definitely militates against the probability of the Company's story of voluntary relinquishment of job by the workmen concerned. On this point, the witnesses of the two sides rather give two contradictory versions, and both the versions cannot be true. But from the facts and circumstances on record, I have very good reasons to believe that the Management purposely routed these workers and refused further employment to them. The reasons of this conduct of the Management is not very far to seek. The Management forthwith dismissed them on the fictitious plea of their setting fire to some leather goods for purely extraneous reasons. These four workmen were discharged once previously also, and the First Labour Court by its award, dated 28th March 1958, directed reinstatement of all of them and also payment of their full wages for the entire period of forced unemployment within a month of the publication of the award. In spite of this positive direction, the Company did not reinstate them before 15th November 1958, though the award was not challanged before any superior Court. The Company failed to pay the back wages also and only when these workers took further legal action against the Company, the Management undertook to pay the back wages in instalments only. So, there is no doubt that the Management has strong animus or grudge against these four workers, and feels sore against them. Hence, I have every reason to believe that the Management had been trying not only to avoid their old liabilities and change their service conditions but also to dispense with their services, if possible. So, the Management cooked up a story of their setting fire to Company's properties and unceremoniously chucked them off without any enquiry or hearing whatsoever I am unable to believe that the workers voluntarily gave up their employment as alleged by the Management. So, there is no escape from the conclusion that the Management refused to employ them either from 31st December 1958 or 1st January 1959. So, the question arises whether the Management had any justification for such refusal or dismissal. The Management issued no charge-sheet and held no enquiry. So, it is for the Tribunal to decide from the evidence on record whether there was any justification for such dismissal. The allegation is that the workers purposely set fire to certain leather goods and caused considerable loss to the Company. The workers outright deny this allegation. So, it is for the Management to establish the allegation. But I may at once observe that not only the story itself is highly improbable, but also the evidence on record is hopelessly insufficient to establish such a case. Four persons have been dismissed at the same time and on the same ground as if the four persons joined in a conspiracy and set fire as alleged. O.P.W. 1 Shri Gani alleges that Parash Ram and Misir set fire to the premises and that he saw the same with his own eyes. The alleged fire took place at 4 p.m. when work in the factory was going on in full swing. The factory is run in a single room, and a contingent of about 12 workers were actually working in that very room. There was a fire place or oven in this very room, and Parash Ram and Misir were working by the side of that oven. There were finished and unfinished goods by the side of the oven. Shri Gani says that he saw Parash Ram and Misir sitting there Admittedly, the workers are required to use mobil and other oil (evidently inflammable substance) for their ordinary work. Under such circumstances, can anybody believe that these two workers intentionally set fire to the factory or the leather goods as alleged before the very eyes of a dozen of workers? The story is highly improbable. O.P.W. 2 Shri Safi, an employee of the Iron Works, was working in a different room. He, however, gives a different story altogether. He alleges that there was an outbreak of fire in the room wherein Parash Ram and Misir were working. He says that there was a burning oven in that very room for the purpose of regular work, and the said two persons were working with polishing materials near that oven. Shri Safi saw a tin of polishing materials up-side-down on the oven, but he cannot say how the tin came to the oven or got up-side-down. It is also said that the leather hammer has to be heated on the oven for polishing purposes. Thus this witness has really nothing to show that the two workmen purposely set fire to any leather goods or the factory premises. Circumstantial evidence of this witness does not prove any such case. O.P.W. 3, Shri Fakir Mohammed, says that he was attracted by the hue and cry raised on account of the outbreak of fire and that Shri Sultan told him that Parash Ram and Ekadashi Ram (not Misir) had set fire. But the above two witnesses do not name Ekadashi at all in that connection. Moreover, his evidence is purely hearsay and cannot be accepted as corroborative evidence also, because Shri Sultan does not say that he told anything of the kind to Shri Fakir. So, Shri Fakir is not a competent witness at all. O.P.W. 4, Shri Sultan Mohammed, says that he was in the office room at the relevant time. He says that Parash Ram and Misir were sitting close to the oven, and the other two 4/5 ft. away from the oven and at a short distance. He adds that he saw the fire when he came out of his room. Yet he tries to say that he saw Misir pouring some oil in the oven from a small tin. If this witness saw the fire only when he came out of the office room, and if this fire was due to Misir's pouring some oil in the oven, possibly he could not see the pouring of oil itself, because his attention might be attracted by the fire and not the pouring of oil itself. If Misir alone was seen to pour oil mischievously, why the other three would be scared away or hauled up for nothing? Thus considering the discrepancies and other circumstances, I may observe without any hesitation that the story set up by the Management carries no conviction with me, and the evidences on record are too insufficient and meagre to establish a case of intentional setting of fire by anybody to the Company's properties. The real reason for the Management's action appears to be elsewhere as explained above. The four workers were given a bad name, so that they might be dismissed. Thus after carefully considering all the facts and circumstances, I find that there is no sufficient material on record that any one of these four persons intentionally set fire to any property of the Company or that they intentionally absented themselves from duty without being dismissed or discharged by the Management. So, there was really a dismissal or discharge for they were refused employment by the Management So, I direct that the workmen concerned be reinstated, and their services will be deemed to have continued without break Considering the capacity and financial condition of the employer, I direct that the four workmen will be paid 50 per cent. of their wages for the period of forced unemployment. I also

AWARD

In this reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act made by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 5056-I.R./IR/11L-308/61, dated the 17th August 1961, of an industrial dispute between Basusree Cinema and its workmen represented by the Bengal Motion Pictures' Employees' Union, there is only one issue, namely, whether the dismissal of Shri Upendra Nath Haldar is justified and what relief, if any, he is entitled to.

The Company which filed its written statement first, in paragraphs 5 to 8 raised a preliminary objection to the validity of the reference on the ground that it was an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute at all. The Union on the other hand in paragraphs 3 and 4 of its written statement filed after the Messrs. Basusree Cinema had filed its written statement contends that it is an industrial dispute. The first question therefore for consideration in this reference is whether the dispute referred is an industrial dispute.

Paragraphs 5 to 8 of the written statement of the Basusree Cinema run as follows:

"(5) That the dispute referred for adjudication is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute and as such reference is without jurisdiction.

(6) That Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union has got no locus standii to represent the cause of the dismissed employee.

(7) That there was at the relevant time no Union of the employees of this Cinema and further the employees of this Cinema were not in any way interested in the so-called dispute.

(8) That the dismissed employee was a member of Motor Transport Workers' Union which had espoused his cause after dismissal."

The Union's answer to these paragraphs is contained in paragraphs 3 and 4 of its written statement. These two paragraphs run as follows:

"(3) That this is fully an industrial dispute and the reference is fully within jurisdiction.

(4) That the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union is the only representative Union of all Cinema employees in West Bengal in general and of the employees of Basusree Cinema in particular. This Union is fully within its limits to represent Shri Upendra Haldar, the victimised workman, who is the motor driver in the employ of the Cinema. The employees of Basusree Cinema including Shri Haldar had been and are properly represented by this Union. Thus all that has been said by the Company in paragraphs 5 to 7 are fully contradicted as they are without basis and substance in them and paragraph 8 is contradicted as it is irrelevant."

It is clear, therefore, from the written statements of the Cinema and the Union that while on behalf of the Cinema it is contended that at the relevant time there was no Union of the employees of that Cinema and that the employees of the Cinema were not in any way interested in the dispute between the Cinema on the one hand and Shri Upendra Nath Haldar on the other so that the Bengal Motion Picture Employees' Union had no locus standii in the reference, it was claimed on behalf of the Union that this Union represented all Cinema employees in West Bengal including those of Basusree Cinema and therefore the dispute between the Cinema on the one hand and Shri Upendra Nath Haldar on the other became an industrial dispute.

On behalf of the Cinema only one witness, namely, Shri Nani Gopal Dutta, its Accountant, was examined and on behalf of the Union only the dismissed workman Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was examined. On the question whether or not the employees of Basusree were members of the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union Shri Nani Gopal Dutta does not say anything in his examination-in-chief although he seeks to prove Ext. 4 bearing the signatures of a large number of employees of the Basusree Cinema. In his cross-examination he is questioned about his statement as regards Ext. 4 and about Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union certain questions were put to him and his answers are as follows: "There is no Branch or Unit of Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union at the Basusree Cinema. I cannot say whether any of the employees of Basusree Cinema are individually members of this Union." Thus there is nothing in his evidence to indicate whether or not the employees of Basusree Cinema were members of the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union. Then, the dismissed workman Shri Upendra Nath Haldar says in his examination-in-chief that he became a member of the Cinema Union which admittedly means the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union when he was engaged as driver in the Basusree Cinema but before he was employed in the Basusree Cinema he used to be a member of Motor Transport Workers' Union and after he was dismissed he informed the Cinema Union about it. In his cross-examination he admits that he first went to the Motor Transport Workers' Union after his dismissal and told them that he had been wrongfully dismissed. But he could not say if the Secretary of that Union wrote to the Company or not about it though he remembers this that the Secretary to the Motor Transport Workers' Union told him to go to the Cinema Union as he was a member of that Union. He further says that he became a member of the Cinema Union from 1951 and although he said he might be able to produce receipts to show that he paid subscriptions to the Cinema Union in 1951, 1957, 1959 and 1960, he did not produce any receipt. Then as regards the other employees of Basusree Cinema being members of the Cinema Union he says "I do not know whether any of the other workmen of the Basusree Cinema was a member of the Cinema Union in 1960." This is all the oral evidence on the point. There is no documentary evidence at all to show which, if any, of the employees of Basusree Cinema were members of this Union at the relevant time, i.e., at the time of the reference or if any of them was a member of it at all. Clearly therefore there is a complete lack of evidence to show that anybody except probably Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was at any time a member of the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union.

It must accordingly be found on the evidence that the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union did not include in its membership at the time of the reference any of the employees of Basusree Cinema except probably the dismissed workman Shri Upendra Nath Haldar. The reason why I am saying that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was probably a member of the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union is that on the evidence it is far from certain, because Shri Upendra Nath Haldar has produced no tangible proof that even he was a member of this Union or when he became a member. He claims to have been a member from 1951 when according to him he was employed by Basusree Cinema. But his own letter to the Managing Director Ext. 7, dated the 4th June 1960, shows the contrary. In paragraph 2 it is stated there that he was working in Basusree Cinema for 3½ years approximately. Exhibit 5, the letter of the General Secretary of the Motor Transport Workers' Union, dated 11th June 1960, i.e., only a week after Ext. 7 says that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was under the Manager, Basusree Cinema, for more than three years and thus confirms Ext. 7. That at once shows that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was obviously telling a lie when he stated that he had been employed by Basusree Cinema from 1951. For if he was employed in the Basusree Cinema for about 3½ years by the 4th June 1960, the date which Ext. 7 bears, he must have been employed by Basusree Cinema for the first time sometime in 1957. If that is so and if he actually became a member of this Union after he had been employed by Basusree Cinema his membership of this Union could not possibly go back earlier than the beginning of 1957. It is admitted by Shri Upendra Nath Haldar that after his dismissal he first went to the Motor Transport Workers' Union and was told by the General Secretary of that Union to approach the Cinema Union, i.e., the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union. But his statement seems to me to be contradicted by Ext. 5, which addressed to the Manager of Basusree Cinema evidently took up his case. On the 11th of June 1960 this Union was taking an interest in the question of Shri Upendra Nath Haldar's dismissal. Exhibit C is a letter, dated the 22nd July 1960, from the Secretary to the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union to N. C. Kundu, Assistant Labour Commissioner, regarding the illegal termination of the service of Upendra Nath Haldar by the Management of Basusree Cinema. As he did admittedly approach the Motor Transport Workers' Union first and the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union at a later stage, it is not to my mind at all unreasonable to hold that he was not a member of the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union up to 11th June 1960 at any rate. The non-production of any receipts for the payment of subscription to the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union by Shri Upendra Nath Haldar would also point in the same direction. It is not unreasonable in the circumstances to hold that if Upendra Nath Haldar became a member of the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union at all he must have done so after 11th June 1960 and before 22nd June 1960.

On the materials on the record it must accordingly be found that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar if at all he became a member of Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union he must have done so after 11th June 1960 and before 22nd July 1960.

The question, however, whether Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was a member of the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union at the time of his dismissal or he became a member thereof after his dismissal is not as important for our present purpose, namely, for determination of the question whether or not the dispute referred to this Tribunal is an industrial dispute, as the question whether this Union counted among its members a considerable number of employees of Basusree Cinema at the time of the reference, because it is the answer to that question which will be decisive of the question whether the dispute referred to this Tribunal is an industrial dispute or not. I have already said that on the evidence it must be found that the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union did not include in its membership any employee of Basusree Cinema except probably Shri Upendra Nath Haldar himself.

It has been argued on behalf of the Union that the burden of proving that the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union does not include in its membership the employees of Basusree Cinema or a considerable section of those employees lies on the employer and not on the Union, for it was the employer who alleged that employees were not members of the Union. It was argued on behalf of the employer on the other hand that the burden of proving this was entirely on the Union itself which is in a better position to prove whether the employees of Basusree Cinema are its members or not than Basusree Cinema. On behalf of the employer, reliance was placed on a decision of the Calcutta High Court in the case between Express Newspapers Private Ltd. and the First Labour Court, West Bengal, and others 1959-60 XVII, F.J.R. 93 at page 99. Shri N. N. Gupta on behalf of the Union relied on a certain passage of this judgment for support of his contention that the burden of proving this point lies on the employer rather than on the Union. The facts of this case are that Messrs. Express Newspapers Private Ltd. which has its Head Office situated in Madras has a small branch office in Calcutta. At the branch office in Calcutta, there were four workmen including respondent No. 4 whom the Company dismissed from its service on the 17th day of September 1956. At Madras, the workmen employed by the Company have got a registered Trade Union known as the Express Newspapers Limited Employees' Union. In the Calcutta branch, there is no Union, as the Calcutta Lower Grade Employees' Union is not a Union of workmen of the petitioner Company. It is a Union of durwans, peons, bearers and similar lower grade employees of all kinds of firms, banks, etc., in Calcutta. Only respondent No. 4 amongst the employees of the Calcutta Office of Messrs. Express Newspapers Private Limited was a member of this Union and no other workman belonging to the petitioner Company either in Calcutta or Madras had anything to do with this Union. His Lordship after discussing the question as to when and how an individual dispute is transformed into an industrial dispute discusses the decision upon which reliance had been placed by the Tribunal in concluding that it was for the employer to prove that the Union was not representative and that the workmen in the establishments were not members of that Union, namely, the decision of the Management of the Hindusthan Times Ltd., New Delhi, versus Chief Commissioner Delhi 1956, 12 F.J.R. 105. His Lordship first observes that the Learned Judge forgot to look into the facts of that case which were as follows: The Hindusthan Times was employing 78 working journalists of whom 73 were members of Delhi Union of Journalists and of a staff of 50 working journalists, 48 were members of the said Union and that this Union had taken up the cause of the dismissed employee. Then his Lordship observes as follows: "It is in the background of these facts that it was held that once such an Union had taken up the cause of the workman, if the employer proposed to establish that the Union did not really represent the views of its members, then it was for the employer to prove it. It was not held that it was always for the employer to prove the facts relating to such representation. In such a case, I think the ordinary rule of throwing the burden or onus should be followed, namely, as to who should fail if no evidence is given. When a workman is represented by an Union of the workmen of the employer or a larger portion thereof, and if the employer alleges that the Union does not represent the views of the majority of the workmen or a large portion thereof, then in the first instance, it would be for him to prove the same. But if it is admitted or not disputed that the Union of the workmen of the particular employer or industry and if there is evidence on record, whether adduced by the employer or the employee as to the constitution of such an Union, then that evidence cannot be ignored. In this particular case, it has nowhere been stated, not even in the evidence by the workmen, that a majority of workmen of the employer Company were members of this Union. In fact it seems to me on the materials that it is more or less admitted that only one workman belonging to the Company is a member thereof and that is respondent No. 4 himself. On the proved facts that this Union has for its members workmen belonging to various firms, banks, etc., the learned Judge fell into an error in deciding the case on the ground that the employer had failed to discharge his onus of showing that the Union was incapable of representing the workmen so as to make it an industrial dispute." This decision of the Calcutta High Court does not in any way show that the contention on behalf of the Union, that it is not a Union of the employees of the particular employer is on the employer. On the other hand his Lordship has categorically stated that the decision in the case between Hindusthan Times, New Delhi, and Chief Commissioner, New Delhi, does not lay down the general proposition that it is always for the employer to prove the facts relating to such representation and that in his Lordship's view the ordinary rule of throwing the burden or onus should be followed namely as to who should fail if no evidence is given. From this and what follows in the passage quoted it is quite clear that the burden of proving that an individual dispute was taken up by a section of the employees of the employer is placed by this decision on the Union, except where it is admitted or otherwise proved that the individual dispute has been taken up by a section of the employees. Shri Mukherjee representing the employer relied also on section 106 of the Indian Evidence Act. This section provides that when any fact is specially within the knowledge of any person the burden of proving that fact is upon him. The Union certainly knows better than any one else who are its members. Consequently, section 106 of the Evidence Act imposes on the Union the burden of proving that a considerable section of the employees of Basusree Cinema are its members. It has led practically no evidence to prove that fact in spite of the definite contention of the employer in its written statement that none of the employees of that Cinema were members of this Union. In the circumstances, the only possible finding on the materials on the record is that the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union did not include in its membership any of the employees of Basusree Cinema, except probably Shri Upendra Nath Haldar himself who also became a member of that Union, if he became a member at all, between 11th June 1960 and 22nd July 1960, as already found.

Now the question arises whether the dispute referred to the Tribunal in this case is an industrial dispute. On the face of it the issue which raises the question of the justifiability of the dismissal of an individual workman, namely, Shri Upendra Nath Haldar, is an individual dispute. Section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act which defines an industrial dispute is in these terms—" 'industrial dispute' means any dispute or difference between employers and employers or between employers and workmen, or between workmen and workmen, which is connected with the employment or non-employment or the terms of employment or with the conditions of labour of any particular person." The use of the plural number in the word "workmen" does not of course necessarily mean that an industrial dispute must always be between one employer and a number of workmen. The use of the plural may be accounted for in either of two ways. It may be that the plural number had to be used in the word "workmen" because of the use of the plural number in the word "employers". It may also be that the plural number was used because the plural includes the singular also according to the rule of construction laid down in section 13(2) of the General Clauses Act which provides that in all Central Acts and Regulations unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, words in the singular shall include the plural and vice versa. If, therefore, the question is looked at purely as a matter of the language, as used in this definition, "industrial dispute" would not necessarily exclude an individual dispute from its ambit. But there is the whole scheme of the Industrial Disputes Act, and the background in which this Act had to be enacted. In the light of that background and the whole scheme of the Act it has been held in a number of cases that an individual dispute is excluded from the definition of "industrial dispute," although even an individual dispute can be transformed into an industrial dispute if a majority of the workmen of the particular employer or a considerable section of these employees takes up the cause of the individual employee primarily concerned in the dispute and makes the dispute their own. The earliest Supreme Court decision on this point is the case of D. N. Banerjee versus P. R. Mukherjee 1952, VI, F.J.R. 443 and the latest case on the point is the Supreme Court decision in the case between the Bombay Union of Journalists and others and the Hindu, Bombay and another. That was a case in which the dispute was in respect of the alleged wrongful termination of the employment of only one workman. At the relevant time the Management of The Hindu had nine employees at Bombay, seven on the administrative side and two journalists excluding the one whose claims were the subject-matter of the reference and the dispute was espoused by the Bombay Union of Journalists of which only one of the journalist employees of The Hindu, Bombay, was a member. The Union had other journalists working in different establishments as its members. The validity of the reference was successfully challenged by the Management of The Hindu before the Industrial Tribunal on the ground that there was only an individual dispute which was not supported by an appreciable number of the employees of The Hindu, Bombay. Their Lordships of the Supreme Court referred to an earlier decision in the case of Central Provinces Transport Service Ltd. versus Raghunath Gopal Patwardhan, 1957, I, L.L.J. 27 in which after setting out the three possible views on the question whether a dispute by an individual workman may be regarded as an industrial dispute within the meaning of section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Court observed: "The preponderance of judicial opinion is clearly in favour of the last of the three views stated above, i.e., a dispute between an employer and a single employee cannot be an industrial dispute, but it may become one if it is taken up by a Union or a number of workmen, and there is considerable reason behind it. Notwithstanding that the language of section 2(k) is wide enough to cover a dispute between an employer and a single employee, the scheme of the Industrial Disputes Act does appear to contemplate that the machinery provided therein should be set in motion, to settle only disputes which involve the rights of workmen as a class and that a dispute touching the individual rights of a workman was not intended to be the subject of an adjudication under the Act, when the same had not been taken up by the Union or a number of workmen." Then their Lordships go to point out that the same view was reiterated in the Newspapers Limited versus State Industrial Tribunal U.P. 1957, II, L.L.J. 1, and concludes by saying that the applicability of the Industrial Disputes Act to an individual dispute as distinguished from a dispute involving a group of workmen is excluded unless the workmen as a body or considerable section of the workmen make common cause with the individual workmen.

As I have already stated, the dispute referred in the present case is on the face of it an individual dispute. In order that it might be raised to the status of an industrial dispute a considerable section of the workmen of the same employer, namely, Basusree Cinema must be proved to have espoused the cause of that individual workman so as to make the dispute one of a class of workman and not merely of one workman. That fact has not been proved in this case.

On the other hand, on behalf of the employer Ext. 4 a letter purporting to be signed by all members of the employees of the Basusree Cinema to the Labour Commissioner, West Bengal, has been proved. This is a letter, dated the 6th December 1960. According to the evidence of Shri Nani Gopal Dutta, the only witness examined for the employer, there were at the time of dismissal of Shri Upendra Nath Haldar about 40 employees of Basusree Cinema. This letter appears to have been signed by only 31. The witness claims to know the signatures of all the signatories of this document, although he states he could not decipher the Hindi signatures. There are only six signatures which are in Hindi and there is also a thumb impression of one workman under which his name appears in Hindi. If these seven are excluded on the ground that the witness who seeks to prove them is hardly competent to prove them when he cannot even decipher them, there are still left 24 signatures. Of course this petition is dated the 6th December 1960 when evidently the dispute had been already raised by the Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union before the Labour Commissioner. At that time these employees were telling the Labour Commissioner that they were not interested in the dispute arising out of his dismissal. What is important in this connection is the date of the reference, 17th August 1961, and it appears that even before the reference a large section of the employees of Basusree Cinema was dissociating itself from the individual dispute already raised and espoused by a Union, of which only the individual workman involved appears to have been a member.

This certainly goes to show that there was no support for this individual dispute from a large section of the employees of Basusree Cinema. On the other hand, there is no evidence on the side of the Union to show that any section of the employees of Basusree Cinema supported the cause of the dismissed workmen. Consequently, it must be held that the dispute referred is not an industrial dispute and the whole reference is legally invalid on the ground that there was no industrial dispute at the time of the reference so as to entitle the appropriate Government to make this reference.

In view of the finding I have arrived at on the preliminary issue raised on behalf of Messrs. Basusree Cinema it is not necessary for me to record any finding on the question referred to this Tribunal for adjudication on the merits, namely, whether the dismissal of Shri Upendra Nath Haldar is justified and what relief, if any, he is entitled to. But as evidence has been gone into on both sides on that question and as the matter has been elaborately argued on behalf of both the parties I think I should, if only for the sake of completeness, record a finding on this question.

Admittedly, there was no enquiry into the charge-sheet Ext. F, dated the 1st June 1960, which was served on Shri Upendra Haldar. It has been laid down by the Supreme Court in the Punjab National Bank Ltd. versus their workmen 1959, II, L.L.J. 666 at page 682 that if no enquiry has in fact been held by the employer, the issue about the merits of the impugned order of dismissal is at large before the Tribunal and, on the evidence adduced before it, the Tribunal has to decide for itself whether the misconduct alleged is proved, and if yes, what would be the proper order to make in such a case. An earlier decision, namely, in Lakshmi Devi Sugar Mills Ltd. 1957-I, L.L.J. 17 lays down that in dealing with the merits of the dismissal of an employee the employer would be confined to the charge-sheet given by him to his employee when an enquiry was held into his conduct and it would not be open to the employer to add any further charges against the employee and the case would have to be considered on the original charge-sheet as it was framed. These rules have to be borne in mind in examining the question of justifiability of the order of dismissal of the workman in question. The relevant portion of Ext. F runs as follows:

> "You, in spite of previous warnings were irregular in your attendance for duty and you absented yourself from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 without any prior leave or permission.
> You have again been absenting yourself from duty without any prior leave or permission since the 24th May 1960 and thereby you have caused dislocation and inconvenience of work of the Company.
> Your above acts are serious misconduct. You are therefore asked to show cause within three days from the date of receipt of this letter as to why you should not be dismissed."

The charge-sheet concludes with an order on the workman in question that he was placed under suspension with effect from 24th May 1960 pending receipt of his explanation and enquiry into the matter and disposal of the case. The explanation of Shri Upendra Nath Haldar is Ext. D, dated 13th June 1960. He states here first that he received the charge-sheet on 11th June 1960, presumably explaining thereby his delay in submitting the explanation. He further states that he was wrongly discharged on 23rd May 1960 for an absence for a single day, i.e., 24th May 1960, for unavoidable reasons, and he goes on to say that he was first discharged verbally on 26th May 1960 and then served with a charge-sheet, dated 1st June 1960. Then he says about paragraph 1 of the charge-sheet that he was sick from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 and in spite of submitting Medical Certificate he was wrongly warned. About paragraph 2 his statement is that the allegations are baseless and untrue, that he was absent for unavoidable reason on 24th May 1960 and duly reported on 25th May 1960 but he was refused duty on that date. He further says that on 26th May 1960 he worked for the whole day and he was discharged verbally after the whole day's work. It is now to be seen whether the evidence on the record establishes the charge mentioned in the charge-sheet, namely, that he absented himself from duty from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 without any prior leave or permission and that he again absented himself from duty without any leave or permission since the 26th May 1960. Shri Nani Gopal Dutta says in his examination-in-chief that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was dismissed as a result of habitual absence, although, as I have already said, the charge-sheet mentioned only absence on two occasions, namely, from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 and again from 24th May 1960 onwards. Of course it might mean that though the order of dismissal is based on the ground that he was guilty of habitual absence without leave, though the specific charge was absence on one occasion, the absence from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 being mentioned as an instance of his previous absence. Exhibit G, dated the 11th July 1960, which gives notice to Shri Upendra Nath Haldar that he was dismissed from the service of the Company with effect from 24th May 1960 says that in view of his repeated failures to comply with the written assurances given by him in the past and in view of his deliberate negligence to care for the official warnings given to him previously, the Management felt that they could not accommodate him any longer in the service of the Company. Exhibit G therefore seems to hear out this construction of the statement of Shri Nani Gopal Dutta that he was dismissed as a result of habitual absence. In cross-examination this witness was not questioned on any portion of the long statement made by Shri Upendra Nath Haldar in his examination-in-chief or even on matters which Shri Nani Gopal Dutta according to Shri Upendra Nath Haldar knew. Shri Upendra Nath Haldar says that he worked up to the 23rd May 1960 and then on the 24th May 1960 he was ill and could not attend the office and so he sent his daughter with a written application for leave to Mrs. Rama Bose at whose house he was to attend in connection with his duty. On receipt of that application she tore it up and his daughter was told that he would not have to go for duty again and then in the afternoon on the 24th May 1960 he himself went to the house of Mrs. Rama Bose who was angry with him and told him that she was dismising him. On the 25th again he went to her and entreated her to retain him in service, but she did not allow him to work and on the 26th he again went to her but she did not allow him to work. On the 27th he had her entreated by Shri Nani Gopal Dutta, the cashier, i.e., the witness examined on behalf of the Company. On the 28th he saw Shri Nani Gopal Dutta again and he told him that he had received no answer yet. On the 29th he saw Shri Nani Gopal Dutta who told him that he should not be dragged into these affairs because he could not persuade the Management to do anything. On the 30th he claims to have seen Shri Nani Gopal Dutta again and Shri Nani Gopal Dutta went to Mrs. Rama Bose alone, and on his return asked him whether he was prepared to work and he answered in the affirmative. Shri Nani Gopal Dutta then asked him to accept his wages and when he offered him his wages Shri Upendra Nath Haldar asked him to settle the dispute. Then he claims to have seen Shri Nani Gopal Dutta on the 3rd of June next and on that date he told Shri Upendra Nath Haldar that he would not be able to make up the dispute and he should do whatever he thought proper. He speaks again of an attempt at mediation by Shri Nani Gopal Dutta and Jiban Babu, Secretary of the Bina Cinema, which is owned by the same proprietor as Basusree Cinema. There is however not a suggestion to Shri Nani Gopal Dutta on any of these points and one is left wondering whether this long story about the witness having seen Mrs. Rama Bose on the 24th and thereafter and about his having had discussions with Shri Nani Gopal Dutta and Jiban Babu could at all be true. That this witness is far from reliable would appear from his own statements. He now states in court that on the 24th he was ill and that he sent his daughter with an application to Mrs. Rama Bose on that very date and when his daughter came back he himself went to Mrs. Rama Bose on the 24th and also on the days following. In his own application Ext. 7, dated the 4th June 1960, to the Managing Director of Basusree Cinema he states first that on the 24th of May 1960 he could not join his duties for urgent family affairs for which he produced a letter on the same date but it was refused by the owner as the petitioner did not write according to their desire. What is of importance here is that his absence according to Ext. 7 was due to urgent family affairs but in his evidence he said he was ill. I have already referred to the fact that in this application he also states that he was a driver of this Cinema for three and half years while in his evidence he states that he was in the employ of this Company for over nine years. He says in Ext. 7 that on the 24th May 1960 he had no alternative but to take casual leave. He also claims in Ext. 7 to have gone to join his duties on 25th May 1960 but the Managing Director to whom the letter is addressed refused to allow him because he demanded a letter in which it should be written that he intentionally absented himself from duty and the petitioner refused to do so and so he was not allowed to join duty and verbally told that his services were no longer required. In his evidence he says he went to Mrs. Rama Bose on the 26th also but she did not allow him to work. In Ext. D, his explanation, dated 13th June 1960, he stated that he worked for the whole day on 26th May 1960 and was discharged at the end of the day's work. It is impossible to explain away the discrepancies between his statement at different stages as mere lapses of memory and to place any reliance on any portion of his evidence. He claims thereafter to have daily enquired into the office which informed him that a letter had been despatched on that matter to his address but he did not receive any such letter. In this letter, Ext. 7, there is no mention of the long story that he saw Mrs. Rama Bose who is merely a Director and not the Managing Director or that he had any discussions with Shri Nani Gopal Dutta or Jiban Babu. The fact that no part of the story was suggested to Shri Nani Gopal Datta in his cross-examination indicates that his lawyer also did not know these facts. Consequently, it is impossible to believe any part of this statement of Shri Upendra Nath Haldar. In the circumstances the charge that he started absenting himself from the 24th of May 1960 onwards must be held to have been proved. As to the other charge, namely, whether he was absent from 7th May, there is really no evidence before me, but Ext. D Upendra Nath Haldar's explanation on the charge-sheet states that he was sick from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 and that in spite of submitting a medical certificate he was wrongly warned. The fact therefore that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was absent from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 is admitted by Shri Upendra Nath Haldar himself. Of course he claims to have been sick and he claims to have submitted a medical certificate. As the entire fact that he was absent depends on this admission in Ext. D that admission must be taken to a whole so that it has to be held that he was actually sick from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 and he actually submitted a medical certificate, although he was warned for this absence. It must accordingly be held on the evidence that the first charge that he was absent from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 is proved although he appears to have been sick on these days and to have submitted a medical certificate in support of his statement that he was ill and the second charge that Upendra Nath Haldar absented himself from duty from 24th May 1960 onwards is proved and the fact that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar states in Ext. 7 that he was absent for urgent family affairs while in his evidence he states that he was ill goes to show that his absence from that day onwards stands unexplained by him. I find it extremely difficult to believe his long story that he approached the authorities from the 24th May 1960 onwards with a request that he should be kept in service.

The question now is whether this absence merits the extreme penalty of dismissal. It does not appear that Basusree Cinema has got a set of Standing Orders nor that the Industrial Employment Standing Orders Act, 1946, is applicable to it. The Act applies to every industrial establishment where 100 or more employees are employed or were employed on any day preceding 12 months and to such class or classes of other industrial establishments as the appropriate Government may from time to time to specify this way. Nothing has been placed before me to suggest that this Act has any application to this concern or that there are any Standing Orders governing it. The limits of the Tribunals jurisdiction have been laid down by the Supreme Court in the Indian Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. and another versus their workmen (1958-I L.L.J. 260). In the absence of any Standing Orders, what amounts to misconduct meriting dismissal must very largely be left to the discretion of the Management which is the best judge of deciding whether if the charges have been established, the workman concerned should be punished with dismissal or a lesser punishment would be enough and it is only in extreme cases where the punishment seems to be out of proportion to the offence that the Tribunal would be entitled to interfere. In this case the charges have been established, though as I have already said for the first charge, namely, his absence from 7th May 1960 to 9th May 1960 there appears to have been some explanation but for the second charge, namely, his absence from 24th May 1960 onwards there is little excuse. On top of that, there is the fact that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar appears to have been a habitual absentee. Shri Nani Gopal Dutta prepared Ext. 6, the statement of his absences during the years 1958-59 and 1959-60. In 1958-59 he appears to have been absent altogether for 71 days and during the year 1959-60 he appears to have been absent altogether for 58 days. According to the evidence of Shri Nani Gopal Dutta, for a part of these absences he was on leave. Under section 12 of the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, a person employed in an establishment for public entertainment or amusement is entitled for every 12 months' continuous employment to privilege leave on full pay for 14 days, to sick leave on half pay for 14 days and to casual leave on full pay for 10 days and privilege leave can be accumulated up to a maximum of not more than 28 days and sick leave can be accumulated up to a maximum of not more than 56 days and casual leave cannot be accumulated at all. It appears that Shri Upendra Nath Haldar was absent in 1958-59 and 1959-60 for 71 and 58 days respectively. Although a part of these absences was accounted for by the leave that was sanctioned to him the whole of it was not. It was open to the Management to take those facts into consideration in awarding the punishment for the offence which he committed by absenting himself without leave from the 24th May 1960 onwards. Although therefore the Tribunal if it was left to take its own view might not have awarded this punishment for his absence from the 24th May 1960 onwards, coupled with the fact that he had absented himself for a long time in the preceding two years it is not entitled to substitute its own view of the proper punishment in place of the view of the Mangement except where there are compelling circumstances to justify such a step, namely, when there is want of good faith, when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice or when the Management is guilty of a basic error of violation of principle of natural justice, as laid down by the Supreme Court in Indian Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. versus their workmen (1958-II L.L.J. 260) and reiterated in McKenzee & Co. Ltd. versus its workmen (1959-II, L.L.J. 285). It must accordingly be found that the order of dismissal is justified and the employee is entitled to no relief.

But as I have already found, the reference in itself is invalid. It has thus to be rejected on that ground and there cannot be any award on the point referred to this Tribunal for adjudication.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. B. D. Engineering Works, 2/12 Ultadanga Main Road, Calcutta-4, and their workmen represented by Peco Engineering Mazdur Union, 1 Gauribari Lane, Calcutta-4. (Case No. VIII-96/61.)

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri N. B. CHAUDHURI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri K. S. Mitra, Labour Adviser of the Company.

For the Union: Shri Mahadev Ghosh, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department, order No. 1123-I.R./IR/10L-57/61, dated 10th March 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. B. D. Engineering Works, 2/12 Ultadanga Main Road, Calcutta-4 (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Peco Engineering Mazdur Union, 1 Gauribari Lane, Calcutta-4 (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication in this case runs as follows:

> Whether the dismissal of Shri Manya Kumar Mondal and Shri Mantu Ranjan Das is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

AWARD

Briefly stated, the case of the workmen concerned in their written statement is this. The employees of the opposite party Company were very much ill-paid, and in order to ameliorate their economic conditions they realised the necessity of forming a Union, and the workmen concerned mentioned in the order of reference took leading and active part in enroling the employees as members of the Union. The Management, however, took serious exception to the Union activities of the two workmen concerned, and so it was seeking an opportunity to crush the Union and break the morale of the employees. Accordingly, Shri Manya Kumar Mondal was dismissed on 31st October 1960 and Shri Mantu Ranjan Das on 8th November 1960 without any reason and without any charge-sheet and in total disregard of the principles of natural justice. The Union concerned took up the cause of these two workmen, moved the Labour Directorate in the matter and hence this dispute.

The Company, on the other hand, in its written statement, inter alia, alleges that the Union concerned—Peco Engineering Mazdur Union—cannot represent the workers of the present concern or the two workmen concerned. It is urged that the present dispute is an individual dispute, and the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the matter. It is also submitted that up till now and at no point of time there was and is any Union for this Union. Shri Manya Kumar Mondal was caught red-handed on 29th October 1960 with some stolen pieces of brass rods and on 31st October 1960 he entreated to be let off without being handed over to the police. The Management agreed to do the same on his entreaties, for he offered to abandon his service voluntarily. In view of this voluntary abandonment of service by Shri Mondal, no further proceedings against him were drawn up, and so there was no question of violation of the principles of natural justice. Shri Mantu Ranjan Das was a temporary worker for four months, and after the above incident and on or about 7th November 1960 he abused filthily one of the partners of the concern in front of his residence, and thus caused much humiliation to him. Shri Das was recruited on the request of one Shri G. Samanta, and after this incident Shri Samanta apologised for Shri Das and Shri Das also voluntarily abondoned his service. So, no further action was taken against Shri Das also. Hence, it is contended that, in fact, there was no dismissal of either of these two workmen.

Decisions

Before entering into the merit of the issue mentioned above, I must consider the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Company against the validity of the reference. It is contended that the present dispute is an individual one and was never transformed into an industrial dispute. The real dispute is in respect of dismissal of two workmen of Messrs. B. D. Engineering Works. I have been asked to consider if there is any justification for dismissal of those two workmen only. Thus evidently the real grievance is of two individual workmen only who allege that they were unjustly and arbitrarily dismissed by the Management. So, unless the cause of these two workmen is supported or taken up by a substantial or considerable section of the employees of the present Company or the employer concerned, the prima facie individual dispute cannot be transformed into an industrial dispute within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act. It has been held in numerous cases by Superior Courts that a dispute between an individual employee and his employer cannot be an industrial dispute unless the cause has been espoused by the other workmen of the establishment or at least by a substantial or appreciable section thereof and it becomes a collective dispute. So, according to the accepted view of law on the point, the dispute of these two particular employees with their employer cannot be an industrial dispute unless a substantial section of the employees of the same employer espouse their cause. There are at present 5/6 employees only under the employer concerned, and it is the positive evidence of the Company that none of the present employees actually support the cause of these two workmen. This evidence not only goes unchallenged, but the workmen concerned also admit before me in their deposition that no other workmen of B. D. Engineering Works are members of the Union which took up their cause before the Labour Authorities and the present Tribunal. Admittedly, these two workers alone approached Shri Mani Mukherjee, General Secretary of the Peco Engineering Mazdur Union, and no other worker of B. D. Engineering Works ever went to Mani Babu in this connection. There is not an iota of evidence to show that the other workers of the employer were actually consulted by anybody at any time or that they supported the case of these two workmen. From the deposition of Shri Mantu Ranjan Das (P.W. 2) it appears that these two workmen approached Mani Babu about 20 days after their alleged dismissal and reported the matter of dismissal to him. If Shri Manya Kumar Mandal is to be believed, he himself became a member of the said Union long after his dismissal. On his becoming a member of this Union, it is alleged, Shri Mani Mukherjee moved the Labour Commissioner in the matter. Shri Das does not say that he at all became a member of the Union at any stage. Thus even according to the workers concerned, the Union represents Shri Mandal alone, and not both the aggrieved workers. The Company challenges the allegation that either of these two workers ever became a member of the said Union. Shri Mondal concedes in his cross-examination that he has nothing to show that he is a member of the Union. I may also point out that the Union whereof Shri Mani Mukherjee is the Secretary is named "Peco Engineering Mazdur Union". There is admittedly a factory known as "Peco Engineering Works," and as the name of the Union suggests, this Union is a Union of the workers of that particular industry alone, and so its membership also is likely to be restricted to the workmen of the factory of Peco Engineering Works alone. To a question of mine, Shri Mandal, of course, tries to say that workers of other Companies also are members of this Union. But from the above circumstances, I have reasons to believe that there is no truth behind this statement. Nobody of the Union ventures to face this Tribunal on the date of hearing. No Union official comes to say that either of these two workmen are members of the Union or that the Union has any locus standi to raise an industrial dispute in the matter. The Union or its Secretary practically did nothing before this Tribunal except filing a written statement on behalf of the workers concerned. Lately, the Union failed to take any interest in the case, and on the last date of hearing the workmen in the absence of any Union official engaged a lawyer at the last moment to conduct the case. Thus it is more than clear that the Union concerned was never a Union of the employees of the present employer, and that the Union is really a Union of the employees, of another particular employer. No worker of the present Company ever became member of this Union so long he had retained relationship with the present employer. So, the support, if any, of the Peco Engineering Mazdur Union is not sufficient to transform the individual dispute of these two workmen into an industrial dispute. There is no evidence or legal presumption in favour of these two workers to show that the dispute of these two workers was ever supported by any section of the workers of this particular industry or the employees of this particular employer. It is also not in evidence that any section of the old employees of this employer ever supported the cause of these two workmen. Thus in any view of the case, the present dispute is not an industrial dispute, simply because a Union purports to represent the employees concerned, the dispute does not cease to be an individual dispute. The Union concerned is not connected with the employer, and there cannot be any presumption that the employees of this particular industry do support the dispute. If the Union would have been a Union of this particular industry alone, there might have been a presumption—though rebuttable. In the case of Express Newspapers (P.) Ltd. (A.I.R. 1959 Cal. 265) his lordship has held that a Union unconnected with the employer, the employment or the particular industry concerned cannot transform an industrial dispute into an industrial dispute. In the case of Dimakuchi Tea Estate vs. Their workmen (1958 I L.L.J. 500 S.C.) their lordships of the Supreme Court also have held that the person regarding whom the dispute is raised must be one in whose employment, non-employment, terms of employment or conditions of labour, the parties to the dispute have a direct or substantial interest. In the present case, the Peco Engineering Mazdur Union have no direct or substantial interest in the employment or non-employment of the workmen concerned, because the members of the Union are unconnected with this particular industry or the particular employer. So, I finally hold that this dispute is not an industrial dispute and consequently the reference itself is invalid, and this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the dispute. So, I intend to express no final opinion on the merit of the issue.

However, I may incidentally mention that both the parties have adduced evidence before me on the merit of the issue also. It is the case of the Management that these two workmen voluntarily abandoned their employment and no opportunity was given to the Management to dismiss them. The evidence is that Shri Mandal committed or attempted to commit a theft in respect of three pieces of brass rods and kept the same concealed under his machine. The Management having detected this act of dishonesty and threatened to hand him over to police, Shri Mandal's fellow workers intervened in the matter and requested the Management not to start a prosecution but allow him to vacate the job. Shri Mondal left the job voluntarily and did not report for further duties. As to Shri Das, he was only an apprentice worker for about four months. After the above incident of Shri Mondal, Shri Das once abused

Shri Dhirendra Nath Chatterjee, one of the partners of the concern, and failed to report for work thereafter. Of course, no charge-sheet was issued against either of them and no enquiry also was held. But as the evidence stands, prima facie, there were definite charges against these two men and they had left the job, it is alleged, before any charge-sheet could be issued. However, as I have no jurisdiction to adjudicate on the matter in issue or interfere with the Management decision in this case, I come to no definite finding on the point.

In view of my above decision, I may at once find that the workmen concerned are not entitled to any relief in the present case before this Tribunal.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by Shri Sewji Singh, a workman of Messrs. Hindusthan Gas Company Ltd. The allegation in the application is that the Company dismissed him from service on the pretext of accepting his resignation and this fact was intimated to him by the Company. The Company in its written statement pleaded that the application was not maintainable because the Company's action in accepting the workman's resignation would not bring the facts within the purview of section 33A and secondly that there was actually a resignation by the workman and when the workman denied this, the signature to the letter of resignation was examined by a handwriting expert Shri P. K. Bakshi at the instance of the Company and it was found by him to be the signature of the same person as the writer of the admitted signatures also placed before him for examination. On the 2nd of February 1962 the date of hearing was fixed for 16th February 1962 and Shri Sewji Singh in token of his having seen the order signed against the order in the order-sheet. Even then on 16th February 1962, there was no appearance for him and Shri P. Dasgupta who was to have appeared for him told me that he was not able to contact his client. It also transpired on that day that Shri P. Dasgupta had not filed any letter of authority. The case was then fixed for the 21st of February 1962 for hearing so as to give the workman a chance of appearing and prosecuting his application. Even then, the workman did not turn up on the date of hearing. Shri P. Das Gupta came along on the 21st and told me that he had failed to contact him. The matter had therefore to be heard ex-parte. Two witnesses were examined for the Company. The first is Shri Tarit Kumar Bakshi, the handwriting expert, who examined the signature purporting to be that of Shri Sewji Singh to the letter of resignation, Ext. 1, along with a number of signatures of Shri Sewji Singh before his alleged resignation. The expert's opinion is that these were all written by the same man, and he has also said this in his evidence. The other witness examined for the Company, is Shri P. I Jain, the Production Engineer, who merely proves the signatures of the Manager to certain relevant documents including Exts. 3 and 4. By Ext. 3, dated the 10th July 1961, Shri Singh was told that his letter of resignation, dated the 8th of July 1961, had been accepted with effect from the 11th of July 1961. Exhibit 4 is another letter, dated the 20th of July 1961, by which the Factory Manager asked Shri Sewji Singh to deposit his attendance-card and other relevant documents confirming and establishing his identity as a workman of the establishment. The first was acknowledged by Ext. 3(2), dated the 12th of July 1961, and the second was acknowledged by Ext. 4(2), dated the 22nd of July 1961. The Sewji Singh appears to have written the letter, dated the 31st of July 1961 (Ext. 5) to the Company saying that he had not actually resigned from his service as falsely and maliciously alleged. It is strange that although Shri Sewji Singh received the notice of the acceptance of his letter of resignation by the Company on the 12th of July 1961, he did not write to the Company till the 31st of July 1961 alleging that he had not actually resigned. This, together with the fact that Shri Sewji Singh does not now turn up to prosecute his application seems to me to prove conclusively that Shri Sewji Singh did in fact submit his letter of resignation (Ext. 1) and that the handwriting expert is right in his opinion that Ext. 1(1) is the signature of Shri Sewji Singh who had also signed the other documents produced before him for examination. In the circumstances, on the merits it must be found that Shri Sewji Singh had actually resigned and what the Company accepted was in fact Shri Sewji Singha's resignation.

The next question is whether this application is maintainable. Section 33A presupposes the contravention of the provisions of section 33 which again prohibits the alteration of the conditions of service of a workman during the pendency of a reference under section 10. Such an alteration of the conditions of service must mean an alteration by the Company's action independent of any action on the part of the workman concerned. If the Company accepts the resignation of an employee what the Company does is really to give effect to something which is done by the employee himself, and it cannot be said to be the Company's independent action. There are two steps into termination of a workman's service by the employer's acceptance of his resignation. The first of these two steps is the voluntary resignation by the workman and the employer's acceptance of this resignation constitutes only the second and final step with which his employment terminates. Obviously, the second and final step would be impossible without the first. Hence, such termination of a workman's service is really caused by the workman's voluntary act of resignation, the employer playing merely a secondary role in the matter when he accepts the workman's resignation. The position, however, may well be different when the workman himself does not submit any resignation but the Employer received a letter of resignation purporting to bear the workman's signature and believing it to be his genuine signature, the employer accepts the resignation. The whole thing in such a case is due to a mistake and what the effect of that mistake on the ultimate termination of the workman's employment would be, need not be considered here, because on the facts found this question does not arise.

The termination of the service of the workman in this case, is, as already found, the result not of the independent action of the Company but the result primarily of the action of the workman himself and what the Company did was merely to accept what the workman had done. This view is supported by the view of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, Calcutta, in the case between Messrs. Macfarlane & Company Ltd. and Shri Sudhir Kumar Dhar and Ors., 1953 L.A.C. 695. On the preliminary point, therefore, it must be found that the application of Shri Sewji Singh under section 33A is not maintainable at all.

My award then on this application is first that this application is not maintainable and secondly that the resignation (Ext. 1) was actually submitted by Shri Sewji Singh himself and by no one else.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Bengal Rolling Mills, Sodepore, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by the Bengal Rolling Mill Workers' Union, 292/7 Upper Chitpore Road, Calcutta-5. Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal

An Industrial dispute between Messrs. Bengal Rolling Mills, Sodepore, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by the Bengal Rolling Mill Workers' Union, 292/7 Upper Chitpore Road, Calcutta-5, over the following issue, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 2931-I.R./IR/10L-109/61, dated the 5th June 1961.

Issue

1. Whether the discharge of Shri Prabhu Singh is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

Upon receipt of the order of reference on 12th June 1961, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

After service of notices the workmen represented by the Bengal Rolling Mill Workers' Union filed the written statement on 10th July 1961 duly signed and verified by Shri Nepal Roy, described as President of the aforesaid Union. The case as made out by the Union in the written statement is to the effect that Shri Prabhu Singh who was working as durwan in the said Company had been wrongfully dismissed on the 16th February 1961, after he had put in eleven months continuous service with a spotless service record. The Union along with the written statement filed a copy of the order of dismissal given to the workman by the employer.

Messrs. Bengal Rolling Mills Ltd., thereafter, filed the written statement on 14th August 1961 duly signed and verified by one Shri M. M. Singh described as Works Manager of the concern. It is contended by the Company that Shri Prabhu Singh was appointed as durwan on 12th September 1960 on probation for a period of six months and in course of his probationary period the employer received adverse report regarding the work of the durwan from the immediate superior officer. It is further alleged that the durwan Prabhu Singh flouted the orders of the Head Jamadar on many dates as specified in the written statement. Consequently when it was found that Shri Singh did not improve his conduct in spite of the verbal warnings given to him, the Company had no other alternative but to discharge him from service as he was found unsuitable for the job. It is thus contended that the employer took the action against Shri Singh acting bona fide and the workman concerned was still in his probationary period when the discharge took place.

After completion of preliminary stages the case was fixed for hearing on 29th November 1961. On that date none appeared on behalf of the Union. On 29th December 1961 Shri M. M. Singh representing the employer filed an application for time on the ground that a talk of settlement was going on and the said prayer was allowed ex-parte. Next the case was adjourned to 27th January 1962 and on that date an application was filed by Shri Ashu Mukherjee, the Vice-President of the Union, praying an adjournment to 28th February 1962. The prayer was allowed. The case was fixed for hearing on 28th February 1962. On that date none appeared for the workman. The employer was present before the Tribunal. In the circumstances I find that the Union is not earnest to proceed with the dispute. Prima facie it appears that the employer's action is justified inasmuch as the said workman had been discharged during the period of probation on the ground that his service during the period of probation was found to be unsatisfactory. Be that as it is, when the Union does not proceed with the case, the dispute ends in a "no dispute" award.

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Tribunal, a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was filed by Shri Bibhuti Singh Roy, a workman of Messrs. Bengal Fine Spinning & Weaving Mills Ltd., Konnagar, Hooghly, against the said Company.

And whereas in pursuance of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, notification No. 1916-I.R./IR/3A-1/58, dated the 13th May 1958, the said complaint was transferred by the said First Industrial Tribunal to the Second Labour Court constituted under notification No. 1727-I.R./IR/3A-1/58, dated the 26th April 1958, for adjudication;

And whereas the said Second Labour Court has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

ANNEXURE

Bengal Fine Spinning and Weaving Mills Ltd., Konnagar, Hooghly, against the aforesaid Company. (Case No. 33 of 1959 under section 33A.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT.
WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court

The Government of West Bengal in the Labour Department by their order No. 4100-Dis., dated 12th September 1956, referred an industrial dispute between the Cotton Mills of West Bengal including Messrs. Bengal Fine Spinning and Weaving Mills Ltd. and their workmen to the First Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. During the pendency of that dispute Shri Bibhuti Singh Roy, a workman of the above Company, filed a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act before that Tribunal on 14th November 1957. That Tribunal, as authorised by the Government of West Bengal notification No. 1916-I.R./IR/3A-1/58, dated 13th May 1958, transferred the above complaint to this Court on 9th June 1959 for disposal.

Findings

After several adjournments, the case was fixed for hearing on 16th February 1962. The Company was present on that date but none on behalf of the complainant was present. On 14th February 1962 the Company filed a petition stating that a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act regarding the dismissal of some workmen including Shri Bibhuti Singh Roy was pending before the Sixth Industrial Tribunal. The complainant or anybody on his behalf did not contest the truth of that petition. The Company enclosed a copy of the order of that reference with its petition. So it is clear that the question of dismissal of the complainant which is the subject matter of the present complaint is pending adjudication before the Sixth Industrial Tribunal. It is hardly proper that the same matter should be agitated before two courts simultaneously. Hence I hold that there is no longer any complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act in this case.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issue given in the order of reference was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4699-I.R./IR/4L-63/60, dated the 5th September 1960.

The only issue referred for decision is as follows:

Issue

1. Whether the discharge of Shri Sudhir Kumar Dutta, Driver, is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

After the parties had filed their written statements and after necessary preliminary proceedings had been taken, the case was finally fixed for hearing at Krishnagar on 6th March 1962. Both parties wanted the case to be heard at Krishnagar. In the sitting at Krishnagar on 6th March 1962, the parties filed a joint petition of compromise setting out the terms upon which the dispute under reference had been settled between them and praying for a compromise award on the basis of the said terms. I have considered the terms of compromise. These appear to me to be quite fair and lawful. I am satisfied that there has been a bona fide settlement of the dispute in terms of the petition of compromise. So, there should be a compromise award on the basis of those terms.

In the result, I make a compromise award in terms of the joint petition of the parties filed before the Tribunal on 6th March 1962 at Krishnagar. A copy of the petition is made a part of the award as an Annexure.

Government of West Bengal in the Labour Department by their order No. 560-I.R., dated 20th February 1957, referred an industrial dispute between Messrs. James Warren & Co. Ltd. and their workmen to the First Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. During the pendency of the dispute Shri P. K. That Tribunal, as authorised by the Government of West Bengal, notification No. 1916-I.R./IR/3A-1/58, dated 13th May 1958, transferred the case to the Court on 2nd March 1959 for disposal.

Findings

After several adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 14th February 1962. Shri J. N. Chatterjee, Deputy Legal Adviser of Messrs. Engineering Association of India, appeared for the Company on that date; but none appeared for the complainants. BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: None.

Present for the Union: None.

This reference has been made to this Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1122-I.R./IR/11L-18(A)/61, dated the 10th March 1961, for adjudicating upon the issue, viz.,—

Whether the termination of service of Shri Md. Faruque is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

After the service of notices on both parties, the Union Secretary took time on 25th April 1961 for filing written statement which was actually filed on the following date fixed, i.e., 2nd May 1961. The Company's written statement was put in on 27th May 1961. On 17th June 1961 the Union objected to the Company's engagement of a lawyer which was accepted. On 23rd June 1961 the Union filed a list of documents while the Company put in a letter of authority in favour of one R. S. Srivastab to represent its case. On that date the Company took time to file its list of documents subsequently. Time for the said purpose was also taken by the Company on 28th July 1961 and the list of document was actually put in on 24th August 1961.

Next, both parties remained absent and unrepresented on three following dates fixed. For both parties' appearance 24th November 1961 was fixed on which date the Company filed copies of documents with a list, but none appeared for the Union to take any steps. The Union was asked to file copies of documents by 19th December 1961. In the meantime the Company put in a letter of authority on 15th December 1961 empowering Sarvashri S. C. Sen and K. K. Moitra, President and Vice-President, respectively, of the Assam, West Bengal, Orissa and Bihar Employers' Association, West Bengal, to represent its case. On the date fixed (19th December 1961) neither party appeared nor took any steps. On 29th December 1961 which was the date fixed for hearing, both parties were represented, but the Assistant Secretary of the Union prayed for fixing another date for hearing. As such, 1st February 1962 was fixed for the purpose. On that date, the Company was represented, but not the Union. Yet another chance was given to the Union, and 7th February 1962 was fixed for hearing. But neither party appeared nor took any steps on the last date fixed, and it was presumed that no dispute between the parties was then in existence.

In view of the above, I proceeded to dispose of the matter under rule 22 of the West Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules of 1958 on the above presumption, as both parties remained absent without any sufficient cause, in spite of chances being given to them for conducting their respective cases.

Accordingly, a "No Dispute" award is passed.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by Shri Asaibar Singh, C/o Spences Hotel Employees' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, an employee of Messrs. BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri HEM RANJAN DEB, Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court.

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri P. K. Nandy, Advocate.

For the complainant: Shri Parimal Das Gupta, Advocate.

The original reference out of which this present complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act has arisen was made under Government order No. 4177-I.R./IR/11L-276/59, dated 27th August 1959.

The case of the complainant Shri Asaibar Singh, briefly stated, is as follows:

He was a durwan of the Spences Hotel Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and he was a permanent workman. On 2nd November 1960 he was granted leave for two months on account of a serious illness and he went to his native place for rest and treatment. He did not recover during the period of leave and had to pray for extensions of leave on two or three occasions and the extensions were allowed by the Company. His leave expired on 3rd March 1961 and he reported for duty on that day; but the Company did not allow him to join his work without showing any reason whatsoever. He sent two petitions on 7th March 1961 and 17th March 1961 requesting the Company to allow him to join his work. The Company wrote him a letter, dated 17th March 1961, to the effect that he would have to convince the Director of the Company that he would do his duty faithfully and loyally. He replied on 18th March 1961 to the effect that he had done his duty faithfully and would continue to do so. Thereafter the Company remained silent and did not allow him to resume his duty. So the complainant has been virtually dismissed from service. An industrial dispute between the Company and its workmen was pending before this Court, viz., Second Labour Court. The Company did not apply to this Court for approval of its action nor did it pay one month's wages to the complainant. Hence the complainant contends that the Company has contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act and that its action in dismissing him is unjustified.

The Company admits that the complainant was allowed leave from 2nd November 1960 and that the leave was later extended. But the Company denies that he was allowed leave up to 3rd March 1961. The case of the Company is that on 31st December 1960 the complainant applied for extension of leave; he was granted leave up to 4th February 1961 with a final warning that no further leave would be allowed. On 1st February 1961 he applied for extension of leave up to 4th March 1961, this was refused, as another durwan had been appointed in his place. His service was terminated according to the provisions of the Standing Orders of the Company. Even after another durwan had been appointed in his place, he was offered a durwan's job in an associated Company in Calcutta; he refused to accept that job. As the complainant was himself responsible for losing his job, the termination of his service is justified.

Findings

The Company has denied that it has contravened section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, but it has not denied that a dispute between it and its workmen was pending then before this Court. It has also not stated that it paid or offered to pay one month's salary to the complainant. So it is clear that the Company has violated the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Hence this complaint is maintainable. I next turn to the merits.

The Company has alleged in its written statement and also in the evidence adduced by it that the record of service of the complainant is bad. But this allegation is irrelevant in determining of the justifiability of the dismissal of the complainant, because the Company does not say that it dismissed the complainant on account of any misconduct or bad work. So the only point is whether the termination of the service of the complainant in the circumstances described by both sides is justified. It is the common case of both sides that the complainant was allowed leave up to 4th February 1961. The Company says that in the letter granting the leave the complainant was warned that no further leave would be granted to him. The complainant does not admit to have received any such letter. The Company has not produced any copy of such a letter. The Company has however produced a copy (Ext. A14) of a letter, dated 3rd February 1961, in which the Company has informed the complainant that it was not possible for the Company to extend leave up to 4th March 1961. In that letter the Company also informed the complainant that it had been necessary for the Company to employ another durwan. The Company contends that the service of the complainant was terminated according to rule 9(d) of the Standing Orders of the Company. Rule 9(d) reads as follows:

> "If any workman remains absent beyond the period for which leave has been originally granted or subsequently extended, he shall lose his lien on his appointment. The Managing Director may, however, condone at his discretion such absence if (1) the workman concerned returns within eight days of the expiry of leave and gives an explanation to his satisfaction of the inability to return before the expiry of the leave."

That rule clearly says that if a workman remains absent beyond the period of sanctioned leave, he will lose his lien on his appointment. Loss of lien is not the same thing as termination of service. Loss of lien by a workman only justifies an employer to take action for the dismissal of a workman. It is on evidence that the complainant was in the enjoyment of a sanctioned leave up to 4th February 1961. The only question is about his absence after that date. In Ext. A14 the Company has refused to extend the leave prayed for by the complainant; but the Company has not informed him that unless he joined by a certain date, his service would be terminated. It is true that when an employer terminates the service of an employee in accordance with the provisions of the Standing Orders which may be termed as conditions of service, it is not necessary to issue a charge-sheet, unless the termination of service is on account of a misconduct. I agree that the Company in the present case could terminate the service of the complainant in accordance with the rule 9(d) of the Standing Orders but the Company must satisfy me that it applied the above rule of the Standing Orders properly. The Company has produced copies of the correspondence that passed between it and the complainant. In some of the letters the Company has informed the complainant that another durwan was appointed in his place. But this was not sufficient. In my opinion the Company ought to have warned the complainant of its intention to dismiss the complainant unless he turned up by a certain date. If the Company had given such a warning, it was quite likely that the complainant would have tried to join his duty by that date in spite of his illness or he might have made a representation which the Company could think reasonable. So in this case the complainant has been kept in the dark as to the threatened dismissal, and when he turned up to resume his duty, he was told that his service had been terminated. It is true that the Director of the Company offered him an employment in a sister concern. Whatever may be the reason or motive behind this offer, this offer cannot justify the previous dismissal.

In view of the above considerations, I hold that the dismissal of the complainant Shri Asaibar Singh is unjustified. Hence I order that he should be reinstated as a durwan of the Spences Hotel Ltd. As the Company had allowed him leave for a very long period, I do not allow him any compensation for his forced idleness.

The above order shall be carried out within a month of the publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

Messrs. Hind Ice & Cold Storage Private Ltd. of 23 Canal West Road, Calcutta-4—Opposite Party.

For the workmen: Shri Moni Mukherji, Secretary of the Union.

For the Company: Shri K. K. Maitra, Advocate.

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Shri Sisir Kumar Dey and 18 other workmen against their common employer Messrs. Hind Ice & Cold Storage Private Ltd. of 23 Canal West Road, Calcutta.

Of the 19 workmen Shri Sishir Kumar Dey is the only person who proceeds with this complaint against his employer and the rest have not. They already withdrew from this case.

In short the complainant's case is that he was laid off. Subsequently he was retrenched without any justifiable grounds and without complying with the provisions of section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The Company has opposed the complaint by filing a written objection in which it has seriously challenged the maintainability of the present application inasmuch as there has been no contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Act. The Company has also denied the other allegations of the workmen.

Generally two issues require decision in a complaint under section 33A of the Act. They are:

(1) the fact of contravention, and

(2) the merits of the order of the employer.

Decision

Issue No. 1: The Company has seriously challenged the maintainability of the present application. Its contention is that in absence of any pending proceeding before this Tribunal, the concerned workman is not entitled to lodge this complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. There is no mention of any pending proceeding before this Tribunal in the workman's application itself filed under section 33A. Thereupon the Company seriously questioned the maintainability of the present application in its written statement. In the evidence of the concerned workman also there is nothing to show that any proceeding was pending before this Tribunal at a time when there has been the alleged contravention of the provisions of section 33. The alleged contravention if there be any must take place during the pendency of a proceeding before this Tribunal. In the present case there is nothing to show that the alleged contravention took place during the pendency of a proceeding before this Tribunal. Therefore, the present application is not maintainable.

Then again, Shri K. K. Maitra, the representative of the Company, has contended that the concerned workman has complained of that there has been change in his service condition by the Company's order of retrenchment, but in the case of retrenchment the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act are not attracted and in support of this view he relies on the decision reported in 1958 L.L.J., Vol. II, 518. In that case it was held that discharge by way of retrenchment does not come under clause (b) of section 33(2) and consequently the proviso to that clause cannot apply to such

In the result the complaint is dismissed as it is not maintainable.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Prem Hosiery Industry, 2A Baranashi Ghosh Street, Calcutta-7, and their workmen represented by Hosiery Working Men's Union, 88/2 Tripura Roy Lane, Salkia, Howrah. (Case No. VIII-230/61.)

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri N. B. CHAUDHURI, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri K. K. Maitra, Vice-President, Assam, West Bengal, Orissa and Bihar Employers' Association.

For the Union: Shri Parimal Das Gupta, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department, order No. 4227-I.R./IR/8L-36/61, dated 4th July 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Prem Hosiery Industry, 2A Baranashi Ghosh Street, Calcutta-7 (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Hosiery Working Men's Union, 88/2 Tripura Roy Lane, Salkia, Howrah (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The only issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication in this case is as follows:

Whether the dismissal of Shri Biswanath Das is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

After service of notices on the parties, both the parties submitted their respective written statements. On 16th August 1961 the workmen concerned filed a written statement. His case in his written statement in short is this: He served the Company for eight years as a Chainman. In the latter part of 1960, the opposite party Company proposed curtailment of rates and the workmen of the industry under his leadership raised a voice of protest against the proposal; and as a result he fell from the grace of the Management. On 21st December 1960 the Management sent a letter to him on the allegation that he had been doing defective works. He was called upon to explain within seven days the reason, if any, for his failure to make necessary improvement. He was placed under suspension also simultaneously with the issue of this letter. On 28th December 1960 he submitted a reply to the charge-sheet. On 13th January 1961 he received another letter with the intimation that he would be reinstated on his giving an undertaking in writing to improve his work within three months. As the Management had no justification for demanding such on undertaking he was obliged to plead his inability to do the same. After this denial, the Management intimated him on 3rd February 1961 that his service stood terminated with effect from the date of his suspension, i.e., from 21st December 1960. The Union concerned took up his case and hence this dispute. On 12th February 1961, the Joint Secretary of the Union filed another written statement on behalf of the workman concerned and pleaded a case exactly similar to that of Shri Das.

The Company also filed its written statement and inter alia alleges as follows: It is urged that the Hosiery Working Men's Union is not a Union of this factory, and the workmen of the present factory are not members of the said Union, and therefore the Union has no locus standi to espouse the cause of the workman concerned. It is accordingly urged that the present dispute is not an industrial dispute.

As to merit of the issue, the Management case is this: Shri Biswanath Das was a bad workman all along; and from long before the date of the issue of the charge-sheet he was warned on several occasions for his defective work both verbally and in writing. But in spite of these warnings he failed to make any improvement in his work, and the Management had to issue a charge-sheet against him on 21st December 1960. After the receipt of his explanation, the Management deeply considered the matter and decided to keep him in the employment provided he gave an undertaking to improve his work within three months. But Shri Das without giving any such undertaking took an adamant attitude and refused to execute any such undertaking. Accordingly, it is urged that his services were not terminated with any spirit of victimisation or mala fides.

Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows:

Decisions

From what I have mentioned above, it will be clear that the Management raised a preliminary objection as to the maintainability or validity of the reference itself. The learned lawyer for the Management urges before this Tribunal that the present dispute is only an individual dispute, and that it has not been transformed into an industrial dispute, even though the Hosiery Working Men's Union is purported to have espaused the cause of the aggrieved workman. So, before I consider the issue on merit, I must consider this preliminary objection and see if the reference is at all valid. From the issue framed, it will be clear that the subject matter of the present dispute is the dismissal of Shri Biswanath Das. Thus the dispute is apparently between the individual worker and the employer. So, this individual dispute cannot be transformed into an industrial dispute, unless the cause of Shri Das is actually espoused by other workmen of the concern. Shri Das's cause has been taken up and represented before this Tribunal by the Hosiery Working Men's Union. As the very name of the Union suggests, it is an omnibus Union and not a Union of the workmen of this particular unit of industry. Further it is the definite case of the Management that the workmen of the present hosiery factory are not members of the said Union. It is contended that this Union does not represent a single workman of this factory. If this contention of the Management be correct, there is no escape from the conclusion that the Union has no locus standi to espouse the cause of the workmen concerned and that it cannot raise any industrial dispute before this Tribunal. The expression "industrial dispute" has been defined in section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act. This definition was considered by their lordships of the Supreme Court in a case between the 'Workmen of Dimakuchi Tea Estate (Assam Cha Karmachari Sangha) and Dimakucha Tea Estate' reported in 1958 I L.L.J. page 500. There was considerable uncertainty regarding the meaning of the words "any person" used in the definition. Their lordships observed in this connection as quoted below:

> "the expression 'any person' in section 2(k) means a person in whose employment or non-employment or terms of employment or conditions of labour, the workmen as a class have a direct or substantial interest—with whom they have under the scheme of the Act a community of interest. Having regard to the scheme and objects of the Act and its other provisions, the expression 'any person' in section 2(k) of the Act must be read subject to such limitations and qualifications as arise from the context; the two crucial limitations are—
> (1) the dispute must be a real dispute between the parties to the dispute as intended in the first two parts of the definition clause, so as to be capable of settlement or adjudication by one party to the dispute giving necessary relief to the other; and
> (2) the person regarding whom the dispute is raised must be one in whose employment, non-employment, terms of employment or conditions of labour (as the case may be), the parties to the dispute have a direct or substantial interest. In the absence of such interest, the dispute cannot be said to be a real dispute between the parties."

From the above decision, it will be clear that an individual dispute will be transformed into an industrial dispute if the members of the Union concerned have a community of interest with the workman concerned or if they are vitally interested in the employment, non-employment, terms of employment or conditions of labour of the workman concerned. This matter was considered by his lordship of the Calcutta High Court in a case between Express Newspapers (P.) Ltd. vs. First Labour Court, West Bengal and Others (vide A.I.R. 1959 Cal., 265). His lordship observed in this connection as follows:

> "It is now finally settled that an individual dispute between an employer and one of his workmen is by itself not an industrial dispute which can be referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, but such an individual dispute might be transformed into an industrial dispute, provided that the cause of the particulars workman concerned is taken up by a majority of the workmen concerned in the particular industrial establishment or by a Union of such workmen. The Industrial Disputes Act is a legislation to ensure industrial harmony and when an individual case is taken up by a class of workmen then it becomes an industrial struggle and loses its limited scope. But a workman's case cannot be taken up by a Union unconnected with the employer or the industry concerned. The employer is not concerned with the workmen who are not in his employ. He cannot possibly have an industrial dispute or any dispute with such persons. The real test appears to be that as to whether the majority or a large portion of the workmen employed in the particular industry are concerned in the dispute or not. Where the Union is of the workmen employed in that particular industry, it may be presumed that when the union takes up the cause of an individual workman it signifies a concerted action on the part of the workmen who are members of that Union. But it is not possible for a Union of workmen unconnected with the particular industry concerned to take up such a cause and transform it into an industrial dispute between a particular employer and his workmen. In an industrial dispute, it is not always for the employer to prove the facts relating to the representation by the Union of the workman concerned in the dispute. In such cases, the ordinary rule of throwing the burden or onus should be followed, mainly as to who should fail if no evidence is given. When a workman is represented by a Union of the workmen of the employer or a large portion thereof, and the employer alleges that the Union does not represent the views of the majority of the workmen or a large portion thereof, then in the first instance it would be for him to prove the same. But if it is admitted or not disputed that the Union is not a Union of the workmen of the particular employer or industry and if there is evidence on record, whether adduced by the employer or the employee as to the constitution of such a Union, then the evidence cannot be ignored. If a large number of workmen of a particular industry become members of a Union which is not, strictly speaking, the Union of the Industry or the establishment concerned, the principle might be extended. The whole point is as to whether the employer is fighting a dispute with a large number of his workmen. Until that test is passed, an individual dispute cannot be transformed into an industrial dispute."

Similar view has been expressed in a case between Mahaboob Shahi Kulbarga Mills Ltd. vs. K. Bittal Kamath and another (vide 1959 II L.L.J. 196). In deciding this case, their lordships have observed as follows:

"The crucial test to determine whether an individual dispute has been transformed into an industrial dispute as defined in the Act is to see whether the workmen who espouse the cause of the individual have any direct or substantial interest in the employment, non-employment or conditions of employment of that person. The mere fact that a trade union espouses the cause of the person will not furnish necessary nexus between the dispute of the parties to the dispute to convert his dispute into an industrial dispute as to give jurisdiction to an Industrial Tribunal to adjudicate upon the same."

These principles have been approved and confirmed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Bombay Union of working Journalists and others vs. "Hindoo" Bombay and another (21 F.J.R. 207).

From the principles discussed above, it will be sufficiently clear that in the present case, it is for the workman concerned or the Union to establish that the dispute of Shri Das is actually espoused by a majority or a substantial section of the workmen of the particular industry who have community of interest with Shri Das. I have already pointed out that this is an omnibus Union and not a Union of the particular industry concerned. So, no presumption arises in favour of the Union in view of the dictum laid down by his lordship in deciding the Express Newspaper's case referred to above. As the Management unequivocally challenges the competence of the Union to represent the cause of the aggrieved worker, it is to be established by the Union or the workman concerned that Shri Das's case is actually supported by a large section of the co-workers of Shri Das. It may be mentioned that 13 witnesses have been examined before this Tribunal on behalf of the Management. The burden of their statement is that none of the existing workers of this particular industry is a member of the said Union, and none of them actually supports the cause of Shri Das. As against this, only two witnesses including Shri Das—the aggrieved workman—have been examined on the other side. Shri Das, of course, swears that he is a member of the Union concerned, but he admits that he has been a member of this Union for the last one and a half years or so. He adds that at about the same time, one Sunil and one Sankar also became members of this Union. He at first tried to allege that other workers also were members of this Union. But on further cross-examination, he was forced to admit that he does not know personally if other workers became members of this Union. He also admits that Sankar and Sunil are no longer employees of this particular industry. One of these two resigned from the service of the Company before the dismissal of Shri Das himself and the other after his dismissal. Thus Shri Das cannot speak of membership of any other worker except Sunil and Sankar, both of whom are no longer in the employ of the present employer. The other witness examined on behalf of the Union is Shri Santosh Kumar Ganguli, Vice-President of the Union. Shri Ganguli admits that this Union is an omnibus Union for the Hosiery workers of Howrah and Calcutta. He adds that the workers of Prem Hosiery Industry also are members of this Union. In his examination-in-chief, he says that 13, 14, 15 workers of Prem Hosiery were members of this Union in 1960. But Shri Ganguli also cannot name any worker of this concern except Sunil (resigned already) who was a member presumably not of his Union at the relevant time. Shri Ganguli further admits that he has no paper to show the membership of any worker of this particular concern. Shri Ganguli did know the contention of the Management in the written statement filed on behalf of the Company, and yet no proper evidence has been adduced to substantiate that a substantial section of the workers of this particular industry are actually members of the present Union. As against this, the Management has proved a petition (vide Ext. C) signed by all the 40 existing workmen of the particular concern who have categorically stated that they were never members of this Union, and that they do not espouse or support the cause of Shri Das. I may also mention that 12 out of these 40 workers have actually appeared before this Tribunal and taken oath to say that they were never members of this Union, and that they do not support the cause of Shri Das. I have already pointed out that the onus of proving the dispute to be an industrial one is on the worker concerned or the Union and in spite of this the evidence adduced on behalf of the Management is overwhelmingly superior to that of the other side. Not only the Union has failed to adduce best documentary evidence on the point which must be presumed to be in its custody, but also the oral evidence on the side of the Union is extremely vague and meagre. Neither Shri Das nor the Vice-President of the Union has the courage to mention any name of his Union member who is a workman of this particular industry (except Sunil and Sankar). But neither of these two named workmen was really employed by the present employer at the relevant time. On the other hand, almost cent. per cent. of the workers state that they have no interest in the present dispute between Shri Das and his erstwhile employer. Even if I assume that other members of the Hosiery Working Men's Union espouse the cause of Shri Das, it cannot be held that the prima facie individual dispute has been transformed into an industrial dispute in view of the dictum mentioned above. So, without further discussion, I may at once conclude that the present dispute is an individual dispute only, and it has been transformed into an industrial dispute. So, the reference to this Tribunal must be held an invalid and this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the matter at issue.

Thus as the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the Management succeeds, I cannot possibly lawfully express any final opinion on the merit of the issue. I may only incidentally mention that both parties have adduced evidence on merit also before this Tribunal. The case of the worker concerned is that the allegation of his inefficiency is only a fiction invented with a spirit of victimisation, and that the Management have no right to call for an undertaking from him. As against this, the case of the Management is that the work of this particular workman was found unsatisfactory from long ago and that he was warned on several occasions both verbally and in writing. Though at times he used to work a bit better, but often he neglected his work and the result was defects in his work and for that the Company had to suffer loss and good name in the market. The Management has examined several witnesses in this connection and they all say in one voice that Shri Das used to work so badly that they came across with maximum number of defects in the hosiery products dealt with by him. These are questions of facts and I should not express any final opinion on the point in view of the decision already made. This much I can point out that Shri Das was warned in writing once on 1st June 1956 and again on 13th April 1957, and there is no other written warning after 1957 and before 1960. It is alleged on behalf of the Management that in between 1957 and 1960 also several verbal warnings were given to Shri Das, but without any tangible effect on him. It is conceded by the Management and its witnesses also that defects are at times noticed in the work of other workmen as well, but it is alleged, Shri Das used to top the list of bad workers, and so the Management was compelled to take action against him. The Management contends that in spite of this, it was prepared to treat him sympathetically and give him three months' time to improve his work. But he proved adamant in his attitude and refused to comply with the Company's direction or improve his work. It is not unlikely that greater number of defects were noticed in his work, and this might have indirectly told upon the good name of the Company itself. But it is to be considered whether in the present case there should have been a discharge or termination of service pure and simple or outright dismissal without any formal enquiry. Shri Das served the Company for about eight years and all along he used to work as a Chainman. If he was tolerated for eight years I do not know why all on a sudden he was found so inefficient as to be discharged summarily without any enquiry and without any compensation. Be that as it may, as the dispute between the parties is not an industrial dispute, I have no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon the case on merit. In any case, the workman concerned is not entitled to any relief before this Tribunal.

This is my award.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by Order No. 4445-I.R./IR/9L-6/58, dated the 17th August 1960, referred under section 10 of the industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the abovementioned dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal, regarding a matter specified in the Second Schedule to the Act.

This dispute was previously referred to the First Labour Court by Order No. 6630-I.R./IR/9L-6/58, dated the 1st December 1959, for adjudication which has been replaced by the Sixth Industrial Tribunal constituted under Notification No. 3115-I.R./IR/3A-6 59, dated the 21st June 1960, and has in consequence been abolished by Notification No. 3508-I.R./IR/3A-9/59, dated the 11th July 1960.

The Schedule

1. Whether the termination of employment of Shri Sreeman Bhujel is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

This reference is in respect of termination of employment of Sreeman Bhujel, a workman in the Tea Garden of the Dalmore Tea Estate, Jalpaiguri (hereinafter called the Company).

The admitted facts are as follows:

Sreeman Bhujel was a workman in the garden of the Company for a number of years. The Manager of the garden warned him on two occasions—on 11th February 1955 and 1st June 1956—on allegations of insubordination. On the 2nd July 1957, there was a demonstration by a number of Company's employees some distance from the Manager's office and the employees holding the demonstration shouted slogans demanding bonus for the year 1955 and supply of firewood. The Manager Md. Tod, who was proceeding towards his bungalow from the weighment shed had to stop his car and after a police officer, who happened to be there cleared the way for him to proceed, the Manager drove to his bungalow. Next day, charge-sheets were given to Sreeman Bhujel and four other employees and all the five employees replied to the charge-sheets on 9th July 1955. Enquiries were held and the Management having found Sreeman Bhujel guilty of gross misconduct removed him from service.

The Union alleges that Sreeman Bhujel was the the Assistant Secretary of the Garden Committee of the Union and the Company victimised him for his Union activities. It is the case of the Union that the two warnings to Sreeman Bhujel in 1955 and 1956 were given to him without giving him any opportunity of defending himself. Regarding the incident on the 2nd July 1957, the Union's case is that there was a simple demonstration of the workers demanding bonus for the year 1955 and for supply of firewood, that the demonstrators assembled outside the office premises on the P.W.D. Road and they never obstructed the Manager from proceeding to his bungalow, that when the Manager stopped his car Sreeman Bhujel and some other employees went towards him and the Manager suddenly started his car and knocked down Sreeman Bhujel who had to be removed from the spot, first to the hospital and then to the Lines, that the charge-sheet against him contained false allegations, that there was no proper enquiry held and Sreeman Bhujel was not given permission to be represented by Shri Besterwitch, the Union Secretary, that the finding is perverse and the order of dismissal unjust and improper.

The Company's case is that Sreeman Bhujel was all along an ordinary garden labourer and his past record of service was unsatisfactory and he had been twice charge-sheeted and warned for insubordination. The Company denies that Sreeman Bhujel was ever victimised for Union activities. It is alleged that at about 5-30 p.m. on the 2nd July 1957 a number of persons including Sreeman Bhujel entered the office premises and started shouting slogans and thereby disturbing the work in the office. When the Manager Mr. Tod came near the office along with the Engineer Assistant Shri Roy Chowdhury, the demonstrators stopped his car. The Manager then sent the Engineer Assistant to the office with orders to close the office. The demonstrators collected in front of the Manager's jeep and obstructed him from going to his bungalow and they demanded that the Manager must pass orders for payment of bonus for 1955. A police officer who happened to be at that moment in the office of the Manager holding an investigation of a case of suicide came to the rescue of the Manager, dispersed the crowd and made way for the Manager to proceed to his bungalow. Next day Sreeman Bhujel and some others were charge-sheeted for holding demonstration within the office premises during office hours and for wrongfully confining the Manager from proceeding in his car, and they were all suspended till the investigation was over. Departmental enquiries were held and Sreeman Bhujel being found guilty of misconduct was dismissed from service.

The Company raised a preliminary objection at the time of hearing that the reference was originally made to the First Labour Court and a further reference to this Tribunal is illegal and not maintainable.

Decision

I first take up the preliminary objection raised by the Company. The Government first made a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act to the First Labour Court by Order No. 6630-I.R./IR/9L-6/58, dated 1st December 1959. The First Labour Court was replaced by the Sixth Industrial Tribunal constituted under Notification No. 3115-I.R./IR/3A-6/59, dated 21st June 1960, and was in consequence abolished by Notification No. 3508-I.R./IR/3A-9/59, dated 11th July 1960. Paragraph 4 of the present reference runs as follows: "Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to refer to the said Sixth Industrial Tribunal the proceedings of the industrial disputes between the said Company and their workmen, relating to the matter specified in the Schedule below, for adjudication in supersession of the orders contained in Order No. 6630-I.R./IR/9L-6/58, dated 1st December 1959, referring the said dispute to the First Labour Court." Now the question is whether the present reference to the newly constituted Tribunal is in respect of the proceedings of the First Labour Court or it is in respect of the dispute itself which was subsisting and surviving the abolition of the First Labour Court. In my opinion, the obvious answer to the question is that the present reference is in respect of the dispute which was subsisting and surviving the abolition of the First Labour Court. The abolition of the First Labour Court did not certainly extinguish the industrial dispute though the adjudication proceedings relating to that dispute before the First Labour Court were wiped off. The dispute having survived the abolition of the First Labour Court the Government was, in my opinion, competent to make a fresh reference of that dispute to this Tribunal under section 10(1)(d) of the Act. I, therefore, hold that the reference is legal and maintainable.

I now take up the matter in dispute.

There was admittedly a demonstration by Sreeman Bhujel and some other persons and shouting of slogans. There was a demand for supply of firewood. The Manager says that firewood was being supplied to the workers and there could be no agitation in respect of supply of firewood. I do not see anything to disbelieve the Manager on this point. There is no satisfactory evidence on the side of the Union that the Company did not supply firewood to the workers in the garden. P.W. 1 Shri Nani Bhattacharjee, the President of the Union, said: "The agreement in respect of supply of firewood was not implemented by the Dalmore Tea Estate till June/July 1957". This supports the Company's case that the firewood was being supplied at least from before the reference. From the evidence, it appears that there was some dispute regarding the cartage in the matter of supply of firewood. At the present moment, it is the admitted case of the parties that there is no dispute between the Company and the workers about the supply of firewood.

The main demand of the demonstrators was for payment of bonus for the year 1955. It is a fact that Sreeman Bhujel was an ordinary labourer in the Tea Garden of the Company. There is no proof on the side of the Union that Sreeman Bhujel was ever punished or taken to task for his Union activities. P.W. 1 Shri Nani Bhattacharjee, President of the Union, admits in his evidence "We did not write any letter to the Company furnishing them with the names of the office-bearers of the garden unit of our Union." So it cannot be said that the Manager had personal knowledge of Sreeman Bhujel acting as the Assistant Secretary of the garden unit of the Union for any time. It therefore follows that any punishment given to Sreeman Bhujel could not have been to victimise him for his alleged Union activities.

Now the question is, if the termination of service of Sreeman Bhujel for misconduct is justified. It is an admitted fact that Sreeman Bhujel was warned before 1957 for insubordination. The Company proves by documents—Exts. B, B1, C and C1—that he was charge-sheeted and warned on two previous occasions for insubordination—once in February 1955 and on the second occasion in May 1956. P.W. 1 says: "All the workers other than Sreeman Bhujel were warned at least once or twice, or even thrice during the course of their services." He then says: "Sreeman Bhujel was also warned." He said that no charge-sheet was given before the warnings but Exts. B and B1 show that charge-sheets were, in fact, given and warnings were administered some days after Sreeman Bhujel had been charge-sheeted. P.W. 1 further says: "I heard about the warnings given to workers and I also saw some of the warning notices in respect of these persons, but I cannot say in respect of which particular men. These warning notices were given sometime in the latter part of 1955 or in 1956." The witness admits that he did not write to the Company about the warnings and he has nothing to prove that he wrote to the Labour Officer about the warnings administered to Sreeman Bhujel and other workers. So, it is abundantly clear that Sreeman Bhujel was given two warnings for insubordination, once in 1955 and again in 1956 after he had been charge-sheeted, and that the Union never wrote to the Company challenging the legality of the orders.

Sreeman Bhujel and some other workmen were charge-sheeted by the Manager on the 3rd July 1957 for misconduct for having organised demonstration in the office premises of the Company and having wrongfully confined the Manager in the office compound and thereby preventing him from proceeding to his bungalow at 5-30 p.m. on the 2nd July 1957. Against these allegations of the Company, the Union states in its written statement that a demonstration was, in fact, organised and the demonstrators shouted slogans demanding bonus for 1955 and supply of firewood, but the demonstration was held on the P.W.D. Road, opposite the office premises of the Company and it is denied that the demonstrators including Sreeman Bhujel surrounded the Manager and prevented him from proceeding to his bungalow. The Union's case is that the Manager stopped his car near the demonstrators and Sreeman Bhujel and others having thought that the Manager had called them approached him, whereupon the Manager started his car and knocked down Sreeman Bhujel causing injuries on his person and that Sreeman Bhujel was immediately removed to the garden hospital and then to his residence. The Union denies that the demonstrators surrounded the Manager or prevented him from proceeding to his bungalow.

It is therefore the admitted case of the parties that Sreeman Bhujel and some workers assembled in front of the office building and held a demonstration and that the demonstrators demanded bonus for 1955 and supply of firewood.

Now regarding payment of bonus for 1955, the Manager Mr. Tod (O.P.W. 1) says that he had received a letter sometime in June 1957 from the Head Office regarding the profit position of the Company and two days after receipt of the letter he personally informed Sreeman Bhujel and others that no bonus for 1955 could be paid to the workers as the Company had sustained loss for that year. The Manager also says that a notice to that effect was hung up in the notice board in the garden. The evidence of the Manager is fully corroborated by P.W. 1, the President of the Union, when he says: "When the Company had expressed their inability to pay the bonus they gave their explanations to the workers." Even then, he advised the workers to start an agitation. He says in his evidence: "I asked the workers of the garden unit to agitate sometime in June 1957." It appears from the letter (Ext. E) that the Head Office informed the Manager that the Company having suffered loss in 1955 could not pay bonus for that year. Then it is proved by O.P.W. 1 the Manager and admitted by P.W. 1, the President of the Union, that the Manager explained to the workers about the profit position of the Company in 1955 and informed them that no bonus for the year 1955 could be paid. The President says that the workers could not suitably explain the details to him and he therefore asked the workers to agitate in June 1957. So it is clear that although the Manager had explained the profit position of the Company in 1955 and non-availability of bonus for that year, it was the President of the Union who in spite of the Manager's explanation asked the workers to agitate, apparently for the reason that the workers could not suitably explain the details to him. The demonstration was, therefore, made at the instance of the President of the Union and not exactly at the instance of workers themselves who had already been told about the loss suffered by the Company in 1955 and about non-availability of bonus for that year. P.W. 1, the President of the Union, further admits in his cross-examination: "there was an agreement that in case of loss of the Company, no bonus was to be paid for that year." If that was so, then it is not understood why an agitation was started demanding bonus for the year 1955. The Union President's only grievance is that the Profit and Loss Account of the Company was not given to the Union. From the evidence discussed above, it is clearly proved that the Company having suffered loss in 1955 the Head Office informed the Manager about the profit position of the Company for that year and the Manager in his turn explained the position to the workers and informed them that no bonus for the year 1955 could be paid to them. The workers must have understood what the Manager had told them about the non-payment of bonus for the year 1955. If the President of the Union had any grievance he should have taken up the matter with the Head Office through proper channel but instead he thought it fit to advise the workers to start an agitation for bonus for 1955 and thus invite trouble for all concerned. That is exactly what had happened. In holding demonstration some of the workers surpassed limits and came under the mischief of the Standing Orders. There is no clear proof that the demonstrators numbering about 200/250 had been holding demonstration all along on the P.W.D. Road, opposite the office premises. P.W. 1 has no personal knowledge about the occurrence. P.W. 3 Shri Ramlal Sharma says that all the 250 workers collected on the P.W.D. Road at 5-30 p.m. on the 2nd July 1957 and "started our march shouting slogans." He further says: "The Manager came to the gate from the office. We were standing towards the west and we were proceeding towards the east. The Manager then turned the face of the car towards his bungalow and we came and stopped in front of his car." The Manager being within the office compound and the demonstrators having come and stopped in front of his car, it cannot but be held that the demonstrators entered the office compound and stopped in front of the Manager's car and there was therefore an obstacle for the Manager to proceed. It appeared to both P.W. 2 Sreeman Bhujel and P.W. 3 Shri Ramlal Sharma that the Manager had called them but O.P.W. 1 Mr. Tod, the Manager, denies this. P.W. 1 Sreeman Bhujel says that when he and others had gone to the Manager, the latter started his car and knocked him (Bhujel) down and he had to be removed. P.W. 3 Shri Ramlal Sharma says that Sreeman Bhujel had to be removed to the hospital and then to his residence. I believe Mr. Tod that he never called the demonstrators to talk to them again regarding the bonus demand as it is the admitted case of the parties that the Manager had already told them about the non-availability of bonus for 1955. When the Manager did not call the demonstrators who might have assembled on the P.W.D. Road, it is admitted that a number of demonstrators came inside the office premises on seeing the Manager and stopped in front of his car and if Sreeman Bhujel was said to have been knocked down, it must be said that he was one of the persons, if not the only person, who must have tried to prevent the Manager from proceeding in his car. It is an admitted fact that at that moment a police officer happened to be present in the Manager's office in connection with an investigation. So, the office was opened at that time. O.P.W. Shri Roy Chowdhury who was an Engineer Assistant of this Tea Estate says that when they saw the demonstrators the Manager asked him to go to the office and tell the office staff to close the office and go home. He met the police officer in the office. The witness further says: "Then all on a sudden, I heard shouting which increased in volume and I went out to see what was happening and saw Mr. Tod in the jeep blowing the horn and he could not go as Bhujel and a few others were obstructing him." P.W. 2 Sreeman Bhujel in his reply to the charge-sheet given to the Manager stated: " . . . . . when the police officer spoke to us, we made room for your car to pass." This means that the Manager could not proceed due to obstruction till the demonstrators made a way for him at the instance of the police officer, or in other words, the police officer dispersed the crowd to make room for the Manager to pass."

Considering all that I have discussed above, I find that Sreeman Bhujel wrongfully obstructed the Manager from proceeding to his bungalow and was therefore guilty of misconduct under section 13(c)(viii) of the certified Standing Orders.

Regarding the charge under section 13(c)(18), it is admitted by the Union that the workers were holding a demonstration which, according to them, was a peaceful one. O.P.W. 2 Shri Roy Chowdhury says that he heard shouting of slogans by the demonstrators from the office where he had been sent by the Manager to close the office. The obstruction to the freedom of movement of the Manager, I have found, was inside the Tea Estate, i.e., within the office compound. The workers were therefore holding a demonstration there at that time even if they had first assembled on the P.W.D. Road. P.W. 3 Ramlal Sharma said that they had assembled on the P.W.D. Road and then started their march. Sreeman Bhujel was the Assistant Secretary of the garden unit of the Union and as such was the chief of the demonstrators holding the demonstration within the office compound and near the office when the officers were working there. This being the case, Sreeman Bhujel is also guilty of misconduct under section 13(c)(18) of the certified Standing Order.

The Union then alleges that there was no proper enquiry in respect of the charge levelled against Sreeman Bhujel. The charge-sheet (Ext. 5) was given to the workman under reference on 3rd July 1957 and the workman admitted in his reply (Ext. A), dated 9th July 1957, that he had been given the charge-sheet. That an enquiry was held was admitted by Sreeman Bhujel in his letter to the Manager, dated 9th July 1957 (Ext. D2). He stated in this letter: "After the enquiry of today which was held by your good self you asked me if I wanted anyone to represent my case to you . . . . ." No allegation was made by the workman under reference in this letter that the enquiry had not been properly held or that he had not been given opportunities to defend himself. On the contrary, he thanked the Manager for having given him opportunity to have his case represented by Shri Ramlal Sharma, the garden Secretary of the Union. So the allegation of the Union that the Company proceeded with the enquiry in a perfunctory manner is not true. It is then argued that the Manager was the prosecutor and the judge and the enquiry and the findings were therefore vitiated as offending against the principles of natural justice. Such an objection was not taken at the initial stage although the workmen concerned in this reference had all sorts of help and advice from the Union. A preliminary objection like this must be taken at the initial stage and as the workmen did not raise such objection when the enquiry was started it must be held that there was a waiver. In this garden, the Manager is the Chief Administrative Officer and the second officer was the Engineer Assistant. Both of them were witnesses to the occurrence. There was no third officer who could have held the domestic enquiry. This being the case, the Manager was the only person in authority who could have held the enquiry. Besides, the entire dispute is before this Tribunal and the Union representing the workman under reference has adduced evidence and argued the case on all points in dispute. I therefore hold that the workman under reference has not been prejudiced in any way and there has been no violation of principles of natural justice.

Another point was raised by the Union. It is the case of the Union that there was a police case against Sreeman Bhujel and some other workers and they were tried by Magistrate for offences under section 143/342, I.P.C. It is a fact that there was such a case and all the accused persons were acquitted. The acquittal was for the reason that the prosecution had failed to substantiate its case. The occurrence was on 2nd July 1957; the charge-sheet was given to Sreeman Bhujel on 3rd July 1957; the enquiry was held on 9th July 1957 and the order of dismissal was passed on 12th July 1957. But the order of acquittal passed by the Magistrate in favour of Sreeman Bhujel and others was by his judgment, dated 8th April 1959, i.e., about two years after he had been removed from service. The order of acquittal of Sreeman Bhujel for offences under section 143/342, I.P.C., cannot in any way affect the result of the domestic enquiry and there is no force in the contention of the Union that as the workman under reference was acquitted by a Magistrate, the order of dismissal passed by the Manager must be set aside and the worker must be reinstated. This Tribunal is to consider whether the order of termination of the service of Sreeman Bhujel by the Management was justified or not on the materials before me.

In view of my findings above, I hold that the termination of the service of Sreeman Bhujel was justified. He is therefore not entitled to any relief.
